THEATER NEWS AND CHAT

Hinkel and Mr. Hamlin. The chorus itself, greatly augmented, is said never to have been in better trim.

Desio at the Symonds' Concert. For Symonds' concert at the Belasco theater tonight several enjoyable features have been engaged. Desio, the noted topical song vocalist, will render his latest selections on topics of the day. The illustrated songs will be rendered by Mr. Chick. Special attention has been paid to selecting unique and interesting motion pictures, which will include strange travel scenes and laughable comedy and novelty views.

Next Week's Attractions All Musical Comedies

"NOAH'S ARK" NEXT WEEK A LATE SEASON NOVELTY Next week the New National Theater will offer what promises to be a novelty of the present season, a new musical comedy by Clara Kummer, whose songs, "Dearie," made a big hit a year or two ago. The new piece, entitled "Noah's Ark," is to have its premiere in Baltimore tomorrow night.

"THE GINGERBREAD MAN," MUSICAL AND SPECTACULAR. It is possible to have a rattling good entertainment spoiled by ineffective interpreters, but happily nothing of the sort has endangered "The Gingerbread Man," the fanciful fairy-tale that the Rice & Weaver Company will present at the Columbia Theater next Monday.

DE WOLF HOPPER TO RETURN IN BIG REVIVAL OF "WANG." Florence Martin, one of the most charming comic opera ingenues of the present day, and whose voice is of exquisite sweetness and extraordinary range—she mastering "D" sharp with the utmost ease—is this season a member of the De Wolf Hopper Opera Company, playing the character of Marie in Sam S. and Lee Shubert's Lyric Theater spectacular revival of "Wang," to be heard at the Belasco theatre next week with De Wolf Hopper in the title role.

Sunday Concerts at the Columbia. At the Columbia Theater next Sunday night there will be inaugurated a series of Sunday "Pop" concerts, under the direction of A. E. Root, an experienced theatrical manager.

Stanley Ford, who is impersonating Mr. Noah in Clara Kummer's musical comedy, "Noah's Ark," has heretofore been most careful when "making up" for his various characters to reproduce the original as he has been given that he has been unable to find a photograph of the venerable navigator of the Ark.

Stray Bits of Gossip About Plays and Players

Vincent Serrano is not married. He says so, and he ought to know. During the winter a vagrant "note" went the rounds, alleging that Mr. Serrano had been committing matrimony. His many Washington friends pricked up their ears, and asked his companion in crime stage player, Nobody knew the answer. During his recent engagement here in "On Parole" he said there was no answer, and pleaded "not guilty" in loud, emphatic voice.

Miss Cora B. Shreve has been busy rehearsing her pupils for the production of "The Little Princess" at the New National the first three nights of the week beginning May 13. On Friday night of the same week the public school children will have their annual song festival under the direction of Miss Alys E. Bentley. Five hundred pupils of the Washington public schools are now rehearsing for the event.

Washington Lodge, No. 7, of the Theatrical Mechanics' Association, has arranged for a "Monster Vaudeville and Variety Show" to be given on Friday afternoon next at the Majestic Theater, for the benefit of the organization. Visiting vaudeville and burlesque stars have volunteered for the occasion, and there is every reason to believe that the affair will be most successful. Tickets are to be had at the box office of the Majestic or from any member of the lodge.

The summer plans of the Columbia stock company are very much up in the air. Guy Standing, who was confidently counted upon to head the company, apparently can't come. The Shuberts won't let him. John Mason, and Sharon Walker both hope to get here before the end of the season, but Mason at least will not be able to make it until July. Hilda Spong is expected to be of the company. There is some talk of Wilton Lackaye, but it's all very uncertain as yet.

Joseph Hall Chase, of Swooley, Shipman & Co., of New York, who has been staying in Washington since the close of the present season, will shortly leave for a trip to New York and Boston, where he will consult Will Cresley and George Ade, concerning a vaudeville sketch for himself and wife, Mrs. Bessie Clarvo-Chase, who has been studying here with Robert Hickman, and who will appear in the leading role of Viola, in Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night," and Celia, in "As You Like It," at the New Willard Hotel ballroom, on the evening of April 23.

The cast secured for the opening, at least, of the Milton and Sergeant Aborn light opera season is a notable one. "Robin Hood" is to be a bill, and quite a few of the old principals from the old Bostonians will sing. George Fitzgerald Sunday Concert.

This evening at the Majestic, W. D. Fitzgerald will present one of his concerts. Late imported and domestic film motion pictures will be shown. Several strong vaudeville features will be added, some of which will come as a surprise. No expense is spared in the making of the concerts equal to the best. The bill will be headed by "The Big Three," a comedy trio that have no equal in their line.

DAVIS IN "THE UNMASKING," AND "JOLLY FANNIE RICE."

Chase's polite vaudeville program next week will comprise Edwards, Davis and Company in "The Unmasking," a sensational romantic offering in two scenes; effervescent Fannie Rice and her annotated figures; Chris Bruno and Mabel Russell in "The Insurance Agent"; Kemp's Tales of the Wild; the Otto Brothers, German language twistlers; the famous Onlay trio, of additional inhabitants of the ark. The star comedian is not Noah, as one might suppose, but "Bill," the general utility man who has been created for the requirements of musical comedy and not at all along biblical lines. This is the part taken by Harry Bulger, and it is said to afford him amazing opportunities for his broad humor and genial capacity for general fun-making. The company selected to support the star includes Maida Snyder, Sallie Fisher, Hattie Arnold, Stanley Forde, Edwin Wilson, William Murphy, and others.

BEN GREET'S PLAYERS IN "MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING."

Ben Greet and his company of English players will give one production in the Elizabethan manner, namely, "Much Ado About Nothing," for the benefit of the George Washington University building fund, at the D. A. R. Continental Hall, Tuesday evening, April 16, at 8:15 o'clock. Mr. Greet and his players have made a lasting impression on Washington theatergoers and it is to be regretted that their engagement will be limited to one Shakespearean presentation. The popularity of Mr. Greet was demonstrated last season, when he appeared here for a week's engagement, as standing room was the rule throughout the week. Regular theater prices will prevail, from 50 cents to $2. Seats now on sale at T. Arthur Smith's ticket office, 1327 F street northwest.
