

W E I G H T S O F N E W S

Northeast Washington.

A permit has been granted to Arthur Carr to build one three-story brick dwelling at 118 1/2 street northeast. The cost is estimated at $5,000.

Scott Arrington, who lives at 50 C street northeast, caught his foot in an elevator Thursday afternoon, and received a painful injury.

The property at 27 Fenton street northeast has been transferred from Bert H. Brockway to Annie V. Brown.

Wildor Wallace has sold the property at 321 F street northeast, lot 14, square 86, to E. S. Wilson.

The celebration of the feast of St. Edward took place Friday at the Gonzaga Grammar School, the pupils of the school participating. The program began with an address by William McNicholas, of the eighth grade.

The Rev. E. M. Fink, the pastor of the church, presided at the feast. The Rev. Fink's recollections were represented by the boys, who spoke of the work accomplished by his efforts, and especially of the establishment of the Gonzaga School.

A sowing and reaping drill was given by the smaller boys of the school. The following participated: Frederick Gehrmann, John Bute, Edward Yeager, Frank Hinton, Francis O'Donnell, and Ernest Dwyer, of the eighth grade.

The Washington branch of the Theosophical Society held its regular meeting at the headquarters in Capitol Hill, and took up the study of "Esoteric Christianity," the topic of the evening being the "Historical Christ."

Wednesday evening the class in "Ancient Wisdom" finished "Kamaloka," and has taken for its next lesson "The Mental Plane."

Thursday the training class, under the leadership of George S. Shibley, opened the work for the season with the subject, "Evolution."

Friday evening the class in the "Study of Consciousness" finished the "Moral at Work."

A permit has been granted to Henry W. Taylor to make repairs and alterations at 410 A street northeast. Then Brennan Construction Company will take the contract and the cost will equal $2,500.

Elizabeth M. Bryant has transferred a part of original lot 8, square 1008, Twelfth street northeast, between C and D streets, to Benjamin B. Seaton.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Greenwood, of Paterson, N. J., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Holland, of Capitol Hill.

The Washingtonians met Wednesday evening of last week at the home of Miss Edith Appleby, 71 K street northeast. Committees were formed for the opening dance of the season to be given by the club. Master Ernest Kahler gave several vocal selections during the evening and piano and cornet numbers were rendered by Miss Emma Kahler and Mr. Henry Kahler. Dancing was then enjoyed until a late hour, when all returned to the dining room, where refreshments were served.

Among the members and friends present were the Misses A. Saxty, Agnes Kahler, K. Slater, A. Lusky, M. Giddings, E. Appleby, S. Breslin, Emma Kahler, and Messrs. C. N. Phelps, J. A. Maguire, H. Cole, H. W. White, M. Appleby, F. Myers, William Lusky, E. Leaman, Henry Kahler, William Hudson, M. Leaman, and Ernest Kahler.

James C. McDaniel and his youngest son, Leslie, of 17 Fourth street northeast, are visiting relatives at Georges, S. C.

Cyrus M. Potter has transferred the property on lot 33, square 118, Thirteenth street northeast, between A and B streets, to Walter Irey.

A business meeting was held Friday evening by the Pleasure Club, formerly the Juanita Pleasure Club. After the transaction of business dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. S. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hobart, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Holmes, the Misses D. Costello, H. Gates, V. Stewart, F. Schmidt, K. Dougherty, M. Costello, M. Quigley, B. Brown, L. Bennett, G. Stewart, E. Hamilton, M. Toole, M. Dougherty, R. Quigley, C. Mullane, A. McNeill, M. Brown, E. Schiller, J. Hellmuth, G. E. May, J. E. Quigley, R. Hudgins, L. B. Morris, R. Ennis, F. Vitale, A. Marceron, M. J. McFadden, C. W. Watson, W. Anderson, G. Collins and J. S. Helmholtz, president; J. E. Quigley, vice president; Miss G. Stewart, secretary and treasurer.

George W. Barkman has transferred lot 81, square 1019, Twelfth street northeast, between B and C streets, to Julia Dumont.

