

"AL" ADAMS MUST SERVE SENTENCE

Policy King Is, However, Entitled to Commutation.

TERM EXPIRES IN OCTOBER

Resentence Is Unnecessary—Prisoner Will Therefore Remain in Sing Sing.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., July 29.—Al Adams' hard fight to obtain his freedom from State prison at Sing Sing, where he is serving a sentence of one year and nine months, ended when Supreme Court Judge Keogh at White Plains denied the application made through General Tracy for a stay of an order directing his resentence pending an appeal, and his release on bail.

Claimed Sentence Was Illegal. Adams previously had obtained a writ of habeas corpus on the ground that he had been sentenced illegally, as his indeterminate sentence, without commutation, would expire in January, 1905, when the law declares that State prisoners shall not be discharged in winter. The point was raised that in 1903 the indeterminate sentence law was changed so that no commutation was allowed to prisoners, and on that account Adams' sentence would expire in the winter.

Entitled to Commutation. Judge Keogh, however, finds that Adams was sentenced before the law was changed and is entitled to commutation. Speaking of this, Judge Keogh says: "If the law of 1903 applies to the defendant, then he is entitled to no commutation whatever and his sentence of one year and nine months will expire in January, 1905, which is contrary to law. This illegal expiration of the prisoner's sentence during a winter month, it is contended by his counsel, makes void the whole sentence of imprisonment and entitles the prisoner to immediate discharge. If, however, the law of 1903 is not applicable to the defendant, then he is entitled to the commutation under the law as it existed when he committed the offense, and such commutation of his sentence will end his term in October, in conformity to the law."

VIRGINIA NEGRO RELIEVED OF MONEY

Accosted on Street by Two Strangers, Who Promptly Touch Him.

"Ah wants mah eight dollahs," said Clinton Henry Jackson, a negro from Loudoun county, Va., when he accosted a policeman on Pennsylvania Avenue last evening.

"I haven't got it," replied the policeman; "go to Police Headquarters and tell your troubles to Detective Parham." Henry took the advice and told Parham what he wanted. The detective said he did not take the money, but he would take a report of loss. And then Henry sat down to tell his story.

He was standing at the corner of Tenth Street and Pennsylvania Avenue talking to two men he had met for the first time, and they touched him out of his last $8 by asking him for that amount to "make change with." One of them inquired of the prisoner's name, and the latter told him. Just then the other man stooped down and inquired of Henry and his newly made acquaintance that he had found a hundred-dollar bill on the street. He told Henry he would give him $25 of the money if he would not tell anyone of the "find."

The dusky-hued Virginian promised to maintain silence for the $25, and just as he was having day dreams of returning to Loudoun county and showing the folks down there how he had done, he was rudely awakened by one of the men, who tapped him on the shoulder and said, "Let's have our money and then we can divide the money equally." The unsuspecting one handed over the money, and the two men went into a saloon to get the supposed $100 bill changed. They have not been seen since, and Henry is without funds and thinking seriously of taking the ankle express for Loudoun county.

CREED M. FULTON, HOST, URGES HOSPITABLE CUSTOM

The private banquet hall of the Riggs House was the scene Wednesday evening of a dinner party given by Creed M. Fulton to twenty-one of his friends.

The guests were F. Carroll Mattingly, William F. Gude, J. C. Athey, Barry Buckley, J. Holdsworth Gordon, Gen. William A. Gordon, Dr. F. Smith, Charles A. Baker, Robert Cook, the Hon. R. Walton Moore, Frank K. Raymond, James B. Lackey, Patrick Brennan, Major Richard Sylvester, J. Barton Miller, Dr. William F. Carter, William A. Foy, J. H. O'Leary, Arthur J. Dodge, F. H. Thomas, and Sidney T. Thomas.

Mr. Fulton greeted the party in a happy speech, in which he expressed the hope that a reversal of business habits would make, at least, his associates nurture the traditions of their fathers and grandfathers, whose love for informal social functions had always made American hospitality attractive.

The toasts, which were responded to after the dinner, were filled with the sentiment which Mr. Fulton had voiced. A floral piece, made of cut flowers and fern leaves, had been built in the center of the table. The room was arranged in a bowser of palms.

WHAT IS THE ISSUE IN THIS CAMPAIGN?

—From Chicago Record-Herald.

GRAND ARMY POST DRAWS COLOR LINE

Louisville Veterans Object to Negro Comrades.

Will Go in Separate Coach to National Encampment and Disobey an Order.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 29.—Members of Walter C. Whitaker Post, No. 75, Grand Army of the Republic, better known as the "Lily White" post, will refuse to obey the command of W. T. Baumhuth, State commander, that they attend the national encampment in Boston, under the command of Junior Vice Commander H. C. Pearce, a negro.

The post has decided to attend the encampment, but will go in a separate train from that to be occupied by the negro veterans.

