THE BASEBALL DEAL STILL HANGING FIRE

Whole Affair Savors of a Tempest in a Teapot, and There Are But Slim Chances of Its Consummation.

Postal, Loftus, and Johnson Held Conference Last Night and Again Today, and Still Say "Nothing Doing."

Despite the fact that Ban Johnson, Fred Postal, Tom Loftus et al. held a lengthy conference at the Hotel Oxford last night no sale has been announced of the Washington Baseball Club as yet.

When asked if there was any likelihood of an agreement being reached today, Postal said "No" in a solemn tone.

It is plainly evident that a hitch has occurred in the deal which neither side is willing to discuss, and at the same time both have been prone to shift the burden of the delay upon the shoulders of the others.

Yesterday in discussing the delay Frank Hiss said Mr. Jacobson's hesitancy in closing matters at once, is a natural one; that he does not care to burden himself with a load of the club's debt, and will not pass over the funds until he knows exactly what the club owes.

Opinions Differ. Quite a wide diversity of opinion when the position of the other side is taken into consideration.

Postal reiterated yesterday afternoon in the presence of Ban Johnson and Elmer Allor, at American League Park, the trio viewing the game from rear seats in the grandstand—that he asked $3 for his stock, and was willing to pay one-half the club's debts.

When seen this morning the man in question said that Ban Johnson alone is responsible for holding up his offer, because he well knows it would mean that Loftus would be forced out, and that he (Johnson) has every reason to desire to protect Loftus, because of services rendered Johnson in the past.

When seen this morning the man in question said that Ban Johnson alone is responsible for holding up his offer, because he well knows it would mean that Loftus would be forced out, and that he (Johnson) has every reason to desire to protect Loftus, because of services rendered Johnson in the past.

Postal said he intended leaving town tonight with Mr. Allor for Detroit. Loftus departs with his team for New York. Ban Johnson goes along.

Hence the scene of operations shifts and there will be but few regrets here, in consequence, since the whole affair savors of a family row, but lately patched up, and the chances are nothing at all will be done. Postal will remain as president of the club, with Loftus as its manager, and the sale rumor result in little else than a tempest in a teapot.

GAMBLING STOPPED ON ATHLETICS' GROUNDS

Six Layers of Wagers Pinched at the Ball Park.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 7.—That the Athletic management is sincere in its efforts to stop the practice of betting within Columbia Park was shown yesterday when no fewer than six persons were arrested during the progress of the game and taken to the police station.

The contest had not progressed far before one man was arrested in the bleachers, and this was followed by three arrests among the crowd in the open stands and two in the pavilion.

The men were taken to the station-house, and will probably be arraigned for a hearing today.

Four of the men arrested by Police-woman Warner and Hopkins, of the Twentieth and Jefferson Streets station, gave their names as Leonard Hill, thirty years, of 1139 Coloma Street; Charles Moscany, thirty-six years, of 1335 South Sixteenth Street; Rube Royal, thirty-three years, of 2917 North Ninth Street, and Frederick Hess, twenty-seven years, of 3905 Arcadia Street.

They will have a hearing today before Magistrate Pullinger.

SENIORS WALLOP THE JUNIORS IN CLOSE GAME

The senior department of the District Athletic Club took a fall out of the junior department of the same organization yesterday and won in the twelfth inning by 6 to 5.

The game was a pitchers' battle between Sullivan and Niedfeldt, and should have ended in a victory for the latter pitcher, but for an error of Kane in the ninth, which let in three scores. The series stands even, a victory and defeat for each club, and Sunday's game will decide the contest.

BASTON, Md., Aug. 7.—The annual regatta of the Chesapeake Bay Yacht Club will take place on the Tred Avon River tomorrow. This will be the second leg of the contest for the handsome silver service donated by the members of the club. The John B. Harrison, owned by Mr. McAllister of Baltimore, won the race last year. The yacht winning three races is entitled to the ownership of the silver service. This year's regatta is expected to be one of the best ever held under the auspices of the club.

ERNE IN THE FIRST.

