

AFFAIRS IN THE REALM OF SOCIETY.

Miss Alice Roosevelt and Miss Edith Root to Return to Washington—Among the Diplomats.

The White House.

Miss Alice Roosevelt and Miss Edith Root will leave New Orleans for Washington tomorrow.

Among the Diplomats.

The honorary degree of doctor of laws will be conferred on Jean Jules Jusserand, ambassador of the French republic to the United States...

Senator Jose Galvez, of Buenos Ayres, a Senator of the Argentine Congress, is a guest of the Argentine Minister and Mme. Garcia Merou.

Senator and Senora Pezet and their son, who is convalescing from a long illness, are at the Hotel Chamberlin, Old Point Comfort.

Dinners.

The French ambassador and Madame Jusserand, who have been the guests of honor at a series of dinners, were entertained last night by the British ambassador and Lady Herbert.

Receptions.

Miss Flora A. Lewis held a large reception yesterday afternoon for the National Auxiliary of the Army and Navy Spanish War Veterans in the District.

Mrs. and Miss Thaw were at home yesterday afternoon, when many friends called to felicitate Miss Thaw on her recently announced engagement.

Weddings and Engagements.

Formal announcement is made by Mrs. Alexander Crawford Chenoweth, of New York, of the engagement of her sister, Miss Alice Mills Wood, to Ernesto de Gresto, of Rome, Italy.

Mr. de Gresto is a member of a family belonging to the old aristocracy of Italy. He is at present in the Austrian Tyrol, where Miss Wood is also spending the winter.

The marriage of Miss Gertrude Helen Oberly, daughter of the late John H. Oberly, at one time a member of the Civil Service Commission, and Frank Steele Bright was celebrated last evening at the home of the bride in the Mendota.

The bride's gown was of white crepe de chine and she carried a shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and bride roses.

Flagger Ball at Palm Beach.

The ball given last night by Mrs. Henry M. Flagger was an elaborate affair. Whitehall, the home of the Flaggers, is one of the beautiful homes in the South, and is filled with fine tapestries, paintings, marbles, and carvings.

A minuet was danced at 10 o'clock by fourteen beautiful young women in colonial costume, with white wigs, Louis Quinze bows, wreaths of rosebuds, and black patches, worn with their handsomest ball gowns.

Col. Moses C. Wetmore, of St. Louis, is a guest at the New Willard. He is here to witness the swearing in of William J. Stone, of his State, who succeeds Senator Vest in the United States Senate.

hidden in the balcony behind tall palms. The cotillon began at 12 o'clock. Mr. Edward Gray, of Boston, leading and dancing the first figure with Mrs. Flagger. The following figures were led by Mr. Gray alone.

At Home.

Miss Blow, of St. Louis and New York, is expected shortly to visit her sister, Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth.

Mrs. George F. Fogle, jr., will be at home, 129 F Street, after March 3.

Mrs. and Miss Barrett will be at home informally this afternoon and Wednesday, March 11.

Will Not Receive.

Mrs. Alger will not receive tomorrow.

Mrs. Max Weyl will not be at home this afternoon.

Notes.

Mrs. Charles Warren Lippitt, of Providence, R. I., who has been visiting here, returned home yesterday.

Mrs. and Miss Hanna will leave today for Thomasville, Ga., where they have planned to pass the spring.

Waldo Story, the sculptor, a brother of Julian Story, the husband of Emma Eames, is at the New Willard.

Mrs. Helen Well, of Cambridge, Mass., who is giving a series of readings under the auspices of the Washington Society for Homeless Dogs, will go to Baltimore on Friday to read "The Idylls of the King," at the home of Mrs. Gilbert Fraser, 14 Mount Vernon Place.

Mrs. Leiter and Miss Daisy Leiter, who went to India to be present at the durbar, are expected home the middle of April. Mr. Leiter, who has not been well for some time, is rapidly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Mylon Roche were given a surprise party last Saturday evening at their home, 1328 T Street, in honor of the birthday of Mr. Roche.

