Local Items.

Creeperstown Items.
The farmers of this section have become desperate and are making a fierce raid upon the extremely tall, heavy and handsome corn which is reported to be the best yield in years.
Mrs. Elias Groshon is visiting her son Wm. Groshon at Mountandale.
The attendance at the public school at this place is reported to be larger than usual at this early date as the school increases when the winter months come.
Mr. Geo. Hann and son Paul and grandson Franklin Hann spent Tuesday with his daughter at Utica Mills.
Mr. Dory Angel and family visited friends in Graceham last week.
Mrs. Roy Speak visited her aunt Mrs. Chas. Redmond near Graceham last week where she attended an old-time apple butter boiling.
Mrs. Sue Keetch who had been nursing her brother Mr. Brady Free of Frederick who was much indisposed, has returned home reporting Mr. Free to be convalescent.
Mr. John Remsburg who formerly lived on the farm of Mr. Ross Remsburg near town, has removed to the farm of Mr. A. S. Long, the one formerly cultivated by Mr. Ernest Long, deceased.
Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Hankey and son I. L. Hankey Jr., and Miss Mary Kolb all left last Thursday for quite an extensive tour through Pennsylvania and New York.
Mrs. Rob't Ogle and Miss Della Speak were the guests of Mrs. Annie Stately of New Midway on Thursday.
Mr. P. A. Hann has been in Baltimore for several days this week selling the articles manufactured by P.A. Hann & Co.
Mr. and Mrs. Grason Stevens spent Saturday with friends in Frederick.
Miss Estella Fisher has been spending some time in Waynesboro.
Mrs. John Snook and children of Baltimore are visiting her mother Mrs. David Hoffman.
Mr. Blaine Hoffman is reported to be very ill at this writing.
Messrs Roy Hankey and Harvey Werking visited friends in Waynesboro last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Miller were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Fisher on Sunday last.
Supreme Deputy J. T. McCune of Hagerstown, visited the Fraternal Mystic Circle No. 969 and reports it in a prosperous and flourishing condition, and quite a few will be added to the list of members at the next initiation.
The scenery in general at this time is a real treat to the lovers of nature. The green, red and golden hues of the foliage, the red and golden beaked trees of fruit, the piles of golden corn and the long rows of corn fodder making a resemblance to the encampment of soldiers with a beautiful background furnished by the dear old Blue Ridge Mountains, makes it an ideal autumn sketch.
Mrs. Mary Broom of Columbia, Md., has been the guest of Mrs. Geo. Heffner and brother, Mr. John Snook; also paying flying visits to friends here.
Mrs. L. T. Warner, Mildred and Emory Warner were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Barton Warner on Sunday.

Appointed Bailiff.
Owing to the resignation of Mr. Evers Weddle as bailiff to the town commissioners, Mr. Jos. E. Willhide has been appointed to the position. Mr. Willhide at present is somewhat handicapped in cases of trouble, he having accidentally cut himself across the back of his right hand with a corn chopper. The leaders of the first and second fingers were severed and at present his hand is very sore.

GRAND JURY TELLS OF WORK IN REPORT.

