TIGERS' PITCHERS BEAT NATIONALS

Local Players Could Do Little Hitting.

MISPLAYS ALSO HELPED

Four Errors by Stahlers Were Costly. Tom Hughes Freely Batted.

Capt. Bill Coughlin and his Tigers had an easy time taking yesterday's game from the Nationals. The outcome was not a great surprise, for the Detroit team has been winning games with the regularity of clockwork in the last three or four weeks.

Mullin certainly delivered the goods, and but for the sagrant slip-up by Shafer in the second inning, the Nationals would have been treated to a nice coat of whitewash. Only four hits were registered off this star twirler in the six and two-thirds innings he occupied the center of the diamond.

Hughes Unsteady. Tom Hughes pitched both good and bad ball. He struck out seven men, but allowed eleven hits, six of which were for extra bases. However, the tall boy received support of the most discouraging kind.

Tate and Rothgeb, two of Washington's youngsters, were given a tryout by Manager Stahl. Tate had a weak ankle and did not play. Anderson was shifted to first base, and Rothgeb was sent in to play in the outfield. It is to be hoped that Rothgeb will get another chance to play again today as all of his chances were exceedingly hard. He did his best to gather in two flies which came out his way, but he had the sun against him. At the bat he failed to hit like he has been doing in the Eastern League.

Hit by pitcher—By Kitson, 1. Umpire—Mr. Hurst. Time of game—1 hour and 35 minutes.

NOTES OF THE NOTABLES.

Coughlin captured foul flies from Huelsman and Rothgeb back of third base in the eighth inning. Both balls fell in almost the same spot. The catch Jones made off Kitson's bat in the eighth was a grand one.

Rothgeb let O'Leary string him in the second. Huelsman was on second and the collegian on first. Jones hit one over Crawford's head. As Rothgeb rounded second the shortstop yelled that Cobb had caught the ball, and Roth started back. He met Jones coming on and had to log it for third.

In the third Cobb and Crawford tried the double steal, but Cassidy and Anderson played the game finely and caught Crawford loosing off third. Huelsman hit a terrific liner back of third which fell outside the chalk line by about two inches. It hit the fence and bounded off past the scoreboard with Cobb in full pursuit.

Mr. Lindsay looks a bit awkward on first, but he gets there all the same. Cobb, the Augusta (Ga.) recruit, is fast on the bases, but he has lots to learn. He is remarkably quick on returning hits to the infield.

Tate batted for Heyden in the ninth and struck out. For a big man, Rothgeb gets down to first very fast. Both of Nill's hits were lucky ones. Twice the pitchers tried to stop what would have been easy chances for O'Leary.

Heyden fanned twice with men on bases. What would Detroit do without Link Lowe? He has played every position on the team except pitcher and catcher.

Personal Comment on Men and Things in the Field of Sports

BOXING.

In six tame rounds, punctuated with little strenuous milling, Jack Bonner, of Summit Hill, had something on Jack Butler, of Brooklyn, when the bell ended the eighteen minutes of going in Philadelphia last night. In the other bouts Jimmy Simister easily beat Gus Feldman in six fast rounds. The "Ace of Spades" made Eddie Hahn quit in three rounds. Terry Maloney stopped Young Hackney in one round, while John Dougherty knocked out Eddie Fracter, in the third round. In the semi-windup, Kid Wilson hit Henry Carter low in the third round, and the bout was stopped, as Carter was unable to continue.

George Tebeau's scheme to put a third big league in the field, with rival teams in Washington and Brooklyn, caused one of the big magnates to suggest a commission to go over to Louisville to examine George's head.

When the system gets debilitated and in a run-down condition it needs a tonic and there has never been one discovered that is the equal of S. S. S. It is especially adapted for a systemic remedy, because it contains no strong minerals to derange the stomach and digestion, and affect the liver and bowels. It is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks selected for their purifying and healing qualities, and possesses just the properties that are needed to restore to the body strong, robust health. When the blood becomes impure and clogged with waste matters and poisons the body does not receive sufficient nourishment and suffers from debility, weakness, sleeplessness, nervousness, loss of appetite, bad digestion and many other disagreeable symptoms of a disordered blood circulation, and if it is not corrected some form of malignant fever or other dangerous disorder will follow. S. S. S. builds up the broken down constitution, clears the blood of all poisons and impurities and makes it strong and healthy. The nerves are restored to a calm, restful state, refreshing sleep is had again, the appetite returns and the whole system is toned up by this great remedy. S. S. S. is a blood purifier and tonic and acts promptly in this run-down, depleted condition of the system.
