

WEEKLY PROGRESS. THURSDAY MORNING, JAN. 26, 1860.

BY J. L. PENNINGTON.

Advertisements in the Weekly Progress. The following are the only Rates of Advertising in the Weekly Progress, to all save those who contract by the year and advertise in both weekly and daily papers:

One square (12 lines minimum) one insertion, $1.00. Subsequent insertions, each, 50 cents.

Look to It.—We have been requested to call the attention of the town authorities to the fact that the Ordinance prohibiting negroes from congregating about shops or lounging in stores is constantly being violated in the vicinity of the Court House.

Disturbances in Canada.—It is well known that Canada is and has been for many years the great asylum for fugitive slaves, and we rejoice to see that "her Majesty's subjects" in that province, who have taught the negro to believe that he is as good or better than the white man, are beginning to reap the fruits of their folly.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

"Look at Home." Whenever we see zealous and fanatics going a long way to look up distress with which to commiserate we are wont to say, "look at home."

Hot Bed Philanthropy.—When John Brown lay wounded in prison, while he was being well cared for, both temporally and spiritually; while he was furnished by the authorities of Virginia with everything he needed or wanted, from chicken broth to his darling New York Tribune, numerous loud-voiced Abolitionists in the North and West were sending him delicacies, good books, religious advice, requests for his autograph, newspaper extracts, Russian sables, Radway's Ready Relief, and bandages for his wounds.

Non-Intercourse.—The New York Independent, at the past week, reports as follows of the dry goods trade of New York:

Business Brisk.—There are just now a larger number of vessels than usual in our waters, and the activity about our docks and wharves indicate a visible and marked increase in our shipping business.

Posonous Liquors.—Dr. Hiram Cox, official inspector of liquors, in Cincinnati, in a recent report on the adulteration of liquors, relates the following:

Opposition Meeting in Jones.—We are requested to state that a meeting of the opposition party will take place at the Court House in Trenton, on the 4th of February for the purpose of appointing delegates to attend a State Convention to be held in Raleigh, on the 22d of February next, the object being to select a Candidate for Governor, to be voted for at the ensuing August election.

Severe on Gilmer.—The Fayetteville Observer says that the following resolution was passed by a recent democratic meeting in Bladen County.

Hand Him Round.—A gentleman, that is, a man, tall and straight, with black hair and a fine moustache, got upon the train at Goldboro a short time since, on his way to this place, upon examination by the conductor, was found to be minus a ticket, also its equivalent, whereupon the conductor took his shawl in pawn until his passage could be paid.

Styles of Women.—An English lady, Mrs. Murray, has been voyaging among the Spanish Islands, and has written a book descriptive of the women she meets, particularly at Santa Cruz, the capital of Tenerife.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Non-Intercourse.—The New York Independent, at the past week, reports as follows of the dry goods trade of New York:

Business Brisk.—There are just now a larger number of vessels than usual in our waters, and the activity about our docks and wharves indicate a visible and marked increase in our shipping business.

Posonous Liquors.—Dr. Hiram Cox, official inspector of liquors, in Cincinnati, in a recent report on the adulteration of liquors, relates the following:

Opposition Meeting in Jones.—We are requested to state that a meeting of the opposition party will take place at the Court House in Trenton, on the 4th of February for the purpose of appointing delegates to attend a State Convention to be held in Raleigh, on the 22d of February next, the object being to select a Candidate for Governor, to be voted for at the ensuing August election.

Severe on Gilmer.—The Fayetteville Observer says that the following resolution was passed by a recent democratic meeting in Bladen County.

Hand Him Round.—A gentleman, that is, a man, tall and straight, with black hair and a fine moustache, got upon the train at Goldboro a short time since, on his way to this place, upon examination by the conductor, was found to be minus a ticket, also its equivalent, whereupon the conductor took his shawl in pawn until his passage could be paid.

Styles of Women.—An English lady, Mrs. Murray, has been voyaging among the Spanish Islands, and has written a book descriptive of the women she meets, particularly at Santa Cruz, the capital of Tenerife.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Our Washington City Correspondence. WASHINGTON CITY, JAN. 23, 1860. Editor Progress:—"No Speaker yet elected!" Are your readers as weary of reading this weekly announcement as I am of writing it? It is no easy or pleasant task, in the absence of legitimate legislation which affords material and scope for the pen of a correspondent, to write a readable dull and prosey article of news, must be, in fact, my excuse.

Our Grocers, though not doing as large a business as we could wish, are doing well. The amount of sales at wholesale are now much larger than at any former period, and this branch of trade must still increase, for the increasing wants of the citizens of Groven and the neighboring counties and the demand from the interior counties, whose people are pressing forward to Newbern for a market, (it being the nearest point at which they can reach water.)

