Miss Fleming Marries Nicaraguan Minister

Mexican Ambassador Bridegroom's Best Man at Brilliant Wedding—Bride a Debutante of a Few Months, Not Long Ago in School.

The much chronicled and much talked of wedding of Miss India Bell Vedder Fleming, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Robert I. Fleming, and Don Luis F. Corea, minister to this country from Nicaragua, took place today at noon in the home of the bride's parents, on Massachusetts avenue.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Tunis S. Hamlin, pastor of the fashionable Church of the Covenant, before a small company of about twenty-five relatives and very intimate friends of the bride and bridegroom.

The West Street Presbyterian Church, Georgetown, will hold an auction sale in the chapel adjoining, Friday, March 1, at 8 p. m., for parochial purposes, which promises to be one of the most novel affairs of its kind in local annals.

A large and powerful organization of society leaders, formed for the express purpose of furnishing infant garments for the House of Mercy, is among Lenten philanthropes. The enterprise is under the leadership of Mrs. Rose Gouverneur Hoes, whose ability and zeal in such undertakings is widely recognized.

Genuine "Skiddoo Kid" Born 23d, Weighs 23

WATERBURY, Conn., Feb. 27.—By a collection of claims, almost stupendous in the aggregate, Charles Augustus Bauby holds the title as the original "skiddoo" kid. In him is concentrated the essence of "skiddoo," beside which the vivid speech of the highway is as nothing.

Note the qualifications bestowed upon him at his advent. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Bauby, each of whom is twenty-three years old. He was born on February 23 and he is founded even the least scrupulous of the attending physicians by weighing twenty-three pounds, his terrified father, who rushed to the savings bank to make a nest egg deposit of $25 in his son's name, told the wide-eyed treasurer that the new arrival had wept twenty-three times within the first hour of his existence.

Major. After the dancing a midnight supper was served. Miss Ella Steiner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Steiner, will be married Sunday, March 3, to Louis Bush, of this city, at the home of the bride's parents, 417 L street.

Great preparations are being made for handsome costumes for the fancy dress ball to be given tomorrow evening by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Washington Hebrew Congregation.

Mrs. L. Richard, of Eighteenth street, is spending the week in Baltimore with friends. Mrs. Marx Kaufman and Mrs. Harry Kaufman were at home yesterday afternoon to their friends. When the guests entered the dining room, they found the table beautifully decorated in garlands of smilax and light carnations. The young ladies assisting in the dining room in dainty white gowns were Miss Mabel G. Kaufman, who served coffee; Miss Josephine Steinger, at the grape bowl; Miss Irene Hollander, and Miss Juanita Kaufman.
