

DEMOCRATS' STRIKE
REPUBLICANS OUT

Meeting of City Committee of Alexandria.

JUDGES AND PRIMARIES

Three Names of Opposite Party Denied Places on Ticket, Though Indorsed by Members.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., May 14.—The city Democratic committee held a meeting at the Hotel Fleischman tonight at 8 o'clock.

A question was raised as to who had selected the voting places, which were named in a local paper. It was stated that these were the ones selected for the general election, and it was decided to hold the primary in the same voting places, as follows:

First ward—South side of Prince Street, between Union and Lee Streets; Second ward—City hall; Third ward—Odd Fellows Hall in North Columbus Street, and Fourth ward, Friendship engine house.

A. D. Brockett asked the committee whether all the names which were presented by the Citizens' Progressive Association would appear on the Democratic ticket at the primary, Monday.

Mr. Cook, the secretary, stated that the names of Worth Hulfish, who was a candidate for the board of aldermen in the Third ward, and of W. H. McCuen, who was a candidate for the common council in the Third ward, had not been placed on the ticket, inasmuch as they were Republicans.

The secretary stated also that Theodore Ballenger had withdrawn his name and W. W. Ballenger's name had been placed on the ticket in his stead.

Mr. Brockett said that inasmuch as he was the person who got Mr. Hulfish to run, he held himself responsible for placing him in the position as he was in. He stated that he had understood that the word "participate" had been used in connection with allowing all whites to run in the election, and for that reason, as he understood participate, to mean take part, he had placed Mr. Hulfish's name before the committee. He asked the committee to rescind its former action in refusing to place Mr. Hulfish's name on the ticket.

Backed by Mr. Kirk. Harry Kirk said he was also a member of the committee appointed by the Citizens' Progressive Association to appear before the Democratic committee and to try to get the name of Mr. Hulfish placed on the ticket. He concurred in Mr. Brockett's remarks.

The chair asked whether any member of the committee desired to make the motion to rescind the former action of the committee in allowing only Democrats to run in the primary, but none of the committee would make the motion.

The chairman said the action of the committee was not taken on account of the names of the men under discussion being submitted by the progressive association. He asserted that the committee did not want to be thought as being in opposition to the association.

The secretary reported that all the candidates for the board of aldermen and the common council had paid their required pro rata assessments.

Upon motion all the Democratic judges who will serve in the general election were selected in front of the station in Twelfth Street, between C and D Streets northwest, last evening. No one was hurt.

Edward Toomey, sixty years old, an inmate of St. Elizabeth's Insane Asylum, escaped from the institution yesterday and was reported wandering through the streets of Washington. The hospital authorities requested the police to look out for him, and he was located at Fourteenth Street and Ohio Avenue northwest.

When asked to go to the station he readily consented. When he reached the front steps of the station he balked, and defied the entire Metropolitan police force to take him in the door.

An attempt was made to shove him up the stairs. He backed against the wall and drew a large shoemaker's knife. He began brandishing it above his head, making vicious lunges at the policemen.

Policeman Bransell finally wrested the weapon from the man, and he was locked up. Afterward, he was sent to St. Elizabeth's.

EVENING OF HONOR
FOR POET C. NIES

Welcomed by Citizens of German Descent.

AN INTERESTING PROGRAM

Accomplished Local Musicians Give Their Talents to Entertain Visitor.

"An Evening of Honor for Conrad Nies" was given at National Rifles Army last evening, when the German-Americans of the Capital City turned out en masse to do homage to the visiting poet from the West.

The ample hall was filled despite the rain, and from the beginning to the close of the entertainment the enthusiasm of the audience did not flag. Especially cordial was the greeting accorded to Mr. Nies, whom the German-Americans of the United States delight to honor as their most favored son of the muses.

The entertainment was opened with a prologue in verse, written and pronounced by Frank Claudy. It was in the nature of a greeting to the guest of honor and assured him of the homage which all German-Americans render to his genius.

At the conclusion of his lines Mr. Claudy presented Mr. Nies with a bouquet of roses, violets, and forget-me-nots. Anton Kaspar, one of the city's most talented violinists, played Wienawski's "Romance," and Popper's "Dance of the Fairies."

Next came Miss Anita Schade, accounted one of the best of the city's dramatic readers and elocutionists, with a voice of delightful quality. She recited three short poems—"For Thee," "Sea, Storm, and Light," and "Thus I Love Thee"—and later another, written by Nies, entitled "Sound of the Aeolian Harp." Each one of her recitations called forth the warmest applause.

Mrs. Ivy Harriott Shade sang Ardit's waltz song, "Se caran Rose," with accustomed virtuosity. Mrs. Shade is a prime favorite with the German element here. The audience insisted upon an encore, and she sang the charming little ballad "Flashing."

