

AFFAIRS IN THE REALM OF SOCIETY.

Sagamore Hill Awaits the Visit of Mrs. Roosevelt and the President's Family, Fixed for June 15.

White House. Sagamore Hill is being put in shape for the return of Mrs. Roosevelt and the President's family, which is said to be fixed for June 15.

Miss Alice Roosevelt, on leaving Porto Rico, will go to Brookline, Mass., to spend Easter with her grandmother, Mrs. George Lee.

Diplomatic Notes. Contrary to the published report, no change in the Siamese legation is anticipated. The present minister, who has been so acceptable to the authorities here, and has served his own government so creditably, will not be disturbed in his position.

The new naval attaché of the Russian embassy, Commander Alexandre Boutakoff, has leased the house at 2010 R Street, formerly occupied by its predecessor, Baron Fersen.

Prince Abdallah Mirza was a passenger on board the Etruria, which arrived in New York Sunday. The prince possessed the card of the Persian consul in this city, and through that alone he was able to make a cabman understand that he desired to be taken to the consul's residence, in Fifth Avenue.

Engagements and Weddings. Cards have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jefferson, of Montclair, N. J., for the marriage of their daughter, Eugenie, to Ramsey Wigginton.

Mount Vernon Euchre Club. The Mount Vernon Euchre Club was pleasantly entertained Friday evening last at the home of Miss Koss, 214 Florida Avenue northwest.

WHO'S WHO IN HOTELS.

Charles A. Towne Out of Politics. "I have not been interviewed in two years," said the Hon. Charles A. Towne to a reporter for The Times last night at the Raleigh.

Which charged that the Southern road discriminated against that city as compared with other cities in the same section. The case has frequently been before the commission and all the testimony was submitted some months ago.

Would Ship Bryan to Distant Climes. Judge Thomas Wilson, a former member of Congress from Minnesota, is registered at the New Willard. He is a Democrat, but not of the sort to follow after the free silver ideas of the candidates at the last two elections.

Fellow-Worker With Noted Scribes. James A. Tidford, of New York, but formerly of Denver, Col., is a guest at the New Willard. When he lived in Denver he was employed on the "Denver Tribune."

Salary Larger Than President's. Judge Ed Baxter, of Nashville, Tenn., one of the ablest lawyers in the South, is registered at the Raleigh. He is in Washington to represent the Southern Railroad before the Interstate Commerce Commission in the complaint made against that road a year ago by the Charlotte Shippers' Association.

those present were the Misses S. Cooper, F. Cooper, J. Durity, G. Rollins, A. McConvey, M. Coomes, E. Koss, M. Tucker, M. Morgan and Messrs. Elder, Devine, Hoyne, Downing and Evans. The next meeting will be at the residence of C. Downing, 514 R Street northwest.

Mrs. Draper will give a children's fancy dress ball Easter Monday. She has sensibly set the time for the afternoon from 3 to 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh have returned to Washington from a three weeks' stay at Palm Beach. While they were in Florida Mr. and Mrs. Walsh entertained assiduously.

A. H. Jacobs and Miss Jacobs, of 1107 Massachusetts Avenue northwest, have gone to Atlanta, Ga., for a stay of several weeks. Mr. Jacobs, who has been ill for the past year, hopes by rest and change of climate to regain his health.

Leonard Wood, with his aide, Lieut. Frank McCoy, U. S. A., and Capt. H. L. Scott, will sail next Saturday from Boston for Naples, and thence to the Philippines. Mrs. Wood will not accompany her husband at present, but with her children will spend the summer in Europe.

Daniel Lamont and Mrs. Lamont and George Cornwallis-West will be passengers on the White Star Line steamer Oceanic, which is to sail from Liverpool on Wednesday for New York.

A fashionable affair of Thursday will be the Rev. Dr. Stafford's lecture at the Lafayette Opera House, in the interest of the work of poor churches. The boxholders include the Mexican, Italian, Austrian, and French ambassadors, the Secretary of Commerce, the Argentine minister, Mme. Bonaparte, and a number of other men and women prominent in official and social life.

Social Doings in New York. A second daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay on Sunday evening at Harbor Hill, their country seat, at Roslyn, L. I. Mr. and Mrs. Mackay were married five years ago, and their first child, a daughter, was born on February 5, 1900, and was named after her mother, Katherine Duer Mackay.

