The Court says: "Nearly all of the complainant's troubles have been due to the doctor's weakness in the use of intoxicants and most of the cause of complaint is directly or indirectly attributed to his habits in this respect."

Now Lookout.

When a cold hangs on as often happens, or when you have hardly gotten over one cold before you contract another, lookout for you are liable to contract some very serious disease. FORD'S GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
 Week of November 15, direct from its sensational run in New York city; A. H. Woods presents a play in five acts by Edward Sheldon, from Hermann Sudermann's famous novel "Das Hohe Lied." Original cast.

THE SONG OF SONGS,

The week of November 15th at Ford's will be conspicuous for the first production in Baltimore of "The Song of Songs," Edward Sheldon's adaptation of the Sudermann's famous novel, "Das Hohe Lied," the play so well received at the Metropolis.

From "The Song of Songs," which is an adaptation of one of the most famous novels of modern literature, Edw. Sheldon made the most impressive and widely discussed dramas of recent years that played for six months to capacity audiences at the Eltinge Theatre, New York, last season.

Its story is the story of the eternal battle of the ideal with the reality; a truly remarkable play with a moral lesson that hits home. "The Song of Songs" is a realistic painting with a meaning that is meant to carry beyond the gilded frame.

Irene Fenwick will be seen in her original role and associated with her in the company will be Thomas A. Wise, Cyril Keightley and Hardee Kirkland.

Matinees—Wednesday and Saturday.
 Admission 25 and 50 cents.

Week November 22, Cyril Harcourt's delightful comedy success, "A Pair of Silk Stockings," Sam Sothern and notable company.

Aftermath of The Election.

The Democrats of Frederick and of Washington counties each drew a consolation prize in the last election in the shape of a member of the Orphans' Court. It's a case of small favors thankfully received—at least thankfully received by the lucky one so elected.

One can hear on a good many sides the telling how it happened, and who is directly responsible for the result; this district fell down and still another played traitor, and still others sold out, etc., etc., but fact remains that the people had a very large hand in deciding the fate of those who fell as well as those who won.

The Hon. H. Dorsey Etchison, the defeated candidate on the Democratic ticket for Senator, has still got his "shillalah" at work. He delivered a philippic on the election and says he will "come back" again.

We see that he has formally launched his campaign for the nomination for Congress from the 6th District.
 He promises to stir up the "animals" and it's a good guess that he will make the attempt. He'll find the Sixth District a larger field than was Frederick County for Senator.

Now look at "Davy" Lewis—all stung up with that Senatorial bee! He says that he is now a candidate for Senator to take the place of Senator Lee; that he won't use any money but will go to it with bare fists.

"Davy" may win out but its a 2 to 1 shot that he will have told him what he told Senator Lee in his Primary Campaign for Governor. What do you want to leave Congress for, Mr. Wilson needs you there.

The Goblins will "git" you if you don't watch out.

Leo Weinberg, flushed with the victory won in Frederick County, will spur on in his campaign for the Congressional nomination in the Sixth District on the Republican side, and it's a good guess that he and the Hon. Dorsey will have a joint debate on the issues during their campaign, should both succeed. This will be entertaining to say the least.

Who said that Reno S. Harp could not be a leader? He seems to have led the Republicans to a mighty complete victory in this county, equal to the victories that Judge Motter had in his palmy political days.

Of course he was ably assisted, but that is the business of a leader to surround himself with able assistants.

Leaders come and go. Hence the inevitable with this new leader, sooner or later.

Sabillasville News.

Helen, the young daughter of Mrs. Frank Barbaugh is ill with diphtheria at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Birely.

Miss Ruth McClain, who has been visiting in Smithsburg, returned home last week.

Misses Emma and Mary Crawford, Ruth Firor and Whitmer Firor assisted in the presentation of the play "Bachelor Maid's Reunion," given by the young people of the Reformed church in the parish house, Blue Ridge Summit, Thursday night last.

Mrs. Mollie Merrey and son Clifford, who spent the summer and early fall at their cottage here, returned to their home in Baltimore on Sunday.

Miss Anna Steele, of Baltimore, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Roscoe Brown.

The officers and teachers of the Reformed Sunday School held their usual monthly meeting on Monday night. Business of interest and importance was transacted, Xmas and award committees were appointed and a pleasant evening was spent.

The young people of St. Stephen's Reformed church, Highfield, presented "The Bachelor Maid's Reunion" to a large audience in the parish house, Blue Ridge Summit, on Thursday evening last.

The play sparkles with fun and wit, and the many clever and mirth provoking situations kept the enthusiastic audience laughing from start to finish. Seldom has home talent, in their first appearance, done so creditably. The coach was Mrs. M. L. Firor, of Sabillasville, and those taking special part with great credit were: Misses Emma Benchoff, Helen DeLauter, Mary Flohr, Edna Benchoff, Ada Flaucher, and Ruth Marshall.

