Vaccination Ban Lifted.
 Hagerstown, Md., Sept. 30.—A vaccination certificate is no longer necessary for children entering the public schools of Washington County. The county School Board has passed an order to that effect.
 The practice heretofore has been to require all children at the beginning of their school years to present vaccination certificates. While the county School Board has knowledge of the law on the statute books which places a fine upon a teacher who admits to school a child not presenting a proper vaccination certificate, it is understood that the board stands ready to back up and defend any teacher who may be called into court for failure to strictly observe this law.

FORD'S GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
 Week October 9th, the wonderful laugh play
 "FAIR AND WARMER"
 by Avery Hopwood with Madge Kennedy and original New York Company.
 "Fair and Warmer" one of the most captivating successes of last season is coming to Ford's week of October 9th direct from the Harris Theatre with the original cast.
 That little actress, Madge Kennedy will be seen as "Blanny Wheeler" her original part besides John Arthur, Ethel Wilson, Jane Seymour and other noted actors.
 The plot involves the amusing vicissitudes of two young married couples with spouses with almost opposite temperaments. "The Stay at Home Wife" and "The Tame Cat Husband" finally resolve to adjust things by retaliation, and thinking cock tails the limit of sportiness, have a party, and by the time their respective partners return from the dance, have become defiantly and merrily sportive.
 Before things are untangled, the laughiest play of the past twenty years has been unfolded.
 The production in this city will be precisely as seen during its long and jolly run in New York City.
 Matinee Wednesday and Saturday—Admission 25 and 50 cents. Evenings 50c, 75c and $1.00.
 Week of Oct. 16th, "The House of Glass" With Mary Ryan and New York company.

Re-Opening And Dedication Services of St. John's Reformed Church, Creagerstown, Md., October 13—18, 1916.

After several years of waiting and deliberating, about one year ago the St. John's Reformed congregation at Creagerstown decided unanimously to remodel the old historic church. They bought out the Lutheran interest and went to work with a will and now have completed having a very beautiful and modernized church. Come and see it during the re-dedication services. The following is the program:

Re-opening Services, Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock, October 13th, when Rev. J. W. Miminger, D. D., of Lancaster, Pa., will preach. Dr. Miminger is one of the most eloquent preachers of the Reformed Church and no one should miss hearing him. Special music by the Walkersville-Woodsboro choir.
 Re-dedication Services Sunday, October 15th, at 10 a. m. Sermon by Rev. M. L. Firor, president of Maryland Classis. Special music by the Reformed choir assisted by the orchestra of Creagerstown.

A service for children and young people at 2.30 p. m. Addresses by Emory L. Coblenz, Esq., of Frederick, and Rev. Charles D. Shaffer, of Thurmort, and special music by the children and Rocky Ridge choir.
 Sermon at 7.30 p. m. by Rev. E. E. Weaver, pastor of the Walkersville charge, and a brief historic address by the pastor, Rev. P. E. Heimer, Ph. D. Special music by the Thurmort Reformed choir.
 Monday, 7.30 p. m., a service of greeting from the other congregations of the charge, which will be spoken by John Pittenger for Apples, John S. Long for Rocky Ridge, and Sam'l Long for Thurmort. Special music by Apples choir.
 Tuesday, 7.30 p. m., sermon by Rev. Charles Shilke, pastor of the local Lutheran church, and an address by a representative from the Church of God. At this service the King's Daughters, new and old, will make a report and addresses. Special music by the Lutheran choir of Creagerstown.
 Wednesday, 7.30 p. m., sermon by Rev. Cyrus Glessner, pastor of the Utica charge, and report of the Building Committee, and short addresses by Laymen of the congregation. Special music by the Utica choir.
 To all these services the public is most cordially invited.

St. John's church is the oldest church organization in this western section of Maryland, founded in 1747 along the Monocacy by Rev. Michael Schlatter—now 169 years ago—and the earnest desire is to have the entire community share the joy and recall the blessings derived from this old church in its midst these 169 years in keeping the spark of God alive in the hearts of the men, women and children. Come one and all and assist us in making these re-dedication services an historic event never to be forgotten for joy and blessing derived.
 Rev. P. E. HEIMER, Ph. D., Pastor.

Mother and Son Drowned.

"During a spell of drunkenness, Thomas Keith, aged 17, of Point of Rocks, either jumped or fell into the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, at the eastern edge of the B. and O. tunnel on Saturday night and was drowned.
 "In an effort to save the life of her son, Mrs. Rosie Keith, the mother, aged 41, jumped into the twelve feet of water after him only to meet a like fate.
 "A coroner's jury, with Justice August T. Brust acting as coroner, was summoned by Sheriff Roderick, and after hearing the testimony of Sadie Keith, aged 13, and Ethel Keith, aged 10 daughters of the Keith woman, and Buck Dean, who was nearby at the time of the affair, rendered a verdict of death due to accidental drowning, the youth being under the influence of liquor at the time.
 "The husband of the Keith woman, George Keith, and father of the drowned boy, is now in the House of Correction, having been sentenced there about a month ago for a six months' term, following conviction for indecent conduct in this city. About ten days ago the drowned boy was before Justice Brust in this city on a charge of disorderly conduct, cursing and swearing at Point of Rocks, and sentence was suspended.
 "Sadie Keith testified at the inquest that a pint of whiskey had been given her drowned brother by John Cross, who she said, brought it out of Frederick."
 [The tragedy caused by this one pint of liquor should be sufficient to cause an extra barrel of dry votes to be cast at the coming election. No better campaign argument could have been manufactured. Vote dry and help your fellow-man.]

