

THE DAILY JOURNAL, the oldest daily paper in North Carolina, and the only thirty-two column daily in the State, is published every morning, except Monday, at EIGHT DOLLARS A YEAR; FOUR DOLLARS SIX MONTHS; SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH FOR SHORTER PERIODS. Served by carrier to all parts of the city at SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH, or TWO DOLLARS AND TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER QUARTER.

THE WEEKLY JOURNAL, (Friday) a thirty-six column paper, TWO DOLLARS PER YEAR; THREE COPIES FIVE DOLLARS AND A HALF; FOUR COPIES SEVEN DOLLARS; FIVE COPIES EIGHT DOLLARS AND A HALF; TEN COPIES FIFTEEN DOLLARS; TWENTY COPIES TWENTY DOLLARS; THIRTY COPIES TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS.

ADVERTISING RATES (per inch of twelve solid lines of advertising type) One inch one insertion, FIFTEEN DOLLARS; two insertions, TWO DOLLARS AND A HALF; three insertions, TWO DOLLARS AND A HALF; five insertions, THREE DOLLARS AND A HALF; ten insertions, FIVE DOLLARS AND A HALF; twenty insertions, SEVEN DOLLARS AND A HALF; thirty insertions, EIGHT DOLLARS AND A HALF; fifty insertions, TEN DOLLARS AND A HALF; one hundred insertions, FIFTEEN DOLLARS AND A HALF; three months, TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS; six months, FORTY DOLLARS; one year, SEVENTY DOLLARS.

CONTRACTS FOR LONGER PERIODS AND LONGER SPACES MADE UPON LIBERAL TERMS. Address, ENGLISHMAN & SAUNDERS, Wilmington, N. C.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The small-pox is in Washington. It has broken out among the Credit Mobilier people yet, though several of them are "spotted" who are not to be "spotted."

The Northwestern Christian Advocate suggests the holding of a Paul-Wesleyan Council, which, it thinks, would be calculated to secure fraternity among the different Methodist bodies in America, and be likely to lead to a speedy union of all the branches of that great family.

Mrs. Francis L. Bartow, the mother of Gen. Bartow, of Savannah, who was killed at the first battle of Manassas, died in Chattanooga on the 18th, and was eighty years of age. She leaves two living children, Mrs. Ford, of Augusta, and Mrs. Henry K. Rees, of Miami, wife of the Rector of St. Paul's Church.

She was remarkable for her exalted character and deep-seated piety. If a man once gets his foot into the smallest little opening in the quagmire of the law, there is no knowing into what depths he may work himself or whether he will ever get out alive.

It is a matter of controversy, since 1823, in which the matter of controversy was $156 worth of land and a few cords of wood. Out of this thirty different suits have grown, some of which are carried on at great expense and much bitterness of feeling.

Okes Ames is becoming respectable, as compared with the guilty Congressmen who so indignantly denied any participation in the great Bribery fraud when first accused. One by one, from the devout Colfax down, have they been convicted, save two or three. The exposure of Vice President, if anything, was the most disgraceful. Mr. Brooks, we are glad to see, has escaped, but it has been by the skin of his teeth only—the smoke still lingers about his garments.

The astronomical expedition of the coast survey to the Rocky Mountains has proved a complete success. The increased clearness of the atmosphere on the lofty heights occupied by the astronomers made the naked eye great number of stars, including nearly all of the seventh magnitude. Nine stars were perceptible in the bowl of the Dipper, instead of three, as commonly seen. The establishment of an observatory at Sherman or some similar elevated place seems to be only a question of time.

The Colorado people—some of them are getting quite enthusiastic upon the subject of admission into the Union. The Denver Tribune has a cartoon presenting a fervent appeal, labeled "Colorado," in the act of breaking into the "union corral," an enclosure filled with beasts emblematic of the various States, each branded with the mark of its Commonwealth. Uncle Sam is shown standing ready with the brand "Colorado," while outside the corral are the other Territories represented as coyotes, jackasses, rabbits, and looking wistfully at their comfortable abode brethren within.

