

Alexandria

Washington Times Bureau.
Henry P. Lynn, of this city, and Miss Mamie E. Barney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Barney, of Kensington, Md., were married at the home of the bride last week. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Rosensteel, of St. John's Church.

Married Forty Years.
Ex-Mayor E. E. Downham and Mrs. Downham last week celebrated the fortieth anniversary of their marriage by a reception at their residence, in North Washington street.

Form Dancing Club.
A German club has been formed in this city to give dances at McBurney's Hall every Friday evening, beginning December 1. The committee in charge is composed of Douglas Stuart, Judge Louis C. Barkley, Harry E. Seyerly, J. S. Douglas, Jr., Thomas B. Cochran, Marshall L. King, Eugene R. Taylor, and Arthur Heibert, Jr. The chairman of the committee is Thomas B. Cochran, and the secretary and treasurer Arthur Heibert, Jr.

Visiting Sperryville.
Mr. and Mrs. William B. Smoot, of this city, are guests of Col. and Mrs. P. Harry O'Bannon and Harry Smoot at Sperryville, Rappahannock county.

Major Bentley Mott is visiting relatives in Leesburg.

The Rev. J. H. S. Ewell will deliver the sermon at the Union Thanksgiving services to be held at the Second Presbyterian Church on next Thursday.

Bishop Randolph, of the diocese of Southern Virginia, was the guest of Col. Herbert Bryant and family, who have been spending the summer and fall at Accotink, has returned home.

L. E. Usher, of this city, who has been visiting William D. Grymes, in King George county, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. McCuen, of this city, were in Eastville, Va., this week for the wedding of the Rev. Edgar Carpenter and Miss Susan Upshur Nottingham.

Mr. and Mrs. James Smoot Smythe have returned from their honeymoon. Judge C. E. Nicol, of the circuit court, is in receipt of a call for the judgeship of the court of appeals of Virginia, should any change be made in that court.

James Hartley, of Richmond, was in Alexandria, visiting relatives last week.

The Rev. Dr. F. J. Brooke, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, has received a call from the Park Place Presbyterian Church, Norfolk. It is understood that Dr. Brooke will accept the call.

A. W. Strotter, of Broad Run, was in Alexandria on business last week.

Lieut. James Smith, of the police department, has returned from his vacation.

Mrs. M. A. Wood and Miss Melissa Hill are visiting in Alabama.

The Misses Parrott, who have been sick at their home in Cameron street, are improving.

Miss Anna T. Brady and Charles E. Atwell, both of this city, were quietly married at the home of the groom last week. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. P. Stump, of the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

W. J. Summers is very ill at his home in this city.

Mrs. S. A. Vincent, of Prince street, had as her guest last week her sister, Mrs. Mary E. Garrett, of Baltimore.

Georgetown

Slacey Briant, president of the Epworth League of the District of Columbia, will deliver an address this evening at the Dumbarton Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, the occasion being a rally of the Dumbarton Avenue Church branch of the Epworth League. Other addresses and special music will be given.

Harry Woodward, of Jacksonville, Fla., who was here for several days on a visit to his sister, Mrs. Jesse H. Wilson, of 2914 P street northwest, returned South last week.

Mrs. Anna Davidson has sold to Mrs. Frank Paul Leitch the three-story brick dwelling 323 P street northwest, the consideration named in the deed being $3,800.

Fred Brantzell, of Thirty-fourth street northwest, who has been confined to his home by illness, is reported to be improving. He is a victim of typhoid fever.

Charles Cox is confined to his residence, on Thirty-fifth street northwest, by illness.

The large warehouse at the southeast corner of Thirty-second and K streets northwest, owned by the estate of the late J. B. Berry, was sold at public auction during the week to Harry Chick, who, it is understood, will install a mortar-mixing machine on the premises. The price paid for the property was $7,500.