After supper was served, Thomas Moore sang a number of solos, among them "Beyond the Gates of Paradise," and "In the City of Signs and Tears." He was accompanied by Mrs. James Moore and Miss Marie Carruthers.

Those invited were Mr. and Mrs. James Moore, Mr. and Mrs. James Moore, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Benham, Mr. and Mrs. Olive, Mrs. Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Wallie T. Drake, Miss Ida Moore, Miss Mamie Benham, Miss Katie Lawless, Miss Mae Early, Miss Orra Moore, Miss Marie Carruthers, Miss Viola Fowler, Miss Ethel Roche, Miss Mazella Moore, Edward Benham, Thomas Moore, William Olive, Harry Maddert, Douglas Moore, Joseph Benham, Leonard Harrington, Jesse Weinmeyer, Edward Harrington, Henry Sinclair, George O'Neill, William Miller, Frank Benham, Willie Moore, Mylon Roche, Jr., William Harrington, James Long, Charles White, Bernard Divine, Mr. Abbott, Mr. Warren, and Mrs. Vanderhoef.

HEARD IN HOTEL CORRIDORS.

A Virginia Horseman.

J. D. Hooe, of Warrenton, Va., is registered at the Raleigh. If there is any one sport which Mr. Hooe enjoys more than another it is driving a fine horse or riding a speedy "jumper." Mr. Hooe devotes much of his time to raising fast horses and at present possesses a string of the speediest roadsters in Virginia.

Was Governor of Michigan.

Ex-Governor John T. Rich, of Michigan, arrived in the city this morning to attend the convention of the National Wholesale Lumber Dealers' Association. He is registered at the Arlington, where he can be with many of his political friends.

Watching Legislation.

S. Christy Mead, of New York city, secretary of the Merchants' Association of that city, is a guest at the Shoreham. He came to Washington to look in upon the closing sessions of Congress and discuss with New York members legislation to be introduced at the next session.

Bears for the President.

Col. Moses C. Wetmore, of St. Louis, is a guest at the New Willard. He is here to witness the swearing in of William J. Stone, of his State, who succeeds Senator Vest in the United States Senate.

Moore, Mr. and Mrs. James Moore, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Benham, Mr. and Mrs. Olive, Mrs. Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Wallie T. Drake, Miss Ida Moore, Miss Mamie Benham, Miss Katie Lawless, Miss Mae Early, Miss Orra Moore, Miss Marie Carruthers, Miss Viola Fowler, Miss Ethel Roche, Miss Mazella Moore, Edward Benham, Thomas Moore, William Olive, Harry Maddert, Douglas Moore, Joseph Benham, Leonard Harrington, Jesse Weinmeyer, Edward Harrington, Henry Sinclair, George O'Neill, William Miller, Frank Benham, Willie Moore, Mylon Roche, Jr., William Harrington, James Long, Charles White, Bernard Divine, Mr. Abbott, Mr. Warren, and Mrs. Vanderhoef.

A dance and supper was given by the Kendall Green Pleasure Club Tuesday evening, February 23, at the home of Mrs. Kelly, 209 M Street northeast. There was dancing until a late hour, after which supper was served to about seventy-five guests.

Social Doings in Philadelphia.

Miss Stimson, of Boston, who has been visiting relatives in Philadelphia, has returned home.

Miss Laura M. Smith will be the maid of honor at the wedding of Miss Frances Ward Smille and Paul Armon Davis, 3d, which will take place in Washington Wednesday, March 18.

Mrs. Charles Henry Scott, of 1923 Spruce Street, gave a card party yesterday. These present were Miss Julia Berwind, Mrs. H. S. Cannell, Mrs. Lucius Landreth, Mrs. S. C. Price, Mrs. Curtis Patterson, Miss Eleanor Patterson, Miss Louise Scott, Mrs. Charles Whelan.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Duane, 911 Pine Street, will give a dinner on Saturday, March 7, in honor of Miss Blackwood, of Albany, whose engagement to Arthur Dickson has recently been announced.

