

PRETTY WEDDING IN ALEXANDRIA

W. F. Cockrell Marries Miss
Mae Varney in Del Ray Church.

Lord Bishop of London Expected to Visit City
Monday.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU,
ALEXANDRIA, VA., SEPT. 27.

A pretty and impressive wedding took place Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Del Ray Methodist Episcopal Church, Alexandria county, when Miss Mae Gladys Varney, daughter of John W. Varney, became the bride of William Franklin Cockrell, of Alexandria. The church was beautifully decorated with palms and goldenrod.

The musical program was rendered by Miss Dora G. Varney, sister of the bride. She played selections from Mendelssohn, Wagner, and others. The Rev. O. C. Bell, pastor of the church, solemnized the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a modish tailored costume of golden brown broadcloth and a Parisian hat. Her bridal bouquet was a shower of Herioid roses. Miss Margaret Virginia Cockrell, sister of the bridegroom, acted as maid of honor. Her gown was of pale pink rajah silk and she wore hat and gloves to match, and carried Hidesmaid roses. Edwin C. Cockrell, of Washington, was best man. The ushers, who seated the guests and led the bridal party to the chancel, were William T. Gary and Walter U. Varney. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Cockrell left Washington for an extended bridal trip. They will visit Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Jamestown, and Old Point Comfort. They were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents.

His funeral will be held from his home tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

GERMAN PRINCE KILLED BY FALL DOWN STAIRS

POTS DAM, Prussia, Sept. 27.—Prince Charles Gustav Von Thurn und Taxis, a lieutenant in the Prussian Foot Guards, fell down stairs at the regimental quarters today and fractured his skull, dying almost instantly.

Duchess Consuelo Coming in October

THE DUCHESS OF MARLBOROUGH,
Who Will Sail for America October 16.

Will Visit Her Mother and May Bring Younger Son.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Consuelo, Duchess of Marlborough, has informed her friends in New York that she will sail for this country from England on October 16 for an extended visit to her mother, Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont. She did not say whether she would bring with her her two sons, the Marquis of Blandford and Lord Ivor Churchill, but it is thought only one, the younger, will come; the elder is now a lad of ten and is already in the hands of tutors.

The question of the children will remain entirely with the duchess. Under the terms of her separation from the duke she has the exclusive charge of them. The consideration for this privilege, it was stated at the time, was an extra $10,000 a year allotted to the duke by William K. Vanderbilt, father of the duchess.

ARMY WILL HIDE TO TEST PAGES

Anybody who wants to see a file of fifty army officers start off on their test horseback ride on October 8 will have to go to Fort Myer.

Horsemanship Investigation Will Come Off in Vir- ginia Hills.

Officials of the army suddenly wakened to the fact that so much publicity has been given to the proposed ride in which a half hundred "desk officers" many of them of corpulent build, will participate, that it was feared the good citizens of Washington might get a word of cheer as they started off. The original plans of the department were that the column should move out Saturday noon. The first five miles were to be taken at a walk, the second at a trot, and the third at a gallop.

Many of these officers have not been on a horse for some years, and department officials realized that more than one would need substantial assistance in mounting. So it was decided that rather than subject the chief officers of the army to the indignity of being mounted with a curious public looked on, the itinerary should be changed.

It has now been decided that the march will be from Fort Myer, where the officers have been notified to report to General Duvall, assistant chief of staff, at 2 o'clock or the afternoon of October 8, and instead of having an easy ride out a nicely paved street, the officers are to be taken for a fine test march over the Virginia hills.

HUGHES UNELS GREENE STATUE

Federal Troops Take Part in Exercises at Gettysburg.

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Sept. 27.—Escorted by four troops of the Thirteenth United States Cavalry, in command of Maj. J. T. Dickman, Gov. Charles E. Hughes and his party, from New York, went to Culp's Hill this afternoon to unveil the statue of General Greene. Governor Seagraves, whose bravery and skill saved the day for the Union at the battle of Culp's Hill, Gen. Daniel E. Sickles, chairman of the board of commissioners, was in charge of the arrangements. The life-size bronze figure was draped in the American flag. Salutes were fired by Battery E, United States Field Artillery, Col. Lewis K. Stedman, of the 103d New York Infantry, was the chief speaker. His address consisted of a description of the fight in which General Greene's brigade took such a prominent part. Governor Hughes and his party went over part of the battlefield this morning and tomorrow will complete the tour.

