

JAIL FOR NURSE WHO BEAT PATIENT

Woman Dies From Effects of Cruelty Just After Twins' Birth.

PROVIDENCE, Sept. 20.—As the result of the death of Mrs. Walter Bowman in the hospital here yesterday, the authorities of Westerly have been notified to arrest the woman nurse, whose beating, it is alleged, caused Mrs. Bowman's death.

Last Monday evening Mr. Bowman returned to his home to find his wife on the floor with the nurse, who had attended her since she gave birth to twins on September 5, sitting upon and twisting and beating her.

The woman, who was intoxicated, was driven from the house and Mrs. Bowman's condition became so serious that on Wednesday she was brought here to the hospital.

SHOT DURING CALL, SINCLAIR MAY DIE

Man Wounded by Accidental Discharge of Pistol in Friend's House.

GEORGE D. SINCLAIR, Accidentally Shot While Visiting a Friend.

George D. Sinclair, of 415 G street southeast, who was accidentally shot last evening while at the home of a friend, William A. Pullen, 142 M street southeast, lies in a critical condition at Casualty Hospital, and but little hope is entertained for his life by the attending physicians.

There are two versions as to how the accident occurred. Pullen says that Sinclair had come over to his home to get some cartridges to load his pistol and in his attempt to pull the pistol out of his pocket it was discharged. The family of Sinclair assert that when they went to the hospital last night he was still conscious and told them that he had handed the pistol to Pullen, and that Pullen was attempting to load it the pistol was discharged.

Both parties agree, however, that the affair was an accident.

CUBAN BIGAMIST IN TOILS AGAIN

Rearrested When Released From Prison After Finishing Sentence.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Sept. 20.—Serafin Osel, the Cuban convicted of two charges of bigamy, has got all the prison life he wants and has engaged an attorney to fight extradition to New Jersey. He married first in London and later wedded Saddle Brandon, of Jersey City, N. J. Hearing of his second wedding his London wife had him arrested, came to this country, testified against him at Newark, and had him sent to the penitentiary for four years. A year later he was paroled and six months later married Ernestine Miller, in New York. Then he disappeared and after considerable search was found in Havana. Secretary Root procured his extradition. He was tried again and sentenced to Sing Sing for a year and four months. Completing his term yesterday he was released only to be rearrested on the New Jersey authorities' showing that he had broken his parole and should consequently be compelled to serve out the balance of his sentence in that State. Osel admits committing bigamy, but says he believes he can escape a return to a cell.

MERRIEST RAH, RAH BOY AT AMHERST KILLS SELF AT COLLEGE FESTIVITIES

AMHERST, Mass., Sept. 20.—In the height of the students' festivities today, the opening day at Amherst College, Edwin H. Wright, of Adams, N. Y., who reached Amherst last evening, committed suicide by cutting his throat. Wright was one of the merriest of the army of students who trooped into chapel this morning. He had suffered from insomnia, and a letter written to his father seems to indicate that he feared insanity. F. E. Williams, of Belleville, N. Y., of the class of 1901, who knew Wright in his home, saw him at 2:30 p. m. and noticed nothing strange. Another student later heard a gurgling sound in Wright's room, and shortly after heard him come down two long flights of stairs, and saw him fall headlong in the hall at the top of the stairway leading to the street.

Wright had seated himself in a chair by his window, and with the aid of a mirror had cut his throat above the larynx, severing the carotid artery. A telegram was sent to the father of the student, and the body was taken to the rooms of a local undertaker. Wright was twenty years old.

BRIDE OF THE GALLOWS COMES FROM THE SLUMS, SUED BY HER HUSBAND

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—Rose Van Zandt, once a household name in America, today presents a wretched picture of "the beautiful bride of death," who twenty years ago married August Spies in the county jail under sentence to hang as leader of the Haymarket anarchists. Yesterday she emerged from the past, and testified before Judge Ball in a suit for divorce begun by her husband, Stephen Malato, an attorney. None would recognize in the woman of forty-two the slip of a girl who fell in love with the murderer consigned to the hangman's noose, some twenty years ago. Today she is living in squalor on the West Side with the last of her friends—five dogs. She sprang into fame, such as it was, the day she married the condemned man in the shadow of the gallows. She was "an unknown Goddess," a heroine of more than one novel. July 15, 1891, she met Malato, then

Fair Milkmaid Will Be Bride Of Millionaire

NEWPORT, Sept. 20.—"The Dairymaid Bride" is the title society has bestowed upon Miss Pauline LeRoy French. She isn't a bride—yet. But she soon will be. And to pass the time away before the day upon which Samuel Wagstaff leads her to the altar she is playing milkmaid on the Alfred Vanderbilt farm.