The feature of the evening, of course, was the recitation by Mr. Nies of a number of his own poems. He divided them into two sections, the first including poems of a serious cast, and the second consisting of humorous compositions. Out of all of them spoke the unmistakable spirit of the highest order of poetic genius.

After the closing of the program consisted of a festival scene, composed by Mr. Claudy, and entitled "The Post's Coronation." It was a delightful conception and was carried out in exquisite form by Messrs. Claudy, Ernest Gihne, and Harry Rothschild, and Misses Anita Schade and M. Meyers.

The reception committee was composed of Mrs. Emma Poesche, Mrs. Muehlen, Mrs. Robert Puyman, Mrs. Christian Heurich, Mrs. Louis Schade, Mrs. Kurt Voelckner, and Mrs. A. Loefler. The committee on finance consisted of G. W. Spoor, Simon Wolf, W. F. Meyers, Christian Heurich, Hugo Schulze, and A. Loefler.

After the entertainment there was a social gathering at the Saengerbund clubhouse, at which more honor was done to Mr. Nies.

FALLS FROM CAR; BREAKS LEG.
Suffering from a fracture of the left leg which he received when he fell from a moving train at Quantico, Va., yesterday, "Doc" Bentley, a negro, was brought to the Emergency Hospital for treatment. Physicians reduced the fracture and the negro was placed in a ward in the hospital.

KNOCKED DOWN BY WAGON.
Nelle Hart, of Prince George county, Md., was slightly injured at Ninth and N Streets northwest, yesterday, by being knocked down by a wagon. She was suffering a great deal from shock and was taken to the Homeopathic Hospital, where she received attention.

BRAIN INJURED BY FALL ON SIDEWALK.
A fall on the sidewalk at Fourteenth and B Streets northwest about 11:30 o'clock last night gave the Margaret Myers, thirty-nine years old, of 1359 Kenyon Street northwest, a painful cut about the head. She was removed to the Emergency Hospital, where her injuries were dressed. The police took her to the station, where she was cared for during the night. It is believed by the police that the woman is in a weakened mental condition, and an investigation may be made.

OBSERVE PASTOR'S
SILVER JUBILEE

The Rev. W. E. Parson 25 Years in Pulpit.

HONORED BY CONGREGATION

Special Services at Church of Reformation and a Reception Monday Night.

Beginning with the morning service today at the Church of the Reformation and concluding with a reception tomorrow evening at the church, the silver jubilee of the pastor, the Rev. W. E. Parson, will be formally celebrated by the congregation. Special music has been provided by the choir, and the church is attractively decorated for the event.

Dr. Parson assumed charge of the Lutheran Church on Capitol Hill at the conclusion of his studies at the Theological Seminary, twenty-five years ago, and has been associated with the church ever since. He has a legion of friends who will undoubtedly take advantage of the opportunity to extend to him their congratulations on his long and faithful service.

Established His Congregation.
While still a student at the Theological Seminary Dr. Parson conceived the idea of establishing a Lutheran church on Capitol Hill. He believed the field was there and put forth every effort to form a congregation. Finding much support he began to hold services in a little chapel in First Street southeast. After working zealously here for a while he was able to purchase a lot and commence the building of the present church in B Street southeast.

This was in 1881, and from that time the congregation has increased in membership. The Church of the Reformation is now one of the best known in Washington.

A Long Service.
Dr. Parson is one of the few local ministers who have occupied one pulpit for so long a period. During the time he has filled his present place he has been active in other work. For several years he was instructor of Greek and Hebrew at Howard University, and also a member of the faculty of the Lutheran school for girls.

Dr. Parson has spent a great deal of time in active work in Japan. For his offices there he was decorated by the Emperor with the Order of the Rising Sun.

His pastorate at the Church of the Reformation has been particularly prosperous. Few unpleasant incidents have marked the life of the church and nearly all the families which assisted him in forming the congregation years ago are still numbered among the worshippers.

Special Services.
The first anniversary service will be held at 11 o'clock this morning when the pastor will preach his anniversary sermon. All organizations affiliated with the church will join in the anniversary service to be held at 8 o'clock tonight and several addresses will be made.

Preparations have been completed by the women of the church for the reception to be held tomorrow evening when members of the congregation and other friends of Dr. Parson will join in congratulating him on the occasion of his silver jubilee. The local ministers will be numbered among the guests who will come from many parts of the city.

The closing of the congregation is not confined to residents of Capitol Hill. Many of the regular attendants live in the northwestern section of the city.

ACCUSED OF THEFT
FROM T. F. WALSH

Former Valet and Butler Arrested in Baltimore.

STRUGGLE WITH DETECTIVES

Supposed Thieves Believed to Have Operated Extensively in Homes of Wealthy.

