COMBINED CHOIR FEATURE

Dr. C. M. Boswell, of the Philadelphia Conference, Will Conduct the Meeting.

Union evangelistic services planned on a larger scale than ever before in the history of Washington will be held by the Methodist Episcopal churches of this city commencing next Sunday with a mass meeting at the Metropolitan Church at 3 p. m. There are twenty-five or more Methodist Churches in Washington, and the vicinity, but never in the memory of present pastors has a revival and rally of the various congregations been undertaken so comprehensively as is now contemplated. The purpose of the meetings, it is said, is to quicken the spiritual life of the churches, to bring about consolidation of effort, and to bring in converts. With this end in view, the services will be held during the entire month. For the first week they will be held each evening at Wesley Church, corner F and Fifth Streets northwest, and during the second week will be at Hamline Methodist Episcopal Church. Following this there will be simultaneous group meetings of contiguous churches.

Churches to Co-operate.

Every church in the city will be assigned to a group and will co-operate with the associates of that group. These group meetings have been held before, but the consolidation of all the churches at mass-meetings is on new lines. It will result in a consolidation of the choirs, and this will be a special feature.

It was due to the Washington preachers' meeting that the union services were begun. The preachers' meeting appointed an executive committee, which engaged Dr. C. M. Boswell, of the Philadelphia conference, an energetic worker and an eloquent preacher, to conduct the services. Dr. Boswell, though a comparatively young man, has achieved a wide reputation for his work in behalf of the City Missionary and Church Extension Society of Philadelphia, of which he is secretary. He has had great success with rescue mission work, and has established in Philadelphia missions like the well known Hadley Water Street Mission in New York.

MISS KEAN'S DANCE.

Miss Kean entertained at a dinner and dance last evening in honor of her young niece, Miss Christine Roosevelt, of New York, who was her guest for the holidays last year. The drawing rooms, dining room, and conservatory were used for the dinner and afterward cleared for dancing. Among the guests were Miss Alice Roosevelt, with her guests, Miss Mary Newbold, Miss Mary Lowell, Miss Alfreda Roosevelt, Miss Ross, Miss Cornelia Walcott, Miss Alice Parker, Miss Field, Miss McCauley, Miss Postle-thwaite, Miss Mary Carlisle, Miss Wadsworth, and the younger men of the Diplomatic Corps and from official society. A number of older people were invited to after the dinner.

SONS OF JONADAB KEPT NIGHT VIGIL

Six Councils Hold Joint Meeting Through Wake Hours of the Morning.

About 200 persons of Pioneer Council No. 1, Centennial Council, No. 4, Good Will Council, No. 9, Hope Council, No. 11, Faith Council, No. 12, and Empire Council, No. 14, Sons of Jonadab, held a joint all-night meeting at the home of Pioneer and Hope Councils, 623 Louisiana Avenue.

James Croghan, chairman; Judge Nichols, Judge Weed and others delivered addresses. At midnight the pledge was renewed by every member for the coming year. Monumental Council, of Baltimore, and Potomac Council, of Harpers Ferry, were represented by a large number of delegates. Four candidates for membership were initiated last night.

Supper was served at 12:30 o'clock this morning, and breakfast at 5 o'clock.

SEVENTEEN SONGS ADDED TO METHODIST HYMNAL

Seventeen additional hymns were yesterday included in the list for the new Methodist Episcopal joint hymnal. The committee on title and subtitle was appointed and consists of G. B. Winton, James Campbell, S. F. Upham, R. J. Cooke, Bishop Hoess, and Bishop Goodsell.

GREAT FUTURE ASSURED THE AMERICAN NAVY

Congress Disposed to Grant Abundant Funds.

THE VALUE OF MANEUVERS

Secretary Moody Would Increase Number of Officers and Enlarge Liberties of Enlisted Men.

In 1903 the division of the navy into squadrons and fleets and the creation of new squadrons has been effected. The result has been gratifying. With an increase in the number of ships the division will be further continued, and in the Pacific the organization will be brought about much after the manner in which the Asiatic division has been organized.

The taking over of the coaling station purchased from Cuba was probably the most notable event of 1903. It is an important step in the strengthening of the navy in the South Atlantic, and affords a center about which the United States may build a navy in the region where it is most needed.

The Joint Maneuvers.

Joint army and naval maneuvers at Portland and the coming maneuvers off Cuba are important events in the history of American naval development. Similar maneuvers are to be held in Asiatic waters as soon as it is possible to perfect the fleet and squadron organization in the East.

Five battleships, two scout ships, and a supply ship will probably be the new vessels sought this year. The navy is disposed to grant abundant funds for an increase of the navy, and funds for these vessels will probably be provided.

More Officers Needed.