Marriage Licenses.
Marriage licenses were issued last week to Raymond R. Burrows and Nellie C. Murphy, of Georgetown, and James Richard Ingalls and Helen R. Finney, of Tenleytown, D. C.

Kennington

tion of two brick stores at the northeast corner of Thirty-fifth and M streets northwest, the contractor being J. F. Boyle.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at Grace Episcopal Church, at Thirty-second and Grace streets northwest, over the remains of Winifred E. Jett, who died last Thursday at her home, 629 Eleventh street northeast. Deceased was but twenty-seven years of age, and the wife of Ernest Jett. The services will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. William Pettis, pastor of the church. Interment will be in Tenleytown Cemetery.

One of Georgetown's unique business enterprises, is that conducted by E. J. Harrington, at 3415 O street northwest. He runs a barber shop and upholstering shop combined, he being the only workman employed at Mr. Harrington's place, who has a good deal of spare time, being the other business named as a "side line."

Patrick J. Ford, formerly of Georgetown, who was one of the organizers and members of the Lithicum Dramatic Club of this place, and who was here with "The Sign of the Cross" company last week, is now playing in Baltimore, from which place he will go to Pittsburgh.

George and Louis Weaver, of Wisconsin avenue northwest, have gone to Tennessee on a hunting trip of several weeks.

Albert E. Shoemaker, of Wisconsin avenue, Tenleytown, D. C., the attorney for the Anti-Saloon League of the District, has gone to Indianapolis, where he will remain for a few days to attend to some business matters.

Daniel W. O'Donnoghue, of 331 N street northwest, and Miss Agatha Teresa Mahoney, of Portsmouth, Va., were married yesterday morning in St. Paul's Catholic Church, Portsmouth, the wedding being the first which has taken place in the church. The attendants were Miss Katherine Eugene Mahoney, sister of the bride, the maid of honor, and Dr. John W. O'Donnoghue, of Georgetown, brother of the groom, as best man.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Martin O'Donnoghue, brother of the groom, assisted by Rev. Father Thomas J. Brady, Rev. Father Felix Kaup, Rev. Father Michael Twinn, and Rev. Father Paul Reynolds, U. S. N. Mr. and Mrs. O'Donnoghue left last night on an extended Southern tour.

Mrs. O'Donnoghue, mother of the groom, and family returned to their home, 331 N street northwest, this morning from Portsmouth.

Miss Frances Andrews has left the city after a visit to Mrs. George McLanahan, on Q street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Newton, with Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Shore, will be at home informally on Tuesday afternoon and evenings, at 53 Quincy place northeast.

Miss George Franklin Greeland, of Summit, N. J., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ronsaville, at the latter's home.

A party was given last Tuesday night by Miss Margaret Evans, for her niece, Mary Martin, on the young lady's twelfth birthday anniversary. Solos were sung by Florence Braz, Mary Martin, and Mr. Becker, and recitations were given by Gerald Weikert. Those present were Alice Travis, Florence Braz, Yetta Braz, the visiting girls, Myrtle Miller, Dorothy Muth, Selma Selinger, Ruth Reynolds, Lillie Martin, Albert Parlin, Harry Corcoran, Norman Colton, Thomas Travis, Peter Becker, Gerald Weikert, Mr. and Mrs. Bruffey Trent, and Mr. and Mrs. Benson Hayes.

Miss Mary Robey has completely recovered from typhoid fever.

In honor of her birthday, a number of friends of Mrs. Claude Bryan, of 227 First street, surprised her with a donation party last Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Bryan received a number of handsome presents, as well as several burlesque toys brought by the visitors.

Miss Idella Munn, of Hagerstown, Md., is the guest of Miss Nellie F. Rome.

Mrs. E. S. Westcott, who for several months has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. B. Houghton, of Chicago, has returned home.

Mrs. H. P. Hill and her daughter, Miss Louise Hill, will spend the coming winter in Albany, N. Y., where Mrs. Hill will place her two younger children, Margaret and Elizabeth, in the Sacred Heart Convent, Kenwood.

