

FORT MYER TROOPERS IN FIRST FIELD GAMES

Outdoor Meet Held Yesterday Draws Large Crowd.

SOCIETY FOLK OUT IN FORCE

Program Both Varied and Interesting. Contestants Cover Themselves With Glory Before Admiring Throng.

Society was out in force yesterday afternoon to witness the first field day games of the Fort Myer troopers held on the main parade ground at the fort. It is estimated that close to 2,000 persons saw the sport, which consisted of an exciting program of outdoor maneuvers. The contestants were members of the Second Cavalry and the Fourth Artillery, Field Battery.

Many of those who attended were conveyed to the ground in automobiles and carriages, and despite the cold, biting wind that swept over the hills and the parade ground there was a galaxy of spring clothing and Easter bonnets, which presented a kaleidoscope of color as the crowd strolled about to keep warm between the events.

The games proved the most successful ever held in the history of the fort. The ground was in excellent condition, and all of the events were run off without a mishap.

Schedule of Events. A relay race, 200 yards and return, was the first event on the program, and the men took the mark promptly at 2:30. The Fourth Battery team, composed of Sergeant Bratton, Corporal Lauza, and Privates Bellows and Reilly, won the event.

In practically every contest in which their men were entered the Fourth Battery came out victorious. In the second event Farrier McKinney proved the swiftest tent pegger. Sergt. P. Armstrong was second. The following were the contestants by troops:

Troop E—Trumpeter Muller, Privates Eleer and Bingham. Troop F—Saddler Frank L. Campbell, Privates Sidney Randle, Charles A. McCormick, and Private Wallace, Fourth Battery.

Troop G—Farrier McKinney, Privates Denton and Dwyer. Troop H—Sergts. P. Armstrong, Edward A. Strachan, and William McGrath.

The most hair-raising event on the card was the third. Sections of the artillery-branch of the service were entered. The batteries drove at top speed between two rows of pegs, which were located only eight inches apart. The batteries, unlimbered, swung their pieces into position, fired a volley, and rebarreled their teams after making the circuit. Following are the sections which competed:

The event was won by section left, platoon, under the command of Sergeant Feeney.

A Stirring Sight. The rescue race, one of the most stirring events on the program, brought out a field of ten. The race was marked by the most stirring horsemanship, and was won by Sergeants Grammer and Mc-Ninch, Fourth Battery. Following were the competitors: Privates Miller and Shawadas, Troop 7; Privates Montgomery and Farron, Troop F; Private Egana second; Sergeant Moulton, and Trumpeter Fox, Troop G; Sergeant Pickett and Private Lucas, Troop H; Sergeants Mc-Ninch and Grammer, Fourth Battery.

The potato race, fifth on the program, while provided for the amusement of the spectators principally, necessitated the fastest kind of riding by the contestants. Corporal Dodds, Fourth Battery, won, with Private Egana second. The entries: Private Jackson, Troop E; Private Egana, Troop G; Corporal Grace, substitute, Troop G; Private Webb, Troop F; Private Warren, Troop H.

The last event, single sticks on horseback, proved one of the most interesting and vigorous on the program. The men engaged in combat on horseback, protected by a helmet and padded coat. It was won by Troop G. The following troops contested: Troop E, Corporals Beck, Sulway, Van Gorpel, and Private Lee; Troop F, Corporals Davidson and Davis, Trumpeter Laird, and Private Holland; Troop G, Corporals Bailey and Waughel, and Privates Ellison and White, Corporal Moret, substitute, and Troop H, Corporals Shaffer, Stewart, and Moss, and Private Lattner.

The troop of cavalry commanded by Capt. Lloyd M. Brett will leave for New York Sunday, where it will compete in the Madison Square Garden indoor tournament.

RAIN MARS SPORT ON ATLANTIC CITY LINKS

Second Day of the Annual Spring Golf Tournament.

W. J. TRAVIS IN RARE FORM

The Champion Made Morning Round in Seventy-Two and the Afternoon in Eighty-Two Strokes.

ATLANTIC CITY, April 24.—With weather and ground conditions not the best for golfing, the annual spring tournament of the Country Club of Atlantic City, began over the Northfield links yesterday. Just as the morning round was finishing a cold north wind veered to the east, and a misty-like rain fell, making raincoats and umbrellas a necessity, to the discomfort of the caddies, who were doubly burdened with the usual bag of clubs and protective apparel.

Considering the beastly weather of the past month the links were in excellent condition, soft and sloppy on the meadow side, but the greens played true. Thanks to the efforts of Secretary Walter E. Edge, who had the pairings well arranged, the first pair teed off promptly at the hour appointed, and all of the thirty-nine entrants had turned in their cards for the morning round before luncheon.

Champion Walter J. Travis, playing in the most nonchalant manner, made the morning round of eighteen holes in seventy-two strokes, and the afternoon round in eighty-two, leading the next player, C. H. Kirk, a Philadelphia club, representing the Aronink Club, by twelve strokes. The merit of the champion's performance may be appreciated when it is known that bogie for the course is eighty-one, having been reduced a stroke owing to the distance of the third hole having been shortened. Quite a gallery followed Travis on the afternoon round, and as he played in a most consistent manner, they had a going target. He made the eighteen holes in two 3's, four 4's, two 5's, and one 6, the latter being at the third hole near the meadow land, where the champion made two bad puts. His approach was faultless over the entire course, with this one exception.