CHESTER, Pa., Aug. 7.—The first round of what was supposed to be the wind-up of the game of the West End Athletic Club, of Chester, last evening proved to be fatal to the aspirations of Jack McLane. In less than half a minute Erne landed a right cross to the jaw, McLane dropped, and it was a couple of hours later when he had fully recovered.

SENATORS SHUT OUT BY HIGHLANDERS

Clark Griffith's Invaders Do the Trick, 4 to 0.

TANNEHILL FOOLS THEM

"Jess" Allowed Statesmen But Three Scratch Hits, While Wilson Was Hit Hard and Frequently.

The Senators were either assailed by stage fright, due to the eagle eyes of Ban Johnson, Fred Postal, and Mr. Allor riveted upon them yesterday afternoon, or else they had kinks in their backs they couldn't untwist, since they failed miserably to connect with Tannehill's benders, getting in all but three scratch hits.

On the other hand, "Abe" Wilson was the juiciest of cherry pies for the Invaders, and the merry crack of their bats was heard far and near.

A Slow Game. The game was a slow and uninteresting one and dragged from the start. An occasional bright flash of fielding relieved the monotony, Selbach in particular doing some fine work; but the puerile efforts of the home team at bat were strangely reminiscent of a sand lot club. New York went in to win and did it decisively, having batted in four runs up to their half of the eighth inning when Sheridan finally called the game on account of rain.

No Hits Until Fifth. Not a Senator made a hit until the fifth inning when Coughlin squeezed one through short. Tannehill was never in danger and took matters as coolly as Abe Wilson, when the latter is at his best.

The Invaders broke the ice in the third on O'Connor's two-sacker and Conroy's hit to right. In the sixth more came their way, Williams hit through Moran, who should have gotten it, but he was forced a moment later at second by Fultz. Ganzel singled to left and Dave took second, then came McFarland's two-bagger and both scored.

In the seventh Elberfeld walked, stole second, and scored on Jimmy Williams' two-base rap.

SPALDING'S OFFICIAL GUIDE A VALUABLE ONE

Spalding's Official Football Guide for 1933 has been published earlier this year than usual, owing to the great interest shown all over the country in the newly revised rules which are printed exclusively in the Guide.

As in former years the Guide has been edited by Walter Camp, and surpasses all previous editions in the attractiveness of its contents.

Details of the principal changes in last year's rules, with a diagram showing the new "checkerboard" arrangement, precede the rules themselves. The latter have a new and very copious index which will be of great assistance in finding particular portions of any rule.

The Guide has always made a special feature of illustrations and records, and this year reaches high-water mark in the number of each.

KELLY WILL NOT PART WITH CY SEYMOUR

CINCINNATI, Aug. 7.—When questioned regarding the Seymour episode of Sunday, when that player was taken from the game because he was intoxicated, and later demanded his release, Manager Kelly said:

"On several occasions this season 'Cy' Seymour has asked for his release from the Cincinnati Club, but in each instance he has been refused for the reason that the local club wants Seymour.

"Both President Hermann and I think that there are few more valuable men in the business than Seymour, and to release him just because his imagination is working a bit would be the height of folly.

"There never has been a word said that could lead to the suspicion that we wanted to get rid of Seymour. He is too valuable a man to be disposed of off-hand, and the fact that he slipped up on one occasion is no reason why a strong rope and a tin can should be gotten ready for him."

Pittsburg critics have finally begun war on the gamblers who attend gam z. Barney Dreyfus is also anxious to stamp out this practice.

SALT LAKE CITY BARS ALL PUGILISTIC STARS

SALT LAKE, Utah, Aug. 7.—As a result of the crooked fight put up by Chicago Jack Daly in his meeting with Jerry McCarthy Wednesday night, Chief of Police Burdige came out with an announcement that all prizefighters now in Salt Lake would have to leave town immediately or take their chances of escaping arrest for vagrancy.

Captain Burdige says: "We have reached the conclusion that the best way out of it is to just rid the town of the whole bunch. This thing coming on top of what has been pulled off here is adding insult to injury, and we are going to get them all out of here."

