DE KOVEN OPERA SCORES A HIT

"Red Feather" Heartily Indorsed at Columbia.

MUSIC LIGHT, BUT GOOD

Grave Van Studdiford Delights With Good Singing and Charming Presence.

If the success of an opera or a dramatic production depends upon the hearty indorsement of a large and distinguished audience...

The opera serves to introduce Grace Studdiford as a star, and gives this prima donna full opportunity to display her vocal abilities...

Faint Echoes of Sherwood. In adding another to his list of operatic productions, Reginald De Koven has elected to please lovers of light music...

In many instances, the music carries one into Sherwood Forest, and the "Eron October Ale" slides specter-like through the halls of "Red Feather's" chateau...

Singers Who Can Sing. Cora Tracy, provided with an unobscured, genial role, with a most delightful voice, full of rich color, received a double reward for her song...

"ON STROKE OF TWELVE" AT EMPIRE THEATER. Thrilling Melodrama in Which Interest Is Sustained Throughout.

Patrons of melodrama will find lots to interest them in the play holding the boards at the Empire this week, entitled "On the Stroke of Twelve."

This is the third season that this play has appeared here, and many are familiar with the story, which tells of the thrilling escape of two friends from prison on the stroke of 12, their sweethearts furnishing the necessary assistance...

YOUNG BUSTER BROWN HAS COME TO TOWN. Imps of Mischief at the Lafayette. Dog "Tige" and Good Company.

"Buster Brown" has come to town, and if there is a boy in Washington mischievously inclined whose ingenuity is exhausted and who would learn some new points on how to get his elders into trouble and out again...