The first sixteen qualified for the Atlantic City or Governor's Cup; the section that over before, the work will cost the club something like $2,000. The first event that the club will give will be a house party to the ladies and gentlemen who are to be patrons at the theater party on May 4. There will be several club regattas, and the usual big Potomac River regatta later on in the season.

PENSIONS ISSUED. Pensions of local interest have been issued as follows: District of Columbia—Increase—William Kelly, Soldiers' Home, Washington, $6; Clarence O. Perry, Soldiers' Home, Washington, $46; Benjamin F. Smith, Washington, $55. Maryland—Increase—Robert Wilson, Allen, $10; David Bloom, Uniontown, $10; Alexander Gross, Baltimore, $10; Samuel A. Holland, Bridge, $8; Perry H. Hobbs, Salisbury, $17; Charlotte E. Jackson, Ellicott City, $8; Auguste A. Seibert, Baltimore, $8; and John Berg, Baltimore, $40. Virginia—Original—William Blocker, Ettrick, $6—Increase—James S. Douglas, Alexandria, $12; Matilda Mathews, Ghosens Station, $12; Susan J. Sheffer, Churchville, $12.

WORKMEN MASSACRE JEWS. ST. PETERSBURG, April 24.—Twenty-five Jews were killed and 275 were wounded during anti-Semitic riots at Kishineff, capital of Bessarabia, when a number of workmen organized an attack on the Jewish inhabitants.

KAISER DECORATES "FIGHTERS." BERLIN, April 24.—Besides Commodore Scheder, who received the Order of the Red Eagle of the Second Class, all the other German commanders of ships which belonged to the Venezuelan blockade squadron have been decorated with the Order of the Red Eagle of the third or fourth class.

NATIONAL GUARD GAMES TO BE HELD TONIGHT

Events and Entries—Qualifying Trials Run Off Last Evening.

VIRGINIA NOTES.

RICHMOND. The senate committee for courts of justice held a long session yesterday evening considering the case of Judge Campbell, but failed to reach an agreement. It is thought the matter will be disposed of today; but that there will be two reports, one favoring concurrence in the resolution of removal and the other taking the ground that the case is not in shape for the senate to take action.

The Jamestown exposition bill, carrying an appropriation of $200,000, was passed by the senate yesterday by a vote of 21 to 11, receiving one more vote than was necessary. There was great rejoicing when Senator Tyler cast the twenty-first ballot for the measure that insures the success of the tercentenary exposition, and then Senator Watkins cast his vote in favor of the measure.

The Rev. Thomas Carter Page, until recently rector of Christ Protestant Episcopal Church, in Cambridge, has accepted a call to a parish in Virginia. He is now recuperating at Wickliffe, Va., and has written to his "friends in Cambridge" a denial of statements in regard to the present state of his health and voice and as to what he regards as the summary treatment he received at the hands of the vestry.

Dr. George A. Harter, of Delaware College, Newark, Del., has been selected by the Tome contestants, and the Rev. George Ely, of Columbia, Pa., by the York debaters, as judges for the joint debate between the Jacob Tome Institute and York Collegiate Institute, to be held today. They will select a third judge.

William W. Melvin was found dead in bed from heart failure in Snow Hill yesterday morning. He was eighty-one years old. For a number of years he was connected with the steamboat lines plying the Potomac River. He leaves a widow.

J. R. Marriott, who has been visiting Frederick for the past month, departed yesterday for the island of Martinique, where he will spend some time. He will then go to Alaska, where he has property, and attend to some business, after which he will return to his home in Los Angeles, Cal.

Mrs. Sarah Lehman Brown died Wednesday at her home on West Washington Street, Hagerstown, in the eightieth year of her age. She leaves four children—E. Rebecca, Sue Elizabeth, Mrs. William E. Foltz, Hagerstown, and William Alfred, Philadelphia.

REVENUE CUTTER ASSIGNMENT. J. A. Burns of Washington, who was recently appointed acting second assistant engineer in the revenue cutter service, has been assigned to duty on the revenue cutter Seminole, now at Baltimore.

He will proceed to his station immediately. The Seminole is in port for overhauling and repairing. After her winter cruise of the coast of Massachusetts and Maine, as soon as the repairs are complete she will return to her post.

DEATH OF DR. TAYLOR. Word comes from Columbus, Ohio, of the death of Dr. A. E. Taylor, one of the most widely known Presbyterian ministers in this country.

Dr. Taylor was pastor of the West Street Church, Georgetown, from 1865 to 1889, and married Miss Lucy E. Munson, of Munson Hill, Alexandria county, Va. He will be remembered as a thoroughly genial and scholarly man, and a writer of numerous newspaper articles on religious life.

Dr. Taylor was born in Springfield, Ohio, August 27, 1824, was a graduate of Princeton University and was president of the University of Wooster from 1873 to 1883.