New York Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Barton French will leave tomorrow for the Hot Springs of West Virginia. They will sail on April 1 for Europe. Mr. French has chartered the steam yacht Calania for a cruise in the Mediterranean.

John D. Rockefeller, accompanied by his wife, son, and a physician, arrived at Kansas City yesterday from the East, en route to California, where he goes to take a two months' rest. He left after a four hours' stop for Denver in the afternoon, on a special train over the Missouri Pacific Railway.

Archbishop Farley gave a large reception last night to meet the new Apostolic delegate, Archbishop Falconio, and to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Pontificate of Leo XIII. It was the first reception that Monsignor Far-

CHINESE SEND SONS TO THIS COUNTRY

EX-PRESIDENT RETURNS TO PRINCETON HOME

Mr. Cleveland Now Goes to Work on Beecher Address. PRINCETON, N. J., March 4.—Ex-President Grover Cleveland, who has been sojourning at Stuart, Fla., returned to his Princeton home yesterday. He appeared to be in excellent health.

"We had a very enjoyable time down in Florida," he said, "and we spent a considerable part of the time boating and fishing. The most unprecedented wet and cool weather, however, kept us indoors a great deal. I am feeling very well, and am sure that the trip has benefited me very much."

Mr. Cleveland will now remain in Princeton most of the time until the university closes in June. He is at present on an address which he will deliver at the Beecher memorial meeting, to be held in Brooklyn next week.

MRS. FLETCHER BURIED IN GLENWOOD CEMETERY

Funeral services over the body of Mrs. Mary Ann Fletcher were held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Virginia Rodenburg, of 819 Third Street northwest, yesterday afternoon. Interment was in Glenwood Cemetery. The Rev. Joseph Kelly, of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, officiated.

The honorary pallbearers were Col. Robert N. Harper, of Leesburg, Va.; the Hon. John F. Rixey, of Culpeper, Va.; and Louis F. Schade, Jr., of Fairfax, Va. Active pallbearers were Charles W. Lewis, of Philadelphia; John Griseby, of this city; Henry Wintinger, of Norfolk, Va.; Dell W. Links, of Philadelphia, and Richard Whitmore, of Richmond, Va.

MR. WOODWARD CALLS.

E. D. Woodward, United States commissioner to the Paris Exposition of 1900, called yesterday at the Agricultural Department to confer with Secretary Wilson. Mr. Woodward is winding up the affairs of his branch of the exposition and his conference with the Secretary was to arrange the final details.

Modest Mr. Allee.

Senator-elect Allee of Delaware, sworn into office yesterday, will make his home for the present at the Raleigh. The senior Senator from Delaware is but forty-five years of age, and although small in stature, is strong in personality. He is affable and pleasing in his manner. Concerning himself, he said to a reporter for The Times: "I did not want to come to the United States Senate. My seat belongs to Mr. Addicks. However, as long as I am here—and, by the way, I will not resign—I will do my best to serve my State and my country to the best of my ability. I am a Jeweler by trade, and live in a little town in my little State. I have always taken an interest in politics, and my selection seemed to be the only solution of the Senate problem, which has vexed our people for several years. That Mr. Addicks will be a member of the Senate in two years, however, there is no doubt."

Lumber Dealers Galore.

A number of the members of the National Wholesale Lumber Dealers' Association are accompanied by their wives, who will enjoy the sights of Washington while their husbands attend the deliberations of the convention. They attended the closing session of Congress this morning, and this afternoon enjoyed a trip to Mount Vernon. They will look in upon the banquet to be held by the lumber dealers at the New Willard tomorrow night and listen to the speeches to be given by the President and others.

Dinners and Receptions Occupy Time of Vanity Fair—Notes From Baltimore and Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt entertained a large party at luncheon yesterday at Sherry's, their guests including Mrs. W. B. Osgood Field and Miss Natica Rives. They leave town today for Oakland Farms, their place at Portsmouth, R. I., accompanied by Mrs. Frederic Neilson.