Mrs. W. E. Chilton, of Charles Town, Va., has returned to her home after a short visit to her sister, Mrs. Jordan, of North Capitol street.

Mrs. William A. Means gave a ladies' tea last Wednesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Louise Kaufmann.

A lovely autumn wedding took place on the 16th instant, at Suddith Valley, the home of James Suddith, when his only daughter, Helen May, became the bride of Jesse A. Miles, the eldest son of George Miles, a merchant of Cedar Grove. The bride and her attendant, Miss Esther Snyder, were attired in white organdy trimmed in valenciennes lace and white silk ribbons and gloves to match. The groom and his best man, Charles M. Best, wore the conventional black. The wedding march was played by Mrs. George E. Beall. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William C. Parrish, of Gaithersburg.

Miss Sarah Capner Reading, daughter of Joseph Reading, of this town, was married to Theodore Simpson Mason, a resident of Rockville, and engaged to Brightwood avenue, car No. 504 of the Brightwood line was found to be afire. The blaze was caused by a fuse igniting and was put out before any serious damage could be done.

A third call was turned in Wednesday by Mr. Conley, of Brightwood, on arriving at the scene of the fire on the woods on Shepherd road, belonging to Henry P. Dalrymple were found to be on fire. The origin could not be ascertained.

A complaint has been entered at the District building over the condition of Fifth street between Longfellow and Kennedy streets. It seems that a great number of gullies have been washed out along the street, making it very dangerous.

November 18, about 6 p. m. Jenny, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brown, who reside at 3407 Sheridan avenue, was severely burned about the face and shoulders. The child had been playing around the fire and her clothing was ablaze when she was found. The burns are not thought to be fatal.

Wednesday morning, at about 7 o'clock A. M. Schneider was driving out Brightwood avenue when his horse became frightened and ran away. Mr. Schneider was thrown from the buggy and his leg fractured.

Engagement Announced.
Mr. and Mrs. John Long MacCleghen, of Brightwood, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Helen, to George F. Nevans, of New York.

Miss MacCleghen is the niece of George T. Gordon, of Trenton, N. J., and expects to visit her beautiful home on her wedding tour. Mr. Nevans is a graduate of Columbia University, in New York, and is practicing law in that city.

The Kennebunk Realty Company has been buying a great deal of ground in Petworth lately. During the last week Norton M. Little sold two lots, Nos. 61 and 62, square 73, to them. The Kennebunk Realty Company has also been buying a large number of lots, and last week bought one from Earl Sampson. The lot is part of square 8.

Katherine, the daughter of the Rev. E. W. Richter, is seriously ill with the diphtheria.

The Hyattsville Baptist Church was represented at the Columbia Association of Methodist Churches by the following delegates: the Rev. A. A. Hobson, C. E. Vrooman, Dr. C. W. Eld-

Bloomington

On Friday night the Rhode Island Methodist Club gave a reception to show their new club room, at 170 Lincoln street. Two hundred and fifty friends of the organization came and were shown through the building by the reception committee consisting of W. A. Edgar, A. E. Darker, A. B. Whittier, T. A. Taylor, and W. T. Linley. This club is the result of the efforts on the part of about twenty young men of the church prominent among whom are V. H. Fouik, W. T. Linley, and R. C. Crampton. A football team has been organized to show off the club's colors, orange and blue, before the people of Baltimore on Thanksgiving Day.

Friday a number of young people were entertained at the home of Miss Helen McNamara. During the first part of the evening progressive hearts were played. The winners were Mr. Ashton and Miss Melvin. Mr. Ashton received a silk umbrella and Miss Melvin was given a set of gold shirt waist buttons. Having won the points, Miss Ashton took home a cake of soap. After a little music the guests went to the dining room, where dinner was served.

Those present were Misses Melvin, Ashton, George, Mortimer, Minnie, and David, and Messrs. Ashton, Yoder, Campbell, Johnson, McKeever, and Leason.

