WRIST BONE BROKEN BY HIS AUTOMOBILE

Young Vinson Walsh Badly Injured in a "Kick Back."

THE ASSOCIATION TO MEET

Details of the Brightwood Races to Be Closed Up—News and Gossip of the Horseless World.

Vinson Walsh, the son of the wealthy Washington real estate owner, injured his wrist recently while starting his machine. It is said one of the bones in his wrist was broken by the machine "kicking back." This is his second automobile mishap.

Another sale of a Cadillac is reported. Manager Foss, of the Washington branch of the Ford Manufacturing Company, has disposed of twenty-nine of these machines in Washington.

Manager Libby, of the local department of the Oldsmobile Company, has received a number of new models of the machine. In these vehicles the water and gasoline tanks are separated, and the muffler is lowered down under the engine. The tanks are enlarged, and a big tool box has been placed over the gasoline tank, where the water is located in the older machines. The 1903 machine is to be radically different from the present models.

There is soon to be a meeting of the Washington Automobile Association to close up the details of the recent race at Brightwood. Although the first event of the kind in the District city, it paid expenses and left a little surplus. The medal won by the St. Louis Cadillac and the other machines are to be delivered as soon as they can be made.

The challenge issued by Howard Gill, of Baltimore, for a race from Washington to Baltimore between his Stanley steamer and any of the machines which took part in the recent races at Brightwood, for $100, has been accepted by Cook & Owsney, who have the agency of the "Win" team. The race is to be pitted against the spider-like steamer. The race is to be run in a few days.

John Floe, who is the owner of the only Pierce Arrow in the city, left Washington on a run to Baltimore this morning. He expects to reach the Monumental City in less than two hours.

The manufacturers of the White steam cars are sending out a neat illustrated pamphlet telling of the accomplishments of the White touring cars during the past season. It contains an account of the breaking of the world's pacing record of 2:04 on a half-mile track by the famous pacer Cresceus, assisted by a White touring car, at Dayton, Ohio, August 27. An account of a tour from Albany to Cleveland, and a trip from Buffalo to New York, by Augustus Post, is also quite interesting.

Messrs. Cook and Owsney, who went to Ohio to help re-elect Senator Hanna and also to see what the new models for 1904 of the machines they can see going to look like, returned to the city today. They tell of many improvements in both Wintons and Stevens-Duryeas.

CONCRETE STABLE FOR DICK WELLES

Rome Respass, owner of Dick Welles, was, until a day or so ago, undecided as to how best to winter the great colt. At the Woodlawn Farm, near Chicago, a new barn had been erected in the place of the one destroyed by fire last winter, and for a time he was figuring on changing the great colt in this structure with the balance of the string, but he has now decided to erect a concrete stable for the colt.

INTERIORS BOWL EXCELLENT GAMES

The interior quint won the full set from the Agricultural team last night, and by so doing tied the Bureau five for the leadership of the Departmental League. The set bowled by the Interiors was by far the best of the season. Each game was over the 900 mark. Its lowest game was 953, and its highest 955. With the exception of Bunn, captain of the Interiors, each man bowled a score over 200. Bunn led the league in individual averages last year, but as he has been out of the game for the past two weeks, his work, while good for the ordinary bowler, was not up to his standard. The following scores over 200 were made: Livingston, president of the league, 218 and 242; Cooper, 204 and 202; Lemmon, 204; Gorman, 209 and 202 and Hough, 201. The scores:

CLASS REGATTA AT GEORGETOWN

The class regatta of Georgetown University will be held this afternoon over the upper course of the Potomac River. The senior, junior, sophomore, and freshmen crews will compete, and the preparatory school will match its crew with the dinner for the championship of the institution. If a college class crew is successful it will be dined tonight in Baltimore by Mr. Hill, manager of the Carrollton Hotel.

MANY VICTORIES OF JACK JOHNSON

Negro Champion Pugilist Has Won Thirty-four Out of Thirty-five Fights.

Jack Johnson, who is now the negro heavyweight champion of the world, and upon whom Champion Jim Jeffries has drawn the color line, is six feet in height, twenty-three years of age, weighs 190 pounds in the ring; has fought thirty-five battles, and won thirty-four of them. His Los Angeles record is as follows:

1905—May 16, knocked out Jack Jeffries in five rounds; June 29, fought twenty-round draw with Hank Griffin; October 1, knocked out Frank Childs in eleven rounds; December 4, won from Fred Russell on a foul in eight rounds. In 1906—February 5, got the decision from Denver Ed Martin in twenty rounds; February 26, won from Sam McVeey in twenty rounds. Johnson also won from George Gardner in twenty rounds at San Francisco, December, 1902, and from Sandy Ferguson, at Boston, June, 1902, in ten rounds. He knocked out Joe Butler in three rounds in Philadelphia, and beat Sandy Ferguson a slow six-round draw.