After being in session for 15 days the grand jury Wednesday night of last week handed in its report.
The report of the jury in full follows: To the Honorable, the Judges of the Circuit Court for Frederick county, Maryland:
The grand jury for the September term, 1911, having completed its duties, begs leave to submit report as follows:
We convened on September 4, and have been in session for 15 days, during which time we examined 280 witnesses, found 62 presentments and indictments and dismissed 82 cases.
We had several trifling cases brought before us that should have been disposed of by the magistrates. This took much of our time and cost unnecessary money and we recommend that the magistrates use full power given them by law, instead of holding an offender for the action of the grand jury, simply because he desires a jury trial, when the offense he committed does not entitle him to a jury trial under the law.
We also recommend that fire escapes be erected in the rear of the Female High School, East Church street, Frederick, as there are now over 250 children on the second floor who would have no means of escape, should there be a fire in the hall below. The janitor should be on duty during school hours when fire is in the furnace, so as to be close at hand if anything goes wrong. Fire drills should be held at least semi-monthly, so as to keep the children in practice in leaving the building in order. Improved push fasteners should be placed on all exit doors, as fasteners now in place are obsolete and difficult to open in case of panic.
We recommend the following safeguards to life and health in the City Opera House:
Fire escapes to be bolted tight to building, (some are now coming loose), a small iron fence four feet high, projecting four feet out from building at west end of west exit doors on north and south sides of house, first floor, so as to prevent (in case of panic) persons leaving said exits from being crushed to death by the overhanging fire escapes dropping on them, should they be loaded with people leaving the house at the same time.
The toilet rooms should be ventilated and made sanitary so as to fit them for use.
All exit doors, including front, should have modern push openers put on to replace the ones now in use, which are difficult to operate and some of which are broken at the present time and which are not open at all without the use of a screw driver.
These are important things and should have immediate attention.
We find a nuisance is committed nightly by improper conduct and vile language in front of the Opera House. A policeman should be stationed in front of the building and order and cleanliness preserved. Such a disorderly and noisy crowd congregates on the outside almost nightly, that many persons are required to pass on the other side. This should be remedied, hence we call attention.
For the benefit of public health, we recommend that the Board of Health require the proper authorities to examine all the cellars throughout the town, and see that all are put in a cleanly condition, thereby preventing disease.
Although not required by law, we visited Montevue Hospital and found buildings and grounds in excellent condition. Cleanliness seems to be the motto. Superintendent S. U. Gregg takes a personal interest in the comfort and welfare of all the patients. The hospital department on the fifth floor reflects great credit on the head nurse, who counts trouble nothing in caring for the unfortunate sick. The building for colored people is as clean as is possible for such a place to be kept. Most of the inmates are given outdoor exercise daily when the weather permits. All these things show the superintendent is discharging his duties faithfully. Most of the wood-work inside and out of main building is suffering for paint. At present there are 322 inmates confined in this institution.
As required by law we visited the Frederick county jail, and found contained therein 17 state prisoners and nine corporation prisoners. We found building in fair condition. We would recommend that toilet rooms be kept in a cleaner condition than at present; also that toilets be repaired at once, as three are out of order at the present time. Hot water should be conveyed in pipes to toilet rooms as this is very necessary for cleanliness.
We would further recommend that the smoking of cigarettes by prisoners be discontinued. We found some newspapers and several match boxes laying on the window sill, which should not be allowed on account of danger of fire. Exclusive of these things, we found the building as near up to standard as could be expected under existing conditions.
We have left no stone unturned so far as investigating all reports of violations of the law is concerned.
We have now concluded the performance of our duties. Having nothing further claiming our attention, we ask to be discharged.
Respectfully submitted,
CASPER E. CLINE,
Foreman.

LUKE McHENRY DEAD.

Prominent Editor and Politician of Chittenango, N. Y.
Native of Thummont.

Mr. Luke McHenry, formerly a citizen of Mechanicstown (now Thurmont) died at Clifton Springs where he had been for rest and treatment, Sunday morning, Sept. 17, 1911, his illness being caused by heart disease and hardening of the arteries.
The deceased was a son of the late Luke T. B. and Margaret Kuhn McHenry, whose remains together with three daughters, viz. Hutokee Hillee, who died Aug. 5, 1856, Sallie Kuhn, who died Dec. 5, 1862, and Mary Otto McHenry, who died Jan. 10, 1864; and two sons, David Cooper, who died Jan. 29, 1861 and Eathan Allan McHenry, who died Feb'y 10, 1861, are interred in the United Brethren cemetery here.
Mr. McHenry's father was a veteran of the civil war, having enlisted in Company D., 1st Reg. Maryland Home Brigade, commanded by Capt. Baugher, and participated in the battle at Gettysburg. He died April 30, 1880; his widow dying May 12, 1896. The above dates were secured for us by Col. John R. Rouzer, who, with many others in this place, knew the family very well.
Mr. Leander Kuhn of Hancock, Md., and Rev. David Kuhn of North Manchester, Ind., are nephews of the deceased.
The Madison County, (N. Y.) Times of which Mr. McHenry was editor and publisher, says:
"Mr. McHenry was born at Mechanicstown, Frederick county, Maryland, at the foot of the Blue Ridge Mountains, January 28, 1862, being a descendant of the McHenrys of Scotch-Irish descent, and of Francis Scott Key, who wrote the 'Star Spangled Banner'; his grandfather on the mother's side coming from Germany, and being prominent in the Lutheran church. At the breaking out of the civil war his father and mother's brothers remained loyal to the Union and enlisted and fought in the northern army.
"In his boyhood, his information is that he early exhibited traits of the invincible wrestler that were so marked and prominent in his life work. He was educated in the village public school; entered New Windsor College, where he was interested at an early age in the publication of a college paper. By reason of impaired health he was compelled to leave college, spending two years of western life, returning to Ellicott City, where he learned the printer's trade and was a valued correspondent of the Baltimore Sun. His active, restless nature led him to Washington, where for a time he worked at his trade, seeing the great me of the nation.
"Having saved a little money, his ambition caused him to desire a business of his own, and seeing an advertisement by Mrs. H. E. Barrett desiring to dispose of her local weekly paper, the 'Madison County Times,' published at Chittenango he came there in 1883 and purchased the paper, before he was 21 years of age. His earnest public spirit, his generosity and unselfishness gained for him early local popularity and influence. While young he was chosen President of Chittenango village, and held the office 14 years, and for 12 years was President of the Board of Education. In these positions he caused many improvements to be made in the village and school, adding to their beauty and which remain to his credit.
"In 1906 he purchased the 'Oneida Democratic Union' and continued the publication of the 'Times' and that paper until his death. Both papers were Democratic, and Mr. McHenry became actively interested in Democratic politics.
"At the State election of last year, the Democratic party having succeeded in obtaining control of the Legislature, on the organization of the Assembly, the sentiment of the party was so enthusiastic for McHenry as clerk that there were no candidates for the position in the party, and the appointment came to him unsolicited.
"Mr. McHenry was a member of Oneida Lodge of Elks, Chittenango Lodge of Masons, Oneida Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, Hamilton Grotto of Veiled Prophets, and Canastota Lodge of Odd Fellows.
"He is survived by his widow and by one son, Lee William, a graduate of Syracuse University, and who is now studying law at Columbia College. The services were held Wednesday, Sept. 20th, in the Presbyterian church in Chittenango, the church regularly attended by him, and of which he was a liberal supporter.
"The hymns sung during the services were favorites of Mr. McHenry, 'Nearer my God to Thee,' and 'One Sweetly Sounded Thought Comes to Me.' The music was by the Elks quartette of Syracuse, and they also sang at the grave. An organ and violin also rendered several selections. As the casket was borne from the church the organ and violin played 'Maryland, My Maryland,' and as the friends were leaving the church 'Tenting on the Old Camp Ground' was rendered.
"Burial was made in the beautiful rural Oakwood Village cemetery."