Miss French rises with the sun each morning, and, donning a flaring bonnet and a dainty apron, takes a shiny big pan on her arm, goes from one to the other of the blooded Guernseys and Aldneys, and, unassisted, milks. When she calls the "bossies" in from the pasture in the evening she repeats the performance. It is said the Vanderbilt table has never enjoyed such delicious cream. Mr. Wagstaff says he certainly never has. He is always an interested spectator at the milking.

PENNSYLVANIA LOSES CHAMPION-SPRINTER

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 20.—Guy Haskins, the University of Pennsylvania champion miler and half-miler, has decided not to re-enter the university this fall, as he had expected to do. Haskins has accepted a position to travel in the South, in which case the university will lose one of the greatest runners it ever had. Haskins, who is from New Zealand, completed his course in the college a year ago, when he decided to take a post-graduate course. This he did for one year, but now he has decided to accept a position, and then return home, after a six months' trip in the South.

LANDS WILY WILES TO AVENGE MOTHER

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—Found by his son after thirty-four years of separation, John M. Wiles, 305 Thirty-first street, once a wealthy horse breeder, but now a cab driver, is not basking in a genial flow of family affection as might be supposed. Instead, the elder Wiles, aged sixty-six years, has been found only to be arrested for living with a woman not his wife. A warrant was sworn out by J. Burr Wiles, thirty-five years old, a son, who lives in Birmingham, N. Y., whence the elder Wiles fled from a wife and three children in 1873. The son came to Chicago several days ago to find the father and avenge his mother.

When Wiles left his wife and three children he was wealthy, but reverses came and he lost his fortune. He is accused of living with a woman named Margaret Micea. He says she is his housekeeper.

Atlantic Waters Hand the Lemons To Coast Guests

NAVESINK HIGHLANDS, N. J., Sept. 20.—Beachcombers garnered an unusual harvest this morning when, as the tide went down, the subsiding surf, which for the last two days has been pounding the shore with almost hurricane force, gave up thousands of fresh lemons.

Women and children flocked to the shore with the men, and the rest of the day the engine drivers of the fast trains rushing up and down the Sandy Hook line ran with their hearts in their mouths as the people, laden with lemons, dodged their locomotives. The lemons were thickest between Galilee and Seabright, south of this point.

Old timers who remember when the Russian broke in two at Long Branch at the end of the grass craze, in the seventies, providing the coast with decorative building material which is used in even smaller fragments until this very day, recall how the ocean once gave up a boa constrictor that measured forty feet from nose to tail, at Point Pleasant and the Bay Head. Since then, hundreds of boxes of cigars which wouldn't smoke even when dried out, but none could remember that the Atlantic had ever before produced a lemon crop.

LOOKING AHEAD. Peasant (to priest)—My father, I confess that I stole a half bushel of apples yesterday. Priest—That's very bad, my son, and you must make immediate restitution. Peasant—I can't do that, but I repent of my action. Priest—Very well, I will absolve you. Peasant—Well, father, while you are about it, cannot you absolve me for the other half bushel, which I think of taking this afternoon?—American Illustr.

IDEAL TOWN TO INCREASE RACE SUICIDE

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 20.—Because the city fathers of the town of Silver Lake, in Kosciusko county, have tabooed firing in an unusually drastic ordinance, the young people threaten to desert the town in a body. The village council is being petitioned to rescind its action. The ordinance, besides prohibiting firing generally, specifies that candy or peanut eating in groups of two or more is firing.

INJURED FIELDER REPORTED BETTER

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 20.—Harry Lumley, right fielder of the Brooklyn Nationals, who was injured in the game with Pittsburgh here yesterday when sliding to second, was reported this morning to be resting easily. His ankle will be set today. It will be four or five weeks before he will be able to get around.

FRIENDS. The ornament of a house is the friends who frequent it. There is no greater event in life than the appearance of new persons about our hearth, except it be the progress of the character which draws them. It has been finely added by Landor to his definition of the great man: "It is he who can call together the most select company when it pleases him."—Emerson.

WORMS

"I had for years suffered from what medical men called Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach. In August I purchased a box of Cascarets and was surprised to find that the first dose was a relief. The remaining mass left me. Judge our doctor's surprise when I showed him thirty feet, and in another day the remainder about the same length of a tape-worm that had been seeping out vitality for years. I have enjoyed the best of health ever since. I trust this testimonial will appeal to other sufferers."—Chas. Blackstone, 1215 Dietrich Place, West Philadelphia, Pa.