Secretary Root's Farm. Ellihu Root, Secretary of War, on his visit to Clinton last week, purchased a farm of one hundred and fifty acres, one mile west of Clinton, for which he paid $25,000. This is one of the finest farms in the county, and contains rich fruit orchards, and an excellent sugar orchard. It adjoins the old Root homestead, which Secretary Root recently purchased, and gives him a holding of 225 acres, reaching back to College Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Julien T. Davies entertained at dinner on Sunday evening in the Ladies' Annex of the Metropolitan Club. Mme. Nordica was the guest of honor. Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Warren also gave a small dinner on the same evening at their residence.

Miss Josephine Drexel was the hostess last night of the Monday Evening Club. The program included a monologue by Miss Daisy Bartholomew, instrumental music and a banjo recital by Miss Beach, and humorous poems by Richard H. Gaines.

In honor of Mme. Roger-Miclos, the distinguished pianiste, a "soiree indienne" was given last night by Edmund Russell in his studio, Ardsley Hall, Central Park West. Mme. Lillian Blauvelt and Miss E. Grant Van Tassel assisted Mme. Miclos in receiving, with Mr. Russell, the guests of the evening.

A unique feature of the entertainment was the Hindu atmosphere of the affair. At the entrance of his apartment a Hindu servant, dressed in the native robe, greeted the guests with the Hindu greeting, "Salaam, mabaraja and maharant, salaam." In the corridor approaching the receiving room another Hindu continually sang native songs in the peculiar minor key of the Oriental.

An Indian supper was served, consisting of many dishes peculiar to Oriental tastes, such as currie of chicken and apricots, in Persian fashion; jam of rose leaves and Indian cordial, mangoes, and sirups. Mme. Miclos entertained her friends on the piano, Mme. Blauvelt sang, and Edmund Russell recited.

Mrs. Joseph F. Stone gave a dinner for young people last night at her home, 123 East Thirty-eighth Street. The woman of the party came with powdered hair. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Hoffman, Miss Beatrice Kenney, Miss Fowler, Miss Mamie Pomeroy, Miss Gertrude Wood, Miss Emma Stone, Miss Margot Stone, Dr. Clark, H. Duncan Wood, Jr., and H. R. Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Burton Harrison, who left town early last week for California, are now staying at San Mateo with D. O. Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., are booked to sail next Saturday, and there is quite a large contingent of Philadelphia Society. An interesting and largely attended meeting was held yesterday at the house of Miss Mary Coles, 2111 Walnut Street. The subject under discussion was the "Relation of Good City Government to the Needs of the Poor." John Glenn, a well-known philanthropist, of Baltimore, and Miss Richmond, secretary of the Society for Organized Charities, were the speakers. They held the attention of the audience for nearly two hours.

The Sagamore Club held its monthly meeting at the Flanders last evening. The guests of honor included ex-Mayor Edwin S. Stuart, Judge A. M. Beiler, Frederick W. King, William Parker Davis, Jr., and William C. Johnson, Jr. Edwin M. Abbott acted as toastmaster.

Mrs. W. H. Gardner, of 111 West Ninety-second Street, New York, gave a dinner of ten covers for Miss Bertha Levin, of North Pittcaneh Street, Philadelphia, who is visiting her, followed by a box party at Madison Square Garden.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Van Rensselaer, accompanied by Miss Mae Fell and Miss Elizabeth Meade, have returned from Palm Beach.

Mrs. Frank D. Van Nostrand, of New York, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Daniel, of 1421 Diamond Street.

Baltimore Jottings. Extensive preparations are being made for the Easter german to be given on the evening of April 15 by the Maryland Lane Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at the Lyceum parlors. The affair is being arranged for the girls who will be debutantes next year and the following winter to meet some of the older men.

The function is to be under the direction of Miss Alice Glimor, who is planning many original and artistic figures. A feature of the event will be the dancing of the minuet. The german will be led by G. Bernard Penwick. The patrons comprise Mrs. Charles J. Pennington, Mrs. L. Tyson Manly, Mrs. George T. M. Gibson, Mrs. L. Victor Baughman, Mrs. C. Iradell Iglehart, Mrs. J. Pembroke Thom, Mrs. Julian E. Buller, and Mrs. Nathan R. Gorter, Misses Serena C. Williams, Elizabeth C. Williams, Alice Key Blunt, Lillian Giffin, and Miss Glimor.

The object of the dance is to provide funds for the building of a memorial fountain in the city for the men of Maryland who fell in the revolutionary war.