Stand of the best quality for the manufacture of glass exists in abundance in the Gulf States, and several preliminary efforts have been made to start glass factories, particularly in Southern Mississippi, but these attempts have so far been of no avail for want of capital. It would prove a great thing for the South could this industry be successfully established in the various States of the South, and of fruit for canning and preserving in large quantities has become so general in some sections that glass jars and glassware generally are greatly in demand. Having the fruits and the sugar, the South only needs her own glassware to obtain a monopoly of the trade in preserved fruits.

The "Germans" of this season are distinguished by two features of the Roman Carnival. One is the little stands on which the liguorous armies of our youth marched and counter-marched, which are used to convey bouquets, and the other is the chosen partner; the other little balls of paper which, on being thrown at a man, may delude him with a rain of paper snow.

The President has approved the act of Congress providing for the payment to loyal citizens of Louisiana, Va., by the military authorities of the United States.

Matchett Taylor, Esq., member of the Constitutional Convention of 1868, died at his residence in Camden county recently.

ANOTHER CLUB.

We are under obligations to a friend for a fine club of subscribers (Supply, Brunswick county.

AND STILL ANOTHER.

We return thanks to a friend at Tar Heel, in Bladen county, for a club of subscribers. We are willing to record these things every day.

AN OLD SUBSCRIBER.

Mr. Joel Hines, one of the patriots of this section and a most worthy citizen of this county, came into our office Monday and renewed his twenty-ninth annual subscription to the JOURNAL.

THE JOURNAL is proud of such long continued approval and confidence.

JOHN PUGH is being strongly pressed for the Postmaster-Generalship. Settle has had his Peru. Phillips is in the possession of exuberant requisites—his conjoint receipts as Solicitor-General and Receiver of the N. C. Railroad amounting, it is said, to ten thousand dollars.

EXECUTIVE EXPERIENCE.

Every age has its prevailing characteristics, and every man of note or station has his distinguishing mark. There was, and has been, in our history, the time when the "marks" of our men in office,—our Governors, Judges, Legislators,—were, indeed, "distinguishing."

THE GOVERNOR CALDWELL AND HIS BELIEF IN THE PROPOSITION TO RAISE THE TAXES OF NORTH CAROLINA.

The Governor proposes that the State shall issue bonds to the amount of $15,000,000, having forty years to run before falling due, with interest at the rate of four per cent. per annum for the first five years, and five per cent. for the remainder of the term.

THE PRESS ASSOCIATION. We have sometimes wondered whether the present prosperous business and political condition of Georgia is not owing in a great degree to the excellence of her State press.

THE GOVERNOR'S PROPOSITION TO RAISE THE TAXES OF NORTH CAROLINA. The Governor proposes that the State shall issue bonds to the amount of $15,000,000, having forty years to run before falling due, with interest at the rate of four per cent. per annum for the first five years, and five per cent. for the remainder of the term.

THE GOVERNOR'S PROPOSITION TO RAISE THE TAXES OF NORTH CAROLINA. The Governor proposes that the State shall issue bonds to the amount of $15,000,000, having forty years to run before falling due, with interest at the rate of four per cent. per annum for the first five years, and five per cent. for the remainder of the term.

THE GOVERNOR'S PROPOSITION TO RAISE THE TAXES OF NORTH CAROLINA. The Governor proposes that the State shall issue bonds to the amount of $15,000,000, having forty years to run before falling due, with interest at the rate of four per cent. per annum for the first five years, and five per cent. for the remainder of the term.

THE GOVERNOR'S PROPOSITION TO RAISE THE TAXES OF NORTH CAROLINA. The Governor proposes that the State shall issue bonds to the amount of $15,000,000, having forty years to run before falling due, with interest at the rate of four per cent. per annum for the first five years, and five per cent. for the remainder of the term.