English Newspapers Protest Against Action of Americans

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The morning papers, writing editorially of the refusal by the New York Yacht Club to accept the challenge for the America's Cup made by Sir Thomas Lipton, express the opinion that if the club persists in its present attitude the cup must be ruled out as an international trophy, since nobody else is likely to challenge for it. The Daily Mail and Daily News suggest that the time has arrived to institute another international trophy for yachting under rules more in accordance with modern conditions. Great disappointment is expressed at the outcome and there are many words of sympathy for Sir Thomas. The Daily News says the Americans covered themselves with glory when they captured the cup, but that they might gain more renown now by losing it than by keeping it under grotesquely unequal conditions.

FIFE DECLINES TO BUILD ANOTHER CUP CHALLENGER

WHITE SAILS—BLACK HULL—TYPE OF RACING YACHT WITH WHICH SIR THOMAS LIPTON HAS CHALLENGED GREAT SAILS—WHITE—TYPE OF REGATTA AS PROPOSED BY THE CHALLENGER.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—Sir Thomas Lipton, after a fuller conference with Designer Fife today, said: "Fife won't consider designing another boat under the old rule, but he is prepared to design a ninety-footer under the new rule, if such a proposal is acceptable to the New York Yacht Club."

It was suggested that Lipton might build a freak boat on the Canadian side to obviate crossing the Atlantic. Lipton replied: "That is impossible. We would be unable to get the same labor or materials. The boat must be built here."

GENDARMES EXPEL NUNS FROM HOME

GRAVELINES, France, Sept. 27.—Hissed and hooped by a cast through, and protected from actual violence only by their strong show of force, gendarmes, assisted by a detachment of troops, expelled the Ursuline nuns from their residence here today. The sisters kept a large girls' school, and are very popular in the neighborhood.

SIX WEAK TRIBES STILL OPPOSE FRENCH

TANGIER, Morocco, Sept. 27.—Four more of the rebellious Moorish tribes have accepted the French peace terms, leaving only six even nominally hostile. The remaining half dozen are believed to be holding out from fear of heavy punishment and it is not likely they will long refuse to accept General Drude's conditions when convinced that they will be required only to give guarantees of future good behavior. They are too weak numerically to be a serious menace.

This Store Closes at 9 o'Clock Saturdays—Other Days at Six

Important Notice!
Early last Monday morning a fire started from spontaneous combustion on the second floor of the 9th street annex and was quickly extinguished before reaching headway by the ingenious overhead fire extinguishing system which was installed some time ago throughout the store. Considerable stock was damaged by water in the Woman's Department on that floor, and in the Boys' Clothing and Furnishings Department on the first floor. We have now made an adjustment with the insurance companies and every bit of damaged merchandise is taken off our hands—sold in bulk to a New York salvage concern—leaving the stocks affected as spot and span as ever, and which, with the daily arriving consignments added, are as large and comprehensive in variety as before. We make this specific announcement in order to discredit the idea that we shall sell the damaged merchandise at retail.

What Constitutes the Parker-Bridget Value Idea in Men's Clothing?

First of all, the best fabric a suit of clothes can contain at the price, whether that price be $15 or whether it be $40. Then expert designing and cutting. Then carefully supervised making—tailoring of a high order—which includes the numerous little details which the first-class custom tailor never omits. Perfection of fit then follows, of course, which means provision for every variation in the human frame. All these things combined represent the Parker-Bridget value idea—an irresistible incentive and appeal to men of both taste and economy.

Boys' Fall Suits, Hats, Shoes and Furnishings

There isn't another store anywhere more particular about boys' clothing and their furnishing needs. This branch of this great business is as "specialized" as any other department. Just as careful in our selection of style---just as "fussy" about the workmanship and materials as we are when selecting men's garments. And this great growing trade is unquestionably the result.

$3.95 A few more models than you see elsewhere, and a great deal more value at the price. Woven chevrons and cassimeres of a quality which withstands the roughest wear. Mixtures, checks, and plaids innumerable—in double-breasted Norfolk, blouse, and Russian. Sizes 3 to 17 years.

$5.00 Big as the stock was last season, it is larger today in variety. Every wanted style and a carefully selected assortment of patterns. Suits at half as much again are made no better. At this price are embraced the celebrated "HERCULES" Shower-proof Suits, which are cravenetted—made absolutely waterproof by a special process.

Special Offering Boys' "Knickerbocker" Pants at $1.00 Tomorrow
We complete the wardrobe requirements of boys in our providings—of full assortments of Furnishings, all the right and proper Headwear for everyday or dress wear—and "Teck" Shoes that are shaped by stout as solid leather can make them. Golf and Eton Caps, 50c. Tam-o-Shanters, in all colors, 50c to $4, of the prevailing materials and styles. Soft Hats, $1.00, $1.50, and $2.00, in all shades and shapes. Fancy Bands for soft hats, 25c and 50c.