Capt. Landers Acquitted.
Capt. H. L. Landers, formerly of Thurmont, who was tried by court martial at Wilmington, N. C., last week on a charge of exceeding his authority in detaining a civilian temporarily at Fort Caswell was acquitted. The announcement was made by the division commander.
The civilian was a truck farmer, who sold melons at the post at a price greater than had been stipulated by Captain Landers. The man was detained for about two hours and then released. The court martial followed the filing of charges against the captain at the War Department. -News.

Extra Session of Maryland Legislature Likely.

Owing to the recent fraud perpetrated at the recent Primary election in Baltimore city and several of the counties in the State, the democratic party leaders, especially Senator Gorman, whose election at the primary is rather uncertain owing to dishonest counting of ballots, are urging Gov. Crothers to call an extra session of the Legislature for the purpose of recounting the votes cast. The Wednesday morning Sun says:
"Appreciating the public demand for a complete recount of the votes cast in Baltimore in the recent primary and realizing the practical impossibility of their party beginning a real campaign until the charges of fraud connected with the count of the votes are thoroughly sifted, 15 leading Democrats of the State held a long conference with Gov. Crothers last night at Hotel Rennert, and after a discussion of the present situation unanimously passed a resolution requesting the Governor to convene the Legislature in extra session so that it can speedily recount the votes and the exact results be definitely known.
"Scarcely ever has a Governor been so strongly appealed to and never have so convincing demands for an extra session been so convincingly presented. The Governor from the first exposures of fraud has fully appreciated the conditions both in the city and counties, but the arguments made to him last night made a deep impression.
"It was pointed out to him that the good-name of Baltimore and the entire State should not be dragged in the mire by charges of fraud and that the sooner these can be wiped out the better it will be for the city and State.
"As is well known, the Governor has always been opposed to extra sessions, but he asserted last night that he realizes that there is a demand by the people of the State for an expeditious recount of the vote. He asked for several hours to consider the request made in the resolutions, but it is believed that today he will issue a proclamation calling for an extra session and that the Legislature will probably reconvene in Annapolis at noon next Monday.
"Senator Gorman and his running mates, Messrs. Poe and Harrington, and Senator Lee, who opposed Senator Gorman in the primary, made strong pleas to the Governor for the session."

Surprise Birthday Party.
Mr. and Mrs. Sam'l Long of this place gave their niece, Miss Margaret Seiss, a delightful surprise party last Thursday evening, in honor of her eighteenth birthday. About thirty-five of Miss Margaret's friends assembled to join in this surprise and helped make it a birthday long to be remembered. One of the features of the evening was the opening of a "surprise box" by Miss Margaret. This box contained all sorts of comic gifts, but stowed away at the bottom was a beautiful gold watch, the gift of her aunt and uncle.
After spending a very enjoyable evening and partaking of delicious refreshments the guests bade their host and hostess Miss Margaret goodnight.

Every Roll of J-M REGAL ROOFING GUARANTEED

J-M REGAL ROOFING is sold under the most liberal and honest warranty ever given with any roofing of this type; and this warranty is backed by a $50,000,000.00 concern that has had over a half century of experience in the roofing business.
J-M REGAL ROOFING will stand this exceptionally liberal warranty because it is composed of genuine J-M TRINIDAD LAKE ASPHALT, properly processed to withstand sun-light, wind, rain, snow, oxygen, acids, heat and cold. And, you know, TRINIDAD LAKE ASPHALT has been used for 80 years for street paving in the larger cities where the conditions of weather and wear and tear are much more severe than in roofing. As a result, Regal is unequalled in durability by any other roofing material.
You owe it to yourself to examine J-M REGAL ROOFING before you buy. Come in and get samples and booklet.