FRED GEBHARD MAKES A TRIPLE KILLING

Former Smart Set Leader Wins Three Races.

RAGLAN WINS $14,000 STAKE

Little Filly Captures the Spinaway Event on the First Day Under New Owner's Colors.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 7.—"Freddie" Gebhard, at one time the glass of fashion among the smart set of New York, is the most popular man in this village today. Through three of his horses, that won races at the track, he jumped into the limelight of publicity, after nearly fifteen years of comparatively quiet inactivity.

Gebhard must have had a hunch that his horses would be successful, for he wore a cerise tie with gold spots, the counterpart of his racing colors, out to the course. Men and women who are superstitious are looking for "signs" to influence their wagers, took this indication of loyalty to the stable as a "tip" and backed his horses. Result: Great joy and increased wealth among the spectators who saw the flaming cravat on the bosom of Gebhard.

Gay Boy First. The Gebhard colt Gay Boy won the opening race in sensational style. A furlong from home the colt was apparently beaten by Coburg, which had a three lengths' advantage, and was running easily. In the last fifty yards Hoar, on Coburg, eased his mount and the colt immediately began to shorten his stride. Fuller was quick to realize this and slipped the race from Hoar on the post by a head.

For a long time the crowd of bettors at the lower end of the grandstand could not realize the fact that Coburg was beaten. The bookmakers thought the posting of Gay Boy's number was a mistake. They cried: "Take down that number, you robbers." For a time it seemed the crowd would fight the decision.

Gebhard's Raglan, which he bought from John E. Madden Wednesday, won the rich Spinaway Stakes, worth $14,000, in a sensational finish by a head. The winner, a half-sister to W. C. Whitney's Gunfire, displayed all the speed and stamina of the latter.

Runs Grand Race. Raglan had the outside position at the start and was compelled to run at least forty yards farther than her rivals. In the stretch she was fourth many lengths behind Memories. After a hard chase she overhauled the leaders and won on the post from Little Em, which beat Memories a head for second money. The wind-up of Gebhard's luck came in the last race. His filly, Cottage Maid, at 25 to 1 in the betting, ran off with the purse. She led from start to finish and the club house contingent yelled with delight.

It was the most memorable day's racing for Gebhard since the days when Eole and St. Saviour delighted Mrs. Langtry by their prowess.

August Belmont made his first visit of the season to the track. It was not an auspicious day for his colors. In the Spinaway Stakes his crack filly Fine Art, a half-sister to Fire Arm and Fire Eater, was left at the post.

Two Horse Race. In the subsequent race Masterman, Belmont's champion old horse, was beaten easily by John A. Drake's Runnels. This contest was practically a match, as all the horses were withdrawn except the two named. The track was very heavy and the time of the race 1:48. Masterman did not run the distance in 1:50, nearly two seconds slower time than that made by Cottage Maid, a "maiden." Masterman's showing was the worst of the season.

This race was a battle royal between the two great betting factions of the East and West, and the latter won. John A. Drake and John W. Gates, combined, won $20,000. Senator P. H. McCarren lost the largest amount, $15,000, among the Eastern plungers.

"JEFF" PRONOUNCED FIT BY PHYSICIANS

Corbett Invents New Blow Known as "Cleveland Punch." What the Wise Ones Say.

HARBIN SPRINGS, Cal., Aug. 7.—Jeffries has been officially pronounced ready for the fight by Dr. C. T. Tillman, who was sent here by the Yosemite Club to see that the champion's physical condition complies with the requirements of the law.

Dr. Tillman saw Jeffries stripped in his training quarters and went over him with stethoscope and tape line. The big fellow's heart, stomach, lungs, liver, spleen and kidneys were examined superficially and declared perfectly normal and sound.

Jeffries cut out his gymnasium work yesterday and walked seven miles. In the afternoon he rested because of the heat.

ALAMEDA, Cal., Aug. 7.—Ex-Champion Corbett has materialized a new punch which he expects to accomplish wonders when he meets Jeffries next week. He calls it the Cleveland punch. It is a sort of down cut, striking the opponent on the clavical bone. Kenny declared Corbett had tried it on him with the result that it floored him several times in rapid succession.

