

high and dry, when the Railroad is completed to Hagerstown. Our fate will then be sealed. Now is the time to improve this place, and if the present year does not manifest an enterprising spirit, it will not do it in other years to come. We talk too much about the matter; let us act out what we wish, and then we will show our sincerity in regard to home enterprise.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.
To make this department of our paper more interesting to our customers, we request that information from our friends in all the Upper Districts of this county.

A temporary relief from dust. The weather is delightful. The roads are excellent for driving. Flowers are the most humanizing ornaments. Now is the time to gather and plant them. CAR loads of lumber continue to arrive in our village and meet with ready sale. We understand that Mr. J. B. Kunkel, of Catoctin Furnace, is about putting up two or three new houses, and also a barn.

THE MARKET.—No perceptible change in the market since our last issue. Heavy operations in Lumber and Grain. DRY Goods are going off brisk, and the retail trade is active.

A slow set—a hen's set. How to consume time—eat Dates. Four marriage notices were read at St. Mary's Church, near the College, last Sunday. It would be strange, passing strange, indeed, if this town with all its advantages of location, good soil, healthy climate and mineral resources of boundless extent, did not improve—rapidly improve, with educational institutions, a Railroad and good market at its doors.

RAIN.—The weather during the forepart of the week was bleak, cold and chilly.—On Thursday morning we had a fine rain shower which completely saturated the earth—which had become dry and dusty.

Mr. Smoler (Lutheran Minister, formerly of Carroll county, in this State, who married the eldest daughter (Annie) of Martin Eichelberger, of Fredericktown District or Parish, South Carolina, where he has established a flourishing Academy, with 100 pupils. He writes that he is delighted with the country. It is a very healthy region up near the mountain, and the only thing they miss is ice. Young chickens and green peas and all the fruits of the season, apples, peaches, etc., they have in abundance. The family like their new home, but still have a kind remembrance of the "Old Home" on Owings' creek.

We hear that the Rev. James B. Ayres, late of the Dunbar Female Institute of Winchester, Virginia, intended to become the Pastor of the Protestant Episcopal Church for the Parish composed of Catoctin Furnace, Mechanicstown and Libertytown. It is said he will soon locate at the Furnace or this place, and make a serious effort to build an Episcopal Church at Mechanicstown, in which he will be largely aided by friends in the Dioceses of Maryland and Virginia.

Fompson's (Cotton) has not thought fit to honor our space little village with a visit, and of course they will not get any of the dimes and dollars the boys have been laying up for the first show that comes along.

Within the past five years John Hopkins, Esq., of Baltimore, a wealthy and enterprising citizen of that city, has built twenty-one fine, substantial brick warehouses in the business centre of that city, besides smaller buildings in more remote sections. And now we hear that Mr. Hopkins intends to contribute liberally to the erection of a Protestant Episcopal Church in this town, and Mr. W. W. Corcum, the eminent retired Banker of Washington city, contemplates doing likewise.

From the proceedings of the meeting of the Canal Board held at Cumberland on Thursday last, we learn that the general office of the Company will be removed to Frederick.

THE NEW HOTEL. We learn that Mr. Oliver Grimes, of Westminster, has undertaken the project of erecting a large Hotel here for the accommodation of the passengers on the W. M. R. R., and the summer sojourners and "birds of passage" from the cities during the hot season. We wish the enterprise great success, and trust it will remunerate the proprietor for the energy he has displayed in commencing the undertaking. It will be located near the Catholic Church in the central part of the town, in close proximity to the Railroad.

IRON AND COPPER ORE. We understand that some fine varieties of a valuable and superior quality of iron ore has recently been made by Mr. Jacob Reed, Master Miner, on the land of Mr. J. B. Kunkel near Catoctin Furnace, the particulars of which we will notice more fully in our next. Mr. Geo. Harbaugh, of Harbaugh's Valley, has also presented to us a very rich specimen of copper ore, found on his land near Sabillasville, etc., in Adams county, Pa. It will be about the size and capacity of Chew & Stockdale's warehouse in this place. As there are two good turnpikes to within a mile of this locality and the rich country surrounding it, ought to make a warehouse at this point on the W. M. R. R. a paying institution.

