HYATTSVILLE NOTES.

HYATTSVILLE, Md., Sept. 1.—A committee consisting of Mrs. M. H. Erwin, Misses Ryder and Virgie Espey, Mrs. William Glascock, Mrs. John Hurley, and Mrs. Robert Wilson, visited the Rev. J. P. Towers last evening, and on behalf of the members of St. Jerome's Parish presented him with an envelope containing a good number of bank notes, the occasion being the beginning of a two months' vacation, the first he has taken in his parastate of twelve years. Father Towers will spend a month with his parents in Springfield, Mass., visit the World's Fair, and possibly spend a week in California.

Henry Bacon, Lottie Jones, and Martha Dent, daughters of E. Hyattsville, were before Justice Arthur Carr, charged with disturbing the peace by engaging in a general fight. The Dent woman was fined and the cases against the other two were dismissed.

Two of Willis & Hickey's clerks while cutting meat yesterday slashed their left hands severely. Dr. Wells dressed the wound of one and Dr. Perry that of the other.

P. M. Richardson moved yesterday into the house in Maryland Avenue just built by Dr. G. A. Richardson.

Miss Emma Madd, of Philadelphia, is visiting relatives in town.

Nothing on the Market Equal to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This fact is well known to druggists everywhere, and nine out of ten will give their customers this proposition when the best is asked for. Mr. Obe Wilmer, a prominent druggist of Joplin, Mo., in a circular to his customers, says: "There is nothing on the market in the way of patent medicine which equals Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. We sell and recommend this preparation." For sale by all druggists.