Sam McVeey, over whom he got the decision at Los Angeles a week ago, has no science, but possesses a terrific punch. In 1901 he was working as a roustabout and hostler in a livery stable owned by Billy Roche at Oxnard, Cal. McVeey is 5 feet 10 1/2 inches in height, nineteen years of age, weighs 206 pounds in the ring, has fought nineteen battles and won eighteen of them by knockouts. His Los Angeles record is: Knocked out "Toothpick" Kelly, January 6, 1901, four rounds; Kid Carter, May 5, 1903, eleven rounds; "Denver Ed" Martin, September 15, 1903, one round. He also knocked out Fred Russell at Oxnard in October, 1902, in five rounds.

PENNSY STUDENT SHOT IN THE EYE

Hiram Keller May Lose His Eyesight as Result of Being Taken for a Rabbit.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—Because of a gunner's mistake Hiram Keller, a law student at the University of Pennsylvania, may lose the sight of one eye. Keller, who lives at Belmont, near Doylestown, was gunning near his home yesterday morning. While crouching behind a clump of bushes, waiting for a covey of birds to rise, he was shot at by a stranger, who mistook him for a rabbit.

The shot struck Keller in the right eye. He was brought to this city and taken to the University Hospital. The physician's fear that his sight is destroyed. The identity of the man who shot Keller is unknown.

SWARTHMORE CHANGES ITS FOOTBALL DATE

Does So in Order That Its Team and Ursinus May See Penn-Harvard Game.

SWARTHMORE, Pa., Nov. 4.—The football game between Ursinus and Swarthmore, that was to take place here on Saturday afternoon next, the 7th, is to take place on Friday afternoon. The change was brought about in order that both teams may have a chance to see the Pennsylvania-Harvard game on Saturday.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE BY TAKING LAUDANUM

For reasons she declined to state and which were claimed not to be known at her boarding house, Mary Smith, nineteen years old, who was formerly student at the Western High School and of late has been boarding at 1509 S Street northwest, last night swallowed a mixture of laudanum and aralia. Her condition was discovered in time for the physicians of the Emergency Hospital to bring her out of danger. To the hospital authorities Miss Smith admitted she had taken the poison with suicidal intent, and it is thought that the reason was the fact that she was not at the time employed.

ITALIAN DRIVES HOME ARGUMENT WITH AX

There was a misunderstanding, conducted in the Italian language, in front of 25 Decatur St. northeast, yesterday, between Alfredo Triorella and Giuseppe Giareina, nineteen and twenty-two years old, respectively, in which the former enforced his argument on the head of the latter with a convenient ax. At the Homeopathic Hospital, it was said that Giareina had escaped with a scalp wound. Triorella was arrested.

WORK AT HARVARD AWAKENS INTEREST

Score of Coaches Put Life Into the Crimson Eleven in Practice.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 4.—The Harvard varsity eleven got into the practice yesterday with more spirit than it has shown in some time. There was, however, a lot of fumbling. In the preliminary practice the line men had a short session against Coach Lewis's charging machine. This machine has heretofore been conspicuous in the training of Harvard elevens, but today was the first time this season that it has found its way to the varsity kridon.

There was a host of coaches out, and in this respect it was a record-breaker. Besides Coach Edmonston, there were twenty men out, among them Sargent, Graydon, Kernan, all members of Dave Campbell's eleven of two years ago, and most of these in logs. Of the old-timers there were Billy Brooks, Dudley, Dean, Hallowell, Dunlop, Emmons, Forbes, Bouve, Donald, Cabot, Brown, and Deven. Coburn, who has been sick for several weeks, came out for practice. Parkin, Nichols, and Hurley were both in the scrimmage for the first time since the "Edlan game. School 'of was missing, but there is nothing serious in the matter, with him, and he will be in his position in the game on Saturday. Carrill was tried at right guard on the varsity for the first time yesterday after Andy Marshall was taken out, and he did only fairly well. Kidder was played at left guard for a short time. In the twenty-five minutes scrimmage the varsity scored three touchdowns on the second eleven. Later in the afternoon the second carried the ball from its own 15-yard line to the varsity's 51-yard line, there to lose it on a fumble.