Corbett sparred twenty minutes yesterday with Sam Berger. He seemed very sprightly and later tipped the scales at 185 1/2 pounds. This is the heaviest weight he has yet shown and he claims to feel better than ever before.

Despite his claims of excellent health Corbett's left shoulder is adorned with a plaster, there to knock out a touch of rheumatism or cold.

A canvass of pugilistic experts and prominent fighters as to who would win in the coming encounter between James J. Corbett and James J. Jeffries for the heavyweight championship of the world shows that the majority are of the opinion that Jeffries will be the victor. Here is what the fighters say:

Gus Ruhlin—Jeffries will win. I expect Corbett to give him a hard fight.

"Kid" McCoy—Corbett will be beaten again by Jeffries. The latter is too strong and also too stiff a puncher for him.

Tom Sharkey—Corbett is liable to beat Jeffries this time. Corbett is in such great shape that his condition will help him greatly.

Peter Maher—Corbett has no chance of defeating Jeffries. Jeffries beat him before and he will do so again.

George Gardner—Corbett's condition and his wonderful science will probably assist him in securing the decision on points.

Jack Root—Jeffries will beat Corbett. I don't think Corbett is the great fighter he was several years ago.

"Young Corbett"—I don't care about picking a winner, as both men are my friends. It ought to be a slashing fight.

Terry Corbett will not be able to stand many of Jeffries' body punches.

Matty Mathews—I look for Corbett to secure the decision over Jeffries on points.

Jack Monroe—Jeffries ought to win, as he is too hard for Corbett.

Following are the opinion of prominent promoters of fights:

Eddie Burke—I think Jeffries will surely beat Corbett. I look for him to do the trick in about twelve rounds.

George Considine—Although Corbett is in better shape than ever, I cannot see how he is going to beat such a rugged fighter as Jeffries.

Parson Davies—In comparing both men I can't see how Corbett can possibly beat Jeffries.

Johnny Considine—I think it will be a great fight. I refuse to pick a winner, as both men are my friends.

Jim Kennedy—With both men in such great shape I am of the opinion they will furnish one of the best fights between big men ever fought.

Pat Powers—I agree with Kennedy when he says the fight will be a great one. As Corbett is fit, that will mean a hard fought battle.

Charles White—I refuse to give an opinion as to which man will win. I think Corbett will give Jeffries as good a fight as he did at Coney Island.

Tom O'Rourke—Jeffries will beat Corbett as sure as I am going to eat my dinner.

Sam Bernard—"Jeff" is my selection. He is too strong for Corbett.

Sam Harris—Jeffries should beat Corbett in spite of the latter's great physical condition and cleverness.

Paddy Sullivan—There is nothing to it. Jeffries will win as Waterboy did.

Joe Vendig—Jeffries will carry my money. I think he will win in a canter.

POTOMACS TO HOLD A REGATTA AUGUST 15

Event Will Be Exclusively a "Family" Affair.

The Potomac Boat Club will hold a club regatta on Saturday, August 15. The entries for the rowing events will be limited to the members of that organization.

An invitation has been extended to the Annapolis Boat Club to make entries in the canoe events.

The rowing events will be single sculls, double sculls, novice single sculls, and club eight.

There was some talk of inviting the Old Dominion Club of Alexandria, the Annapolis Boat Club, and the Georgetown Club to make entries in the rowing events, but the final decision was to have the regatta strictly a club affair.

The men of the Potomac Club are on the river every evening now getting into shape for the Middle States regatta on September 7, and will undoubtedly put up some good races in the regatta on the 15th.

HARRY FORBES CONFIDENT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 7.—Bantamweight Champion Harry Forbes, who is to meet Frankie Neil here the night before the Corbett-Jeffries fight, is safely installed at his quarters and has buckled down to hard work for his fight.

Neil has been working industriously in preparation for the mill. He says: "I feel confident of beating this man Forbes."
