

B. & O. AND READING OFFICIALS CONFER

Freight and Passenger Business Discussed.

An important conference relating to freight and passenger business matters was held in Philadelphia yesterday...

After conferring for some time in the office of the president, those present adjourned to the office of Vice President Henderson...

Since the purchase of the majority interest in the Reading by the Baltimore and Ohio, President Loeve has been busy perfecting freight and passenger traffic matters...

President Baer recently accompanied President Loeve of the Baltimore and Ohio road on a tour of inspection of the West Virginia and Western Pennsylvania coal fields...

Steamships From Mexico to New York.

W. B. Ryan, traffic manager of the Teahupape Railroad, Mexico, left Mexico City yesterday for New York...

While the report cannot be verified, it is said he is going to New York for the purpose of establishing a steamship line from New York to the eastern terminus of his line...

Several officers of the road with which Mr. Ryan is connected were in Washington several days ago, and they discussed the proposed steamship line with local railroad men...

Fills a Difficult Post.

W. W. Loree, recently made general superintendent of the Pittsburg district of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, was in Washington yesterday morning...

The Pittsburg district is one of the most difficult to handle on that line. Its continuous congested condition requires constant attention to keep traffic on the move...

Within the past two years, a half dozen men have been in charge of the district. Each one has either resigned to accept another position with the road or has accepted a position with some other line...

Double Tracking the Southern.

A large additional force will be put to work on the double track work now being done by the Southern Railway between Alexandria and Orange...

Personal Notes and News Items.

J. W. Leonard, general superintendent of the Canadian Pacific central division, has been appointed to succeed Thomas Tate...

The directors of the three Reading companies held their regular monthly meeting yesterday in Philadelphia. Nothing but routine business was transacted...

The Pennsylvania Road carried more Atlantic City passengers in the Easter season this year than in any previous similar season. Several special trains were run to accommodate the trade...

The special train over the Southern Railroad leaving Washington yesterday for San Francisco, and carrying two companies of the Engineer Corps, will arrive tonight in Memphis. The train consisted of ten tourist sleeping cars and two baggage cars...

Uncle Reuben's Opinion. "They may say what they please, but listen—bear me. I've taken all kinds of laxatives, purgatives, and cathartics, but when it comes to one that is easy and pleasant to take, mild and gentle in its action, and that makes one want an extra slice of bacon for breakfast, just give me Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and you may have all the laxative syrups, dyspepsia medicines, and pills, little or big, there is in this country. Them tablets surely do make one feel joyful." For sale by Henry Evans, wholesale and retail, and all druggists.

CANNOT TAKE OATH TO DEFEND CONSTITUTION

S. R. Wills Objects Because Instrument Fails to Recognize the Deity.

The Navy Department has encountered the peculiar case of a man who refused appointment under the Government because the oath which he is required to subscribe to obliges him to defend the Constitution of the United States...

Mr. Wills wants the oath modified so that he will only be required to defend the "Government" instead of the "Constitution." He is willing to defend the Government, because in many ways, such as the employment of chaplains in the Senate and House and in the President's Thanksgiving proclamation...

There are instances, however, where, to meet objections raised by such persons as Mr. Wills, the Secretary of State has modified the oath necessary for the issuance of a passport...

Mr. Wills' religious scruples do not permit him to take the oath unless it is modified, and hence the Navy Department will be obliged to get another man for third-class assistant inspector of steel.
