

PALAIS ROYAL HOME NEEDS SALE

$100,000 Worth Distributed in Sixteen Days

$100,000 worth of Home Needs are being distributed at half price—for $50,000. This enormous amount of goods will be sold during these later days of August. Last week's business is one guarantee. Hundreds of the many thousands of late visitors will testify to the fact that they could not be waited upon. Goods were sold in such enormous quantities that their prompt delivery proved a physical impossibility.

An illustration—1,000 dozen of Mason's Fruit Jars were sold in one day. Add the long list of other attractions, and sympathy rather than condemnation will be associated with tardy delivery.

Those patrons who waited in vain for attendants to serve them will prove equally indulgent when the cause is seen and duly appreciated. Tomorrow will begin the second week of the sale, with additional attendants, extra delivery wagons, and bargains as told of on this page.

$1 to $10 Bric-a-brac at 48c, 98c, $1.48, $2.48, $3.48

Rowland & Marsellus, U. S. agents of the celebrated Forrester & Co., of England, have disposed of their entire sample line—1,219 pieces—including Vases, Urns, Jardinières, Pedestals, Umbrella Stands, &c. Offered in lots at prices that average one-half regular quotations. Tomorrow's early visitors will pick out the gems of the collection—and know that such bargains only come once a year. Choice of 1,219 pieces—and no two alike.

The six great tables on first floor, in room adjoining elevator, are to be devoted to this bric-a-brac. Christmas presents will be selected tomorrow—so will many beautiful ornaments for one's home. Pieces three feet high and little "gems" not more than three inches are in the collection.

Not New Patterns, But—

The makers introduce new patterns every autumn—and every autumn the Palais Royal has a preliminary sale of the makers' old patterns, quoting prices ridiculously little. This annual distribution is now looked forward to by a host of patrons. Here are details for 1905:

$4.49 and $9.68 for $7.50 and $15 Tea Sets

Separate pieces—Cream Pitchers, Sugar Bowls, Sirup Pitchers, Candlesticks, Butter Dishes, Bonbons, Bread Trays, Card Trays, Single Crumb Scrapers, Crumb Trays; values are $1 and up. Choice for only 77c

10c 25c 75c 98c $1.50
Pictures Worth 25c to $3

They were framed during the dull summer months, keeping hundreds at work who would otherwise have been idle. Very important to the head of this great concern—he thus kept his force intact for the coming season. These pictures, in 8x10 to 20x24-inch frames, are the best bargains of the year—bringing absolutely no profit to the maker and very little to the Palais Royal. Choice of subjects for every room in the home, many being reproductions of the most famous pictures of the old masters, on fourth floor, with curtains, rugs, and furniture.

Tapestry Portieres, $1.98

Were $3.50 to $6 pair.

Not the new 1905-06 productions, and only one to three pairs of a kind. That's all that can be said against them. In their favor—art designs and colorings. $1.98 a pair, instead of $3.50 to $6 a pair.

Nearly 5,000 pairs of these Curtains, in Brussels and Irish Point effects. The new season will open in September with same quality curtains in new patterns, so-called, and full prices will be asked. New patterns are called "new" because a little different than the patterns previously made—but we know and you know that very often the "new" pattern is not as attractive as the old. Often the change is so little that one comes to the conclusion the whole thing smacks of nonsense. However, the "old" are nearly half the prices of the "new," and many have learned to secure supplies during this annual August sale. The opportunity is very fleeting—old patrons know this and will profit by the hint.