Miss Mary E. Fitzgerald and Harry S. Graham were married at the Holy Cross Church Thursday, October 5, by the Rev. Father E. DeL. McDonnell officiating at the ceremony. The couple will live at 26 V street northwest.

The services of the forty hours' devotion at St. Joseph's Church, Second and C streets northeast, began last Sunday morning with a solemn high mass. The pastor of the church, the Rev. Valentin E. Schmitt, was the celebrant of the mass, with the Rev. Nicholas Joseph as deacon, and the Rev. Nicholas Joseph as subdeacon. The Rev. Ignatius Fealy was the master of ceremonies. The sermon was delivered by the Rev. Edward F. Coyle.

The altar of the church was handsomely decorated with flowers and a myriad of lights and candles. After the mass, the children of the parochial school marched around the church, strewing flowers. The services ended Tuesday morning with another solemn high mass.

Fannie S. Kathan has transferred lot 13, square 105, Duncan place northeast, to Inez D. Baldwin.

A party of young people visited the home of Miss Mary Edna Noyes Wednesday evening and gave her a surprise party. Among those present were Misses Bessie Wallace, Isabel Noyes, Ida Bowler, of Baltimore; Gertrude Eubank, of Baltimore; Dorothy Brewer, of A. R. McFadden, U. S. A., and Midshipman Paul Fortner, Milton Lewis, Cleveland, and Pattman. The evening was spent in having a good time, and refreshments were served.

The Captiol Hill Literary Society held its first meeting of the year at the home of the president, Mrs. W. T. Betts, 406 H street northeast, Monday evening of last week. All members were present. The paper of the evening was read by John Bryson, who took as his subject "The Madison Papers." The paper received favorable comment from Dr. T.

Georgetown

George Albert Birch, formerly of Georgetown, who came here to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Fannie Birch, will return shortly to Denver, Col.

John L. Harmon and Miss Alice Mosuel, of Georgetown, were quietly married on Wednesday. The bride is the daughter of Anthony Mosuel, of the District first department.

George A. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Brown, of Thirty-first and M streets, and Miss Estelle Warwick, daughter of Mrs. Warwick, of Thirty-seventh street, were married Wednesday evening at the Evangelical Lutheran Church, Thirty-second and Q streets.

Arthur A. Custard, of 1829 Thirty-fifth street, and Mrs. John Wade, of two children of 129 Thirty-second street, are visiting relatives in Hagerstown, Md.

Mrs. Agnes Dugan, of Thirty-third street northwest, has returned from Hagerstown, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wade, and two children of 129 Thirty-second street, are visiting relatives in Hagerstown, Md.

Director Resigns. The Rev. Zed H. Copp, of 167 Thirtieth street, at a recent meeting of the directors of the Washington Boys' Club Association, resigned as a member of the board.

Revival services have been in progress every evening for the last week at the West Washington M. E. Church, Thirty-third street near Q. The Rev. J. H. Ballance conducted the services.

Last week, the members of the congregation of the Tenleytown Baptist Church, surprised the pastor, the Rev. George W. McCullough, at their home with a donation party.

William A. Pettis, of the Georgetown Evangelical Lutheran Church, who was recently elected delegate to the Maryland synod, attended the meeting at Cumberland on Thursday.

To Hold Special Services. Special gospel services will be begun at the Columbia Baptist Church, Tuesday evening, to be continued two weeks. The Rev. Dr. Fisher, of Alexandria, will have charge of the services.

The following will serve as members of the council of the Georgetown Evangelical Lutheran Church, for the coming year: Elders, Henry F. Kunkle, William R. Richardson, and Alexander P. Berryman; deacons, Henry G. Wagner, J. B. Berryman, and Maurice A. Walmer; treasurer, J. F. Darcey, Charles L. Blessing, and William A. Pettis, secretary.

Of the Rev. George W. King, who succeeded the Rev. Frank H. Havenner as pastor of the Dumbarton Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, will deliver a series of sermons at his church to-day at the morning and evening services.

The marriage of Miss Clara C. Welch and W. A. McCauley will take place on Wednesday, November 3, at 5 o'clock p. m. at the home of Mrs. Mary E. Constant. The program consisted of devotional exercises led by Mrs. Sasser, reading, "Children of the Doorways," by Mrs. Merritt O. Chance, and readings descriptive of homes for children, by Mrs. Hendricks; the Cunningham Orphanage, by Mrs. G. H. Wayland, Mrs. George Stokes; the Francis Home, Mrs. George W. Ashworth.