Temperance Rally.

The local committee representing the Dry Forces of this district are active in their campaign work. Numerous meetings have been held recently and others have been planned for the next several weeks. A Rally meeting will be held in Thurmort October 10th, at which time Rev. Geo. H. Tragger, pastor of St. Anthony's Church, Mt. St. Marys, and Hon. H. G. Fisher, of Keyser, W. Va., will speak. The meeting will be held in Town Hall at 8 o'clock, and everybody is most cordially invited.

To Tax At Full Value. State Commission Gives County Men Instruction Concerning Reassessment Of Real Estate.

The members and officials of the State Tax Commission last week had before them the Supervisors of Assessments in the counties and Baltimore city for final instructions regarding the conduct of the general reassessment of real estate in the counties. The supervisors, in turn, will meet the assessors in the respective county seats on October 9 and pass on to them the instructions. The work of actual assessment then will begin promptly.
 One of the points emphasized at the conference was that the assessors should assess property at its full value. Chairman Gorman made the point and it was dwelt upon strongly. The supervisors were told that when the 100 per cent. assessment was departed from there entered danger of favoritism and inequality, for one piece of property might be assessed at 80 per cent. of its value, and another at 75 per cent.; but that if every piece of property were honestly assessed at 100 per cent., inequality would be eliminated as far as humanly possible.
 Commissioner Leser explained to the supervisors that a 100 per cent. assessment did not necessarily mean an increased payment of taxes by the owner of the property. A thorough-going and honest reassessment upon a 100 per cent. basis all over the State, he explained, might lead to such an increase in the taxable basis that the rate could be reduced, thus making it possible that an owner would pay less actual taxes upon a 100 per cent. assessment than upon a lower one, made under a system which fixed low values upon all properties.
 The supervisors also were warned against taking the judgment of the owner as to the value of his property. Commissioner Leser told them that every man thought he had paid a "fancy price" for his property and reasoned that it should be assessed at less than the purchase price. Mr. Leser said that in many instances the thing about the property that made the owner pay a "fancy price" would lead almost any other man in the market to pay his "fancy price." He said that the real test of the actual value of the property in such cases was whether it could be sold again at the price paid by the owner.
 For the first time in the general reassessment of property, lands and buildings will be assessed separately. Mr. Leser said that separate assessments were directed in the laws providing for the two previous assessments, but that the directions were not observed faithfully. The commission will insist upon separation this time. In the assessment of buildings, the assessors will be guided largely by a table furnished by the commission, which the "square foot factors" in determining value. The commission holds that buildings of various classes have a more or less fixed relation between value and square foot areas. Assessments upon lands will be made according to their nature; in other words, the arable land in a farm will be assessed as a unit, the marsh land as a unit, the pasture land as a unit, the waste land as a unit, and so on.—Baltimore Sun.

Hagerstown Fair Appealing.

For every line of endeavor there is one example that stands on a pinnacle—not by reason of its vastness necessarily but more often because it is just as the people want it.
 The success on which a Fair presents its educational and entertainment program measures the degree in which it is inspiring and appealing to visitors who attend it. Appreciating this principal the officers and directors of the Great Hagerstown Inter-State Fair are bending every effort to put the exhibition this year on a higher plane than ever before.
 The wants of thousands of patrons, exhibitors, concessionaires and hosts of employees, will be provided for in every way. An information bureau will be maintained. A department of the post-office will be established at the Fairgrounds. Express companies will be quartered there, while there will be telegraph and telephone privileges. With the great main exhibition hall, enormous grandstand, seating capacity over 8,000, the automobile show, the great cow barn, housing 800 cattle, the poultry building, wherein will be shown nearly 10,000 birds, the magnificent racing and attractions, the agricultural hall and the corn show, all combined, makes an exhibit that requires an effort to view complete in the four days that the Fair will be in operation. The indoor accommodations are so great that rainy weather causes little inconvenience.

Married.

On Wednesday evening of last week, Sept. 27th, Mr. Horace Finch, a wholesale dealer in wheat, etc., of Spartansburg, S. C., and Miss Ella M. Long, sister of Mrs. C. C. Meritt of Thurmort, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's sister by Rev. S. E. Rose of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The following morning the bride and groom left for their future home at Spartansburg.
