

Matters of Interest to all Musicians

Washington Club Recital Made Successful Showing

The pupils' recital last Wednesday evening in the Washington Club by the students of Mrs. Lucille L. Betts and Mrs. Jennings showed considerable progress and study. The pupils were assisted by the Little Misses Humphrey. The recital opened with a duet by Miss Marie and Miss Bessie Humphrey, who are but twelve and thirteen years of age. Margaret Ethel Betts recited "The Village Sewing Society" in such a fetching way that she had to give as an encore "The Minuet." The first part of the program closed with "Little Boy Blue," by Parks, sung with much expression by the Girls' Glee Club of Central High School. They also sang Bartlett's "The Frogs Singing School." The Misses Betts sang the hit of the second part, Miss Bertha's soprano solo in the choir of the Eastern Presbyterian Church, sang Liszt's "Die Lorelei" and Rossini's "Bel Raggio." The numbers are far apart in character and served to show the versatility of the artist. She has a splendid voice and is improving all the time. Her sister, Miss Marie Hansen, made her debut as a pianist, and made an emphatic success. She has undoubtedly talent. She chose Liszt's Mazurka in F minor for her opening number, and followed it with MacDowell's "Ungharisch," which she played with splendid effect. She received a well deserved and enthusiastic recall when she played Chopin's "Foscasse" delightfully. Miss Estelle Gulick sang "A Summer Night" and the "Queen of Sheba" aria effectively. Frederick C. Schaeffer, the basso, was in excellent voice and sang with good style Elschoff's "Love's Dream" and the "Evening Star" song from Wagner's "Tannhauser." The evening closed with the charming duet, "Calm on the Night," by Bohm, sung by Miss Hansen and Mr. Schaeffer. It is rare that two voices blend as well as theirs. The accompaniments were played by Miss Marie Hansen, Miss Bessie Humphrey, and Miss Cecelia Newlands.

Notes and Personal.

Miss Katherine Noel has gone to Portsmouth for a visit with friends of several weeks. She will return to the Jamestown Exposition before returning to her home here, after which she will go abroad to complete her musical education.

Miss Irene Dieterich Composes Stirring March

That brilliant young soprano, Miss Irene Dieterich, is fast forging to the front in concert and choir work. Now she has turned her attention to composition, and has just finished a march which has originality of theme and style, and a go and dash that quickens the blood. It certainly promises to be a success. Miss Dieterich studied vocal as well as instrumental music, and theory and harmony in Stuttgart, Germany.

Mrs. Freeman Again to Join Reber Orchestra Violinists

The Reber Orchestra is again to have the services of Mrs. Freeman among its first violinists. Mrs. Freeman has been in the Philippines for the past two years, going there immediately after her marriage to Lieut. Paul Freeman, U. S. A. She has kept up her practice, appearing in a number of concerts with much success while abroad. Mrs. Freeman was formerly Miss Emma Rosenbaum, and was one of the most talented and popular young women of her set.

Miss Florence Holtzman Praised By De Reszke in Paris

Musical Washington is much interested in the announcement of the engagement of Miss Florence Lee Holtzman to Thomas B. Weymouth, of Oil City, Pa. The wedding will take place on June 1, in the home of the bride's parents in this city. The honeymoon will be spent in the camp in the Adirondacks, which Miss Holtzman built there some years ago. They will spend the latter part of the summer at the Rockwood Club, Oil City, of which Mr. Weymouth is the president. Early in September they will sail for Paris, where the bride will make her professional debut, for which she has been working hard for nearly two years. Miss Holtzman is now in Paris, and will sail from there for home on May 2 on the Kaiserin Augusta Victoria, and is due to arrive here on May 15. She has been studying with de Reszke and Reynaldo Hahn, and has been receiving the most flattering notices of her singing. M. de Reszke is quoted as saying that Miss Holtzman was an artist of rare intelligence and exceptional interpretative ability. She has great capacity as a student, and is said to have improved wonderfully since she went abroad. She made many successes in concert while here, and gave much promise. It was Miss Holtzman who first introduced the Miss Geraldine Farrar to Washington. The now celebrated artist spending several winters here as the guest of Miss Holtzman. Mr. Weymouth is greatly interested in his fiancée's success as a singer, and has agreed that she shall continue her professional career.

Henry Kaspar Returning After Study in Germany

Miss Franceska Kaspar, one of our delightful sopranos, has been meeting with great success on a concert tour for the past few weeks. She will return to Washington the latter part of the week after making an engagement in New York and another in Orange, N. J. May 7 Miss Kaspar will assist Edwin Hughes at his piano recital. Mr. and Mrs. Josef Kaspar will have both of their talented children with them this summer for the first time in some years. The only son of the family, Henry Kaspar, has been abroad for several years, studying piano in Germany. The Kaspars have a country place at Belmont, Va., which they have not enjoyed for several seasons, as the entire family was abroad. Henry Kaspar will come next month. He is the only member of a long line of talented ancestors who has made the piano his chosen instrument, his grandfather and a number of brothers as well as his father, being violinists. The reports received on this side about young Kaspar are flattering, and Washington music lovers will be anxious to hear him and judge for themselves.