Mr. and Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., will arrive today or Thursday from California with Hermann Geirichs. They probably will sail next week for Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Lehr have closed their residence in New York and are spending some time at Palm Beach before going abroad.

Happenings in Baltimore.

The Daughters of the American Revolution, Baltimore Chapter, will give a tea tomorrow afternoon at Colonial Hall, on North Charles Street.

An enjoyable oyster roast was given on Monday evening at the Baltimore Country Club by Albert M. Knapp in honor of his brother, George N. Knapp, Jr. There was present a large and fashionable contingent. The affair was novel in arrangement, the floral decorations being spinach, cabbage, and a number of other vegetables. The walls were draped in Southern straw and hung with humorous signs. The music, vocal and instrumental, was furnished by a troupe of minstrels from Georgia.

The Maryland Country Club will celebrate the twenty-first anniversary of its organization Thursday evening, March 19, at 8 o'clock, at the Town House, Mount Royal terrace. A banquet will be given, and there will be music by the Madrigal Club, assisted by Fisher's Orchestra. Prominent speakers will respond to toasts. The club, city, State, and country will be represented. The banquet will be held in the ballroom, where all who subscribe will be comfortably seated. The committee in charge consists of Charles W. Sloan, chairman; Charles W. Heustler, Wallace L. Ball, Frederick D. Hall, William A. Pullock, Charles F. Corning, and Frank M. Dushane.

The Woman's Literary Club at its meeting yesterday presented a program of translations made under its auspices of the committee on translations, of which Mrs. Frederick Tyson is chairman.

From the French Miss E. C. Nicholas read her translation of "Opportunity," by Leon de Tinseau. From the Italian Mrs. R. K. Cautley read a translation from Ada Negri. Mrs. William C. A. Hammel read "The Love Affairs of Clothilde," translated by her from the Spanish of Armando Palacio Valdes. Mrs. Frederick Tyson read from the French a story by Jean Madeline, and "A Week in Bangkok," by Isabelle Massien.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wormley Latimer read a ballad of St. David, one of the seven clampions of Christendom.

ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL F. L. CAMPBELL CONVALESCENT

Frank L. Campbell, Assistant Attorney General, has recovered from an attack of grip, and resumed his duties this morning.

MR. WOODWARD CALLS.

E. D. Woodward, United States commissioner to the Paris Exposition of 1900, called yesterday at the Agricultural Department to confer with Secretary Wilson. Mr. Woodward is winding up the affairs of his branch of the exposition and his conference with the Secretary was to arrange the final details.

Modest Mr. Allee.

Senator-elect Allee of Delaware, sworn into office yesterday, will make his home for the present at the Raleigh. The senior Senator from Delaware is but forty-five years of age, and although small in stature, is strong in personality. He is affable and pleasing in his manner. Concerning himself, he said to a reporter for The Times: "I did not want to come to the United States Senate. My seat belongs to Mr. Addicks. However, as long as I am here—and, by the way, I will not resign—I will do my best to serve my State and my country to the best of my ability. I am a Jeweler by trade, and live in a little town in my little State. I have always taken an interest in politics, and my selection seemed to be the only solution of the Senate problem, which has vexed our people for several years. That Mr. Addicks will be a member of the Senate in two years, however, there is no doubt."

Lumber Dealers Galore.

A number of the members of the National Wholesale Lumber Dealers' Association are accompanied by their wives, who will enjoy the sights of Washington while their husbands attend the deliberations of the convention. They attended the closing session of Congress this morning, and this afternoon enjoyed a trip to Mount Vernon. They will look in upon the banquet to be held by the lumber dealers at the New Willard tomorrow night and listen to the speeches to be given by the President and others.

Used Uprights Reduced.

New England . . $150 Gilbert . . . $150 Marshall & Wendall . $125 Starr . . . $250 Wheelock . . . $125 Emerson . . . $275 Smith & Barnes . $175 Heller . . . $225 Richmond . . . $200 Square . . . $25 up

Pianola, slightly used, for $150.

WM. KNABE & CO 1209 Penna. Avenue.