Other in the cast played their parts exceptionally well. Master Whitmer Firor was the violinist. Financially, the play was successful also.

Appointments Made.

Officers Elect Name Those Who Will Serve Under Them.

With a full quota of Republicans elected to offices in this county, new men necessarily were in demand for the various positions in the county offices as clerks.

According to the Frederick News of Tuesday last, it is understood that the following persons have been selected to fill these positions. In the office of Register of Will under Mr. Albert Patterson: Edward Toms, Middletown, chief deputy; John Horner, Emmitsburg, and Reno Crum, Frederick.

Sheriff's office, Mr. Wm. C. Roderick, sheriff elect;

Clarence Phlegger, Braddock, riding deputy; Mr. Wm. O. Wertebaker, of Graceham, office deputy, Charles Spenseller, of Frederick, turnkey.

County Treasurer's office, Roger G. Harley, treasurer elect; Mr. DeWitt T. Free, of Creagerstown, deputy treasurer.

According to a dispatch from Frederick to the Baltimore American, Mr. Eli Haugh, Clerk elect, will have in his office Mr. Isaiah N. Loy, Millard N. Nusz and John Martz, of the present force, and Melvin Shepley, of Myersville, and Horace Staley of Yellow Springs. Mr. Haugh will himself occupy the desk of law clerk, one clerk this being eliminated.

In Wednesday morning Post it is said that some of the above appointments have really not been made as yet.

Grandmother at 88.
 With the birth of a daughter at the home of Assistant Postmaster and Mrs. Paul F. Miller, Spring Grove, Pa., the fifth link in an unbroken chain of five generations was completed, giving "Baby Miller" the unique distinction of being a great-great-granddaughter. Her great-great-grandfather is Ezra Myers, Glenville, who at his last birthday was eighty-nine years old. The birth of "Baby Miller," who has been named Dorcas Ruth Miller, also makes Mrs. Jacob H. Yost, Spring Grove, without doubt the youngest grandmother on record, as she has only recently celebrated her thirty-eighth birthday anniversary, while Mrs. Emanuel Rohrbach, the great-grandmother, is only fifty-eight years old. Mrs. Paul Miller is nineteen years old.

Pastor Returns.
 Rev. G. H. Traggesser, pastor of St. Anthony's, who for the past few weeks has been absent and during his absence has toured the west and visited the Panama Exposition, returned home on Friday evening. Father Traggesser was met at Thurmont by Rev. Monsignor Brady, Rev. Paul Reynolds, Rev. J. O. Hayden, and several other auto owners of the parish. At the arrival at the rectory Fr. Traggesser was met and welcomed home by many of his parishioners. Fr. Traggesser reports having a very delightful trip through the west, but very often he thought of his people at St. Anthony's.

Anti-Saloon League Makes Gain.
 Owing to the election last week the Anti-Saloon League has made a big gain in the way of "dry" forces in the coming Legislature. In the House of Delegates there will be a majority of twelve dry members, and it is thought the Senate will also be dry.

With a majority in both branches of the Legislature, the people of Maryland will have the opportunity to say whether or not saloons will be allowed in the State.

They Believe In Voting.
 The heaviest vote that has ever been registered in Middletown district, was polled last Tuesday, only 25 voters failed to cast their ballots. Three of these were available Republicans and about the same number were Democrats. The remainder were either sick or away from home. Of the 543 names of voters on the registration books, 517 voted. Out of this three or four ballots were thrown out as spoiled.

Street Nearly Completed.
 Work being done by Mr. Sanford L. Shaffer at the east end of town in the way of extending Summit avenue, laying sidewalks, gutters and grading the avenue, is progressing very nicely. All the sidewalk planned by Mr. Shaffer has been laid and the gutters almost completed. The grading of the street bed is also nearly completed.

"Roelkey" Farm Sold.
 The farm known to many of our citizens as the "Roelkey" farm, situated four miles north of Frederick on the State Road and containing 111 acres of very fertile land, was recently sold through G. H. Staley, real estate agent, to Roy C. Adams, of Buckeystown, the price is said to be around $17,000. Wm. C. Adams, the present owner, will give possession April 1st next.

More Strawberries.
 Apparently the strawberry plants in this community are trying themselves in the matter of producing fruit. Many times during the past two months strawberries have been brought to our office. The last was brought in Tuesday morning by Mr. Chas. Wastler's son, Raymond, he finding them along the bank of the W. M. railroad near town.

Hunting Season Now Open.
 The hunting season in Maryland opened Wednesday, and early in the morning reports from guns could be heard in every direction. To those who hunt we would say be careful where you shoot, what you shoot and on whose property you are when you are banging away.
