TROUBLOUS TIMES AHEAD

National Magnates Likely to Be Invested With Power to Act at the Peace Meeting.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—Ban Johnson, president of the American League, has just announced that he has received word from Garry Hermann...

When Hermann, Hart, and Robison were appointed a committee to meet the American League men it was with the understanding that they could only recommend peace terms...

Hoovering War Clouds. In some quarters the opinion prevails that there will be no peace in the baseball world after all.

Men who believe they can speak by the card are insisting that the American League men will make no concessions at all, but will insist upon an absolute surrender by the National League...

It looks as if Delehanty will not only be a bone of contention between the two leagues, but will also be the cause of no end of trouble in the National League itself.

To Keep Delehanty. If Rogers' protest does not stand, he says that he will secure an injunction which will prevent Delehanty from playing with the New Yorks in any State of Pennsylvania.

RAISING RANK OF VETERAN ARMY OFFICERS

President Roosevelt Following McKinley's Precedent.

General Hasbrouck of the artillery, who has just been promoted from the rank of colonel to the grade of brigadier general, will be retired, at his own request, so the President may fill the vacancy by advancing another of the old colonels who served in the civil war.

A similar proposition was recommended by President McKinley. Congress having given no heed to the recommendations, President McKinley exercised his prerogative and advanced a number of the old officers to the grade of brigadier general...

The law permits an officer to retire upon his own request after thirty years of active service. President Roosevelt has followed the policy of his predecessor in this regard, and the result has been that forty colonels of the line and staff have been retired with the grade of brigadier general...

In army circles there is much interest exhibited in the choice of a successor to General Hasbrouck, for the reason that the selection will indicate whether the President will continue the policy of advancing veteran officers to the higher grade and immediately thereafter retiring them.
