COTTON 14 cents in Newbern.
Corns in Raleigh $1.02; per bushel.
The Episcopal ladies of Warrenton realized $100 from a Fair held last week.

Rev. George L. Winkler, a promising young divine of the Moravian Church, died recently in Salem.
The colored Baptists of Raleigh have been very successful in a Fair recently held in that city.

The Synod of the Presbyterian Church of this State meets in Raleigh on the 5th of October.
GREEN SIMMONS and Shade Fate, (refreshing names) still grace the Wayne County Board of Commissioners.

GRAVEN COUNTY has a man 73, and his wife 54, with a babe but a few months old.
GRAVEN COUNTY aggregates about 25,000 people, an increase of over 30 per cent. during the decade.

Mr. Daniel Edwards, an old citizen of Wayne county, was recently severely injured, by being thrown from a cart, that he died shortly afterwards.
The Institution for the Deaf and the Dumb and the Blind is to commence the next session about the latter part of October.

The Trustees of Greensboro Female College have contracted with parties for the reconstruction of the buildings of this institution and the work is in progress.
The Central Agricultural Fair opens at Henderson, on October 11th. Kemp B.
Battle, Esq., delivers the address on Thursday the 13th.

KALPHORN is the name of a new fertilizer, the mode of preparing which, has been recently patented by E. Whiteley & Co., of Murfreesboro, N. C.
Mr. J. J. Overby, of Raleigh, announces himself as a Conservative candidate for the seat in the next House, made vacant by the recent death of Mr. Hodge, Republican.

The Standard records a late Ku-Kluxing in Chatham county, but, in this instance, two white citizens, said to be Conservatives, and the wife of one of them, were the parties victimized.
Dr. G. W. Blackall, of the Yarrowburgh House, in Raleigh, proposes to pay one dollar a pound for the best ten pounds of butter that shall be exhibited at the next State Fair, the product of North Carolina.

The Newbern Republican tells us why its city papers come to us "in a bunch." We exonerate the postal department entirely, and charge the delay to the papers themselves.
We regret exceedingly to note the resignation of Frank W. J. Palmer, Principal of the North Carolina Institution for the Deaf, the Dumb and the Blind. He has accepted a similar position in the Ontario (Canada) Institute for the Deaf and Dumb.

REMEMBRANCE.—The publication of the Standard is resumed. When the necessary arrangements are perfected the publishers will be announced. It is hoped that the personal of the Standard will prove readers and patrons acceptable and profitable.—Standard.
AUNT ABNEY HOBBS.—This old Confederate woman is well known to many of Gen.
Lee's late army. At a protracted meeting in Franklin county, the preacher asked if she did not want religion. "No," said Aunt Abby, "it was religion enough for me when Gilliam and Rogers were elected, and Judge Rogers turned Jo. Turner out of jail."—Raleigh Sentinel.

The Standard says: It is now rumored that carpet-baggers J. C. Abbott, S. S.
Ashley and Tim F. Lee have relieved the Standard office of some of its complications and that it will be revived under the editorial auspices of S. S. Ashley and J. C. L.
Harris. This indicates that the sickness of the Standard is unto death!

IMPEACHMENT OF GOVERNOR HOLDEN.— WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—A private letter from Raleigh, N. C., received here, states that soon after the meeting of the new Legislature articles of impeachment will be preferred against Governor Holden, and that, as far as the facts are now known, no one is felt to be the author of the House of the Legislature will be secured in favor of them for trial in the Senate. He will be charged with the violation of the habitus corpus clause of the Constitution, and the laws of the Legislature of that State made in pursuance thereof, though the specifications will be included in the proposed indictment.

WILL RESIGN.—The Goldsboro Messenger says: "We are pleased to learn that Judge Thomas, after due reflection, declines holding the Fall Courts. This is as it should be. The parity and integrity of the bench should be maintained at all hazards and to this end Judge Thomas should have resigned when he was first nominated as the candidate for Congress, and before he ever entered the campaign. But even now Judge Thomas reflects credit on himself in declining to hold the courts. We know not who his successor will be, but hear the name of Judge Clark most conspicuously mentioned. Judge Thomas went to Raleigh to-day (Monday). Owing to these circumstances no Court will be held at Wilson until another Judge is appointed, which will probably be to-morrow.

TIMES OF HOLDING THE FAIRS.—Let all interested get out the following and paste it up for reference:
The Henderson Fair will take place on the 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th days of October.
The North Carolina Agricultural Society will hold its Annual Fair, at Raleigh, on the 18th, 19th, 20th and 21st days of October.
The Petersburg (Va.) Agricultural Fair will be held on the 25th, 26th, 27th and 28th days of October.
The Roanoke and Tar River Agricultural Society will hold its first "Annual Fair" at Weldon on the 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th days of November.
The Fair of the Cape Fear Agricultural Association will be held in Wilmington on the 10th, 16th, 17th and 18th days of November.
The time for the Cumberland County Fair has not yet been settled.
We have not been able to learn whether the Mecklenburg Agricultural Society will have a Fair this fall or not. It was spoken of at one time, but we have seen nothing in the papers concerning it lately.