CLERICAL CHANGES IN INTERIOR DEPARTMENT

Appointments, Promotions, Transfers, and Resignations Announced.

The following official changes have been made in the Department of the Interior:

Patent Office—Appointments: Maurice K. Peck, of Nebraska, and John W. Peters, of Mississippi, fourth assistant examiners, at $1,200; Abbie E. Dawson, of Kentucky, and Mary E. Pretty, of Pennsylvania, copyists, at $720. Promotions: Leonard T. Haney, District of Columbia, and Florence V. Merillat, District of Columbia, model attendants at $800 to copyists at $900; Noel E. Eccleston, of Maryland, and Emma G. Brashears, District of Columbia, copyists at $720 to model attendants at $800; Aaron R. Townshend, of Maryland, second assistant examiner at $1,600; Robert C. Fautleroy, of Virginia, third assistant examiner at $1,400 to second assistant examiner at $1,600; William M. Cady, of Ohio, and Arthur H. Brown, of Massachusetts, fourth assistant examiners at $1,200 to third assistant examiners at $1,400. Resignation: Alfred W. Proctor, of Massachusetts, third assistant examiner at $1,400. Reinstatement: John O'Connell, District of Columbia, copyist, at $720.

Pension Office—Resignation: Hugh LaGrange, of New York, clerk at $1,200. Promotions: Robert S. McCall, of Missouri, special examiner at $1,300 to clerk at $1,400; Virgie L. Arledge of Texas, Ada M. Jeffery of Ohio, Abram Myers of Iowa, and William H. H. Price, clerks at $1,200 to $1,400; Edna M. Slater, of Missouri, Emily Smith of New Jersey, and Walter E. Winslow of Missouri, clerks at $1,000 to $1,200; William T. Bannerman of Wisconsin, Christian H. Dewey of Illinois, Matthew Tierney of Maryland, and Edward T. Thompson, of Iowa, copyists at $800 to clerks at $1,000; Charles E. Warren, District of Columbia, messenger at $840 to copyist at $900; Charles E. Cook, of Pennsylvania, assistant messenger at $720 to messenger at $840.

General Land Office—Resignation: Charles H. Squires, of California, clerk at $1,000. Promotion: Oswald N. Burke, of New York, copyist at $900 to clerk at $1,000.

LOCAL MENTION.

Anderson's Jams. Two jars, 25c. Order quick. Limited supply. Jas. D. Donnelly, Fourteenth and I Streets.

The Best-Known Brand of Whiskey On the market, honestly advertised, is Oronoco Rye, $1 per quart bottle. Edward J. Quinn, sole distributor, 604 Pennsylvania Avenue. Phone 761-Y.

Reputation Built on Quality. Oronoco Rye Whiskey, $1 full quart bottle. Ed. J. Quinn, sole distributor, 604 Pennsylvania Avenue. Phone 761-Y.

Sewing Machine Renting & Repairing. Auerbach, 7 & H, Domestic Office; phone E. 722.

Badges, Regalia Costumes. Gundlach, 813 Seventh Street northwest.

Durbar of Delhi, Venice, Switzerland, and other motion pictures at private residences, 915 to 925, Ararat Co., 627 E Street northwest. Phone E. 181-M.

Expert Watchmakers. Childs & Covert, 611 Seventh Street northwest.

Fresh Country Eggs, Only 18c Dozen. Choice of everything—substantial and delicious. Fresh-killed poultry, tender, light meats, all the early vegetables. Lowest prices. Cash. H. Jarman, Home Market, Eleventh and I.

"Rusterholtz Home-made Cookies" Are delicious. Ask your grocer for them. Wholesale only at Spicer's, 538 Louisiana ave.

3,000 Hours in Bed. Is time comfortably spent when using one of Jones' mattresses. Renovating a specialty. L. T. Jones, 623 H Street. Telephone E. 206.

Our Specialties. Shoemaker's Tennessee, $1 bottle. Shoemaker's Penn. Rye, $1.25 bottle. Shoemaker's V. S. R. V., $2 bottle. The above only at 1231 E St. n.w.