Mrs. Arthur Hendricks and Mrs. George H. Snyder were elected delegates to attend the annual meeting of the society, to be held in Baltimore, October 31, November 1 and 2.

At the business meeting of the foreign society, Mrs. Snyder was re-elected superintendent of the Little Lightbearers.

Aid Society Meeting. After a luncheon, a business meeting of the aid society was held. Plans were made for the annual oyster supper and bazaar. The dates, December 5 and 6, were decided upon, and committees were appointed as follows: Finance table, Mrs. Arthur Hendricks, chairman; Mrs. Edgar Moore, Mrs. William E. Dulin and assistants; Candy table, Miss Nellie Hare, Mrs. George B. Snyder.

Supper table, Mrs. Frank E. Potts in charge. Mrs. George B. Epes is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bronson.

Mrs. John Palmer has as a guest her mother, Mrs. Arthur Morgan, of Indian Head.

Miss Ashworth and Miss Cogshall spent a few days in Baltimore this week, but will return to Kensington on Friday.

Mrs. B. F. Snyder was in Kensington this week, the guest of her son, George H. Snyder, on Warner street.

At the semi-annual meeting of the Montgomery County Medical Society, held in Kensington on Tuesday, the principal paper was read by Dr. U. D. Nourse, of Dawsonville. Two new members were elected to the society. After luncheon the society was addressed by Dr. John S. Fulton, secretary of the State board of health, on the subject of "Tuberculosis."

Mrs. Price, of Hagerstown, Md., is visiting her son, Dr. Price, on Baltimore street.

Louis W. Maxson is confined to the house by severe illness.

Walter Johnston is suffering from an attack of tonsillitis.

J. Wilson Townsend and his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Townsend, left Kensington on Monday for Brooklyn, where Mrs. Townsend will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Andrew Mayer. Mr. Townsend will return next week.

Mrs. W. A. Johnston entertained friends Thursday afternoon. Euchre was played, Miss Mannakee and Mrs. Johnston being prize winners.

The Woman's Club met on Friday at the home of Mrs. David H. Fenton. The papers read were "Evolution of the Japanese People," by Mrs. Frank Chapman, and a parliamentary lesson by Mrs. Fenton.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Martin spent a day in Frederick last week.

Miss Eleanor McQueen, who has spent some months abroad and in Montreal, Canada, has returned to her home at Capitol View.

Miss Saunders, who is art instructor at the Chevy Chase College this year, was the guest of Mrs. Edgar Moore last week.

W. W. Eldridge and family will come to Washington November 1 for the winter.

Congress Heights

Funeral services over the remains of George Blaine, who died last Monday morning at the residence of his son, Edward Blaine, on Fourth street near Nichols avenue, were held at the Esther Memorial Chapel, Nichols avenue, last Wednesday afternoon. Rev. J. A. Gillin officiated. Interment was made in Forestville, Prince George county, Md.

Recently Rechartered Tent, which was reconstituted at this place, held a meeting Friday evening in the town hall, on Hamilton road. After regular business was disposed of a number of candidates were initiated.

Capt. J. Stulz assumed charge of Chemical Engine Company, No. 5, last Monday, relieving Capt. William Lusk, retired. Captain Stulz was formerly in charge of Engine Company, No. 11, located at Mt. Pleasant.

Active interest is being taken in the organization of a Knights of Pythias lodge in this suburb. Several meetings have already been held, and by next Tuesday it is thought complete arrangements will have been made.

The Ladies' Guild of Esther Memorial Church entertained the members of the Ladies' Guild of Emmanuel chapel, of Anacostia, at a musical at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Fillius, on Nichols avenue last Wednesday evening.

Some Personals. Frank Messenger is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Victor Beyer, on Hamilton road.

George A. Gossett will move into his new dwelling, the latter part of this month in the Butterfield addition.

William Woods, of Parke street, who has been ill for some time, has recovered and has returned to his former duties.

