Woman Suffrages Losses Pennsylvania, New York And Massachusetts Heavily Against It.

The attempt to give women the right to vote met with staggering defeat in Pennsylvania Tuesday.

Claims of the anti-place the majority against suffrage as high as 240,000. In 326 of the 1,282 election districts in Philadelphia the vote on the suffrage amendment was: Yes, 11,719; no, 32,012.

The defeat of woman suffrage by a vote of approximately 2 to 1 was indicated by returns from the greater part of Massachusetts in the election Tuesday. With less than 100 precincts to be heard from, the majority against the proposed amendment was 108,044.

The suffrage leaders, conceding defeat, declared that they would begin a new campaign immediately.

Returns from approximately one-third of the election districts outside of New York city indicated the defeat of the suffrage amendment by about 87,000 in the up-State districts. The count of the vote in New York city was much delayed.

Confess Blowing Pipe.

Sheriff John D. Conard and other officers of this county lost no time locating the vandals who dynamited the Y in the pipe line of the Frederick city water works. Scarcely a week passed until two men were arrested and a confession obtained. The first party arrested was Warren Harley, he implicating George W. Bartgis. The latter was arrested Saturday night and confessed to Sheriff Conard. Bartgis claims a young man by the name of Harris was connected with the affair, but the officers think Harris knew little about the affair, he having proven that he was not with the other two on the night of the explosion. Harley claims Bartgis was the originator of the scheme. The following is the confession made by Bartgis:

"Warren Harley said to me, Bartgis, let's go out along the water line and break and throw the tools away then let's take dynamite back and blow up the Y. Roy Harris, Warren Harley and myself went out together, P. D. Shankle furnished the wine. He knew all about it. He furnished the wine if they would do the work. We paid 25 cents a quart for the wine to do the work. Shankle said Brady owes me $2.08. Harley said he knew where the dynamite was. He saw it the night before near Staley's farm. They laid the dynamite on the Y 15 sticks, I cut the fuse. Harley put the cap on and Harris lighted the match."

Reports Loss of Jewelry.

The publishing of the item in regard to Jesse Oberlander who got in trouble and into the Adam's county, Pa., jail recently for failure to return jewelry and other articles given him for mending, brought forth the fact that a number of articles disappeared in the same manner while Jesse was residing in this place. Three valuable pieces of jewelry belonging to Miss Ella Martin and given Jesse to mend were never returned, Miss Martin reporting same to us on reading the article in last week's paper.

Excursion to Baltimore.

On Thursday, Nov. 18th, a special excursion will be run over the W. M. Ry. to Baltimore under the auspices of Mt. Tabor Reformed church of Rocky Ridge. This excursion will be of special benefit to farmers or others who may wish to visit the Maryland Week Celebration which will be held in the Fifth Regiment Armory during that week. The train leaves Thurmont at 8.30 a. m., and returning leaves Hillen station at 11.30 p. m.

Mr. Gorsuch Speaks Here.

Last Saturday at noon, Mr. George R. Gorsuch, Prohibition candidate for Governor of Maryland, and several gentlemen of that party arrived in Thurmont in an automobile. They were making a tour of the county in the interest of the party and had with them the Taylorville cornet band. Mr. Gorsuch spoke at Mt. Airy, New Market, Liberty, Walkersville, Woodsboro and Creagerstown before arriving in Thurmont. From here they went to Frederick.

Now Lookout.

When a cold hangs on as often happens, or when you have hardly gotten over one cold before you contract another, lookout for you are liable to contract some very serious disease. This succession of colds weakens the system and lowers the vitality so that you are much more liable to contract chronic catarrh, pneumonia or consumption. Cure your cold while you can. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a great reputation. It is relied upon by thousands of people and never disappoints them. Try it. It only costs a quarter. Obtainable everywhere.

REPUBLICAN VICTORY IN FREDERICK COUNTY.

State Ticket Close With E. C. Harrington, Democrat, Elected Governor.

Harrington, 117,534; Weller, 114,030 Duer, for Comptroller, and Ritchie for Attorney General, Democrats, Elected.

