

PEACE IN PHILIPPINES IS A LONG WAY OFF

So Says General Allen, Chief of Constabulary.

NATIVES EASILY DECEIVED

The interesting story of "Pope" Rios, self-styled "Son of God" and inspired prophet.

Brigadier General Allen, chief of the constabulary force in the Philippines, in his annual report to the War Department, declares that while scores of bands have been exterminated, and their chiefs captured, the ease with which the people of the mountain and remote localities can be deceived by skillful intriguers, he believes that disturbances may be expected for some time to come.

"Without taking into consideration the strategic importance of the Philippines as a military supply depot where troops and war material may be kept for Oriental emergencies, it is thought that for some time to come the American troops should not be further reduced.

War Must Continue.

"After extensive warfare, however, humanely conducted, several years must elapse before there is mental pacification, and during this period of adjustment to new conditions it is unwise to ignore the great moral effect of a strong armed force. At present there are in the Philippines 13,000 American troops occupying 'eventy posts'.

The methods of insurrecto leaders is exemplified by the case of "Pope" Rios, of Tayabas, who was among those captured. Rios represented himself to be an inspired prophet, and found little difficulty in winning the superstitions of the credulous inhabitants of barrios distant from centers of population. He organized "exterior municipal government" (for revenue only), with an elaborate equipment of officials. He promoted himself and his followers in rapid succession until he had with him one captain general, one lieutenant general, twenty-five major generals, fifty brigadier generals and a host of officers of lower grade.

An Interesting Fakir.

In appreciation of his own abilities he appointed himself "Generallissimo and Viceroy" and stated his intention of having himself crowned "King of the Philippines." Titles earthly not proving sufficient, he announced himself as the "Son of God," and dispensed "Anting-anting," which were guaranteed to make the wearer "invulnerable to attack." "It is a curious fact," the report says, "that among the various religious sects found in the archipelago, there is an invariable effort and desire on their part to become possessed of arms to re-enforce propaganda of their creeds."

WILLIAM LENTZ, CRANK APPEARS AT WHITE HOUSE

Demanding Position as Secretary to the President—Is a Local Man.

The epidemic of cranks at the White House is not over. Yesterday afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock William E. Lentz, twenty-one years old, appeared at the President's residence with a demand to see Mr. Roosevelt. He was encountered by Policeman Dalrymple, who asked his business. Lentz stated he had three reasons for seeking the Chief Executive. His first object was to obtain the position of Secretary to the President, for which he was abundantly qualified. In the second place, he wished protection from an organization of the stenographers of the country, who were seeking his life.

He also wished to obtain the subscription of the President for a book on "Organized Labor," written by John Mitchell, the labor leader, for which he was canvassing. Policeman Dalrymple responded to these demands by having the man removed to the Third precinct police station.

Lentz states that his mother lives at 1822 Kalorama Avenue. During the summer he stayed with an aunt near Williamsport, named Ankeny, a sister-in-law of Dr. William F. Ankeny, a dentist, whose office is at 606 Eleventh Street northwest, and who lives at 217 F Street northwest.

The Civil Service Commission has received advice from Theodore Babcock, Jr., secretary of the local board of examiners for the custom house in New York, that Daniel O'Shea and Jeffrey O'Connell have been found guilty in the United States court of conspiracy to defraud the Government and sentenced to a fine of $50 each.

The charges, which are prosecuted under sections 5418 and 5449 of the revised statutes, were to the effect that O'Connell, who was an applicant for a position in the custom house, induced O'Shea to impersonate him in the civil service examination in the hope that he would in that way obtain a higher rating in the examination. Secretary Babcock discovered the attempted deception, with the result that the case was referred to the Department of Justice for prosecution.

GASOLINE EXPLOSION CAUSES SMALL BLAZE

Four Fires Yesterday Afternoon Cause Damage Amounting to a Thousand Dollars.

Four fires, aggregating in damage more than a thousand dollars, occurred yesterday afternoon. The first alarm came from the house of Walter Wellborn, 1902 Tenth Street northwest, but the flames were extinguished without damage.

At 4:40 o'clock box 314 was pulled for a fire in the cleaning and dyeing establishment of August Bachenhilmer, 723 Twenty-third Street northwest. The fire arose through the explosion of gasoline as the tank of a lighted stove was being filled. The damage to the house and the clothing in the shop at the time amounted to $250, with no insurance.

Shortly after 5 o'clock fire broke out from some unknown cause in the house of Oscar Peebles, a negro, at 1014 D Street southeast. Before the flames were extinguished the house had been damaged $30, covered by insurance, and the furniture to the extent of $300 more. There was no insurance on the furniture.

A short time later the fourth fire occurred in a pile of brush in a vacant lot on R Street, between Twelfth and Thirteenth Streets northeast. An alarm was turned in and the fire department prevented the flames from communicating to any property.