Opposition Meeting in Jones.—We are requested to state that a meeting of the opposition party will take place at the Court House in Trenton, on the 4th of February for the purpose of appointing delegates to attend a State Convention to be held in Raleigh, on the 22d of February next, the object being to select a Candidate for Governor, to be voted for at the ensuing August election.

Severe on Gilmer.—The Fayetteville Observer says that the following resolution was passed by a recent democratic meeting in Bladen County.

Hand Him Round.—A gentleman, that is, a man, tall and straight, with black hair and a fine moustache, got upon the train at Goldboro a short time since, on his way to this place, upon examination by the conductor, was found to be minus a ticket, also its equivalent, whereupon the conductor took his shawl in pawn until his passage could be paid.

Styles of Women.—An English lady, Mrs. Murray, has been voyaging among the Spanish Islands, and has written a book descriptive of the women she meets, particularly at Santa Cruz, the capital of Tenerife.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

Resignation of Judge Caldwell.—We learn that the Hon. J. Caldwell, of Rowan, has resigned his office as Judge of the Superior Court of Law and Equity for this State.

The people of our sister city are much increased that the horse is to be headed North, thus turning the tail towards that place. They regard it as an insult and are very urgent that it be changed. Quite a spury correspondence is being carried on in relation to it.

On Monday Judge Douglas is expected to address the Senate, when we will learn what he bids for the Charleston nomination. It is a pity that the people do not take the control of these affairs in their own hands and trust less to selfish politicians.

Washington is exceedingly gay and one is perplexed to decide which invitation to accept when so many are given. Mrs. Senator Sill and Mrs. Gwin give delightful matinees every Saturday which are universally attended. Mr. Sill, of N. C., attracted considerable notice as the matinee of Mrs. Gwin, and seemed to be quite a favorite among the beauties present.

TELL YOUR WIFE.—If you are in any trouble or quandary, tell your wife—that is, if you have one—all about it at once. Ten to one for her invention will give you directly sooner than all your logic. The wit of woman is her most precious gift. Her instincts are quicker and keener than her reason. Counsel with your wife, or your mother or sister, and be assured light will flash upon your darkness. Woman are too commonly adjudged as void of intellect in all but purely domestic affairs.

THE SONS OF TEMPERANCE AND THE PRESIDENT.—The Washington Constitution thus describes an interview of the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance with the President of the United States:

Yesterday the Sons of Temperance, representing a very large and most worthy portion of the people of the United States, paid their respects to President Buchanan. Upwards of one hundred and fifty gentlemen, with a freshness and healthiness of aspect and vigor of mind, were present.

DANCES IN WASHINGTON.—An Ohio letter gives his views of several dances which he lately witnessed at a ball in Washington. He says: "The want of variety in this metropolitan dancing was, however, fully made up by the fancy things such as the waltz and polka. These were abominably barbarous. The old-fashioned waltz, the morality of which even Byron called in question, is here ignorant as altogether too cold and distant."

TRANSMISSION OF MONEY BY MAIL.—It is stated that the Senate Post-Office Committee have under consideration a plan or system of greater security for the transmission of money and valuable packets by mail.

THE LAWRENCE CALAMITY.—The fund for the sufferers at the Lawrence Mills has reached the sum of about $25,000, of which not less than four thousand have been raised in New York City. The inquiry at Lawrence continues, and the calamity appears now to be generally attributed to defective iron pillars supporting the floor.

READ IT.—Don't neglect to read the admirable letter "Shirley" from Washington City. It shows up Congress and life in Washington as they are.

NEED A TOWN HALL.—The Raleigh Daily Press apprises the citizens of the Metropolitan that they need a town hall. We knew that fifteen years ago.

ACCIDENT.—On Monday last, Mr. Wm. H. Giver, a sailmaker, fell from the top of a ship's mast in Norfolk, and was badly injured. The fall was nearly thirty feet.

HEAVY TRAVEL.—The High Point Reporter represents the travel over the North Carolina Railroad as unusually heavy recently.

FRIDAY MORNING, JAN. 27, 1860.

Business Brisk.—There are just now a larger number of vessels than usual in our waters, and the activity about our docks and wharves indicate a visible and marked increase in our shipping business.

Opposition Meeting in Jones.—We are requested to state that a meeting of the opposition party will take place at the Court House in Trenton, on the 4th of February for the purpose of appointing delegates to attend a State Convention to be held in Raleigh, on the 22d of February next, the object being to select a Candidate for Governor, to be voted for at the ensuing August election.

Severe on Gilmer.—The Fayetteville Observer says that the following resolution was passed by a recent democratic meeting in Bladen County.