Wilmington Journal

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 20, 1867.

linger." He was conducted back to his old quarters to ruminate on the probabilities of escape.

We learn that four or five negroes have been arrested and are now in Jail at Trenton, suspected as being the murderers of Col. Nethercutt, and that the authorities are in pursuit of another body who were known to cross the river at Trenton the night of the murder.

MURDER OF COL. NETHERCUTT.—Further Particulars.—Further particulars in relation to the murder of Col. Nethercutt have been received from our special reporter, who visited the scene on Monday.

Written for the Journal. A LEAF FROM THE VOLUME OF SOCIAL LIFE.

Juvenal relates, in one of his satirical poems, that there lived in Rome two families who were neighbors; one consisted of five persons of exemplary character, but so limited in their circumstances that it was difficult for them to procure the necessities of life.

Upon entering the house Colonel N's body was found lying face down, near the fire-place, and on removing it it was discovered that he had fallen with one arm so near the fire that the side of it was burned.

Word reached sheriff Colgrove at about 2 o'clock in the night, who at once summoned a posse and proceeded to the scene of horror.

Highway Robber Killed.—We learn from the Newbern Republican that Mr. Cannon Cox killed, on Thursday last, near that city, James Ward, a negro, Ward, with two other negroes, attempted to rob Mr. Cox.

PERSONAL.—We notice the names of Mr. and Mrs. D. K. McRae, formerly of this city, but now of Memphis, among the arrivals in Washington.

DEATH OF T. J. UTLEY, Esq.—We regret to hear of the death of this worthy gentleman, at his residence, in this County, on Thursday morning.

REMAINS OF MRS. KERR ON THE DEATH OF MISS MARY GORRELL.—At 11 o'clock on Tuesday morning, the Church bell rang for the funeral services of Mary, the daughter of Ralph Gorrell, Esq.

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS.—The Charlotte News, which ceased publication a short time since, has been purchased by Messrs. S. D. Hutson and H. Metzger, practical printers of this city, and its publication as a daily and weekly journal will be resumed in a few weeks.

INSTANT.—The statement in the Republican of yesterday that Col. Nethercutt was murdered by white men painted black. It is a well known fact that Col. N. was killed by nearly (if not every) white man that knew him, and it would be folly to suppose that any person who did not know him would so diabolical an act.

HICKS THE HIGHWAYMAN.—Made another, and his fourth effort to break Jail night before last, but fortunately did not succeed. He managed to break his handcuffs, and the chain by which he was chained to the floor, and to open his cell door, and when found was endeavoring to wrench the bars from one of the passage windows.

General Jubal Early is living peacefully in the mountains, a little Canadian village near Niagara Falls.

The invading editor of the London Times gets twenty-five thousand dollars a year.

The Hudson river is closed with ice from Albany to Catskill. There is a heavy ice barge at Catskill.

During November 1,115,000 bushels of corn were received at Pittsburg, and sold at 10 cents per bushel.

From the Memphis Avalanche. The Condition of Things in Arkansas.—How the Negroes Behave.

One of the editors of this paper has spent the last three weeks in Arkansas, and has seen from personal observation, the distressed condition of the country.

The negro is completely demoralized.—Most of them have largely overdrawn their wages; and, having learned this fact, many of them have abandoned their employers.