In discussing the future of the navy Secretary Moody said: "The great work yet before us is to perfect this fleet and squadron organization; to perfect their mobility; to obtain more officers in order to give rest to the present hands; to increase the number of midshipmen at the Naval Academy, and, in a general way, to keep the whole fleet in that condition of readiness and preparedness for war which is at all times the surest guarantee of unbroken peace."

SERVICES IN MEMORY OF PROF. HUNTINGDON

Services in memory of the late Dr. Adoniram Judson Huntington, a distinguished Greek and Latin scholar, will be held at the First Baptist Church, of Washington, at 8 o'clock on Sunday evening. Addresses will be made by the Rev. Charles F. Winebigler, pastor of the First Baptist Church; E. Hilton Jackson, Dr. Charles W. Needham, president of the Columbian University, and Dr. J. J. Muir, Mr. Winebigler will preside.

COMMITTEE TO PROBE RED CROSS AFFAIRS

A committee has been appointed to investigate the recent controversy between members of the American National Red Cross Society.

This committee includes Senator Redfield Proctor, of Vermont; the Hon. William Alden Smith, of Michigan, and the Hon. John G. Carlisle, of Kentucky. These men were appointed by the Hon. Richard Olney, who was authorized to select three disinterested persons to look into the cause of the trouble and determine if the assertions affecting the management of the society, and which were made by certain members represented in the "minority," were justified.

YEAR OF IMPROVEMENT IN WAR DEPARTMENT

General Staff Bill a Feature of Work Done.

ARMY NEWLY ORGANIZED

Taft to Become More of a Colonial Secretary Under Operation of New Laws.

Secretary Root's greatest achievement in 1903 was the enactment of the general staff law and the institution of the new system of army organization.

The army is now organized in a manner which will make it possible for a large staff to co-operate and do away with the friction which has hitherto hindered the efficiency of the army.

Friar Question Settled.

In the Philippines, Secretary Root has accomplished much through Governor Taft, who is to succeed Secretary Root in charge of the War Department. A settlement of the dispute with the friars concerning their lands has just been effected, and the United States has thus been saved from a clash with the Catholic Church officials which might have had an unfortunate outcome.

A Colonial Secretary.

Under the reorganization of the army the Secretary of War has been relieved of many duties and will have much time to devote to colonial affairs.

JUDGE HARE TO SPEND HONEYMOON IN TEXAS

Judge Elias Hare and Mrs. Mary Louise Kenaday, of Washington, who were married in Baltimore, Md., yesterday, have gone to Texas, formerly the home of the bridegroom, on a wedding trip of a month. Judge Hare was a member of the House of Representatives in the Fifty-fifth and Fifty-sixth Congresses. Judge Hare went to Baltimore on Wednesday and obtained a marriage license. Mrs. Kenaday left Washington yesterday at 11 a. m. She resided in a handsome home at 2008 G Street northwest.

SOUTHERNERS RECEIVED AT MOUNT VERNON CHURCH

A reception for Southern people living in Washington was held last night in the Sunday school room of Mount Vernon Place M. E. Church. The reception was under the auspices of the Epworth League of the church. Greens, cut flowers, and hunting were used profusely in decorating the room, and booths representing the different Southern States were erected for the comfort of the guests.

C. C. WILLARD GIVES $50 TO REWARD POLICEMEN

Major Sylvester is in receipt of a letter from C. C. Willard, enclosing $50 for the Police Department, and expressing himself in most cordial terms of appreciation of the work of the police on the occasion of the recent fire in his home Building, on N Street, and the protection of his adjoining property, the Ebbitt House. This money will be forwarded to the Commissioners for disposition.

NEW YEAR RECEPTION AT CENTRAL MISSION

Poor of the City Generously Fed at Free Dinner Provided by Charitable Hands.

The New Year reception, evangelistic service, and dinner at the Central Mission were well attended and most enjoyable. The reception was held in the rooms of the board of directors, and was attended by many of the pastors of Washington churches, patrons of the institution, the mission workers and their friends. From 2 o'clock, the hour at which the reception began, until it ended the rooms were filled with guests.

The evangelistic service was begun in the auditorium at 12 o'clock, and will be continued from hour to hour until 9 o'clock. The services were conducted by J. C. Pratt, N. A. Robbins, H. D. Gordon, Clayton E. Emig, Charles J. Ladd, Theodore A. Harding, Percy S. Foster, O. B. Brown, and George W. Wheeler.

The New Year dinner was served in the large dining hall on the first floor of the building. The first table was set at 1 o'clock, and from that hour until 4 o'clock hundreds of the worthy poor of the city were given a hearty welcome to the board and a good dinner. From the generosity shown, there was any one in Washington who goes to bed hungry tonight it is surely his or her own fault. The dinner was served under the auspices of the members of the Women's Band.