THE GOVERNOR'S PROPOSITION TO RAISE THE TAXES OF NORTH CAROLINA. The Governor proposes that the State shall issue bonds to the amount of $15,000,000, having forty years to run before falling due, with interest at the rate of four per cent. per annum for the first five years, and five per cent. for the remainder of the term.

THE GOVERNOR'S PROPOSITION TO RAISE THE TAXES OF NORTH CAROLINA. The Governor proposes that the State shall issue bonds to the amount of $15,000,000, having forty years to run before falling due, with interest at the rate of four per cent. per annum for the first five years, and five per cent. for the remainder of the term.

THE GOVERNOR'S PROPOSITION TO RAISE THE TAXES OF NORTH CAROLINA. The Governor proposes that the State shall issue bonds to the amount of $15,000,000, having forty years to run before falling due, with interest at the rate of four per cent. per annum for the first five years, and five per cent. for the remainder of the term.

THE GOVERNOR'S PROPOSITION TO RAISE THE TAXES OF NORTH CAROLINA. The Governor proposes that the State shall issue bonds to the amount of $15,000,000, having forty years to run before falling due, with interest at the rate of four per cent. per annum for the first five years, and five per cent. for the remainder of the term.

THE GOVERNOR'S PROPOSITION TO RAISE THE TAXES OF NORTH CAROLINA. The Governor proposes that the State shall issue bonds to the amount of $15,000,000, having forty years to run before falling due, with interest at the rate of four per cent. per annum for the first five years, and five per cent. for the remainder of the term.

THE GOVERNOR'S PROPOSITION TO RAISE THE TAXES OF NORTH CAROLINA. The Governor proposes that the State shall issue bonds to the amount of $15,000,000, having forty years to run before falling due, with interest at the rate of four per cent. per annum for the first five years, and five per cent. for the remainder of the term.

THE GOVERNOR'S PROPOSITION TO RAISE THE TAXES OF NORTH CAROLINA. The Governor proposes that the State shall issue bonds to the amount of $15,000,000, having forty years to run before falling due, with interest at the rate of four per cent. per annum for the first five years, and five per cent. for the remainder of the term.

THE GOVERNOR'S PROPOSITION TO RAISE THE TAXES OF NORTH CAROLINA. The Governor proposes that the State shall issue bonds to the amount of $15,000,000, having forty years to run before falling due, with interest at the rate of four per cent. per annum for the first five years, and five per cent. for the remainder of the term.

LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

SENATE.

SATURDAY, JAN. 25, 1873.

Mr. Ayres introduced a bill for the better regulation of the militia, and the bill was taken up, and ordered to be printed and made the special order for Tuesday next.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

SENATE.

SATURDAY, JAN. 25, 1873.

Mr. Ayres introduced a bill for the better regulation of the militia, and the bill was taken up, and ordered to be printed and made the special order for Tuesday next.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

SENATE.

SATURDAY, JAN. 25, 1873.

Mr. Ayres introduced a bill for the better regulation of the militia, and the bill was taken up, and ordered to be printed and made the special order for Tuesday next.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

SENATE.

SATURDAY, JAN. 25, 1873.

Mr. Ayres introduced a bill for the better regulation of the militia, and the bill was taken up, and ordered to be printed and made the special order for Tuesday next.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

SENATE.

SATURDAY, JAN. 25, 1873.

Mr. Ayres introduced a bill for the better regulation of the militia, and the bill was taken up, and ordered to be printed and made the special order for Tuesday next.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

SENATE.

SATURDAY, JAN. 25, 1873.

Mr. Ayres introduced a bill for the better regulation of the militia, and the bill was taken up, and ordered to be printed and made the special order for Tuesday next.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

SENATE.

SATURDAY, JAN. 25, 1873.

Mr. Ayres introduced a bill for the better regulation of the militia, and the bill was taken up, and ordered to be printed and made the special order for Tuesday next.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.