At the last State encampment the Whitaker Post went on record as being opposed to the admission of negroes into the Grand Army, and not one is a member of the post.

There are six Grand Army posts in Louisville. Three are composed exclusively of negro members. Two others accept negroes. The white members of the latter two are allowing their membership to lapse in order to join Whitaker Post.

Would Stop Postoffice From Issuing Fraud Orders

On the petition of Edson France, of Columbus, Ohio, Justice Wright today issued a rule against Postmaster General Payne requiring him to show cause why he should not be restrained from issuing a fraud order against the petitioner or in any way interfering with his use of the mails.

France explains that he is the sole owner and manager of a medical business at Columbus, Ohio, which he carries on under the name of "Dr. Stevens & Co." This business, he says, is conducted largely, but not wholly, by correspondence through the United States mails.

He is not a practicing physician, he says, and employs conscientious, able but unlicensed physicians and surgeons.

France contends that he does not violate United States mail regulations in the conduct of his business, and is not carrying on a device or scheme for obtaining or collecting money through the mails.

On July 5, he says, he was informed by the Postoffice Department that memoranda outlining certain charges were under examination, to the effect that he was engaged in conducting a scheme for obtaining money and property through the mails by false pretences, which he was required to answer. Tracy L. Jeffords is named as counsel for petitioner.

Armed Guards Escort Men Into Leiter's Town

Contingent of Workmen Rushed Into Zeigler by Train—Five Desert, and Declare That Rest Will Follow.

CARBONDALE, Ill., July 29.—Joseph Leiter's guards succeeded in placing within the town of Zeigler a contingent of workmen to complete the construction of his plant. The men left East St. Louis shortly after 8 o'clock yesterday morning, and were in Zeigler last evening.

Not a shot was fired at the men. The men who were taken into the town declared they did not know the conditions. They were not permitted to leave the train, and the guards during the last thirty miles of the journey would not permit any person to enter the car.

At Pinckneyville, Centerville and other places trouble was anticipated. When the train reached Duquoin a crowd of miners gathered around the train, but the miners' officials counseled peace.

They told the miners that the non-union men would not remain in Zeigler, and that violence at this critical time meant the loss of the strike.

The situation in Duquoin was critical during the day and night. More than 100 armed miners were stationed in the southern part of the town, believing that a train from the South was en route with Alabama negroes. The temper of the men grew worse as the night wore on.

A train which arrived from Zeigler last evening had five of the imported men, who would not remain in Zeigler. They declared that not a man will be left there by Friday. There is a report that a United States warrant has been issued for Mr. Leiter's arrest, and that it is based upon delaying the delivery of mails. Mr. Leiter is at present in Chicago.

LAWYER W. H. LINKINS OVERCOME BY HEAT

Attorney William H. Linkins was overcome by heat today while presenting a matter to Justice Wright for consideration in the Probate Court. Restoratives were applied by Deputy Register of Wills Taylor and Mr. Linkins soon recovered.

"BILLY BOUNCE CLUB" FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

Sunday Times Will Announce How Membership May Be Secured and the Benefits to Flow Therefrom.

The attention of the young readers of The Times is directed to an announcement which will be found in next Sunday's Times, and which will be of great interest to them. It will relate to a new department which will be known as the "Billy Bounce Club," and, beginning the first Sunday in August, will be a regular feature of The Sunday Times.

The Times proposes to make this feature of the Sunday edition interesting to every boy and girl in Washington and vicinity. It will be conducted expressly for them, and the benefits that will accrue through membership in the club to which all young people will be eligible, will be theirs.

The Times has had a handsomely colored button made, which all boys and girls who join the club will be presented with. Sunday's Times will explain how these buttons can be secured. This insignia of membership will entitle those who have it to all the privileges which Billy Bounce will be able to provide for his constituents.

The purpose of the club will be to provide amusement, instruction, and profit for its members. Plans are now under consideration for making this new department of The Sunday Times of the greatest practical benefit to all who become interested in it, and to this end the co-operation of the boys and girls of Washington will be asked. Watch for the proclamation in the Sunday Times.

WORLD'S FAIR CUTS EMPLOYEES' WAGES

Reduction From 5 to 20 Per Cent in Salaries.

THERE WILL BE DISMISSALS

Many Distressed on Account of Decrease in Pay or Loss of Work.

ST. LOUIS, July 29.—Orders were issued by the World's Fair executive committee announcing a reduction in salaries of all World's Fair employees, to take effect August 1. The cuts range from 5 per cent for those employees receiving from $50 to $85 a month, to 20 per cent for the department chiefs and directors now receiving $500 or more a month.

Secretary Stevens said that 350 persons in the executive department would suffer by this order. A large number of stenographers were notified that their services would not be required after August 1. Many of them are greatly distressed over being dismissed on such short notice.