NEW WAREHOUSE. We understand that the Hon. John Lee Chapman, of Baltimore, has it in contemplation to speedily erect a New Warehouse on the Summit of the Mountain, near the Monterey Springs, for the reception and storage of produce from the vicinity of Pikesville and Waynesboro', in Franklin county, and the upper end of Hampton Valley and Libertytown, etc., in Adams county, Pa. It will be about the size and capacity of Chew & Stockdale's warehouse in this place. As there are two good turnpikes to within a mile of this locality and the rich country surrounding it, ought to make a warehouse at this point on the W. M. R. R. a paying institution.

At a social gathering at the residence of Frederick McIntire, on the 15th ultimo, on the occasion of naming his residence, near Emmitsburg, he was decided to name it "Rose Grove." Mr. McIntire's hospitality is hard to beat, as any of his visitors will bear testimony, particularly on "Boxes O'eva."

"To-day I received a paper called the CLARION. I think I must congratulate you upon having such a paper conducted so near you. I found so much news in it. I believe I read every word in it, even sales and advertisements—everything appeared so natural—but was surprised to see Sister CAROLLETTE'S death. I thought she would have lived very many years; but she was ripe for Heaven.

Please send me the CLARION often; I will lend it as a friend. The above is an extract from a friend's letter in Nebraska, to whom I send your paper.

The Western Maryland Railroad is rapidly progressing in the direction of Sabillasville. Our friends in Harbaugh's Valley—one of the most delightful spots in the county—will hear the iron horse "snorting" up along the meanderings of Owings' creek about the 4th of July next. "Westward, ho!" is the motto. President Booke is pushing things with all the celerity imaginable.

SALES TO COME OFF.
TO-DAY, at 10 o'clock, A. M., a Stable near the Engine House on the Western Maryland R. R. in this place will be sold at public sale.

To-day, in Eyles's Valley, at the residence of Adam Bowser, at 10 o'clock, A. M., John M. Bell, Constable, will sell Fifty acres of Land and a Dwelling House. See advertisement.

On Wednesday, the 10th of May, in the Public Square at Emmitsburg, at 1 o'clock, P. M., Joseph E. Elder, as Executor of the estate of Lewis Elder, deceased, will sell land and houses as advertised in to-day's paper.

Hon. John Ritchie, M. C. of this District, has appointed a son of J. Brooke Boyle, of Westminster, Carroll county, a Cadet to West Point.

As showing what this Red section can come to by good farming, we state that the farm of Mr. Wm. C. Landers, of Owings' creek, and Lewis Motter and the institution of St. Joseph's on Tom's creek, produce as good crops as the rich limestone lands of Carroll's Manor.

The young men of Emmitsburg having purchased the Gettysburg instruments are about organizing a Band in the former place.

The gravel train during the last four or five days have been making considerable a racket in hauling up Railroad ties and bridge timber.

Iron and coal have advanced in price. The former it is said has increased $10 per ton.

There are more "ornery, no 'count" dogs about than may be found in any other place of double its size between here and Constantinople.

A soprano musquito, the first of the season, hummed into our sanctum Thursday evening, after the rain, and presented her bill, which not being due at this season, was promptly dishonored, and the warbler quashed.

A piano tuner named Andreus Wenden, who had been here about a week, fixing up the key notes of ivory and mahogany, undertook to warble a delightful ditty at Gilbert's Hotel last Thursday night, but his music was of the deep guttural order, which required the presence of a constable to prevent the Nightingale from soaring too high in his song notes. For fear of being lodged in jail for his pranks, the singer, after paying his bill under compulsion, "flew his kite" for other parts, where music is better appreciated.

During the past year, 1870, I had the privilege of visiting thirty Sunday Schools in this vicinity, and I convinced myself anew of the blessedness and importance of this kind of christian work; in many instances its fruits are manifestly to be seen, and why should it not be? We need not wait for others to witness the fruits after we are dead and gone. May the Lord enable the hearts of our churches to be zealous workers for him in this inviting field to give themselves to Jesus at once. My own experience has been most encouraging, and I trust that during the present year we will all devote ourselves with new zeal to this great work of teaching children the way of life. JAMES CHEEVER, the children's friend.

The times, we are informed, were very "tight" about Sam's creek and Rocky Ridge, in Carroll county, from the 1st to the 15th of April. We hope they are getting easier now. The prospect of a good crop we trust will have a tendency to make an alteration in the "situation."