Herdon Morsell's Pupils Give Excellent Concert

Herdon Morsell gave the fifth of his pupils' concerts last Thursday evening in All Souls' Church. The program was one of merit. The opening was Oley Speak's octette, "When Mabel Sings," and was delightfully given. Miss Grace Houchens sang Wallace's "Cradle Song," Oliver Lombard, Shelley's "Love's Sorrows," Mrs. T. L. Weed, the waltz song from Gounod's "Romeo and Juliet," V. P. Allgair, Mattie's "O, Rest Thee On a Mossy Pillow," E. P. Colladay, Eumethal's "Life," Mrs. W. F. Patterson, "Hercules' 'I Knew a Lovely Garden,'" and Fanning's "Moonlight," sung by the octette. Mr. Morsell, by request, sang Tracey's "Two Violets," and for an encore, Lynne's "Sweetheart" and Nevin's "The Rosary," in his usual beautiful style and finish.

Cantata of "Queen Esther" Sung With Great Success

"Queen Esther," a musical and biblical cantata, was given Thursday and Friday evenings with marked success in the Dumbarton Avenue Church, Georgetown, by the choir of that church under the direction of William T. Glover. They were assisted by Miss Eva Whitford, mezzo-soprano, who sang the part of the Queen, and Arthur Storm, of Alexandria, as the King. The chorus of seventy-five acquitted itself splendidly. Miss Whitford has something besides a good voice and good method, for she has considerable dramatic ability and she showed it to great advantage in the part of the Queen. She gave it dignity and strength, as well as sympathy. Mr. Storm, too, was good as the King. The costumes were bright, picturesque, and historically correct. Mrs. J. A. Houghton, as Zeresh, and Roy Birch, as Haman, did well, and Mrs. Isaac Birch played the accompaniments on the organ with skill. She and Mr. Glover are to be congratulated on the success of this very commendable undertaking, and it is to be hoped they may do more. The others in the cast were: Mordecai, a Jew, W. O. Glover; Mordecai's Sister, Miss Bessie Birch; Pharaoh's Daughter, a Persian Princess, Mrs. M. Raub; Scribe, Oscar Gardner; Beggar, Mr. Middleton; Hegal, John Waters; High Priest, C. L. Renshaw; Herald, M. Raub; Harbonah, I. Birch.

Musical Personal and Notes of Interest to Washingtonians

Miss Sallie Bradley McDuffie gave a delightful recital of her pupils in her studio last week, which was greatly enjoyed. The program included Wood's "Violets," Chadwick's "Ailiah," and Gounod's "Repentance," Miss Laura Reeve; Ball's "My Dream" and "Clay"; "The Song of Araby," C. L. Renshaw; Norris' "Three Roses Red" and De Koven's "Little Doris," Miss Margary Johnson, and Cantor's "As the Dawn," Greg's "Ich Liebe Dich" and Wilson's "Carmina," Miss Ethel Johnson. For encore Miss Johnson sang De Koven's "Rosalie."

Miss Edith Spofford, who made such a hit in Phelps Brown's little opera, "We Are in Society," has been engaged as contralto soloist in St. Margaret's Episcopal Church. Miss Spofford is the daughter of the late Harry Spofford, and granddaughter of Assistant Librarian Spofford, of the Congressional Library. She sings with intelligence and expression, her method showing study and cultivation.

A number of well-known local artists gave an interesting program of music last Thursday evening in Confederate Veterans' Hall, for the benefit of the Episcopal Eye and Ear Hospital, under the direction of the St. Michael and All Angels' committee. Those taking part were Mrs. C. H. Jonas, Mrs. Phelps, Miss Liller, Miss Aymer, Miss Polkhorn, Miss Bernheimer, C. W. Garlock, C. G. Harris, Taylor Cronin, Mrs. Byram, and the Woodley Mandolin and Banjo Club.

The Stage Fright Junior Club was entertained last week by Miss Vera Ine Murray, in her home, with a very interesting musical program. The artists included Miss Clara Jones, Miss Florence Herman, Miss Birch, Miss Creech, Miss Murray, Eric Shilling, and Frank Murray, the last named a brother of the hostess, who played, by request, some violin numbers.

The Choral Society had a flashlight photograph taken after the concert last Thursday, in Continental Hall, with the conductor and Wilberforce Owsat, the composer of the official hymn of the Jamestown Exposition, in the foreground.

S. Frederick Smith has postponed his organ recital, which was to have been given May 1, in the Eastern Presbyterian Church, until May 7. This will be the first recital on the new organ. He will be assisted by Miss Bertha Hansen, soprano, and Frederick Schaeffer, basso, of Alexandria.

Mrs. Frank Byram, at the request of many friends, has decided to repeat her recent success of Mendelssohn's "Hear My Prayer," which was recently given by the choir of Westminster Memorial Church. May 12 has been selected and as before, it will be rendered in the church. The obligato solo will be sung by Mrs. Marian Bangs Hilton. This is probably one of the most beautiful things ever composed for church and gives a soprano great opportunities. Mrs. Hilton, since her marriage, has been heard very little in public, and her old friends will rejoice to hear her once more.

A concert is being arranged for Miss Sally Mason by a number of the friends of this very interesting young woman. Miss Mason has done so much for others in playing accompaniments and in concerts, always cheerfully giving her ser-