Progressive Euchre.
At a progressive euchre Mrs. A. L. Beaton received a great many of her friends, some of whom she had not seen for over two years. Mrs. Beaton made a little speech, thanking all her friends for coming and made known that the celebration was in honor of her twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, giving as the reason for not making it known before that she did not wish any presents. The house was tastefully decorated in palms and roses and outside two large ferns sat, one on each side of the door. After the cards were finished a delicious buffet supper was served. There were present Mr. and Mrs. MacCambridge, Mr. and Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Manning, Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald, Misses McChesney, McCormick, Davis, Kinneer, and Messrs. Talbot, Holmes, James, and Hayes.

The American Athletic Club met at the home of Mr. Fred Newton, Friday night, boxing was the order of the evening and in three five-round bouts Mr. Newton and Mr. Davis came off victorious and Mr. Hendly and Mr. Stahl fought to a draw. After the athletic club entertained a party, Mrs. A. L. Stein entertained a party, after which refreshments were served. The guests retired at a late hour, voting Mrs. Newton a charming hostess.

Engagement Announced.
Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Meredith have announced the engagement of their daughter, Ethel Louise, to Mr. Martin Orndorf, of Blumont, Va. Mr. Orndorf has a large farm there and the couple expect to spend their time in the country after they are married.

Rockville
A pretty wedding took place last week at the Dumbarton Methodist Episcopal Church in West Washington, the contracting parties being Mr. William Johnson, of Virginia, and Miss Lillie Knott, of Cropley, this county. Rev. Dr. Smith, pastor of the church, officiated. The bride was escorted by her brother, Joseph H. Best, who also acted as best man. Mrs. William H. Marrison, a sister of the bride, was her attendant.

A lovely autumn wedding took place on the 16th instant, at Suddith Valley, the home of James Suddith, when his only daughter, Helen May, became the bride of Jesse A. Miles, the eldest son of George Miles, a merchant of Cedar Grove. The bride and her attendant, Miss Esther Snyder, were attired in white organdy trimmed in valenciennes lace and white silk ribbons and gloves to match. The groom and his best man, Charles M. Best, wore the conventional black. The wedding march was played by Mrs. George E. Beall. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William C. Parrish, of Gaithersburg.

Mason-Reading.
Miss Sarah Capner Reading, daughter of Joseph Reading, of this town, was married to Theodore Simpson Mason, a resident of Rockville, and engaged to Brightwood avenue, car No. 504 of the Brightwood line was found to be afire. The blaze was caused by a fuse igniting and was put out before any serious damage could be done.

A third call was turned in Wednesday by Mr. Conley, of Brightwood, on arriving at the scene of the fire on the woods on Shepherd road, belonging to Henry P. Dalrymple were found to be on fire. The origin could not be ascertained.

A complaint has been entered at the District building over the condition of Fifth street between Longfellow and Kennedy streets. It seems that a great number of gullies have been washed out along the street, making it very dangerous.

November 18, about 6 p. m. Jenny, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brown, who reside at 3407 Sheridan avenue, was severely burned about the face and shoulders. The child had been playing around the fire and her clothing was ablaze when she was found. The burns are not thought to be fatal.

Wednesday morning, at about 7 o'clock A. M. Schneider was driving out Brightwood avenue when his horse became frightened and ran away. Mr. Schneider was thrown from the buggy and his leg fractured.

Engagement Announced.
Mr. and Mrs. John Long MacCleghen, of Brightwood, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Helen, to George F. Nevans, of New York.

Miss MacCleghen is the niece of George T. Gordon, of Trenton, N. J., and expects to visit her beautiful home on her wedding tour. Mr. Nevans is a graduate of Columbia University, in New York, and is practicing law in that city.

The Kennebunk Realty Company has been buying a great deal of ground in Petworth lately. During the last week Norton M. Little sold two lots, Nos. 61 and 62, square 73, to them. The Kennebunk Realty Company has also been buying a large number of lots, and last week bought one from Earl Sampson. The lot is part of square 8.