PRINCETON ELEVEN MAY CHANGE PLAYERS

Burke Likely to Get Position at Quarterback or Fullback on the Tiger Team.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 4.—The Tiger coaches continued their policy of having every coach practice yesterday and put their men through a drill lasting over two hours. Some of the new plays which have been devised to surprise the Ells were tried on the scrub eleven in a snappy game.

It is becoming generally believed by the students that Burke, who has been talking second place for quarterback, will get first call in the game at New Haven if he continues to show up as well during the next ten days as he has for the past week. Vetterlein has the advantage of being a better punter than Burke, but the latter manages the team a little better than his rival and he is stronger on the defensive.

BARBER ESTABLISHES THE SEASON'S RECORD

The closest battle of the year took place in the Bank Clerks' League last night, when the Citizens' National team won two of the three games bowled against the Capital five. After each had won a game, and the deciding one would prove the winner, the Citizens won by one pin, chalking up 187 to their opponents' 76. Barber, with 208, established the season's record for high game. The scores:

RACE MEETING AT THE PIMLICO TRACK

The work being done at Pimlico, Baltimore, in preparation for the fall meeting of the Maryland Steeplechase Association is fast getting the track and ground into shape. Besides the local horses, about thirty have arrived from Canada to take part in the meeting, and letters asking for stable room are yet being received daily.

CAPUCHINS ARE EXPELLED.

PARIS, Nov. 4.—A barricaded convent of the Capuchins in the Rue de la Saussaie was taken yesterday morning by a large force of police and firemen. The latter sealed the walls and broke down the outer and interior doors. The father superior refused to yield except for force, whereupon he was gently but forcibly expelled.

RUN OVER BY A WAGON.

Thomas Perry, thirty-seven years old, living at 1204 Eleventh Street southeast, was riding his bicycle on Monroe Street, Anacostia, late yesterday afternoon, when he was run into by a wagon driven by Richard Williams. Perry was thrown from his bicycle and run over, sustaining a concussion of the brain. At Providence Hospital it was said that his condition is critical. Williams was arrested.

JACK DEMPSEY'S CHUM ASPHYXIATED BY GAS

Tom Cleary Found Dead in New York Hotel—Had a Notable Career.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., Nov. 4.—Tom Cleary, who was found dead from asphyxiation by gas in Cohen's Hotel, New York city, was a native of Newburgh. His real name is Mike O'Brien, the son of Oliver O'Brien, a hod carrier. In his early years O'Brien drifted to the West, where he became prominent as a pugilist. He was Jack Dempsey's sparring partner in the heyday of Dempsey's fame. A few years ago O'Brien killed a man in a shooting scrape in Montana. He served a term in a penitentiary for the crime. He then returned to Newburgh. He tried saloon-keeping here, but failed. He then got into difficulty with the local police because of his pugnacious disposition. He left here a few weeks ago for New York city, where, it was said, he was to act as instructor in an athletic club. He is supposed to have been practically penniless.

PHILIPPI PICKED UP FOR A COUNTRY RUBE

Pittsburg's Famous Slab Artist Is a Product of the Farm.

Inasmuch as Phillippi, the famous pitcher of the Pittsburg team of the National League, won new fame by his extraordinary work in the series of ball games recently played between the Pittsburg team and the Boston nine of the American League for the championship of the world, the people of South Dakota are proud of the fact that he is a product of that State. Various stories have been written as to how he was found and induced to follow pitching as an occupation. Needless to say, practically all of these are erroneous. Capt. Jack Messery, who captained the Sioux City team of the Iowa-South Dakota League during the season of 1902, was at the head of the Mankato (Minn.) team a number of years ago. One day a product of the farm appeared at the hotel where the Mankato team was stopping and sought Captain Messery and asked him for a position on the team.

Messery and the other members of the team were always on the alert for Rube, and the stranger was sized up as a member of that class. An appointment was made for the stranger to meet the gang the next day at the ball grounds. He appeared in cowhide boots, a blue flannel shirt and blue jeans, cut off at the knees. He was asked by Messery what he could do, and replied that at his home in South Dakota he had posed as something of a pitcher. Messery set him on the rubber to pitch for his gang of hitters. The stranger, who proved to be the now famous Phillippi, made monkeys of Messery's gang, and he was immediately engaged as a pitcher.

Thus it was with Mankato that Phillippi made his first professional appearance. Later he drifted to the Red River Valley League, afterward being captured by Walter Wilmet, of the Minneapolis Club. Since then his rise has been rapid. Phillippi's parents reside near Ashton, S. D., where the now famous pitcher was raised on a farm. He invariably spends his winters with his parents on the farm.