The Raleigh and Gaston R. R. cleared, during the last year, $87,871 62.
The N. C. Baptist State Convention will hold its next session, early in November in Raleigh.
Four of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad robbers escaped from Warren county jail on last Sunday.

Two Sheriffs of Stasly, Oaslow and Duplin counties settled with the State Treasurer on Monday. Stasly paid $9,148.68, Duplin $2,504.61 and Oaslow $9,956.74.
The Sentinel is authority for the statement that "Blow-your-horn-Billy" was asked to take $1,000 of stock in a new company to run the Standard. "No," said Billy, "I am tired of printing papers for a party that can't read, where all the leaders are its dead heads."

The store of Mr. J. M. Morriset, at Scotland Neck, together with the stock, warehouse, by an incendiary fire on Saturday night. Loss about $1,000; no insurance.
Among the candidates to the Naval Academy, who recently passed at the examination in Annapolis, we notice the name of Thomas C. Whitehead, of North Carolina.
The Standard says: We are informed that Hon. C. R. Thomas, member elect to Congress from the first district, has resigned his position as Judge, and that W. J. Clarke has been appointed by the Governor to fill the vacancy.
The engineer corps, engaged in surveying the line of the Cheraw and Darlington Railroad, have arrived within seven or eight miles of Salisbury, and will complete the survey by the first of next week. The distance will be about 79 miles.

The Sentinel learns that Charles H.
Sneed, of Johnston, one of Holden's Radical pets, and a Justice of the Peace, charged with horse stealing, was tried and convicted, last week, at Smithfield, His Honor, Judge Watts, presiding.
The woman of Jo's Joseph William, the Governor's son, left the city some two weeks ago for parts unknown. He took a carpet-bag, but several large trunks, sufficient to pack up for a small family and then leave room for State bonds. It was thought Joseph had gone with a letter from Sneed to act President Grant for a "Conservative."

DEADLY EPIDEMIA. N. C. STATE FAIR.— The Navassa Gun Company at Wilmington, N. C., Hon. R. B. Bridgers, President and D. MacCree, Esq., Secretary, has authorized the offer of a special premium of one ton of gun powder for the best pair of rifles shot in the State. This is a very valuable offer, as the gun powder sells for $65 per ton at Wilmington and is one of the best artificial manures manufactured.

O. L. Borch, Esq., offers a special premium of $5 on the best pair of guns shot made in the State.—Standard.
The Raleigh Standard jumps Jim Crow about as gracefully as the traditional cow jumped over the moon. It has made the astounding discovery that there are Ku Klux in New York city; that the head center of the organization is located there, and that for no other reason than that he is a Jew, is done here in the office of the Standard, a paper published and edited by a woman, and advocating woman's rights.
We shall look, in the next issue of the Standard, for a call from the Governor for several regiments of "North Carolina State Troops" for the purpose of attacking the Ku Klux in New York city, especially those in the office of the Standard.

A COMPLIMENTARY NOTICE.—We clip the following paragraph from the Daily Bulletin, a commercial and financial journal published in New York, complimentary to one of our contributing subscribers:
"It is very rare to find a thing that establishment so far off in the country to receive so flattering a notice from a journal in the great commercial metropolis:
"One of the handsomest and most commodious dry goods stores in the South is located at the corner of East 2nd and Co., of Raleigh, N. C. The building is 63 feet 4 inches wide, with an iron front; and three stories high, with an iron front; and the store proper is 10x120 feet, and 15 feet high. The two upper stories comprise one room, and for no other reason than that he was a Confederate, shot him down in the line of duty, with great exertion kept his business running and paid their creditors dollar for dollar."

LAST OF THE TRIO.—We mentioned, one day last week, as an item of news, taken from a local paper, that an elderly man, Joe Shelton for the murder of Joel Holcombe, in August, 1864. The facts in regard to this murder, as we have them from one who knows, are as follows: This Joe Shelton, with two of his cousins, all members of Kirk's banditti that so annoyed the people of East Tennessee and Western North Carolina during the late war, went to the home of Mr. Holcombe, on Walnut Creek, in Madison county, N.
C., some time in August, 1864, where they found him mowing hay in his meadow, and for no other reason than that he was a Confederate, shot him down in the presence of his wife and another woman, and then, with Indian ferocity, scalped him.
At the same time they fired at the woman who was with Holcombe's wife, wounding her in the temple and cutting off part of her ear.
One of the three scoundrels was afterwards killed by a part of the 14th N. C. battalion of cavalry, after he had killed Maj. Roberts of that command. Another of them was hanged to death, refusing to surrender, by the burning of a house under which he had crept, the house having been set on fire by the enraged soldiers, after the death of Maj. Roberts.