Katherine, the daughter of the Rev. E. W. Richter, is seriously ill with the diphtheria.

The Hyattsville Baptist Church was represented at the Columbia Association of Methodist Churches by the following delegates: the Rev. A. A. Hobson, C. E. Vrooman, Dr. C. W. Eld-

Bloomington

Hughes, all of this county, and John and Walter Magruder, of Washington.

John W. Howes died suddenly in Gaithersburg Sunday morning at the home of his brother-in-law, J. C. The body, after a short illness, aged fifty-two years.

Miss Laura J. Clagett, sister of Henry, Thomas R. Teresa, and Alice Clagett, and Clara C. Kengia, died at her home near this place on Monday night last. The funeral took place on Thursday morning, from St. Mary's Catholic Church, this town. Interment was in the cemetery adjoining.

Northeast Washington.
The Rev. F. X. Fink, pastor of St. Aloysius Roman Catholic Church, has left the city for two weeks to attend a retreat.

Miss Katherine Moore, of Philadelphia, who was visiting her cousin, Miss Edith Moore, has returned to her home. The marriage of Miss Clara May Lyon and Howard Delmar Chapman took place Wednesday night last, at the family home, 14 Tenth street northeast. The house was decorated with cut flowers and palms. Miss Ethel Ficharty was maid of honor, and James Brooks best man. The other attendants were Esther and Mary Lyon, nieces of the bride, and Master Henry A. Lyon, Jr. A reception followed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapman are on a trip through the South, and will spend some time in Lynchburg, Roanoke and Staunton, Va. They will make their home at 14 Tenth street northeast.

The priests of St. Teresa's Roman Catholic Church are now busily engaged in taking a census of the parish. It is thought that the list will be completed within a few days.

Takoma Park
Elder I. H. Evans, of Buffalo avenue, left Sunday to attend an important meeting at Lincoln, Neb. He will return by Ovid and Battle Creek, Mich.

Dr. G. H. Heald, who has the chair of science in the Washington Training College, has gone to Lincoln, Neb., to be in attendance at the medical convention at that place next week. He makes several stops on the way.

Walter Bond and family from California passed through here last week visiting friends, as they return to their mission field in Spain, where they have spent some time doing missionary work in that country.

Moves to Washington.
E. J. Perry, having sold his beautiful new home in Takoma Park, moved to his family last Thursday to Washington.

The new flat at the end of the car line in front of the postoffice has a new coat of paint and will soon be ready to be occupied. The building at this place increases in spite of high prices and cold weather.

Mrs. Gould and daughter and mother, who have been living with E. J. Perry in the Park, have also taken a flat in the city for the winter.

Elder G. A. Irwin, vice president of the Seventh Day Adventists, left this city Saturday evening in company with others to attend a special conference in connection with the medical convention which is to be held at Lincoln, Neb., next week.

Mrs. Arison, of Arlington, spent Saturday and Sunday visiting her friend, Mrs. C. E. Holmes, on Umattilla street.

Entertained Friends.
Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Woods entertained a number of their friends at their home on Chestnut avenue, at a reception given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Whalin, who have spent some months in the Park. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Whalin, Mrs. G. Daniels, Prof. and Mrs. W. W. Prescott, Mr. and Mrs. Baird, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Colban, Mr. and Mrs. McNiel, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Burt, Mr. and Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Alice, S. N. Curtis, E. A. Arries, Zytleskie, Chapman McCoy, Mrs. A. G. Hayes, Helen Miller, Irene Sturtis, Ray Bailey, Ira Holmes, Meric, Ethel Gilbert, and others. All returned to their homes after a program of music and the serving of refreshments, feeling they had spent a most enjoyable evening.

The Protestant Church held its regular annual social just Friday night. Nearly all the members were present, and spent a very pleasant evening.