A meeting of the joint committee on sewage of this town was held last Wednesday evening in the office of Edward Neumebe, on Nichols avenue.

A pretty wedding took place at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening in the Church of the Advent, when Miss Nellie Straight Stagge, became the bride of James A. Baekus. The Rev. Edward Mott performed the ceremony. The altar of the church was beautifully decorated with asters, roses, and palms.

The bride carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. Only relatives of the party were present.

A meeting of Victor Tent, Junior Order of Rechabites, was held last week at the hall, in East Washington. This was the first meeting of the tent since the recent sessions of the High Tent.

Eagle Tent, the oldest in the Order of Rechabites, met Tuesday at 261 B street to receive the most of the rules. Wayne W. Cordwell, and High Secretary Kelly. It was the first visitation of the new high officers.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion W. Bohrer announce the marriage of their daughter, Beulah Eloise, to John Bowcock Thrift, Wednesday, October 18. At home after November 15, at 95 B street.

Thomas Kan and Miss Anna M. Copley, of Horse Heads, N. Y., were married by the Rev. Albert Evans, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. N. K. Boerun, 408 East Capitol street, recently.

Joseph Dings died at his residence, 311 North Carolina street, last Monday. Jacob Engle, thirty-four years old, died suddenly at his home, 242 Fourth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Cross, of Capitol Hill, announce the marriage of their daughter, Frances Elsin Cross, to Richard H. Arnold, Wednesday evening, November 15.

John Dutton and his daughter, Miss Bettie Dutton, of Charles county, Md., are visiting Mrs. F. Wainwright, of 411 Sixth street.

Joseph F. Arth, of A street, has returned to the city after a trip to Baltimore.

Surprise party was given last week to Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Byrne, of Capitol Hill, it being the thirty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. The party was arranged by their sons, George and Henry Byrne. Musical selections on the piano were rendered during the evening. A supper was served in the dining rooms. Many telegrams of congratulation were received.

Miss Florence Fox and Miss Hattie Lynch, of Scottsville, Va., are visiting Mrs. Sarah Lynch, of Ninth and Newton streets.

Mrs. Woodworth, of Boston, who has been visiting Mrs. Huse, of E-varts street, has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood went to the Hagerstown Fair.

Mr. Leith has moved into the residence recently vacated by Mr. Britz and family, on E-varts street.

Funeral services were held last Sunday at the Brookland Baptist Church, in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization of the Sunday school. The Rev. A. M. Wanger, pastor of First Baptist Church, spoke. The Rev. John N. Lawless, pastor of the church, presented silver spoons to those members present who were members at the organization in 1880. There were eight—Mr. and Mrs. J. Lovel, Mrs. Nellie E. Ford, Mrs. I. Quackenbush, Mrs. G. Schrier, Mrs. W. Warren, Ernest Lord and Mrs. Sherwood.

Charles Hanna and Edward Marean have gone to Boston.

David Barrett and Miss Gertrude Kier were married last week at St. Jerome's Church, Hyattsville, Md., by Rev. Father Towers. After a short trip to the North they will make their home on Bunker Hill road.

The Rev. and Mrs. Morgan Jones are returning to Washington after a summer in Europe.

Louis Shipley spent a few days last week in Baltimore.

Mrs. Gartrell and family have moved into their new home, on Newton street.

Mrs. J. McPhaul, who died at her home, 12 Irving street, was buried from St. Anthony's Church with high requiem mass last Friday. She was interred at Rock Creek.

The annual reception was given by the officers and pupils of the Brookland Baptist Church Sunday school to the members of the church last Monday. The Rev. A. M. Lawrence, E. M. Long, Miss Sarah P. Lynch, Miss Anna Lynch, and Misses Nellie and Katherine Middekau, who spent most of the last week at Hagerstown, have returned.

Mrs. J. McPhaul, who died at her home, 12 Irving street, was buried from St. Anthony's Church with high requiem mass last Friday. She was interred at Rock Creek.

The second Brookland football team defeated the Belmont Athletic Club by the score of 5 to 0 last Thursday.

