KITSON'S PASSES COSTLY

Throws Away Game He Has Already Well in Hand.

PHILADELPHIA, April 20.—Held completely under the spell of Kitson's masterly pitching for four innings, the Athletics finally found their batting eyes and materially assisted by passes to first were returned a winner against Washington today by 6 to 5.

Washington made a determined finish, and but for a display of poor judgment by a player at third the Nationals might have tied the score at their last time at bat. The visitors hit Bender hard all through. In fact, much harder than the score shows, but in only one inning did their batting produce results in runs.

Two Runs Off Passes. The hard up-hill fight put up by the Athletics was deserving of victory. Up to the fifth they had failed to find Kitson for a strike hit when they went to bat in their half of the fifth were handicapped by a lead of four runs. It was in this inning that they began to get on more familiar terms with Kitson's curves, although the latter's free transportation to first largely contributed to the two runs scored in this round.

How Athletics Won. In the succeeding inning Schreck, first up, was safe on Kitson's fumble. Knight struck out. Lord drove to deep left center, Schreck scoring ahead of him. Altizer's poor return of the ball giving the batter the credit for the run. In the eighth inning, Lord, first up, walked. Bender's sacrifice placed him on second, when he tallied on Hartzel's slanting double against the right-field fence.

Washington's Good Inning. Washington made a fusillade of hits in the fourth inning, scoring four runs by a splendid batting rally. Jones was the first to face Bender, the latter fumbling his grounder. Perrine drove out a long double to right-center. Jones taking third base. Heydon singled to left, Jones scoring, but Hartzel held Perrine on third. Kitson struck out. Ganley bunted, and it was too far to Davis' left to field. Davis went after it slowly, the batter taking two bases, Perrine and Heydon going home.

Coached to Death. In the ninth inning Perrine and Heydon received bases on balls in succession. Nill, batting for Kitson, moved each man up a base by sacrifice. Ganley hit a hard single to left, Perrine scoring. Heydon was coached to his death at the plate, Hartzel's neat and quick pick-up of the ball and accurate return to Schreck nailing Heydon by a yard. Hickman batted for Schliaty, but the best he could do was an easy grounder to Monte Cross, forcing Ganley at second.

The fielding features were the playing of Lave Cross, two running catches by Hartzel, and catching of terrific line drives by Knight and Schliaty.

Wonderful Distance Runner

An American Indian who lives up to the traditions of the famous Deerfoot. His gold and silver trophies won on the track almost equal his own weight.

THOMAS LONGBOAT.

Full blooded Onondaga Indian from the Caledonia reservation near Hamilton, Ont., who won the Elveth Boston Marathon Race on Friday from a field of 144 competitors. He covered the twenty-five miles in 2 hours 24 minutes 29.45 seconds, which was 5 minutes 24.5 seconds better than the record.

Longboat was practically unknown as a distance runner until a year ago. Since coming to the front as a road runner of marvelous ability some strange tales are told of his ability in long distance running. His own story says his outdoor race that he entered and at no time has he ever been pushed to his limit. Last fall he disappeared at daybreak on the morning of a big road race and did not appear again until nearly noon.

White Sox win from St. Louis. World's Champions Bunch Hits in the Sixth Inning.

CHICAGO, April 20.—The Sox bunched hits in the seventh inning today and clinched the game. The Browns scored in the opening session and held the lead by the one run up to the sixth inning, when Hahn and Jones crossed the plate on Donohue's single to right. Felix was unhittable up to the sixth inning when he took a flight. Sullivan brought in Roche and Dougherty by the sixth after Donohue's hit was made, giving the Sox a lead of three runs.

Al Orth's Twirling Baffles Beaneaters. NEW YORK, April 20.—Jumping into the lead in the first inning the New York Americans had an easy time in defeating Boston. Orth at all times had the Beaneaters at his mercy and kept their hits well scattered. Score: Boston, 1; New York, 5.

Addie Joss Allows Tigers Lone Hit. CLEVELAND, April 20.—Joss allowed only one hit today, and the Naps won by 4 to 1. The Tigers' sole tally came in the seventh, Crawford singled, Joss was hit and Turner's fumble filled the bases. Schaefer walked, forcing Crawford in.

Blender a Disappointment. Blender was an even money favorite in this race, but ran disappointingly and just finished in third place. A big field started in the third race, but the issue was always between Euripides, Wabash Queen and Azelina. These three made all the running and fought it out in the stretch. Euripides, after leading until well down in the stretch, checked it up as usual, and Azelina, coming along with a burst of speed, won from Wabash Queen, who was tiring from her struggle with the pacemaker.