Anacostia
The Rev. William Brayshaw, of Graytown, Charles county, Md., who was visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Brady at Harrison and Pierce streets, has returned to his home.

Sergeant Frank Virstein, the night officer in charge at the local precinct, was absent from his post of duty several days last week, owing to the death of one of his sons.

A large number is attending the protracted meetings being held at the Anacostia Methodist Episcopal Church, Tuesday evening, the Rev. Dr. Murray, pastor of Union Methodist Episcopal Church, Washington, spoke to the congregation, and Wednesday evening Philip Morrow, of Washington, gave a short talk. Miss Morrow sang.

C. E. Entertainment.
The first entertainment to be given by the recently organized Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor Union of the Garden Memorial Presbyterian Church, Minnesota avenue, was held Friday evening in the church. The following program was given: Vocal solo, Miss Esther Simpson; piano solo, Mrs. Minna M. Cummings; recitation, Miss Mabel L. Benson; reading, Richard Swindells; piano solo, Miss Margie Rabe; recitation, William A. Small; reading, Miss Effie Bury; recitation, Walter Simpson; piano duet, Misses Nellie and Margie Rabe; song, Miss Ruth Whaley; piano solo, Mrs. Helen Thompson; recitation, Miss Margaret Quinn; recitation, Miss Annie Butler; piano solo, Thomas Scowthorn.

A large number patronized an oyster supper, given by the Ladies' Guild of Emmanuel E. B. in Washington street, near Ellimore, Wednesday evening. A petition has been signed by the residents of lower Pierce street, asking that shade trees be planted along that thoroughfare, similar to those being planted along several other streets in Anacostia. The paper has been filed with the commissioners.

Under the auspices of the Men's Club of the Anacostia Methodist Episcopal Church a meeting for men was held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the church, Jackson and Pierce streets. Charles F. Linger, vice president of the club, was in charge. An address was delivered by the Rev. J. B. Clayton, of Washington. Music was furnished by an orchestra from the People's Mission of Washington. J. D. McFall sang several musical numbers.

Armisted Williams, supervisor at the Government Hospital for the Insane, has returned to his duties at the asylum. Mr. Williams spent a part of his vacation hunting trip in Virginia.

William Watson, who successfully underwent an operation for appendicitis at Providence Hospital a few weeks ago, has been removed to the home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Watson, Monroe and Buchanan streets. His convalescence is progressing.

Miss Nellie Robey, of the force of the Government Hospital for the Insane, has left the city for Old Point, New York, and Philadelphia.

After an extended stay at Havre de Grace, Md., Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Glen and George H. Gray have returned to their home in Anacostia.

The city postmaster has appointed Walter Fisher, a resident of Anacostia, as the extra postman, to collect the mail in Anacostia at night. The collection now includes boxes on Howard and Sheridan avenues.

Mrs. Corbin Dead.
Thomas Corbin, of No. 8 Monroe street, who accompanied the body of his mother, Mrs. Catherine Corbin, to the family plot near Fredericksburg, Va., has returned to his home. Mrs. Corbin was seventy-eight years of age, and is survived by five children.

Edward L. Clark, special officer at the Government Hospital for the Insane, has returned from a ten days' stay at his former home near Warrensville, Va. He was accompanied on his trip by his son, Harold.

Bloomington

Church of Our Savior, held a successful entertainment at the town hall last Monday night. It was "Arabian Nights" in a three-act play, most of the characters being members of the Church of Our Savior. The cast of the play was as follows: Arthur Hummington, M. E. Kain, Ralph Omerod, John Hill, Joshua Gilliland, Ed. Muth, Mr. Hill, Joshua Gilliland, Mrs. Gilliland, Dobson, Charles Purdy, Mrs. Gilliland, Miss Mary E. Freets, Miss Daisy Matland, Miss Lillian Rosewater, Mrs. Hummington, Miss Mary Hanna, Miss Barbara and Miss Agnella Rosewater; Rosa Hummington, Miss Lillian Rosewater.

