SAFER ELEVATORS OBJECT OF BILL

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Coroner George F. Shraley, jr., has prepared a bill to send to the legislature requiring all elevators which have been or will be built in this state to have safety devices which will prevent them from moving while any of their doors are open or unlocked. He also proposes to require elevator operators to be licensed before they can obtain positions.

During 1906, according to Chief Clerk Bauch of the coroner's office, there were fifty-four elevator fatalities in Manhattan, and during the first fifteen days of this month there were seven.

"It is difficult to get a coroner's jury to hold an operator responsible in case of a fatal elevator accident," said Coroner Shraley. "I have discussed my plans with several prominent hotel managers, and they are all in favor of some legislation to govern the erection and operation of elevators."

TENTH ANNIVERSARY MEET OF THE AUDUBON SOCIETY

The annual meeting of the Audubon Society at the George Washington University on Saturday evening of this week promises to be an event of more than usual interest, as it marks the society's tenth anniversary. The speaker of tomorrow evening, William L. Baily, of Philadelphia, has not been heard here before, but is well known among the bird lovers of the National Capital, having attained particular distinction in the line of bird photography. In his enthusiastic pursuit of this branch of bird study Mr. Baily has met with wonderful success and those who have seen his pictures pronounce them to be among the finest ever exhibited. Mr. Baily is an active member of the American Ornithologists Union, and is a warm advocate of bird protection. The lecture on "Recent Bird Impressions" will be illustrated by many lantern slides, the result of the speaker's numerous trips through Pennsylvania and other States.

The president of the society, Judge Job Barnard, will preside at the meeting, at which a report will be read and resolutions will be submitted by the secretary, Mrs. John Denhurst Fatten, whose untiring efforts in this position have done much toward bringing the society to its present standing. Mrs. Wallace Radcliffe, the treasurer, will also give a brief statement of the society's financial condition. The meeting will begin at 7:45 and the public is cordially invited.

Crazed Indian Engineer, Passengers in Big Panic

Fire-Water Victim in a Hurry to Get Home Steals Into Cab and Opens Throttle While Train Stands at Station at Topeka.

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 25.—A train load of passengers on the Rock Island Railroad, sidetracked in front of the Topeka station, was thrown into a panic by John Running Wolf, a Pottawatomie Indian, who, after announcing, "I won't wait any longer; guess I'll take the train and go home," proceeded literally to carry his declaration into effect. Running Wolf, fired by whisky, chafed at the delay of the train in starting. He had bought a ticket to Mayetta, a local station a few miles out from Topeka, and he wanted to go. The conductor had informed him that the train, which was a local, would be held indefinitely subject to the passing of a belated California limited.

Thereupon the red man uttered a few aboriginal swear words and staggered down the track toward the engine. The engine driver and fireman, knowing they had time to spare, were temporarily out of the cab, and Running Wolf, despite the wabbling state of his legs, clambered to the throttle.

"Yip-yip, ye ho-o-o-e!" Such a yell as would have excited the

COMMITTEE IN FAVOR OF ENLARGING NAVY

A DOUBLE NATIONALITY.

Count Prosper d'Epinau, who has been decorated in Paris by the British ambassador with the Victorian order, is in the odd position of being a British subject and a Frenchman at the same time. He was born in the island of Mauritius sixty-five years ago. The island, of course, is inhabited by a French-speaking population and once formed part of the territories of France. Both the count's parents being French, the count is regarded in France as a Frenchman, but, being born under the British flag, he is just as surely a British subject.

SCROFULA A FAMILY BLOOD TAIN

Scrofula is not a disease that is acquired under ordinary circumstances. It is a deep-seated family blood taint, handed down from generation to generation, blighting the lives and sapping the vital forces of innocent persons who have inherited this legacy of disease. Parents who are blood relations or who have a consumptive tendency, or blood disease of any character, are sure to transmit it to their offspring, and it usually takes the form of Scrofula. Swollen glands, brittle bones, weak eyes, sores and eruptions on the body, Catarrh, and often deformities with hip disease, are the principal ways in which the trouble is manifested. In some cases the blood is so filled with scrofulous germs and poisons that from birth the sufferer is an object of pity because of suffering and a total lack of health, while in other instances favorable surroundings and prudent living hold the disease in check until later in life. A deep-seated blood disease like Scrofula can only be reached by the very best constitutional treatment. A remedy is required that can renovate the entire blood supply and drive out the scrofulous and tuberculous deposits. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers; it goes to the very bottom of all blood disorders and removes every taint and poison from the circulation, makes rich, healthy blood and cures Scrofula permanently. S. S. S. supplies the weak, diseased blood with the rich, health-sustaining properties it is in need of, and makes this life stream fit to supply every part of the system with strength and vitality. Scrofula yields to S. S. S. because it is a natural blood purifier. Write for book on the blood and any medical advice desired. No charge for either.

USE BLOODHOUNDS ON POLICE FORCE

Lexington Will Have Two Dogs to Hunt Down Criminals.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Jan. 25.—Among the additions which will be made to Lexington's police force soon will be two famous bloodhounds. They are Nick Carter and Ivy, the two man-hunting dogs owned by Capt. V. G. Mulliken, who recently moved to this city from Wilmore. The dogs are known all over the State for their success in running down criminals. It is proposed to add six mounted policemen, who will be used to patrol the newly annexed suburbs.

When Captain Mulliken heard of this proposition he asked that he be made one of the new patrolmen, and as the result of a consultation between him and the city officials it was agreed that Captain Mulliken should receive a position as mounted patrolman and that his dogs should also be attached to the force, the city paying for their care and maintenance.

