

Bear Hunters To Swap Yarns At White House

The bear hunters are coming to town. Two of them reached the White House today and the rest are expected before Friday night.

The guests expected at the White House on account of the Louisiana hunt are, in addition to the Metcalfe brothers, who had the Louisiana hunt, Dr. Alexander Lambert of New York, John M. Farker of New Orleans, and Dr. Rixey, Surgeon General of the Navy.

Couple Wedded Under Houses Of Parliament

LONDON, Dec. 4.—For the first time in history a wedding was celebrated yesterday in the precincts of the houses of parliament.

The scene of the ceremony was the richly decorated little Chapel of St. Stephen's, hidden away under the floor of the famous Westminster Hall, and originally the crypt of the ancient Palace of Westminster, which dates from the thirteenth century.

An additional importance was lent to the historic event by the fact that his bridegroom was none other than Sir Robert Thresholt, Baron Loreburn, lord high chancellor of England, while his bride was Miss Hicks-Beach, daughter of W. F. Hicks-Beach, of Witcombe Park, Gloucestershire, and niece of Viscount St. Aldwyn.