In the next Legislature there will be--Senators, 17 Democrats, 10 Republicans; House of Dele- gates, 55 Democrats, 47 Republicans.

Patterson, for Register of Wills, and Haugh, For Clerk, Cut In This District. Large Vote Polled.

The election held Tuesday passed off with unusual smoothness in this District; practically no drunkenness and no friction. The only great activity evinced was the constant stream of voters brought to the polls by the many automobiles that both parties had in service and the workers around the respective headquarters.

With a registered majority of 257 voters in the district, the Republicans polled all but 60 and the Democrats all but 13.

The cutting of Haugh for Clerk, and Patterson for Register of Wills, featured, they running behind the head or the ticket 25 and 53 votes respectively in this district. Patterson was the more severely cut, considering the number of Democratic votes that he received the cuts inflicted by his own party numbered over one hundred.

The reason for the cutting of Patterson so greatly was occasioned largely by the exceedingly small vote given, Senator Mathias in Emmitsburg District at the Primary Election, many persons feeling that this treatment of the Senator in an adjoining district, was not warranted, hence the resentment and "come back" at the polls.

Unusual good feeling prevailed between the opposing parties. Little bantering was indulged in and any "rubbing" was taken good naturedly. A few "fake" stories were in circulation but no one paid any attention to them as they are naturally expected.

The County has gone solidly Republican, they having elected all their candidates except George Ed. Smith for Judge of the Orphans' Court, by majorities ranging as high as one thousand, Aaron R. Anders having received the largest.

Weller, for Governor, also carried the county. The vote in this District is as follows:

The vote in this district on the Constitutional Amendments is as follows: Chapter 390, For 55, Against 81. Chapter 416, For 73, Against 69. Chapter 453, For 69, Against 65. Chapter 673, For 90, Against 66.

On the State Ticket two votes were cast for Paul Braun for Attorney General and one vote for Robert Stevens, for Governor, on the Labor ticket.

The Prohibition Party polled seventy votes in Frederick County. In Washington county the Republican ticket was elected, the temperance question to which all Republican candidates were pledged, winning the fight.

Sabillasville News.

A hallow'en party was given at the home of Dr. C. L. Wachter by his daughter Miss Bernice and Miss Frances Rowe on Saturday evening. The rooms in which the festivities were held were tastefully decorated, the cozy den being used for the observance of the old time honored "witching night" customs. Refreshments in keeping with the occasion were served at a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Eby will occupy their recently erected home in a few days. The house is of modern design and in a most desirable and beautiful location.

Mr. B. B. Harbaugh has returned from Greencastle, Pa., where he attended the meetings of Potomac Synod. He also spent a short time with his sister, Mrs. Coffman, at Quincy.

Mrs. Jas. Poole had a serious relapse on Sunday night but is reported as slightly improved.

Rev. M. L. Firor returned from Potomac Synod on Saturday evening and filled all his appointments on Sunday.

Graceham Letter.

Mrs. Lillie Newcomer and Mrs. Sarah Martin are visiting in Baltimore.

The Sunday School will hold an oyster supper on Saturday evening, Nov. 20th.

Mrs. Leslie Creager of Baltimore spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Creager.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Colliflower and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Collins, of Washington, spent Sunday in this place.

Mrs. Harry Null returned home from the Frederick city hospital on Sunday and is doing very well.

Mr. Leslie Rinehart and family, Miss Fannie Scheida and Reuben Buhman, all of Waynesboro, spent Sunday with William and Alonzo Buhman.

Mr. Jacob Newman and family of Waynesboro visited Miss Jessie Hesser on Sunday.

Chimney Catches On Fire.

Tuesday afternoon while a strong wind was blowing, the chimney in the house of Mr. Jacob Layman, near Lewistown, caught on fire and for a time it was thought the house would be burned to the ground. Word was telephoned to all nearby points and soon a number of men gathered and by hard work succeeded in saving the building.

Several automobile loads of men from Thurmont were rushed to the scene but were a little late to be of much assistance.

