

WESTERN UNION OF RACING

Directors Vote to Abolish All Poolroom News.

GAMBLERS NOT ALARMED

Say Action of Company Will Not Impair Facilities for Getting Results.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—By unanimous vote of a quorum of its board of directors, the Western Union Telegraph Company has decided to collect and distribute racing news no longer in any way. The Western Union decided on a similar course in May, 1904, but the sincerity of its action in carrying out that design was so seriously questioned by the Rev. Thomas H. Slicer and the City Club that Jacob H. Schiff was aroused to resentment against the alleged double dealing of the company's officers in this regard, and last July demanded that David H. Mitchell, of its commercial news bureau, be removed from its employ. Mr. Schiff then introduced a resolution before the executive committee of the board, which was the one passed by the board yesterday. In effect this resolution prohibits the employees of the company from collecting, handling, or distributing racing news except in the form of telegrams filed at and delivered from regular offices of the company on behalf of persons not connected with the company. It would end the racing staff formerly operated by the company at all race tracks. The poolroom proprietors of this city, who presumably would be affected most seriously by such action, are not alarmed at it, they said that while the Western Union might not conduct a racing bureau of its own, it would permit the conduct of one with facilities which would not be detrimental to the business of distributing racing news caused by its own action.

COMING TO THE THEATERS

New National—"Walls of Jericho."

One of the most important conditions of the new theatrical season is the joint appearance as co-stars of James K. Hackett and Miss Mary Manning, who are to be seen at the National Theater next Monday night in the reigning London dramatic success, "The Walls of Jericho," by Alfred Hitchcock. "The Walls of Jericho" is a striking comedy drama of modern smart social life. It was originally produced in London last November, and is still running there. Mr. Hackett saw the play this summer and at once bought the American rights. Mr. Hackett appears as Jack Frohisher, returned Australian millionaire, who marries the daughter of a marquis, the Lady Alicia, who is a society woman. How the husband wins the love of his wife and leads her from the maze of intrigue which surrounds her, is shown in a series of dramatic and interesting scenes. The play is said to be the most stirring arrangement of modern society ever staged.

Columbia—"Woodland."

Henry W. Savage's production of "Woodland," the merry fantasy of the forest, will return to the Columbia Theater next Monday. "Woodland" will be remembered as a pleasing production in every detail. Harry Bulger's irresistible humor is predominant in the part of the "Liar Bird." Bulger will sink a new topical song, "Cotton Pickers," which is a skit upon the Massey order. There are dozens of young women in the cast, representing dainty little blackbirds, graceful little canaries, stately peacocks, demure doves, and nervous sparrows. Helen Hale still with the company, doing the part of Jenny Wren, Louisa Tozier is still singing "College Mates" as Prince Eagle. Ida Malle is also appearing in her old part of Mrs. Polly Parrot. Mr. Savage will introduce a new "Nightingale" in the person of Miss Magda Dahl, a recruit from his English grand opera company.

Lafayette—"Sherlock Holmes."

The Stephen Gas Chamber with its ingenious electric contrivances has, perhaps, excited more curiosity than any other similar attempt at stage light effects. This weird and unique scene, which consumes nearly the entire third act, "Sherlock Holmes," is the invention of William Gillette, who was determined that proper emphasis should be placed upon the atmosphere created by Sir A. Conan Doyle, for the exploitation of his unpublished detective yarn.

Academy—"A Runaway Boy."

"A Runaway Boy" will come to the Academy next Monday. The third act is really a good circus performance. The usual side shows of the circus are shown in full operation; there are a number of acrobatic acts, horse acts, and the big "Runaway" Band of twenty-one pieces. Joseph Santley, who is playing the stellar role, Harry Reynolds, is the best known boy actor in the country. "A Runaway Boy" is a more than ordinarily elaborate production, especially from a scenic standpoint.

Chase—"Poite Vaudeville."

Nick Long and Idaline Cotton will be the principal drawing card in the bill at Chase's next week, and they will present the musical vaudeville comedy, "The Critic and the Lady." Olive May and John W. Albaugh, jr., will give their sterling comedy, "The Inspector from Kansas," the work of Grant Stewart. Alexandre Mirret and Adolph Glose, the piano and violin virtuosos, will find appreciative audiences. "Critic and the Lady" will take part in the unique pantomime, "It Happened in Dogland." Sophie Burman, soprano; Billy Link, in black-face humorists; and Wallace and Lottie Heiston, in songs and dances, are on the bill. The motion pictures will concern the filmlets.

Lyceum—Reilly & Woods' Show.

The Reilly & Woods company will play a week's engagement at the Lyceum Theater, commencing Monday. The prominent feature is the vaudeville portion, which comprises a number of European novelty acts now on this side of the Atlantic, and headliners direct from the London music halls. "A Hot Time at Reilly's" closes the performance.

Fall Opening of I. Haas & Co.