Rockville

At Capitol View, October 15, Miss Grace E. Harr, daughter of Oliver R. Harr, of that place, was married to Horace E. Troth, Jr. Miss Alle Harr, sister of the bride, was the only attendant of the bride, and Mr. Simpson was best man. The Rev. Thomas E. Copes, of Towson, officiated.

The Rev. Mr. Pence was installed as pastor of St. Luke's Lutheran Church, at Redland, on Sunday last. The services were in charge of the Rev. J. E. A. Doernman, of Washington, D. C.

Marriage licenses were issued last week in Washington to John G. Wink and Miss Sadie G. Bennett, both of this place, and Burton Iglehart, of Washington, and Miss Olga G. Watkins, of this county.

The Woman's Club, of Rockville, met on Wednesday of this week and admitted visitors to their museum.

The ladies of the Darnestown Presbyterian Church are preparing a public meeting in the church on Friday, October 27. Mrs. Wallace Radcliffe, of Washington, D. C., will speak.

Miss Lulu Windsor, of Darnestown, entertained the Ladies' Club, in honor of her guest, Mrs. William Warren.

Miss Ida Clagett, of Darnestown, has gone to Newark, N. J., for the coming winter.

Moved to California. William D. Purdum, his wife and three children, of Brownsville, this county, last week moved to Los Angeles, Cal.

Mrs. Alice Walker Scanlon and family, after spending a few weeks at her old home in this county, has gone to Edgewood Park, a suburb of Pittsburg, to make her future home.

Mrs. Harry G. Pess, of this place, has been visiting friends and relatives at Mt. Savage and Cumberland, Md. Mr. Pess left here Thursday to join her.

Mrs. Elizabeth Walker Rensburg, now residing in Indiana, after spending several weeks in visiting friends in Maryland, left Friday for her Western home.

Democrats Busy. Chairman Robert G. Hilton, of the Democratic State Central Committee for this county, is making preparations for the campaign in Montgomery. Blair Lee, nominee for the State senate, Edward C. Peter, Bowie F. Waters, Alexander Kilgour and others are slated to speak. The schedule so far is as follows: Darnestown, October 23; Bethesda, October 25; Olney, October 28; Rockville, October 31; Gordon T. Atkinson, nominee for comptroller, will be the main speaker at Rockville.

Mrs. L. E. Cramer, of Glen, died on Saturday last, of blood poisoning, coming from a scratch on her finger, made while she was cutting a head of cabbage. She paid no attention to the wound until the finger began to swell. In a short while her whole hand and arm were swollen to twice their natural size. She gradually grew worse.

She is survived by her husband, Sylvester Cramer, and three children. She was a Miss Offutt, and was forty-five years of age.

Mrs. Jane Kidwell, wife of John S. Kidwell, died in Washington Monday last, of a complication of diseases. She was formerly Miss Jane Edwards, of this county.

Hallowell Maus Spencer, a native of this county, and for many years a resident of Rockville, died on Monday last in Washington city, aged forty years. He was a son of the late William H. and Mary E. Spencer, and was a member of the Rockville lodge of Masons. The lodge had charge of the interment in Rockville Cemetery Wednesday.

George S. McCormick, a well-known citizen of this county, died Thursday at his home in Darnestown, aged sixty-four years. He leaves a widow and the following sisters: Mrs. Hezekiah Trail, Mrs. Clara S. Owens, Mrs. Harry C. Hurley, and Mrs. Edward Chich, all of this county. His funeral took place Sunday last, and was attended by the Masonic lodge.

The new tuberculosis sanitarium, near Washington Grove, this county, has received its first patient. General Sternberg and his corps of physicians and nurses are preparing to care for any number who may come. The equipment of the hospital is about complete. At present the sanitarium is equipped with accommodations for twenty patients.