VARITY BEATS SCRUBS AT CORNELL UNIVERSITY

ITHACA, N. Y., Nov. 4.—Election day took a number of Cornell Varsity players home to vote, and thereby depleted the squad on Percy Field. Rice, Coffin, McAllister, and Forgy were absent from the varsity. A long scrimmage was held, in which Captain Hunt did not participate. The scrubs scored one touchdown on the varsity's two. The playing of the varsity men was, on the whole, poor. The players do not seem to have recovered from the effects of the Princeton defeat.

GEORGETOWN GETTING READY FOR THE INDIANS

Local Boys Given a Hard Battle by the Scrubs Yesterday Afternoon.

The Georgetown varsity lined up against the scrubs yesterday, and after a desperate forty-minute scrimmage, defeated them by the score of 12 to 11. One of the features of the game was a sixty-yard run for a touchdown by Wade, who, aided by the splendid interference of the scrub team, eluded the entire varsity and scored the coveted point. The varsity's playing was characterized by extreme looseness, and their team work was entirely absent, but Coaches Reilly and Barry are confident that by Saturday the team will again be playing with the snap and aggressiveness which has marked its work this year. At a meeting last night of the committees from the law, college, and medical departments, it was decided that a band of music should be engaged to lead the parade, which will be held by these various departments before the game. They will march to the college grounds and exhibit to the Indians the white man's version of a war dance.

COLUMBIA AND PENN FRESHMEN PLAY A TIE

Thorpe, of the Varsity Eleven, Materially Helps Gothamites to an Equal Quakers' Score.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Freshman football teams of Pennsylvania and Columbia played a tie game at the Polo Grounds yesterday afternoon, with a score of 5 to 5. Columbia's comparatively good showing surprised her followers, who had not anticipated that the Quakers would have great difficulty in winning. The local collegians were considerably strengthened by the presence of Bishop and J. Thorpe, of the varsity eleven, both of whom are in their first year at Columbia. Thorpe played at halfback, while Bishop was at tackle during the first half, though his regular position is at end; in the concluding period he went to halfback where he did well in ground gaining. His excellent punting, which has so materially helped the varsity in its games this season, also proved of much advantage to the freshmen. The line-up:

PENN'S ELEVEN OFF FOR THE MOUNTAINS

Team Will Indulge in Light Practice Only Twice a Day Until Saturday.

Penn's varsity squad, consisting of twenty-two men, Coaches William and Hedges, Manager Porter, and Scotty and Pete, rubbers, left Broad Street yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock for Mount Pocono, where they will remain until Friday noon, getting back to Philadelphia Friday evening for dinner. The following players were taken along: Metzger, Weede, Torrey, Sinkler, Butkiewicz, Ziegler, Stewart, Hoffman, Zilligen, Kase, Plekarski, Mitchell, McCabe, Taylor, Corson, Mulford, Drake, Reynolds, Fox, Yost, Bennett, and Smith. The team will take light practice but twice a day, and will not again indulge in scrimmage work. The work will consist principally of signal practice, falling on the ball, running down on kicks and long runs over the hills. The coaches will depend on the breathing mountain air to put the team on their toes for Saturday's game, and the varsity will be in the mountains, but some weight upon the men, who are slightly underweight.

BASKETBALL LEAGUE ADOPTS SCHEDULE

Season's Games Will Begin on November 11 and End March 23.

Orlando Ross, the well-known local acrobat, was elected referee of the basketball games to be played in the new National Guard League this season at a meeting of that organization held in the Center Market Armory last night. Drilling the ball will be allowed this year, and, if made, the play will count 2 points. Following is the schedule for the season:

ANGRY AT HOG, MAN KILLS WIFE AND SELF

Farmer, Inflamed at Beast's Obstinance, Turns on Woman Who Laughs at Him.

NORWICH, N. Y., Nov. 4.—Calvin E. Wade, a prominent farmer of Chenango county, today shot and fatally wounded his wife, and then killed himself. Wade had been vainly trying to drive a hog through a gate, and had chased it about until he was out of breath and out of temper. Finally he ran into the house and got his gun, declaring he would kill the animal. His wife laughed at him, quick as a flash he whirled about and fired at her. She dropped as if dead. Realizing what he had done, Wade placed the muzzle of the gun to his own head, and with the other barrel killed himself. His wife died shortly afterward.

ILL ON WEDDING TOUR.

SUMMIT, N. J., Nov. 4.—Marshall Geer, who three weeks ago married Miss Mabel Schultz, in Summit, is critically ill with typhoid fever in the Gleggery Hospital, in Montreal, having been stricken while on his wedding trip. His mother has gone to his bedside. Mr. Geer is a graduate of Princeton.