We understand that many farmers and mechanics in the vicinity of Frederick are going to assist Mr. Jones Surgen in rebuilding his house lately destroyed by fire. The situation of Mr. Shearer and family calls for the sympathy of the public—and more. We trust our well to do citizens in and around Mechanicstown, and the country at large, will extend to him "material aid" to enable him to recuperate from his severe loss, and rebuild the family edifice.

NEW COPPER MINE.—A new copper mine is about being opened on the farm of Mr. Wesley Repp, about three miles north-west of this place. Mr. Wilson R. Boyd, of Baltimore, has leased the ground, and for some days past a few persons have been engaged in opening the mine. Abundance of copper has been found near the surface, and the present working is to see if it extends far under ground. If it does, we are told the mine will be vigorously worked. Mr. Boyd informs us that he expects several influential men and capitalists of Baltimore to in a few days to make an examination, and if the "reporting" gives satisfaction, a company will at once be formed and the mine worked on an extensive scale.

At a social gathering at the residence of Frederick McIntire, on the 15th ultimo, on the occasion of naming his residence, near Emmitsburg, he was decided to name it "Rose Grove." Mr. McIntire's hospitality is hard to beat, as any of his visitors will bear testimony, particularly on "Boxes O'eva."

Our Baltimore Correspondence.
BALTIMORE, April 20, 1871.

The chilly, and at times murky, weather of the past few days, following so closely in the wake of the visitation of summer we had had seems to have had a correspondingly depressing effect upon the city, and for several days dullness and apathy have ruled supreme. The City Council and the Citizens have each, however, had their little excitements. The former is now engaged in one of its characteristic legislative muddles over a proposition on the part of one of the gas companies to renew the contract of last year, for lighting the city, at a still higher rate.

The Knights and daughters of St. Crispin have been on a strike for several days, caused by the refusal of several hosiery and shoe manufacturers to employ any women in their establishments who were members of the order of Daughters of St. Crispin. They have receded, however, and the strikers have resumed work.

Col. Jerome Bonaparte has just returned to his home in Baltimore from the late French-Prussian war. He is now about forty years of age, tall and handsome. The Colonel is the recipient of quite a number of decorations for his many acts of valor. The Sultan of Turkey, in 1865, presented him with the Order of the Medjidie, and the Emperor Napoleon, his imperial relative, made him a Knight of the Legion of Honor. The Queen of England also recognized his services in the Crimean War, and presented him with one of the Crimean medals. He has also been decorated with the Medaille d'Italia, and the King of Sardinia decorated him with the order of Military Valor.

George Francis Train delivered a lecture at the Concordia Opera House last night to an audience mostly composed of empty benches. His subject was "Everything and Everybody," but it was a sad misnomer; it should have been "Nothing and Nobody." He extemporized for about two and a half hours and seemed harassed with the fear that his lecture would not be copied into the papers.

Poor unfortunate Jones' Falls is again threatened with diversion. Another place for accomplishing this end has been suggested and the City Council has been memorialized on the subject. The City Surveyor has sent in his bill for work done on the Falls improvement, from the 23rd of January to the 15th of April. It amounts to $2,305.

Gold-fishing is at its height, and daily thousands of these devotees go out to the Relay on the B. & O. R. R., Gwynn's Falls, Steamer and Herring Run, and revel in sports piscatorial. Yesterday afternoon two gentlemen caught sixty-one and a half dozen with hook and line at the Relay House.

Our lovers of art are delighted at the annual exhibition of Paintings by Baltimore artists. The exhibition attracts large crowds and will be continued until further notice. It is held at Butler & Ferrigo's Gallery, corner of Charles and Fayette Sts. The Knights Templars are making very extensive preparations for the grand triennial convocation of their Order, which convenes in Baltimore on the 20th of September, and promises to be the greatest demonstration of the kind ever held in this country. It is thought that in the grand procession that usually inaugurates the convocation there will be nearly ten thousand Knights in the exceedingly rich and beautiful uniform of the Order.

On the 8th instant, at Catoctin Furnace, MARY ELLEN, daughter of Anthony and Ellen Cagle, aged 17 months and 10 days.
