

HONDURAS HANDED LEMON BY ROOT

"Nothing Doing" Is What New Government's Representative Hears.

Dr. Ugarte Will Remain Here a Few Days Longer.

Senior Don Angel Ugarte, who came to Washington a few days ago, and has been knocking on the doors of the State Department for recognition of the new provisional government of Honduras, got his answer, just previous to Secretary Root's departure on his vacation today.

"Nothing doing" was the sense of the answer, although this is not exactly the diplomatic phraseology of it.

Dr. Ugarte is considerably disappointed, as he was anxious to have his government recognized by the United States, in the hope that he might aid Honduras in convincing President Zelaya that he should abide by the terms of the treaty of Amapala and withdraw his forces from Honduras. He will remain in Washington for a few days, however, discussing the Central American situation with the other diplomats from those countries.

Commander Winterhalter, of the gunboat Paducah, stationed on the north coast of Honduras, in a dispatch to the Navy Department, confirms the report from Managua that the Nicaraguan forces which still remain in Honduras are to be withdrawn in the near future.

The new provisional government of Honduras, which was set up after Nicaragua and the Honduran revolutionists had defeated President Bonilla and caused him to flee into exile, objected to the continued presence of the Nicaraguan troops, who have been in practical control of the whole north coast, and collecting customs duties at the various ports.

The provisional government wants those customs revenues for itself, and, according to the dispatch, has apparently at last induced President Zelaya of Nicaragua, to withdraw his forces.

PHILADELPHIA WINS ARCHITECT PRIZE

None of the Eight Noted Designers Invited Were Winners.

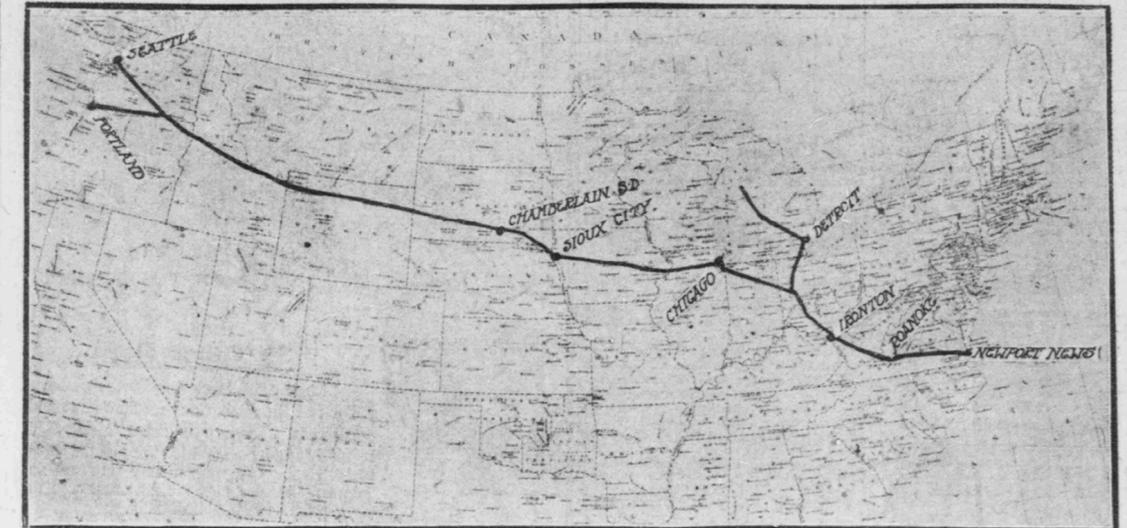

None of the eight noted American architects who are invited by the governing board of the International Bureau of American Republics to submit designs for the new $1,000,000 Pan-American peace palace was successful in the contest, and, much to the surprise of the judges, the honors go to a combination of associate architects—Albert Kelsey and Paul P. Cret, of Philadelphia—who were entered in the open competition. The winners of prizes in the open competition are Edward Pearce Casey and Arthur Dillon, associate architects, New York city, first prize, $3,000; John Russell Pope, New York city, second prize, $2,000; Peter DeGelleke, jr., and William T. Anderson, New York city, third prize, $1,000.

The Washington architects in the open competition were P. Appleton Clark, jr., 605 F street northwest; Richard G. Deacon, 1523 Twenty-second street northwest; Frederick Fletcher, Small building; Thomas J. D. Fuller, 813 Fifteenth street; Arthur W. Hall, 291 Second street northeast; B. Stanley Simmons, 531 F street northwest; George Oakley Totten, 808 Seventeenth street northwest; Vogt & Merrill, associate architects, Corcoran building; James H. Warner, 600 Thirteenth street northwest; Wagner & Williams, 1239 Thirteenth street northwest.