More Pavement.

During the past week a concrete pavement was put down on the High School grounds, the same running from the east entrance to Summit avenue.

For protection of the building and also to beautify same, concrete three feet in width was put down around the entire building, the same being against the brick wall. This, however, will not be used as a walk.

Next Comes the King's Daughter's Supper and Sale at the Hall, Nov. 12th and 13th.

The patronage of their many friends is solicited. Come enjoy the good supper and have a hearty laugh. On Friday evening a bright little farce entitled "A Mere Man," and Saturday evening one of the "funniest ever"—Prof. Shaffer Katzenjammer and his pupils in Music and Expression. Admission 5 cents.

Duck Hunting Corn.

A bird, strange to the people residing in the vicinity of Deerfield, was seen early last week flying around. Finally it landed in Mr. F. N. Willhide's corn field and was shot by his son Arthur. The bird was sent to Thurmont for identification and was pronounced a "dipper" duck.

Public Sales.

Mr. Chas. M. Stauffer, a farmer residing in Eyer's Valley on what is known as the Arnold Willhide farm, will dispose of his stock and personal effects Saturday, Nov. 27th, at public sale. Mr. Stauffer will move to Dayton, Ohio, Dec. bills.

Wreck Near Bartholows.

Sunday afternoon last a freight wreck occurred on the B. & O. railroad near Bartholows, ten cars leaving the rail. The wreck occurred at a place where the State Road and railroad run parallel and near each other, and many autoists were attracted that way.

Community Club.

On next Tuesday night Rev. Paul E. Holdcraft will give a talk on the Boy Scout movement at the Community Club rooms. There will also be a Victrola Concert with different records from those used at the last concert.

Typhoid at Shippensburg.

The town of Shippensburg, Pa., is having a serious fright of typhoid fever. Until Saturday of last week one hundred cases were reported in that city. But one death has occurred.

Thanksgiving Dinner.

The Mite Society of the St. John's Lutheran church will hold their annual Thanksgiving Dinner and Supper November 25th in the Town Hall.

On Friday, March 10th, 1916, Charles E. Willhide will sell horses, cattle and farming implements two miles north of Thurmont. nov 4 3t

A plot to kill detective Richard S. Kirby, of Baltimore, has been discovered. Kirby has been employed at Frederick City, Md., and arrested several parties implicated in the blowing up of the city water mains.

Traffic on the railroads throughout the West for October was the heaviest known for the month. In all of that section the railroads are working up to their capacity to handle business.

Maryland Week Exhibit.

Interesting Features To Be Seen In Baltimore Nov. 16-20.

Elaborate preparations are being made by Prof. T. B. Symons of the Maryland Agricultural College for "Maryland Week" which will be held in the Fifth Regiment Armory, Baltimore, Nov. 16th to 20th. This year there will be many more features of interest and instruction for the farmer, horticulturist and dairyman than in the previous exhibitions, while programs replete with surprises have been arranged for every day of the week.

The Club Exhibit Contest is one of the big features of the show. Various local organizations in different parts of the State go to Baltimore and make an exhibit in competition with each other. Numerous premiums and special prizes are offered in this contest.

A special dairy exhibit consisting of eight cows, will be installed in the Armory in order to demonstrate sanitary methods of milking, by the use of milking machines. Other interesting features for the dairyman will be the various methods of testing milk.

For those interested in bee keeping and raising honey, a most wonderful exhibit is promised. Live bees will be handled with bare hand and the best methods of treating bees will be discussed upon by experts.

The United States Government will lend its assistance in many direct and indirect ways to help the show to be instructive to all visitors. The Postmaster at Baltimore has promised a large booth exhibit showing the various ways Parcel Post can be utilized to the profit of the farmer and dweller, showing in detail how packages of perishable and staple products may be packed to carry well.

Dr. F. W. Beasley, State Forester, will make an extensive exhibit showing fire prevention in forests, how to conserve the forests and replenish them; how to treat the farm woodlot so as to have all the wood needed for the present generation and still leave a good supply for those to come.