Mrs. P. dea Garella, formerly of Brookland, but now of Annapolis, Md., has been the guest of Mrs. Schneider, of Eighth and E streets.

A new home is being erected for Ed. Hough on Twelfth and Franklin streets.

Dr. Franklin T. Howe and wife, who spent a few months in Paris with their daughters, Marie Helen and Katie, have returned to their home in Brookland.

James F. McHugh has returned from a lengthy visit through the city. A very interesting play will be given in the near future at the Town Hall under the direction of Mrs. S. Hamilton.

Southeast Washington

Eastern High School Alumni Association has arranged to hold a banquet in the Eastern High School Hall December 27.

When St. Katherine's Guild met in the Parish Hall, Third and A streets southeast, four new members were enrolled. After the business meeting there was a dance.

A bazaar is being held at Christ's P. E. Church on G street southeast. The proceeds will be distributed among the poor of the parish.

Vestibules are being put on the outside doors of the Eastern market.

Private Keefe, of No. 8 engine house, on North Carolina avenue southeast, has been made third man at No. 7 engine company.

Mr. Lusby, of No. 8, has been transferred to No. 15 engine company, Kentucky avenue southeast.

W. Lockwood has been promoted third man at No. 8 engine company.

Summerville Nottingham, of 1317 East Capitol street, is ill at his home with erysipelas.

Mrs. Guy M. Neely, Eleventh and C streets southeast, burned her hand and wrist severely.

Knifed His Face.
Walter Mills called at the Emergency Hospital to be treated for a knife wound in the right side of his face he received while engaged in an altercation near First and E streets.

Thomas Lee, sixty-eight years old, 807 Third street southeast, became suddenly ill at Third and G streets southeast. The patrol wagon was summoned and removed him to his home.

Mrs. Mary G. Bright has sold her property, at 629 Second street southeast, to Julia N. Sreator.

Mrs. Reader, 246 C street southeast, who has been ill, is convalescing.

Brookland

Master Ernest Smith, of Twelfth and Lawrence streets, who has been ill, is recovering.

Miss Lulu Hargrove, who had been the guest of Mrs. Worden, of 1238 Irving street, has returned to her home.

Colonel Goodloe, of Queen's Chapel road, has moved to the city for the winter.

Noel Aldrich has moved into the house recently vacated by Mr. McCarthy, at 10 P street.

For the past week the Rev. A. H. Zimmerman has been conducting a series of evangelistic meetings at the Brookland Methodist Church. A large number attended the meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. Devor, of Washington, were recent visitors at the home of Charles Molster, of Ninth and Lawrence streets.

The progressive euchre held for the benefit of the new St. Anthony's Parochial School last Wednesday, at the town hall, proved to be a success. The evening opened with singing by Messrs. Barnhart and Galbraith. This was followed by a short address by Prof. James F. Monaghan. Games were indulged in up to about 10:30, when prizes were awarded to those winning the largest number of games. During the awarding of prizes refreshments were served.

A table of Great Britain, which will be added to the faculty of the Catholic University through the bequest of Miss Gardner.

A new eighteen-room residence will shortly be erected for M. V. Lewis and family on Girard street, near Fifteenth street.

Frank Adams has been the guest of his mother, Mrs. Amanda Adams, of Franklin street.

The semi-annual elections of St. Anthony's Club took place at the last meeting, at the residence of W. F. Moran. Capt. Joseph Baumer was elected president; Joseph P. Bury, vice president; Thomas H. Crook, secretary; E. J. Smith, financial secretary; Joseph Rodger, treasurer; William McCloskey, sergeant-at-arms, and H. Dowling, Noyes, W. F. Moran, H. E. Brooks and John J. Rodler, as the board of directors. Dr. E. J. Davidson will open an office at 1225 Evans street, South Brookland, in the near future.

Bloomington

Church of Our Savior, held