Jurors for November. Judge James B. Henderson has drawn the following jurors for the November term of court: First district—Beverly R. Codwise, Henry R. Benson, William E. Muncaster. Second district—Spencer M. Purdum, Edward M. Beall, Clifton Dronenburg. Third district—Arthur P. Fletcher, Walter W. Fyles, Paul Dyson, Charles W. Bartz. Fourth district—Lewis L. Sadtler, William Dorsey, Edward Gandy, Lee Offutt, Elijah T. Bean, Edmund A. Gloyd. Fifth district—Thomas L. Jackson, Elbert G. Barrett, William E. Shaw, George T. Windham. Sixth district—John T. Higdon, Alexander Broome, Nathan S. Allnut. Seventh district—Van B. Canada, William Lochte, John Simpson, Jr. Eighth district—Eugene Harris, John H. Janney, R. Rau, Moore, Richard E. Cissel. Ninth district—George N. Day, Otto C. Meyer, Lycurgus M. Griffith, Robert E. Kanode. Tenth district—Edgar R. Perry, John S. Gilliss, Harry C. Fawcett. Eleventh district—William G. Brewer, Charles W. Hirsch, Lloyd L. Jones. Twelfth district—Benjamin F. Lansdale, John W. Hager, John H. Burdett. Thirteenth district—George W. Duvall, C. C. Williams, Hardesty, Thomas A. Keller, William A. Fidler, Nicholas J. Welsh.

A series of Sunday evening lectures on subjects relating to domestic life, has been instituted at the Anacostia Baptist Church, by the pastor, the Rev. E. M. Geren. The first lecture of the series was given last Sunday evening, and a large congregation was present. Mr. Geren chose as his subject, "The Duty of Husbands."

A party of young men from this locality have just returned from a hunting trip in the neighborhood of Mt. Pleasant. The party included Armstrong C. Williams, Jett Wayland, Allen Baldwin, and John Cusack.

In honor of the feast day of St. Teresa, the patroness of the church, solemn high mass was celebrated last Sunday morning, at 10:30 o'clock at St. Teresa's Church, corner of Washington and Fillmore streets, Anacostia. The celebrant was the Rev. Father Jones, who is one of the priests officiating at the mission in the parish. Rev. Father Whistle, another missionary, was deacon, and Rev. Father M. Bart, the pastor of the church, was subdeacon.

Work has begun on the erection of Mrs. Maria Frederick's new brick building at the corner of Monroe and Harrison streets.

Miss Ida Edelen and Thomas De Sales Moran, both connected with the Government for the insane, and well known in this vicinity, were married Tuesday evening of last week. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Southgate. The attendants were Mrs. J. J. Wood, a sister of the bride, and Joseph Queen, both of the Government Hospital for the Insane. Mr. and Mrs. Moran will make their home in Anacostia.

Daniel A. Kelly has transferred the north half of lot 24, block 5, Twining City, to Elisha E. Berry.

The following deaths occurred at the Government Hospital for the Insane during the past week: Ellen Brooks, aged seventy-one years; Herbert Fowler, aged seventy-nine years. While attempting to climb on the rear of a wagon descending the Nichols avenue hill Monday, Roscoe Turner, a six-year-old boy, was thrown off and badly hurt. He was attended by a local physician, and was later able to go to his home.

The woman's mission, which was in progress for a week at St. Teresa's Roman Catholic Church, Washington and Fillmore streets, Anacostia, was brought to a close Sunday evening. The mission was successful from every point of view. The men's mission began immediately afterward.

Eva J. Beyer is visiting with friends in Baltimore, Md.

The authorities at the Anacostia police station were notified Saturday by those in charge of the reformatory at Cheltenham, Prince George county, Md., to look out for Norvall Scott, a mulatto, twenty-six years old, who escaped from the institution. It was the belief of the Maryland authorities that the fugitive would travel in this direction. When the man escaped, he was dressed in the uniform worn by inmates of the Cheltenham institution.

A colored man riding a bicycle along Harrison street Sunday ran into the six-year-old son of Walter B. Sexell, resident of 111 Harrison street. The boy

Anacostia

A series of Sunday evening lectures on subjects relating to domestic life, has been instituted at the Anacostia Baptist Church, by the pastor, the Rev. E. M. Geren. The first lecture of the series was given last Sunday evening, and a large congregation was present. Mr. Geren chose as his subject, "The Duty of Husbands."

A party of young men from this locality have just returned from a hunting trip in the neighborhood of Mt. Pleasant. The party included Armstrong C. Williams, Jett Wayland, Allen Baldwin, and John Cusack.