This last of the trio, having volunteered from Tennessee to come to North Carolina to fight for the Union, was shot down by the heroic propensities of our people, was recognized as he passed through Bancombe, was arrested, and now lies in jail in Asheville to await his trial for murder.

And this is but a sample of the class of demons Governor Holden employed to bring in the New York Tribune, and above, abuse and oppress the people of Alabama and Caswell. What an attitude such conduct places him in before the world!

THE KU-KLUX KLAN.— Governor Holden, Senator Abbott and Judge Bourque, of North Carolina, still keep on writing to the papers their accusations, insinuations and calumnies about about who was responsible for the acknowledged fraud of saying that 4,000 or 5,000 houses in that State had been broken open by the Ku-Klux-Klan. We have no personal interest in the quarrel, and do not care upon which side the scales tilt; but it is worth our while to know that they all own it to be a lie, and that the most extravagant statement now clung to by the mysterious marauders is limited to 400 or 500. The Munchausenism originally applied to the New York Tribune, and we straightaway made the text of exciting editorials in all the Radical press, calling upon the Federal Government to exterminate the Ku-Kluxes. All of which occurred about the time of the North Carolina election, and was meant to reduce to the level of Holden and the other radicals of that State—as it did not, as the sequel showed. Governor Holden, and the other parties to the triangular newspaper deal, seem to think they are making a clean breast of it when they confess that the number of houses broken open by the Ku-Klux was only one-tenth of that at first stated. But what assurance have we that that is the truth? May not a fuller confession of some one of the three bring down the number to 40 or 50, or even 4 or 5? We have no trustworthy data about the Ku-Klux misdeeds in North Carolina or elsewhere; but it is perfectly evident that they have been grossly exaggerated for political effect. Hereafter, when we see astounding statements of the outrages committed by those gaunt and sheeted gunboats, before election, we shall know how much of them there are.

WAR IN EUROPE.

LONDON, Sept. 28.
An armistice for 48 hours was concluded at Munich on Monday, for the removal of the wounded.
A disposition to resist to the last is stronger in the West and South. The troops continue to pour into Tours.
Advices to Sunday by balloon, state that perfect order existed in the city of Paris.
The Prussians have marched into Orleans.

LONDON, Sept. 28.
There was a grand parade of the Prussians in the Court yard of Versailles yesterday. The Crown Prince was standing under the statue of Louis 14th, and distributed honors to the soldiers.
The Duke of Wurttemberg was wounded at St.
Clément.
The Prussians are deserting at Paris. The wounded were shot for insubordination.
King William dispatches to the Queen that the capitalization of treasury occurred at 11 o'clock last evening.

The reports think that Russia is preparing for war.
The army at the South is mobilized and movements towards the Turkish border are ominous.
All Democratic papers suppressed during the Empire, have resumed publication.
The people of the suburbs of Paris have returned to their homes, from whence they were driven by the lawlessness of the Mobiles.

The Times says, France may be serious and heroic in retreating to a safe territory, but is rather inconsistent with her avowed intention of maintaining the integrity of her territory for twenty kilometres, depopulated and devastated. A few courageous shop keepers alone remain in the village, tempted by the enormous profits.
The Prussians opened fire on the gunboats while passing St. Cloud, recently, killing and wounding several French.

The Prussians are erecting a battery at Sevres.
A heavy fire has been opened on them from fort D'Issy while at work.
[Special to the New York Telegram.]

LONDON, Sept. 27.
The Prussians, on entering Meaux made a requestion for horses, but remained only a short time. Their evident intention is to sweep South France.
The Capital has been removed to Poitiers.

TOURS, Sept. 28.
A dispatch just received announces that the Prussians have not entered Orleans. They came near the city, halted, and then commenced moving backward towards Paris. The civilians whom they captured, and subsequently released, say that Prince Albert recd a dispatch which suddenly changed his plans.
The Prussians entirely evacuated Fontainebleau. They imposed no tax on the citizens, but made heavy requisitions for provisions and forage.

The Prussians attacked Raon on Monday, and were repulsed.
TOURS, Sept. 27.
Julius Favre's official report concludes, from the manner in which all his efforts for peace were met by the Germans, they are determined upon conquest. Interviews were altogether useless, as he has proved. Prussia, contrary to the Press are repelling the charge that Strasburg was bombarded while crowded with women and children, and says that Ulrich has persisted in refusing to depart, and that the Prussian Foreign Office has advised the North German diplomats abroad that no Government exists at Paris. The Government do facto exists at Tours, hence Paris is left with bare military troops.