To the lovers of flowers this year's exhibition will especially appeal, as the weather has contributed to the art of the florist and the specimens to be shown will compare most favorably with the big chrysanthemum show at Madison Square Garden, New York.

The formal opening will take place Tuesday evening, Nov. 16, at which Hon. Robert Crain, of Baltimore, will preside. Mayor Preston, Governor Goldsborough will be present to make addresses. On Wednesday the Horticultural Societies will meet with a splendid special program supplemented by liberal distribution of fine fruits, including a gift of a big apple to each visitor. Thursday will be Crop Improvement Day, at which time the various new methods of handling soil and fertilizers will be discussed by experts. Experiences of prominent farmers will also be exchanged. Friday will be Dairyman's Day; Saturday, Bee-keeper's Day. On Thursday night, there will be a special session devoted to Hogs, at which time there will be a wide discussion regarding the prevention and treatment of diseases of hogs, especially the hog cholera which is so prevalent.

Taking into consideration the magnificent exhibits promised, the elaborateness of the program, together with the splendid premiums offered, this year's meet will no doubt far eclipse all previous efforts.

Anyone interested in any of the various topics under discussion at these shows cannot afford, from a purely business standpoint to miss attendance, to say nothing of the keen enjoyment of viewing some of Nature's most beautiful products.

JITNEY BUSES ENJOINED.

The Fidelity Trust Company of Baltimore, through its Memphis, Tenn., correspondent, has received news that the Supreme Court of that State handed down a decision upholding a law passed by the State Legislature granting a blanket injunction asked for by the Memphis Street Railway Company. The effect of the decision will be to require jitney bus operators in the State to take out bonds in the sum of $5,000, and also to obtain within 30 days a franchise.

Edward L. Prectorius, publisher of the St. Louis, Mo. Times, committed suicide Monday, he having been in bad health for more than a year.

Mountain fires are said to be raging in the vicinities of Edgemont and Penmar, Md., along the Western Maryland Railroad.

The War And Immigration.

An Unintentional Experiment In Restriction.

For years the restrictionists have sought to have a law placed on the statute books which would cut down immigration. What they have been unable to accomplish themselves the war has done for them. In the years 1913 and 1914 the totals of aliens admitted to the United States were 1,427,227 and 1,403,081, respectively, and the gains in alien population after deducting the numbers of those who returned to Europe or elsewhere were 815,303 and 769,276. The increase in alien population in the course of the immigration year which ended June 30th was 50,070. The number of aliens who were admitted was 434,214, while the number who left was 384,174. The most drastic restrictive legislation could not have cut down the flow as the war has done.

Not only has the war fulfilled the desires of the restrictionists in respect to a wholesale reduction in numbers, but also in respect to the racial character of the immigrants. The restrictionists have argued that those from central and southern Europe were undesirable because they were not closely allied in blood with the original settlers of the country, and because their political institutions and social habits were different. One of the results of the war has been that the majority in 1914-15 came from countries fronting on the North Sea and the Atlantic Ocean. Of the big number who went home, in many cases to join the colors of their respective countries, by far the larger proportion were of the class of so-called undesirable nationalities.

The period of reduced immigration is likely to continue more than a year, and the indications are that it may last for three or four years. It is not generally believed that peace will be concluded within a year. Following the war there will be much constructive work to be done in all parts of Europe. It can be said with confidence that the countries now at war, or which become involved, will not encourage emigration.

It is evident, also, that the war is rapidly depleting the ranks of those who emigrate. These are the men under forty five years of age. The stupendous casualty lists suggest that there will be many in this class who, because of physical or mental disabilities, will be unable to meet the requirements of our immigration law regarding capacity to earn a livelihood, and mental soundness.

With a much smaller immigration we shall have an opportunity to study the social and economic effects of restriction without committing ourselves to the policy. We have knowledge based on experience of the results of a large immigration. By permitting proposed legislation to lie upon the table for a while we shall be enabled to decide upon our future policy with greater knowledge at our command.—Scientific American.
