POPE HEARS PLEA OF AN EX-REPRESENTATIVE

Mahany of Buffalo Asks Favor for Poles Here.

ROME, Sept. 12.—The Pope yesterday received most cordially in a private audience the delegation from the Polish Catholic Congress in America, composed of Father Wencelous Kruska, of Ripon, Wis., and Rowland B. Mahany, of Buffalo, who were accompanied by Father Antonucci, of the congregation for St. Louis. The delegation presented to his holiness a Latin pamphlet setting forth the wishes of the Polish Americans, which consisted mainly of having representatives of their nationality in the Catholic hierarchy of the United States, it being pointed out that while the German Roman Catholics, numbering three millions, have thirteen bishops and two archbishops, the Poles, numbering two millions, have none.

The Pope gave the delegation satisfactory assurances, saying: "I have already read your pamphlet and documents, and fully understand what is desired. Naturally, the matter comes under the consideration of the Congregation of the Propaganda, but I will gladly see that the matter is examined." At the close of the audience Pope Pius X, after giving his hand to kiss, presented his photographs to Fathers Kruska and Antonucci and Mr. Mahany, each photograph bearing his autograph signature, which he wrote in their presence.

WORRY OVER SHOOTING MAKES POLICEMAN QUIT

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 12.—Constant worry because he accidentally had killed a man while in the discharge of duty so preyed on the mind of Charles B. Baker, a policeman of the De Lancey Street station, that he resigned from the force yesterday.

The resignation was tendered to Director of Public Safety Smyth by Lieutenant Carey. Ill health was the reason assigned. Lieutenant Carey gave Baker an excellent reputation as an officer, and, according to him, the latter had a clean record since he was appointed, September 29, 1899. On July 4 last, Baker shot a man named Stenger, whom he caught in an act of theft at a downtown store.

IRONY OF A NAME FAILS TO DISCOURAGE BRIDE

DARBY, Pa., Sept. 12.—It may seem inconceivable that perhaps the only young man who can write at all and who never indited a love letter to his sweetheart should be named Billethead. But it is a fact. Edmund W. Billethead is to be married tomorrow morning in his mother's home, 4601 Paschal Avenue. Miss Rosa Le Fay, a sparkling French maiden from the town of l'Orient, on "The Bay of Biscay, O." will be the bride.

Billethead was graduated from Williams College in 1899, and after serving there for two years as instructor in languages he went to the University of Paris to continue his studies. There he met Miss Le Fay, proposed to her and was accepted before she could get far enough away to be written to. Then he started with her almost immediately for the United States, arriving last Tuesday on the Atlantic liner Mesaba. Miss Beatrice Avery will be maid of honor and Chester Billethead, a brother of the professor, will act as best man.

PLANS NEW MONUMENT TO GEORGE WASHINGTON

HAGERSTOWN, Md., Sept. 12.—Capt. J. Walter Mitchell, national historian of the Spanish-American war, has interested himself and others in the building of a fifty-foot monument, with observation platform at the top, in memory of George Washington, on South Mountain, near Boonsboro, in Washington county, to replace the present Washington monument, built of stone, but now almost a mass of ruins, and to be the first erected in this country to Washington, was built in 1827. Petitions will be circulated and Captain Mitchell will present them before both houses of Congress and urge a suitable appropriation.

TO TIE UP WHOLE STATE TO GET EIGHT-HOUR DAY

CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—"Every miner, smelterman, and mill worker in Colorado will strike if necessary to enforce the eight-hour work day," said Jay Pollard, president of the Cripple Creek Trades Assembly, who arrived in Chicago yesterday to look for financial assistance for the men now on strike in Cripple Creek. "In order to obtain the eight-hour day in the mines, smelters and quartz mills, the strike will be extended to all employes in these occupations in the State."

BASEBALL MAGNATES ADOPT AGREEMENT

Signed by Pulliam, Johnson, and Powers, at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Sept. 12.—What is known as the Buffalo national agreement, as amended and adopted at a conference here Thursday night of representatives of both the major and minor baseball leagues, went into effect yesterday at noon, when the following signatures were affixed: For the National League—Harry C. Pulliam, president. For the American League—Ban B. Johnson, president. For the National Association of Minor Leagues—Pat T. Powers, president. The drafting of players was changed from August 15 to September 1, and the price for class A players fixed at $750, payable one-half in cash on the signing of the contract and the remainder on June 1. It was also agreed that only two players can be drafted from each of the class A clubs.

The players who were originally awarded to major league clubs by the Cincinnati agreement last winter, and who continued playing in minor leagues, were ordered back to the major leagues. The players are Newton, Hughes, and Corbett, awarded to Brooklyn; Dundon and Jones, to the Chicago American League, and Hickey, to the Cleveland American League. The National Baseball Association, of which August Hermann, president of the Cincinnati club, is chairman, completed its organization by the election of E. E. Bruce, of Cincinnati, as secretary, and Robert McKay, of Chicago, as assistant secretary. Bruce is the attorney of Ban Johnson, and part owner of the St. Louis American Club. McKay, who has been secretary to Ban Johnson, of Chicago, will remove to Cincinnati and have his headquarters in Cincinnati with Chairman Hermann of the committee.