The announcement is repeated that the Emperor has revoked the decree creating a regency.
He has appointed Prince Louis Napoleon to consult with Bazaine on the peace propositions. This news has been suppressed in Berlin as far as possible.
BERLIN, Sept. 28.
The ideas broached by Thiers at Vienna, that the Prussians are insincere in the demand for Alsace and Lorraine, are ridiculed on all sides in Berlin.

MUNICH, Sept. 28.
The surrender of Strasbourg was signed at 2 o'clock this morning. 431 officers and 17,500 men laid down their arms at 8 o'clock.
MADRID, Sept. 28.
The vomito is spreading at Barcelona. The people are leaving and business is suspended.
The practical nullification of the emancipation by Cuba, is agitating the papers. They quote the advertisements from Havana journals of children for sale and contracts for slave labor, which is, practically, a continuation of slavery, and in violation of the express law of the land.

VIENNA, Sept. 28.
In the Reichsrath yesterday, confidence in the Ministry was voted by a large majority.
LONDON, Sept. 28.
The Board for a revision of the Bible has resumed its sessions.
The citizens of Metz and Charleville are fugitives. Many of them have been welcomed by Belgium.

Hegeria is threatened with bombardment by the Prussians.
The question of Italian immunity will be the subject of the plebiscite.

LONDON, Sept. 29.
The Prussian Government officially denies the presence of a national vessel in either the Black or Red Seas bearing the name of "Herta" or "Bertha."

It is understood that Alsace and Lorraine will be represented by the commission, and for the present be exempted from Federal taxation.
The Prussians have a balloon special detail Tours on Wednesday evening, stating that the Prussians are retreating towards Paris. Great confidence exists in Paris.

The Times has a special giving the following intelligence: On Tuesday the French made another sortie from Metz consisting of infantry, cavalry and artillery.— The French advanced to Arles Quatre, where they were defeated, but carried back the wounded, the dead and Prussian prisoners. The village was burned by shells.

The game which was lately in position before Strasbourg are being hurried on to Paris. Some have already arrived.
The following is the Prussian headquarters: King William is at Versailles; the Crown Prince is at Versailles; the Crown Prince of Saxony is at Grand Fremberg.

Carrier pigeons are the only means of communication between Tours and Paris.
The balloons offered to take a mark for the Prussians.
The Railway between Cluses and the Gorman border has been relaid.

Tours September 22.
The Government publishes a dispatch this morning from the French Consul at Basle, contradicting the surrender of Strasbourg.
The Prussians made three tremendous but unsuccessful assaults. The white flag was solemnly displayed for three to bury his dead, which gave rise to the rumor that the city was captured. The early fall, however, is probable, and notwithstanding the denial of the Consul at Basle, M. Thiers has a strong belief that the rumor is not groundless.

BRUSSELS, Sept. 28.
The papers deny the excitement here over the failure of the peace negotiations. The Independence Belge, referring to Bismarck's contradiction of Favre's statements, says Favre's statements must be signed by somebody more truthful than Bismarck.

Mr. B. A. HOWELL, Sheriff elect of Robeson county, having failed to present his bond as such, in the time specified, the Commissioners have elected Mr. R. McMillan to fill his place. Mr. McMillan is a sternly Conservative and will fulfill the duties of his new office well and impartially.
The bond for the office has been fixed at $40,000.

round Acid Phosphate of Lime 43; Linn. Fla-218; all of 2,000 lbs.
FLOUR—For this article there is only a light supply of flour, and the market is quiet at about former prices. There is a fair stock of all grades of Northern and Western brands, and sales are being made from store at quotations given in table.
Wheat—Wheat is very scarce and in demand.
No receipts for some time. We quote cargo at 90 cents @ 91 1/2; and a light stock of prime and 89 for oak blbls.
Corn—The Corn market we have nothing favorable to report since our last. The stock of dealers' hands is very good, and there is no demand worthy of mention. Sales are being made in the market at 21 1/2; and a light stock of nominal at 20 cents @ 21 1/2.
Are in full stock, and demand meagre. Retail quotations at 65 1/2 cents. Cargo price nominal at 47 1/2 cents. Only a light stock of $1 30 @ bushels in demand, and would bring 1 25 @ 30 on market, and demand principally for retail lots. Carolina sells at 72 1/2 cents @ bushels.
Yellow corn, medium, and white, are in stock in dealers' hands as has become generally reduced.
A good demand exists, and prices have an advance of 1/2 cent. We quote cargo at 40 cents @ 1 1/2 for Northern, and 1 1/4 for 1 1/2 for Eastern.
Supply fully fair, and we quote a moderate local demand. From store sales are being made at 1 1/2 @ cash.
