

DEBUTANTES HONORED

Mrs. Roosevelt Is in New York With Relatives

Mrs. Roosevelt, accompanied by her maid, left Washington yesterday morning for New York, where she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Emlen Roosevelt until Thursday. Mrs. Roosevelt will spend the most of her time attending to her Christmas shopping. Mr. and Mrs. J. West Roosevelt, who have been guests at the White House, will spend the rest of their time in Washington with former Governor and Mrs. Lowndes in their home in Massachusetts avenue.

Capt. A. W. Brewster, U. S. A., and Mrs. Brewster announced last evening at a dinner at their home on Connecticut avenue, the engagement of their daughter, Mary Walker, to J. Donald Cassels.

Mr. Cassels is the son of John Cassels of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and a member of one of the oldest families of Washington. His brother, Capt. Arthur Cassels, U. S. A., was married last fall to Miss Marguerite Sloan of Charleston, S. C.

Miss Brewster's family also resided in Washington for a number of years and, after a long absence, returned last season and established their residence at 1212 Connecticut avenue. Miss Brewster was among the debutantes of last season, coming out at a tea in the home of her parents.

Grants to Give Dinner.

Gen. and Mrs. Frederick Dent Grant have issued invitations for a dinner to be given at Sherry's, New York city, December 27, in honor of Lieut. Ulysses S. Grant, 84, and Mrs. Grant, the latter formerly Miss Edith Root, whose marriage took place in the home of the bride's parents, the Secretary of State and Mrs. Root, on Rhode Island avenue, November 21.

Mohler-Liversey Engagement.

Announcement has been made in Pittsburg of the engagement of Miss Althea Caldwell Mohler to Theodore Liversey, of Columbus, Ohio. Miss Mohler is a sister of Mrs. Charles C. Loug of Washington, and a niece of the late Gen. D. W. Caldwell.

The Ambassador from Austria-Hungary and Baroness Hengelmüller entertained at a box party at the Columbia Theater last evening at the performance of "The Time, the Place, and the Girl." With them were the members of the embassy staff and Count Sechenyi and Count Apponyi.

The German Ambassador and Baroness von Strenbock entertained a box party last evening at the Belasco Theater for the performance of "E. H. Sothern in 'The Fool Hath Said There is No God.'" Their guests were the French Naval Attache and Mme. de Blampre, Miss Cameron, Miss Langham, sister of the baroness; Count Hatzfeldt, of the embassy staff, and Herr von Schubert, also of the embassy staff. The play was enjoyed at supper at the embassy.

Skating Popular.

Skating is still a popular amusement among the members of the smart set, and last evening a number of the younger set spent the evening at the rink, and later were entertained at supper, one party, by Miss Eleanor Slater, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Slater, and another by Miss Yulea Noble, daughter of Mrs. William Belden Noble. Among the skaters were Miss Olga Converse, the Misses Trescott, Miss Finley, Miss Downing, the Misses Fitch, Miss Alice Shepard, Dr. Dixon, E. S. Wardwell, J. K. Stauffer, Mr. Holt, Mr. Derby, A. C. Downing, Jr., Henry Williams, and Hilliard Owens.

Dinner at Willard.

The Secretary of State was host at a dinner in the Willard last evening in honor of the delegates to the Central American peace conference.

The guests included the Vice President, Senator Anderson, Ambassador Cress, Senator Bonilla, the Costa Rican minister, the Nicaraguan minister, the Guatemalan minister, the Salvadoran minister, the Honduran minister, Senator Batres-Jaraque, Senator Rodriguez, Senator Madrid, Senator Gallagor Slater, Sanchez-Ocaña, Mr. Godoy, Mr. Buchanan, the Speaker of the House, the Secretary of the Treasury, the Attorney General, the Secretary of the Interior, the Secretary of Agriculture, the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, Mr. Justice Harlan, Mr. Justice Brewer, Senator Culom, Senator Clark, Senator Bacon, Senator Beveridge, Senator Keam, Senator McCreary, Mr. Cousins, Mr. Landis, Mr. Foster, Mr. Denby, Mr. Mc-

MISS RUTH NOYES.

Miss Noyes and Miss Granger Meet Young Women of Capital.

Mrs. John Crayke Simpson entertained at a debutante luncheon today in honor of two of the young ladies of the season, Miss Ruth Noyes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore W. Noyes, and Miss Eleanor Granger, daughter of Mrs. John Tilston Granger.

Invited to meet the honor guests were Miss Anna Portner, Miss Barbara Kaufmann, Miss Dove, Miss Winifred Davis, Miss Edgaria Hastings, Miss Margaretta Morse, Miss Porter, Miss Barry, Miss Kearney, Miss Kathleen known in Washington, is the guest of Mrs. John Davis in her home on I street.

Leupp, Miss McKnew, the Misses Macartney, the Misses Frey, Miss High, the house guest of Miss Noyes; Miss Beard, Miss Margaret Johnson, Miss Pracker, and Miss Burg, the house guest of Mrs. Simpson.

Mrs. John A. Logan and Mrs. W. F. Tucker have issued invitations for a tea, Thursday, December 12, from 4 to 6, in honor of Lieut. and Mrs. Logan Tucker, whose marriage took place recently in the Metropolitan Methodist Church.

Mr. Justice and Mrs. McKenna will leave Washington December 23 for New York, where they will spend Christmas with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Leggett Pultz. Mr. and Mrs. Davenport Brown, of Boston, and latter also a daughter of Mr. Justice and Mrs. McKenna, will also spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Pultz.

Mrs. Vanderbilt and Miss Gladys Vanderbilt left New York today for Baltimore, N. C., where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Vanderbilt.

Georgetown Cotillion.

The first dance of this season of the Georgetown Cotillion will be given in Lathinck Hall on Thursday evening, December 26. The committee is composed of men of the younger set in the dancing contingent of Georgetown and Washington.

Braden-Mitchell Announcement.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Florence Braden, daughter of Lieut. Charles Braden, U. S. A., to Lieut. Henry Edmondstone Mitchell, Third United States Cavalry, the wedding to take place January 11 at West Point, where Lieutenant Braden is stationed. Miss Braden, who is well-

Bargain Spots

Your faithful guide has interviewed the "chiefs" and can tell you of the best Bargain Spots for tomorrow.

FOR THE BABY

The rain today gave the chief and her aids a chance to do a little rummaging. By tomorrow morning there'll be four tables full of rarely good bargains.

Table No. 1	2	3	4
Choice	25c	50c	98c $2

Plenty of 50c articles on the 25c tables; values up to $1 on the 50c table; plenty worth $2 on the 98c table; a few worth $4 on the $2 table. Take elevator to third floor.

Prize Dolls, 99c

Awarded the first prize at the Santa Claus Doll Fair. The number of these prize dolls is very limited—all will be gone from here days before Christmas.

Beauty Doll in Box, 25c

It isn't a big doll, but it's a dainty one—just the doll to mail to some distant youngster you want to remember. Look for this little beauty in "Dolltown," on second floor.

Dolltown Coupon

This Palais Royal Coupon and eighteen (18) cents entitles bearer to one Child's Painted and Spangled Silk Fan, with long bead chain. Good only for Wednesday, December 11, 1907.