After a desperate struggle last night in the city of Baltimore with Arthur W. Perry, known as Edmund Burke and Daniel Cunningham, the detectives Farham and O'Brien, of the local police force, arrested him and his pal, Jack Olsen, on charges of petty larceny, and will procure requisition papers for them Monday.

They will be brought to Washington and tried on charges preferred by Thomas F. Walsh, the Colorado Copper King, and Miss Mary Patten, who lives at 212 Massachusetts Avenue northwest. The men are said to have been employed by Mr. Walsh and Miss Patten at different times as butler and valet. While working in the houses, the men are alleged to have stolen silverware, bric-a-brac, jewelry, and trinkets.

At Mr. Walsh's home, several weeks ago, Perry is said to have appropriated a piece of costly ivory bric-a-brac, two stick pins, and several other smaller articles. Articles of like character were stolen from Miss Patten.

Information was received yesterday that the men were in Baltimore. Going to a house in West Fayette Street, Baltimore, with Detective David Summers of the Baltimore police force, the local detectives arrested Olsen.

Perry was located on a corner several blocks away. When the detectives laid hands on him he showed fight, and almost strangled Detective O'Brien before he was finally overpowered. A search of the room occupied by the men discovered a quantity of silverware, chiefly spoons and forks. These the pair are alleged to have confessed to having stolen from the residence of J. R. Gettings, a prominent banker in Baltimore.

Edwards, a prominent banker in Baltimore, got the records of the two men in custody. They are believed to have operated extensively, their scheme being to hire themselves as valets and butlers to gain access to the homes of wealthy persons, and then rob them.

EMIL FREY GUEST OF WHIP-POOR-WILL CLUB
The former president of the Swiss republic, Emil Frey, who served in the war of the rebellion as a Union officer, is soon to be the guest of the Whip-Poor-Will Club, a local veteran association. The former president was mustered out of the service as a major. He is coming to the United States to visit the World's Fair at St. Louis. This is his first visit since the war. While in this country he will be the guest of Capt. Joseph B. Greenhut, who served with the former president in the Eighty-eighth Illinois Infantry.

The former president's army career was a stirring one. He was first in the Twenty-fourth Illinois Regiment, and for bravery he was made a captain and transferred to the Eighty-eighth. He was later brevetted major for gallantry under fire. His regiment was shattered at Gettysburg and the major was taken prisoner. He was held for a long time at Libby and other prisons.

Major Frey, expects to spend a week or more in Washington.

MERRY WAR GOES
ON ACROSS RIVER
Justice Hagan's Case Set for June 4
Mackey Against Gamblers
Will Be Lull in Legal Proceedings Until Decision of Circuit Court Is Reached.

The fight between Crandall Mackey, commonwealth's attorney for Alexandria county, Virginia, and the proprietors of the St. Asaph poolroom, has at last taken legal shape. A short time ago Justice of the Peace Hagan issued warrants against eighteen men, alleged to have interest in this lucrative establishment, for their appearance before him on the charge of violating the anti-gambling laws of Virginia.

Through their attorneys the defendants petitioned Judge Nicol, of the circuit court, for a writ of prohibition against Justice Hagan, on the ground that Justice Hagan had not qualified by taking the oath of office and giving bond, and on the further grounds of alleged irregularities in the warrant, and on the alleged unconstitutionality of the act.

Hearing on June 4.
Judge Nicol granted the petition, and yesterday Mr. Mackey appeared before him in Alexandria and filed a demurrer, asking an immediate hearing. This Judge Nicol could not give, as he has a heavy docket in front of him. The earliest date he could set for the hearing was June 4, when he will be holding court at Manassas. C. C. Carlin, Edmund Burke, and Francis Smith, attorneys for the defendants, and Crandall Mackey, for Justice Hagan, will appear.

Politics Out of It.
Judge Nicol is one of the most fearless men on the Virginia bench. Politics will hardly play the part in the fight it has heretofore, and the Virginia law will settle it in the end.

At present warrants have been issued against James M. Hill, Zora Hill, Frank Hill, Isaac Jones, Edward Jones, R. Vandergrift, Louis Bergen, Peachy Early, George Campbell, George Lescalet, Wilbur Roberts, Burt Bentley, William Johnson, Frank Snooks, Edward McCauley, Joseph Les, George Kraft, Thurston Johnston, and J. L. Phillips.

Warrants have been served on all the defendants except Isaac Jones, Edward Jones, and R. V. Vandergrift, who are non-residents of Alexandria county, and one or two others who have not been located.

FIRE IN COAL SHEDS.
One hundred dollars damage was done yesterday afternoon by a fire in a shed in the rear of 912 I Street southeast, occupied by Clifton Sewell. The flames spread to adjoining sheds in the rear of 911 and 915 I Street, and also badly damaged them. A lighted oil stove placed in the shed and exploding is assigned as the cause of the blaze.
