CATHOLIC HIERARCHY MEETS; DISCUSSES CHURCH MATTERS

Bishop Spalding Resigns From University Board of Trustees—Arranging to Admit College Students Without Further Examination.

The Catholic hierarchy of America met at 10 o'clock this morning in Caldwell Hall, Catholic University of America, for the purpose of discussing questions of intimate importance to the Catholic church in this country. Cardinal Gibbons presided. Bishops from various parts of the country were present and submitted reports to the cardinal of the work in their dioceses and of the general condition of the Catholic church. The business of the meeting will be closed this evening and tomorrow Cardinal Gibbons and several of the bishops will leave for Charleston, S. C., to attend the consecration of the new cathedral in that city. The cardinal will later go to New Orleans for the purpose of installing Bishop Blouin, successor to the late Archbishop Chapelle. The ceremony will take place April 24.

Affiliation With Colleges.

It was determined yesterday at the annual meeting of the board of trustees of the Catholic University of America to affiliate with various Catholic colleges throughout the country in order that students from these institutions may enroll at the university without having to pass an examination. This question has been under consideration for many months and promises to be another definite step toward making the university the center of Catholic education in America.

One of the important features of yesterday's meeting was the announcement of the resignation from the board of the Right Rev. John Lancaster Spalding, bishop of Peoria, Ill., who some time ago suffered a stroke of paralysis. His resignation is due to ill health. The bishop's connection with the board was significant through the fact that the building of Caldwell Hall was directly due to him. Bishop Spalding was the guardian of Miss Gwendolin Caldwell and her sister, daughters of an old friend, and brought them into the Catholic church.

Caldwell Episode Recalled.

Miss Caldwell became so interested in the proposed Catholic University that she gave the money for the erection of its first building which was named for her. A fine life-size portrait of Miss Caldwell hangs in the reception room of the hall. For this service Pope Leo gave her a diamond-studded medal and conferred upon her the Order of the Rose. Later Miss Caldwell married the Marquis de Montiers-Meriville. It was said her husband ran through her remaining fortune and not many months ago the former Miss Caldwell returned to America broken in mind and health and declaring her withdrawal from the Catholic church. She renounced both the Catholic faith and Bishop Spalding, under whose guidance she had adopted it. Bishop Spalding's resignation was yesterday made the subject of a resolution of sincere affection from his associates on the board.

PASSED WORTHLESS CHECK ON UHLFELDER & TALBOTT

A man representing himself as John A. Beall passed a worthless check for $10 on Uhlfelder & Talbott, commission merchants, at 907 Louisiana avenue, last Tuesday, after ordering a bill of goods worth $174.75 from the store. When the goods were delivered it was found that a colored family lived at the address, and that they knew nothing about the order. After tendering the check the man received $14 in change. Central Office Detective Weeden is working on the case.

Husband's Return Crazes Woman Who Wed Again

ASHLAND, Ky., April 11.—Brought face to face with her husband, whom she had mourned as dead, Mrs. Alexander Van Wyth, who has married twice since he went away, became hopelessly insane this week.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

Bulletin. SEE AMERICA FOR HALF PRICE

America is rich in scenic attractions. No country on the globe is richer. The forest-clad Alleghenies, the fertile valleys of the Mississippi and Missouri, the sweeping plains of Kansas and Nebraska, the rugged peaks of the Rockies, the Grand Canyon of Arizona, the cloud-piercing Sierras—all these and many other unique features full of beauty and grandeur are embraced in this great land of ours.

We all have a natural desire to see these works of nature; but many of us have been deterred by the expense involved.

By special arrangements the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has prepared, at a remarkably low rate, a tour of thirty days, covering the route from New York to St. Louis, to Colorado Springs and Denver, the Grand Canyon of Arizona, the Pacific Coast from Los Angeles to Seattle, including Pasadena, Riverside, Santa Barbara, Del Monte, San Jose, San Francisco, Portland, and Tacoma, the trip through the Canadian Rockies—the most magnificent mountain scenery in the world—by daylight, and returning via the route through St. Paul and Chicago.

The tour will leave by Special Train of Pullman Drawing-Room Sleeping, Dining, and Observation cars on April 27.

The round-trip rate from stations on the Pennsylvania Railroad east of Pittsburgh will be only $200, and will cover all necessary expenses except hotels in Los Angeles. Several carriage drives are included in the ticket.

If you would like to join the party, which is limited, write at once to B. M. Newbold, P. A. S. E. D., Fifteenth and G Streets, Washington, D. C., who will send you a descriptive itinerary giving full information, and also, upon request, make all the necessary arrangements for your trip.
