

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

To make this department of our paper more interesting to our customers, we request...

We call attention to the County Commissioners' meeting on the 8th of May. They will assemble for the purpose of examining and passing accounts to be placed on the general Levy of 1871.

On Wednesday, the 10th of May, in the Public Square at Emmitsburg, at 1 o'clock, P. M., Joseph E. Elder, as Executor of the estate of Lewis Elder, deceased, will sell land and houses as advertised in to-day's paper.

It commenced raining on Thursday morning last, and during the day quite a quantity fell, which made the air chilly and cold.

The Rev. J. DUEY MOORE will preach in the M. E. Church of this place, next Sabbath evening at this usual hour, 7 1/2 o'clock.

Mr. John Eigenbrode, residing near Franklin Mills, met with a severe accident on Wednesday, the 26th inst. While harrowing a piece of ground, one of the horses attached to the harrow became frightened and commenced kicking. Mr. Eigenbrode in attempting to quiet the animal, was thrown from the horse he was riding, which, becoming entangled in the harness, fell upon him. While in this position Mr. E. received several kicks, one above the left eye cutting a long and deep gash, and several upon the left arm, thereby disabling him for some time.

A dog supposed to be mad was shot in Franklinville, on Wednesday, 26th inst.

WEDNESDAY'S CELEBRATION. Wednesday, the 26th inst., being Anniversary Day, a day set apart to be observed by the Odd Fellows throughout this State.

We understand that the difference existing between Mr. John Rouzer and the Western Maryland Railroad Company, in regard to damages for running the road through his property, has been amicably arranged and both parties are satisfied.

We return our thanks to correspondents for favors received, and respectfully solicit a continuance.

The boys of Mechanicstown have been amusing themselves during the past week whistling "Bob White." Partridges are going to be plentiful this year.

The country begins to look decidedly pleasant. The grass is green, the foliage is green, the mountain begins to look green; and for a time the rank verdure, youth and beauty will shine forth. Now is the time to enjoy nature—out then into the woods and fields—and listen to the whirring of the pheasants and the shrill notes of the soaring lark.

We ask attention to our advertising favors. From this time forward the CLARION will keep its columns in this regard up to the full measure of prosperity. As soon as our "ads" become too plethoric, we will enlarge the area of our space.

DEATH OF HON. ANTHONY KIMMEL. Hon. Anthony Kimmel, of Ringgold, Frederick county, Maryland, died at his residence on Tuesday morning, the 25th inst., after an attack of paralysis. Gen. Kimmel was extensively known throughout the State of Maryland, and particularly in Baltimore city, where he was born of the name of the Rev. Mr. Dunsong, under the training of the Rev. Mr. Dunsong.

His remains were interred in the old family Tanker Church graveyard, corner of Lombard and Green streets, Baltimore.

INTERESTING FESTIVAL.

The Ladies of Mechanicstown intend holding a Festival some time in May, in Odd Fellows Hall, for the purpose of refurbishing the Hall in a style to accommodate the different Societies which meet within its apartment. The Ladies of the Good Templars will form a Committee to receive contributions in aid of the Festival, to be left with any of the members. We hope this appeal will reach the hearts of the people and be liberally responded to.

Capt. Martin Rouzer is erecting another new house on North or Church street, nearly opposite the Catholic Church. The current of improvement for the present seems to be settling in that section of the town. Why don't the Mountain side, Main street or Carroll street wake up?

The Black-McKaig trial being over, we wish to be the next exciting question for the consideration and contemplation of the people of the county?

As soon as our town grows a little more and spreads out in City style, we will enlarge the proportions of the CLARION. At present it is large enough for all the business doing.

The New York Sun says "an honest Congressman is the noblest work of God." The Sun is a racy paper, outspoken, independent and free. See prospectus in another part of to-day's paper.

NEW BARN.—Mr. John Krom, residing between this place and Graceham, is about building a new barn.

Young women should set good examples, for the young men are always following them.

DEATH OF AN OLD SOLDIER.—We regret to announce the death of Mr. Casper Cline, an Old Defender of the War of 1812, who died of pneumonia, on the 18th inst., at his residence, on the farm recently purchased by him from the Administratrix of the late Gideon Cronise, near Frederick, after a brief illness, aged about 78 years.

We call the attention of those of our readers who wish to subscribe for a live New York paper, to the Weekly Sun, edited by Charles A. Dana, Esq., formerly Assistant Secretary of War in the days of President Lincoln and Edwin Stanton. Mr. Dana is a forcible and bold writer. The "Sun" is independent and has the largest Daily circulation of any paper in New York City. See advertisement.

We understand that the difference existing between Mr. John Rouzer and the Western Maryland Railroad Company, in regard to damages for running the road through his property, has been amicably arranged and both parties are satisfied.

We return our thanks to correspondents for favors received, and respectfully solicit a continuance.