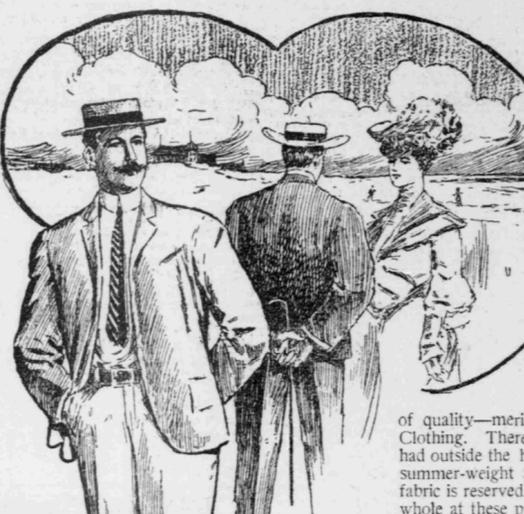

COLEMAN IDENTIFIED AS MAN IN COOPERSTOWN

UTICA, N. Y., July 29.—William Coleman, the alleged thief, arrested in New York upon the charge of having committed the theft of the Clark jewels in Cooperstown on July 6, was positively identified in Cooperstown this morning by five or six witnesses as being the man who was seen in the vicinity of the office from which the jewels were stolen previous to the theft.

The identification is said to be so clear that there is no doubt in the minds of the authorities that the right man has been caught. His examination will take place today.

PARKER, BRIDGET & CO. NINTH AND PA. AVE. PARKER, BRIDGET & CO.

Semi-Annual Clearance of Men's Clothing

Twice a year Parker-Bridget Clothing is bargained. Twice a year you have the opportunity to buy the best there is in Men's Wear under its worth. This summer's sale starts tomorrow—and it means much—not a few odds and ends, and "get rid of at any price" goods, but the very cream of the season's productions in Men's Ready to Wear.

We're putting in the Three-piece Suits and the Two-piece Suits in Fancy Cassimere, Wo-steds, Chevots, Homespuns, and Wool Crashes. You who have seen these Suits know their merit—merit of quality—merit of make. There is no finer Clothing. There's little as good and that isn't to be had outside the highest priced tailor shops. Not a summer-weight Suit in the house that's in a mixed fabric is reserved. You take your choice of the whole at these prices:

- $30 Suits for $22.50
- $25 Suits for $18.75
- $20 Suits for $14.75
- $18 Suits for $13.50
- $15 Suits for $11.25
- $12 Suits for $9.00
- $10 Suits for $7.75

We believe that it's to the interest of every man in town to investigate the opportunities of this sale. Parker-Bridget Clothing has made its reputation and its reputation is well known, and when such Clothing can be bought under price the reason to buy it is doubled.

About 100 washable vests that were priced from $1.50 to $4 (some are soiled)—to close at 75c

Notable Bargains in Boys' Clothing

Every place in the stock where we've found an opportunity to cut a price we've cut it. For instance—if there is one size in a line missing we've combined it with another line where sizes are missing and reduced the whole. It makes a bargain opportunity for you and clears up stock for us.

- Boys' $6 and $7 Wool Suits, in a variety of styles and every size except 12, 13, and 14 $2.75
- To close at
- Boys' $3.50 and $4.00 Sailor Suits, neat, well-cut, well-made garments, in white galatea, with blue sailor collars and navy device on sleeves. To close at $2.95
- Colored Washable Sailor Suits for boys 3 and 4 years old—a variety of effects, in stripes and solid colors, "right up to the minute" boys' wear. Suits that sold up to $2. To close at 69c
- Two lots of Boys' All-wool Trousers, in fancy mixed fabrics and serges.
 - Those that sold up to 85c for 48c
 - Those that sold up to $1.50 79c

Parker, Bridget & Co.
Head-to-Foot Outfitters
Ninth and Pennsylvania Avenue

The Best Dollar Eyeglasses and Spectacles.

CALLISHER, 917 Pennsylvania Ave.

Tomorrow the Last Day of Hahn's July Shoe-Sale

YOU'LL probably never again be able to select in the very height of the season—from a stock of up-to-date guaranteed Footwear at such prices as will prevail here tomorrow.

Men's $3.50 Guaranteed Patent
Colt or Ideal Kid, low cut Button, Blucher, or Oxford Ties—a dozen popular styles to choose from. Tomorrow $2.60

Women's $3.00, $3.50, and $4.00 Tans
The best made and handsomest styles of Blucher, Gibson, or Oxford Ties—made of choicest sections of light or dark tan calf and champagne kid—hand-turn or welted soles. Tomorrow $2.19

Boys' $2.50 Tan Shoes
The very best that money can buy. Splendid for present wear, stout enough for early fall wear. Made on shapely lasts of Laced Shoes. Sizes 12 to 5 1/2. Tomorrow $1.45

Wm. Hahn & Co's
CORNER 7th and K Streets.
1914 and 1916 Pa. Ave. N. W.
233 Pa. Ave. S. E.