G. W. U. Bumped in Last Round with Trinity. Trinity College barely eked out a victory over George Washington University at Van Ness Park yesterday afternoon by 9 to 8, in eight innings.

Lee Tannehill's Leg Undergoes Operation. CHICAGO, April 20.—It will be a full month before Lee Tannehill, the clever White Sox infielder, will be able to get back into the game.

Twenty-three Bookmakers. Twenty-three bookmakers drew 12 today, and they all did a lively business. In fact, half dozen more layers would have found their hands full. Mort Mahoney has charge of the betting ring, J. W. Rogers, assistant superintendent

Dr. Keith Draws Away in Stretch and Beats Out Kara for First Money.

BALTIMORE, April 20.—The spring meeting at Pimlico was given a rousing send-off this afternoon when one of the biggest crowds in the history of the new club turned out to see the sport.

Dr. Keith Beats Kara. Kara was rather rank at the start, and set out to make a hot pace as soon as the flag fell. Mr. Taylor, who had the mount on Rocket, went out after Kara, and for a while forced the Daly gelding to do his best.

MASTER ROBERT CAUSES PUBLIC HEAVY LOSSES

Carries Money of Real Wise People, But Fails to Win.

Effort to Retrieve on Rye Adds to the Bookies' Rolls.

Gideon Makes Big Killing on Please in Fifth Race.

AQUEDUCT RACE TRACK, N. Y., April 20.—A big bunch of the public's money went into the strong boxes of the bookies today, fully $100,000 in clean winnings on the third and fourth races alone being gathered.

Master Robert, the colt owned by Sam Emery, which ran a half mile at the first try in the phenomenal time of 47 seconds, was the medium of a terrific plunge. Rye in the subsequent race, the Queens County Handicap, was backed at 15's by the Sullivan, who regarded the "Bowery horse" as good as in.

Public Stung in Handicap. In the handicap itself, won cleverly by W. H. Carey, the "trail" bookies, a ton of money went on the choices, again adding to the swelling fund of the knights of the high stool. The public has seldom received such a drubbing.

MAHONEY'S SWATS BRING VICTORY TO GEORGETOWN

NEW YORK, April 20.—The first of the series between Fordham and Georgetown resulted in a victory for the Washington boys at Fordham Field, by 4 to 2.

The Fordhamites outbatted the visitors, but poor work on the bases at critical times lost the game. The feature was the batting of Mahoney, who had two healthy swats at the sphere, one for a home run and the other for three sacks, which brought in the second run. McDonald and E. Schless pounded out two hits, and Devlin and Mudd, for Georgetown, also got two each. Both teams played good ball, in spite of the cold blasts that swept across the field and sent shivers through the players. Both Mudd and McDonald played a clever game behind the bat.

MACKAY TRAINING FOR JOE TURNER

Both Wrestlers Hustling for Big Match Next Thursday Night.

Joe Turner, who meets Rob Roy Mackay at the National Guard gymnasium next Thursday night, first entered the ranks of Washington professional wrestlers four years back as a featherweight, and won all his matches in that class.

His best bout was with Walter Gallagher, whom he defeated twice in twenty minutes. Later he was restored to the amateur ranks as a lightweight and cleaned up the city in that class. In 1905 he entered the 160-pound amateur class and captured the District championship at that weight from T. S. Williams. Last year he played professional basketball and was expelled from the Amateur Athletic Union. The match next Thursday will be for the benefit of the National Guard Athletic Association. It is still an open question who will win. The men are nearly evenly matched in weight and strength.

Turner has youth, but Mackay has the cunning and experience gained in over 200 matches in 17 years of strenuous life as a manager and wrestler. In addition to the main bout there will be three five-minute bouts, the first preliminary taking in Washington. Mackay is training with Young Atlas, one of the cleverest of his proteges, and T. Williams, the Gallant mite, 145-pound amateur champion of Washington. Turner is working at the National Guard gymnasium with two tutors from that organization who broke into the game last season and did well.

HYPHENATED PATRIOTISM.

Two hundred American citizens the other day showed their patriotism by driving off the stage two comedians, who had offended them by caricaturing the Irish. There is no city in the world which can touch New York for patriotism. For in no other city do so many citizens have to possess patriotism copious enough to serve them for two native lands a piece.—New York World.