Best American and Imported Hops. Enter into the composition of Old Glory, the delicious dark beer of the Abner-Drury Brewing Co. Phone Main 3128.

Dove Brand Hams a Specialty. Miller & Krogmann, Hams, Bacon, Pork and Lard. The best that money can buy. 401-425 4th Center Market.

Where to Get Delicatessen. Perotti's Restaurant, French and American cooking, 520 Pennsylvania Avenue northwest.

"Old Sherwood" Pure Rye. 10c at the bar. Elegant Pool and Billiard rooms. Thomas W. Bell, 407 Tenth Street northwest. Phone M. 2828.

THE "OLDE HOME," 717 11th Street N. W., between G and H Streets. The best homelike meals for the least money. Try it.

Violets, Sweet and Fragrant. Shaffer's, 14th and I Sts., 1711 Pa. ave.

A RED NOSE. I can positively cure red nose, red face, and blotchy, pimply, ugly skin, no matter what the cause. Consultation in person or by letter is free and strictly confidential.

JOHN M. WOODBURY, Dermat. Inst., 1109 and E Street N. W., Washington.

Be on the safe side. If you have a cough, don't take chances with it, but buy yourself a bottle of Williams' Frustrant Cough Syrup, which will cure it at once. 15c a Bottle.

WILLIAMS' DRUG STORE Corner 9th and F.

Gold-filled Eyeglasses, $1. Glasses to be near and at a distance, $1.50. A. K. KARR, 535 F St. n.w.

Situations. —If you are out of employment, use Times Want ads.—1 cent a word.

PETER GROGAN, Credit for All Washington.

FIRST SHOWING OF NEW SPRING STYLES IN MATTINGS, BABY CARRIAGES, GO-CARTS, AND FURNITURE.

CREDIT

MAKES THE BUYING A PLEASURE. NO NOTES. NO INTEREST.

Our new lines of Chinese and Japanese Mattings have been selected with unusual care, and include the most durable qualities obtainable. No need of buying Mattings by the roll, when we charge only for the actual number of yards required to cover your floor. We tack them down free. The new Baby Carriages and Go-Carts are very beautiful, and are modern to the minute. All on credit.

PETER GROGAN, 817-819-821-823 SEVENTH ST. N. W. Between H and I Sts.

Dermatology, Manicuring, Chiropody.

Manicuring Free!

—Just a special offer for the month of March. Those taking a month's treatment for either SKIN or SCALP troubles will be given a free MANICURE each week during the month.

J. S. LITTLE, The new Dermatological Parlors. S. E. Corner F and 11th Sts. Entrance, 527 11th St.

"Wear Well" Shoes for Women, $3.00

—The very best shoes the money ever bought. They compare with any $3.00 shoes in the world—and we challenge comparison.

EDMONSTON'S, 1334 F Street

Spring Languor

—It is often a forerunner of Malaria. Get the system in good shape with

"Elixir Babek"

AT ALL DRUGGISTS. m5-47

Droop's Music Special.

"DOWN WHERE THE COCONUT GROWS" "WHILE THE CONVENT BELLS RINGING" "WHEN IT'S ALL GOIN' OUT, NOTHING COMIN' IN" "BELIEVE" "TWO LIPS" "MAIDEN WITH THE DREAMY EYES" —AND MANY OTHERS— OUR PRICE, 17 CENTS EACH.

E. F. Droop & Sons, 925 Pa. Ave.

SEWING MACHINE BARGAINS...

Singer Machine—oak, drop $25.00 load. New Home... $12.00 Household... $10.00 White... $7.50

Warranted Five years. Machines on credit, 20c per week. Mail orders receive prompt attention. S. OPPENHEIMER & BRO., 514 9th St. N. W.

$5 Teeth That Fit.

LOWEST prices on Crown, Bridge-work, and Fillings. PAINLESS EXTRACTION. DR. PATTON'S Union Dental Parlors, Second Floor, 910 F. N. W. [all-47]