HANGED FOR MURDER, STRANGLES 14 MINUTES

MOBILE, Ala., June 21.—Willis McClelland, a negro, was hanged in the county jail here at 5:15 o'clock this morning, for the murder of Michael McGovern, an aged resident of the city. Despite the fact that McClelland denied his guilt up to yesterday, he made a full confession on the scaffold. The hanging was badly bungled, McClelland expiring only after fourteen minutes of strangulation.

TRANSCONTINENTAL RAILWAY ROUTE TO BE OWNED BY STANDARD OIL

ROCKEFELLER'S COAST TO COAST LINE, LONGEST CONTINUOUS RAILROAD IN THE WORLD EXCEPT THE TRANS-SIBERIAN SYSTEM.

STANDARD OIL LINKING ROADS ACROSS NATION

The fact was not made commonly known at that time, but it is now vouched for on the strength of statements recently made by Mr. Rogers.

The new road will be a strictly Standard Oil affair. It will be in position to compete for the grain business which comes down from Duluth and Chicago, and for the business of supplying coal to the Northwest. Part of the plan is to develop Newport News as a great port of export. The control of the road is to be held very close, according to reports, and strictly within the Standard Oil group, so that if necessary at any time in future it can be used as an instrument for punishing competing roads which manifest hostility to the big oil concern.

Mr. Rogers and Mr. Rockefeller, in short, have done just what Carnegie once threatened to do. Carnegie declared he would parallel the Pennsylvania road from Pittsburgh to the Atlantic coast if the Pennsylvania did not give him the terms he wanted. Mr. Rogers has actually built a parallel line for the protection of Standard interests, and incidentally for the development of his mining interests.

Nothing is yet known as to the entrance which the new system will secure to Chicago, but two or three routes are understood to be under consideration, and the statement is added that one of these will soon be determined upon. With a Chicago connection assured, the system will thus be in shape to compete with every other important road in the East.

Jilter, Roped by Father; Dragged at Buggy Wheels

WASHINGTON, Pa., June 21.—Securely fastened at the end of a rope and tied to the buggy of the irate father whose daughter had been unfeelingly jilted almost on the day set for the wedding, Walter Edson, the fickle lover, was compelled to trot behind the rig driven by Henry Sheller, a distance of four miles, and a portion of the road was traveled at a fast gait. Edson was to have married Florence Sheller. Last Saturday afternoon, visiting his prospective bride and renewing his marriage vows, he went to Pittsburg, where the same day he married Miss Mae Cole. He boldly brought her back home, and boasted that he had no explanation to offer to his promised bride.

WOMAN HOLDS PISTOL; ANOTHER LOSES LIFE

SYLACAUGA, Ala., June 21.—A pistol in the hands of Mrs. R. Stanley, a widow, forty-five years of age, was discharged and as a result Mrs. Emma Reeves, a married woman twenty-five years of age, received a wound in the abdomen which caused her death thirty minutes later. A statement was made that the shooting was accidental, but Mrs. Stanley was arrested and held to the grand jury in the sum of $1,000. Mrs. Reeves has no children, while Mrs. Stanley has three.

Kentucky Feudist Jailed, Meets Brother Coming Out; Father and 2 Sons Inside

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 21.—In Rowan county circuit court at Morehead, John Collins, aged forty years, was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary for the attempted assassination of Ben Martin. When Collins arrived at the penitentiary he met one of his brothers, who had finished a term for perjury coming out. In the penitentiary were his father and two other brothers, confined for various crimes.

The attempted assassination of Martin is an echo of the bloody feud in Rowan county of some years ago. At the beginning of that period John Martin, sr., and Marion Tolliver, supposed to be friends, went into Casey's saloon, at Morehead, and after having a drink together, stood by the bar and engaged in a whispered conversation, at the end of which Martin drew a revolver and shot Tolliver dead.

Martin was arrested and taken to the Clark county jail at Winchester for safe keeping. Members of the Tolliver gang forged an order on the Clark county jailer for Martin's return to Rowan county, and secured by his enemies. Martin was placed on board a Chesapeake and Ohio train and chained to a seat. As soon as the train ran across the line into Rowan county Alvin Bowling entered the coach in which Martin was chained, and in view of a crowd of people, shot Martin to death. Bowling then coolly left the train. A few years ago Bowling was shot from ambush as he was in the mountains making railroad ties. His body had almost been devoured by hogs when it was discovered. Friends of Bowling believed that Ben Martin, who is a son of the murdered

The Time to Act is NOW

As long as death is certain and its coming is uncertain, every man with responsibility must admit that the time to act is now. In its sixty-four years of history the Mutual Life has paid its policy holders 738 millions because they acted on the idea that the time to act is now. This vast sum would have been vastly greater had it included the patronage of men with equal means, in equal health, with equal needs, who failed to apply the truth that the time to act is now.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company has done untold good, has brought untold comfort to the needy as it has faithfully discharged its accruing obligations, but it has no way of helping the man who does not come to realize that the time to act is now. Let us show you what can be done to-day.