This season's showing of high-grade fabrics at I. Haas & Co., tailors, 1211 Pennsylvania avenue, is one of the handsomest collections of fall and winter wools to be seen. The designs are exclusive, and include all the newest and latest weaves. This firm is numbered among Washington's best and most progressive tailors. They have been located in this city just a year, but in that short time have made many lasting friends.

MESSAGE TO CONGRESS POSSIBLE

Germany and France Would Like to Help Bring Castro to His Senses.

ROOSEVELT AWAITS REPORT

Reports that France and Germany are aching to get a slap at Venezuela, and are endeavoring to ascertain how far the United States is willing to give them a free hand in their desire to administer a chastigation to President Castro, are again in circulation.

It is said that notes have been addressed to this Government by the two powers named, urging that the United States should either assume a firm attitude toward Venezuela with the object of enforcing from that country proper regard for the rights of foreigners there, or else should keep hands off, and allow the job to be done by French and German ships, marines and soldiers. Officials of the State Department deny that any such notes have been received. The denial is probably correct. It is well known to the two European powers named that the United States is engaged at the present moment, through its special agent, W. J. Calhoun, now in Caracas, in making a thorough and impartial investigation of Venezuela's relations to foreign property holders in that country. Helps All Foreigners.

While this inquiry is, of course, primarily in the interests of Americans who claim to have had their rights infringed upon, it will necessarily result in the collection of a great amount of information bearing upon the status of foreign claims of similar import. It is hardly likely, therefore, pending the result of this investigation, that France and Germany have addressed the United States in the manner suggested.

WARSHIP AND MINISTER SENT TO HELP ALBERS

American Citizen Arrested for Attempting to Resist Confiscation of Property by Nicaragua.

After consultation between the State and Navy Departments it has been decided that a warship will be sent to one of the Costa Rican ports to convey American Minister Merry, at last accounts in San Jose, northward to the nearest point on the coast of Nicaragua or Honduras to the place where Willis S. Albers, an American citizen, and his brother are confined, pending a trial on the charge of resisting legal process and the insulting of the President of Nicaragua. The District grand lodge, G. U. O. O. F., last night chose the following officers for the ensuing year: District grand master, P. H. Coleman; deputy grand master, R. H. Williams; district grand secretary, Isaiah Brown; district grand treasurer, J. W. Lee; district grand director, K. W. Thomas.

Protesting against the confiscation of his property by the Nicaraguan government was the cause for the arrest and imprisonment of Albers.

WALSH ENGAGEMENT REPORT NOT DENIED

Father of Heiress Is Reticent, However, in Discussing Reported Betrothal of His Daughter to Bradish Johnson.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—No denial from the family of Thomas F. Walsh has been issued concerning the reported engagement of Miss Evelyn Walsh and Bradish G. Johnson.

The Walshes are staying at the Garden City Hotel, Garden City, where they went directly after the tragic death of young Vinson Walsh, who was killed in an automobile accident three weeks ago.

Mr. Walsh Reticent. Both Mr. Walsh and his daughter, who is still unable to move, are closeted in their suite of rooms. Mr. Walsh's only statement was: "I cannot reply to inquiries at this time."

It is noted by the guests of the Garden City Hotel that Bradish Johnson has remained publicly on the Walshes since they arrived there ten days ago. He is living with his parents at Islip, near Garden City.

Newport would be surprised to hear of Miss Walsh's engagement to Mr. Johnson, as Marshall Kernochan, a nephew of Mrs. James P. Kernochan, was considered a far more attentive suitor.

Mrs. Kernochan and Mrs. Walsh were intimate friends and Mrs. James L. Kernochan was in the Walsh motor at the time of the accident. Frequently Mr. Kernochan would be seen driving with Miss Walsh in the mornings and all these circumstances indicated a close interest between the young Knickerbocker and the daughter of the Colorado millionaire.

A "Dancing Man." Mr. Johnson, the reported fiance of Miss Walsh, is not very young and has been a prominent man in society for several years. He belongs to the Meadowbrook, Raquet, Knickerbocker and Strollers' Clubs, and is known as one of the "dancing men" of the smart set.

Miss Walsh is a handsome young woman, who lived abroad for several years before her debut last winter. She made many friends this summer in Newport, where her father had Beauclieu, the William Waldorf Astor villa. After Vinson Walsh's death the place was closed. Mr. Walsh is one of the most famous of Western millionaires.

DISFIGURED BY ECZEMA

Wonderful Change in a Night. In a Month Face was Clear as Ever.

ANOTHER CURE BY CUTICURA

"I had eczema on the face for five months, during which time I was in the care of physicians. My face was disfigured I could not go out, and it was going from bad to worse. A friend recommended Cuticura. The first night after I washed my face with Cuticura Soap, and used Cuticura Ointment and Resolvent, it changed wonderfully. From that day I was able to go out, and in a month the treatment had removed all scales and scabs, and my face was as clear as ever. (Signed) T. J. Soth, 317 Stagg Street, Brooklyn, N. Y."