SNOW IN LONDON COSTLY.

A snowstorm in London involves the expenditure of a big fortune to restore the streets to anything like a passable condition. After the snowstorm of January, 1886, which approximated the present visitation, Naber Blair, the surveyor of St. Pancras, said that his authority expended $2,172 on snow removal. There are twenty-eight boroughs in London, and, taking St. Pancras as an average-sized borough, the total expenditure would be close upon $70,000. This sum makes no provision for the city of London and the total can not fall short of $100,000. Half an hour's rainfall at this stage would be worth its weight in gold—provided, of course, that it was not immediately followed by a frost.—London Chronicle.

SPOUSE BAKES PIE, WIFE SEES PLOT

Beats Husband With Umbrella, Doubling His Word.

LANCASTER, Pa., Jan. 25.—A pie was the cause of a fierce quarrel between William Horn and his wife, and resulted in an assault and battery case, which ended in an equal division of the costs.

A few weeks ago William had no work and he decided to do the housework while his wife went out to do a day's washing. When she returned in the evening she found a pie on the table, which William proudly boasted he had baked.

His wife said he did not tell the truth; he must have had a woman in the house to do the baking, and so she went at him with an umbrella. After a vigorous fight William threatened his wife and she promptly sued him. The costs are about $40, and the fight may yet result in a separation and divorce.

TWO THOUSAND LABOR IN BURNING SKYSCRAPER

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—While a fire which caused more than $10,000 damage before it was subdued was raging on the tenth floor of the big Hiltelander building at Williams, Duane, and Rose streets today, more than 2,000 men and women went unconcernedly to their daily tasks in other parts of the big structure.

Ordinarily about 2,500 persons spend the work hours of the day there, and of these less than 500 were prevented from reporting from duty by the fire. In the Evening Journal offices on the three floors directly below where the fire was raging, work proceeded without even a minute's interruption.

TUBERCULOSIS TALK BY ITS ENEMIES

Prevention of Consumption Crusaders Tell of Work in Colorado and California.

A lecture on the Prevention of Consumption was given in the Grace Evangelical Church, Thirteenth and Corcoran streets northwest, last night. The speakers were Dr. B. M. Randolph, Wallace Hatch, also an army surgeon recently returned from work among consumptives in Colorado and southern California. Mr. Randolph discussed in a general and specific way the prevalence, character, cure, and prevention of tuberculosis, and the way in which all members of the community might unite in stamping out the scourge.

Wallace Hatch, committee secretary of the Associated Charities, and the secretary of the committee on Prevention of Consumption, explained with stereoscopic slides the work which the committee on Prevention of Consumption is endeavoring to do. He explained particularly the need of larger co-operation of all members of the community in this campaign. Consumption can be successfully combated, he said, only as the community becomes a unit in fighting it.

"SUICIDE'S" PISTOL IN HIS POCKET

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Mrs. Mary Barbazian, aged sixteen, was found probably fatally wounded in her mother's home in Hoboken on Tuesday beside the lifeless body of her husband, Peter Barbazian. Mrs. Barbazian and her mother declared that Barbazian shot his wife and then killed himself, but the coroner said that some phases of the case were so mysterious that he intended to investigate it.

According to Mrs. Barbazian's mother the younger woman had left her husband and gone to live with her mother. Today her husband called and was having an interview with his wife when Barbazian fired the shot.

The coroner found that Barbazian's revolver was in his pocket fully loaded, and that the shots were fired from a weapon belonging to Mrs. Barbazian's brother. The two women did not explain how Barbazian got possession of the weapon. The coroner's suspicions were also aroused by the fact that Barbazian, who is right-handed, was shot in the right hand.

TRIAL DIVORCE IN HOOSIER STATE

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—Trial divorce is established at Hammond, Ind., where Judge Tullihill, of that city, has granted a limited divorce for thirty years to Mr. and Mrs. Otto Negele, prominent Hammond society people. Neither is permitted by the decree to marry within that time, unless they should decide to patch up their marital difficulties and again become man and wife, in which event the court sanctions a ceremony to unite them once more.

After the trial divorce, Mr. and Mrs. Negele will be free to marry again without restriction, but if Mrs. Negele should decide not to enter into a second marriage, her divorced husband will be obliged to support her. During the trial period, however, Mr. Negele will not be compelled to contribute to her support.

WORDS CAN NOT EXPRESS GRATITUDE TO CUTICURA

"Words are inadequate to express my gratitude for Cuticura Remedies. I had been troubled with eczema for five years on my ear and it began to extend on my cheek. I had been doctoring with the best physicians, but found no relief whatever. When informing them that I could not bear the itching I was told by one of our best doctors, 'not to scratch.' As the medicines and salves did me no good I thought I would try Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Pills, costing me one-half of one visit to my physician. After using as directed, with plenty of hot water, I can truthfully state that I found instant relief. When I had used three boxes of Cuticura Ointment and two cakes of Cuticura Soap I found my skin as soft and fine as a baby's. My circle of friends is very large, and I am persuading them to use Cuticura Soap and give up the kinds they were using. I find no trouble in my case has proven to them that if Cuticura Ointment is good, Cuticura Soap must be likewise."

"I hesitate to send you the enclosed picture as it has been lying around in my desk for two years and is very soiled. At the time it was taken my ears were scaly and you will find some remnants of Cuticura Ointment on it, and, to me, it is very precious, as I can now say when looking at it that Cuticura is a blessing, and that is why I have kept it even though it was soiled.