In honor of the feast day of St. Teresa, the patroness of the church, solemn high mass was celebrated last Sunday morning, at 10:30 o'clock at St. Teresa's Church, corner of Washington and Fillmore streets, Anacostia. The celebrant was the Rev. Father Jones, who is one of the priests officiating at the mission in the parish. Rev. Father Whistle, another missionary, was deacon, and Rev. Father M. Bart, the pastor of the church, was subdeacon.

Work has begun on the erection of Mrs. Maria Frederick's new brick building at the corner of Monroe and Harrison streets.

Miss Ida Edelen and Thomas De Sales Moran, both connected with the Government for the insane, and well known in this vicinity, were married Tuesday evening of last week. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Southgate. The attendants were Mrs. J. J. Wood, a sister of the bride, and Joseph Queen, both of the Government Hospital for the Insane. Mr. and Mrs. Moran will make their home in Anacostia.

Daniel A. Kelly has transferred the north half of lot 24, block 5, Twining City, to Elisha E. Berry.

The following deaths occurred at the Government Hospital for the Insane during the past week: Ellen Brooks, aged seventy-one years; Herbert Fowler, aged seventy-nine years. While attempting to climb on the rear of a wagon descending the Nichols avenue hill Monday, Roscoe Turner, a six-year-old boy, was thrown off and badly hurt. He was attended by a local physician, and was later able to go to his home.

The woman's mission, which was in progress for a week at St. Teresa's Roman Catholic Church, Washington and Fillmore streets, Anacostia, was brought to a close Sunday evening. The mission was successful from every point of view. The men's mission began immediately afterward.

Eva J. Beyer is visiting with friends in Baltimore, Md.

The authorities at the Anacostia police station were notified Saturday by those in charge of the reformatory at Cheltenham, Prince George county, Md., to look out for Norvall Scott, a mulatto, twenty-six years old, who escaped from the institution. It was the belief of the Maryland authorities that the fugitive would travel in this direction. When the man escaped, he was dressed in the uniform worn by inmates of the Cheltenham institution.

A colored man riding a bicycle along Harrison street Sunday ran into the six-year-old son of Walter B. Sexell, resident of 111 Harrison street. The boy

Kensington

The Ladies' Home and Foreign Missionary Societies and Church Aid of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church held their monthly all-day meeting on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Mary E. Constant. The program consisted of devotional exercises led by Mrs. Sasser, reading, "Children of the Doorways," by Mrs. Merritt O. Chance, and readings descriptive of homes for children, by Mrs. Hendricks; the Cunningham Orphanage, by Mrs. G. H. Wayland, Mrs. George Stokes; the Francis Home, Mrs. George W. Ashworth.

Mrs. Arthur Hendricks and Mrs. George H. Snyder were elected delegates to attend the annual meeting of the society, to be held in Baltimore, October 31, November 1 and 2.

At the business meeting of the foreign society, Mrs. Snyder was re-elected superintendent of the Little Lightbearers.

Aid Society Meeting. After a luncheon, a business meeting of the aid society was held. Plans were made for the annual oyster supper and bazaar. The dates, December 5 and 6, were decided upon, and committees were appointed as follows: Finance table, Mrs. Arthur Hendricks, chairman; Mrs. Edgar Moore, Mrs. William E. Dulin and assistants; Candy table, Miss Nellie Hare, Mrs. George B. Snyder.

Supper table, Mrs. Frank E. Potts in charge. Mrs. George B. Epes is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bronson.

Mrs. John Palmer has as a guest her mother, Mrs. Arthur Morgan, of Indian Head.

Miss Ashworth and Miss Cogshall spent a few days in Baltimore this week, but will return to Kensington on Friday.

Mrs. B. F. Snyder was in Kensington this week, the guest of her son, George H. Snyder, on Warner street.

At the semi-annual meeting of the Montgomery County Medical Society, held in Kensington on Tuesday, the principal paper was read by Dr. U. D. Nourse, of Dawsonville. Two new members were elected to the society. After luncheon the society was addressed by Dr. John S. Fulton, secretary of the State board of health, on the subject of "Tuberculosis."

Mrs. Price, of Hagerstown,