Chairman Hermann and Secretary Bruce were appointed a committee to draft rules to govern the national commission. The commission adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

COAL MINERS RECEIVE GOOD NEWS ON WAGES

Statistician Neill Announces a Further Increase.

SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 12.—President Nichols, of District No. 1, United Mine Workers, has received the following communication, which was sent out through the anthracite coal region by Charles P. Neill, the statistician named to ascertain the amount due the miners under the sliding scale: "I beg to notify you that the average price of white ash coal, of sizes above pea coal, sold at or near New York between Perth Amboy and Edgewater, as reported to the bureau of anthracite coal statistics for the month of August, 1903, was $4.75 per ton f. o. b. "According to the provisions of the eighth award of the anthracite coal strike commission, this average price entitles all miners and mine workers included in the awards of the commission to an increase of 5 per cent on the respective rates of wages fixed in said awards."

President Nichols refused to discuss the raise under the sliding scale, other than to remark that it must be considered as only a 2 per cent raise for September, 3 per cent having been given them during August. The announcement caused much rejoicing among the mine workers and lifts much of the gloom that has prevailed since the decision of Umpire Wright was published. This makes up all an increase of 15 per cent over the amount allowed the miners since their strike was ordered off.

KAISER BRINGS PEACE, WAGNERS RECONCILED

BERLIN, Sept. 12.—Countess von Buelow has induced Emperor William to bring about peace between the Wagners and the Wagner monument committee. She represented to his majesty that the absence of the Wagners would detract from the interest in the commemoration exercises. Frau Wagner insisted on only one change in the program, and that was the omission of the theoretical discussions of music, which was, she said, opposed to Wagner's ideas. The Emperor made the concession. Therefore Frau Wagner and all the other members of the Wagner family will attend the unveiling of the monument on October 1.

HORSE ELECTROCUTED WHILE WORKING IN FIELD

FREDERICK, Md., Sept. 12.—J. W. Neighbors was driving a team of three horses to a harrow in a field near the Frederick and Middletown trolley road when the head of one of the animals came in contact with a guy wire run from the top of the trolley pole to the ground to brace the pole. The instant the apparently harmless wire was touched, all three animals fell to the ground. The first animal to receive the shock fell upon the guy wire and was electrocuted before it could be taken off. The other two animals recovered from the shock. It was found that the guy wire had slipped down on a bolt which supports the trolley arms, and carried the deadly current to the ground.

KING PULLED AIRBRAKE, QUICKLY GOT HIS COFFEE

BERLIN, Sept. 12.—King Edward, while crossing Germany on his return to England from Vienna, requested an inquiry to order a cup of coffee. The cook who happened to be an American colored man, was in a forward car without corridor communication with the royal carriage. His majesty, when so informed, pulled the airbrake connection, with which each compartment was supplied, and stopped the train, to the dismay of his privy and the train crew until the reason of the stoppage was explained. The cook was then taken into the royal carriage, with a coffee apparatus, and the train proceeded.

QUAKER GOLFERS PLAY ENGLISHMEN TODAY

Philadelphians Will Entertain the Foreigners.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 12.—Nothing but practice golf was indulged in yesterday on the links of the Huntingdon Valley Country Club, at Noble, by the visiting team representing the Oxford and Cambridge Golfing Society, which is to meet the representatives of the Golf Association of Philadelphia today. Several of the Philadelphia contestants were out on the course, but the medal scores made in practice were certainly not of a record-breaking nature. The Englishmen commented in a friendly spirit upon the distances of the course and its hill climbing possibilities. The condition of the greens, however, was a source of unlimited discussion on every hand. The ravages of fall grass had left their unmistakable mark, and notwithstanding the fact that every green had been cut, it was almost impossible for the best of them to do anything in a scoring line over their treacherous lengths. In a measure the match today will be a test of the possibilities of the course for its national championship qualifications next year. The bogie is as follows: Out ... 4 5 5 5 6 6 6 6 5 3-45 In ... 5 5 5 4 4 5 4 6 4-42-57

Advertisement for WINE of CARDUI. Don't Neglect Your Health. I have been weak and sickly for the past four years, caused by irregularity and carelessness regarding the laws of health, but about five months ago my condition became very serious. I lost my appetite and became extremely nervous and irritable. I spent weary, painful days, and miserable, restless nights. The doctor told me that I must have patience as I had a serious case of inflammation of the bladder and uterus and he prescribed an injection as well as a tonic. His medicine did not, however, give me even temporary relief and as I had been told of the curative qualities of Wine of Cardui I decided to try it. I found that it relieved me of pain. As my general health improved my other troubles were gradually diminished and after five weeks' use of the Wine of Cardui I was once more a well and happy woman. Mrs. L. M. Thompson, Director, Beethoven Musical Society.
