Miss Roosevelt Returns Home From New York

Miss Ethel Roosevelt returned to the White House this afternoon from New York, where she has been the guest since Friday of Mrs. Henry Hutton London, whose daughter is a great friend of the President's younger daughter, their families being near neighbors at Oyster Bay.

Miss Roosevelt went to attend her first formal dance, the first of the metropolitan dances, Saturday evening, in the small ballroom at Sherry's. These dances, organized several years ago, were previously held in the ladies' annex of the Metropolitan Club, from which they derived their name, but for the past two years have been held at Sherry's.

The members of this set include the young women who will be presented to society next winter, or the year after. Miss Roosevelt received much attention from her young friends, and seemed to greatly enjoy the visit. The young men invited included those at home from schools and universities for the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Roosevelt's sister, Miss Carew, arrived at the White House yesterday morning to spend the Christmas holidays. With Mrs. Roosevelt, she spent part of the day driving through the uptown section of the city and Rock Creek Park.

Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, the elder daughter of the President, who was recently operated upon for appendicitis at the White House, is convalescent, and was up and around the house yesterday morning.

The Minister from Belgium and the Baroness Moncheur were hosts at an informal dinner last evening. Among the guests were the Italian Ambassador and the Baroness Mayor des Planches.

Dinner-Dance Tomorrow.

Mrs. Robert Bacon, wife of the Assistant Secretary of State, will be hostess at a dinner-dance New Year Eve, for which about sixty invitations have been sent out.

Justice McKenna and Mrs. McKenna left Washington on Saturday for New York to spend Christmas with their daughters, Mrs. John Leggett Fultz and Mrs. Pitts Duffield.

Miss Charlotte Daly has returned to Washington for the winter, and is the guest of the Misses Dorsey in their new home, 178 Corcoran street.

Mrs. Todd, widow of Prof. Henry Davis Todd, U. S. N., has left her home in Annapolis, and come to Washington for the winter. She has taken an apartment in the Bancroft.

The Viscount and Viscountess de Martel entertained at dinner last evening for her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noel Barthelemy. Their guests were M. des Portes de la Fosse and Mme. des Portes de la Fosse, Mlle. des Portes de la Fosse, Lieutenant Commander de Blaupre and Mme. de Blaupre, Major Fournier, and Viscount de Chambrun.

Lieutenant Commander Howard, U. S. N., who has been attached to the American embassy in Berlin, is expected to return shortly.

Lieutenant Commander Howard, U. S. N., who has been attached to the American embassy in Berlin, is expected to return soon. Mrs. Howard and their daughter, Miss Howard, and niece, Miss Margaret Billings, will come with him.

Miss Billings will make her debut in February in her home in New Haven, Conn.

Miss Vandergrift to Leave. Miss Alice Vandergrift, who made her debut December 12 at a tea given by her aunt, Mrs. John Johnston, is going to Louisville, Ky., for part of the holidays. She expects to reach there December 27, and will be the guest of Miss Dorothy Hussey, who will entertain a large house party.

Miss Hussey will be hostess at a dance for her guests in the Woman's Club December 30.

Mrs. William Claggett has sent out invitations for the marriage of her daughter Gertrude to Paymaster Edmund Walters Bonaffon on January 11 at 4 o'clock. The ceremony will be performed at 1710 I street and will only be witnessed by a small company.

Mrs. Atwell has sent out invitations for a tea December 30 at 5 o'clock to meet Mme. Cruz, wife of the newly appointed minister from Chile.

The Assistant Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Beekman Winthrop will go to New York today to spend the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Robert Winthrop.

Frank Sherman Chipman, formerly of Washington, now of New York, is spending the Christmas holidays in Washington.

Dixons Have Guests. Senator and Mrs. Dixon have with them for the Christmas holidays, Mrs. Dixon's sister, Miss Ruth Worden, who is a student at Wellesley, and her brother, Lieutenant Worden, from Portsmouth, N. H.

Mrs. Worden, Mrs. Dixon's mother, of Montana, is spending the winter with Senator and Mrs. Dixon.

The Misses Griffith have recalled their invitations for Friday, December 27, on account of the illness of their mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Ten Eyck Wendell have taken possession of their new home, 1639 Connecticut avenue, for the winter. They

MISS CAROLYN NABUCO, Guest of Honor at Luncheon Today, Who Will Be Formally Presented to Washington Society After the Holidays.

Mrs. William Manning Irwin entertained at a beautifully appointed debutante luncheon today in honor of Miss Carolyn Nabuco, daughter of the Brazilian Ambassador and Mme. Nabuco, who will be presented to society after the holidays. The table was appropriately decorated in Christmas colors with poinsettia and holly. Invited to meet Miss Nabuco were and Mrs. Owsley. All the men of the bridal party and a number of the guests will wear the full dress uniform of their rank. The Rev. Dr. Neve, of the Episcopal Church, will officiate. Miss Boeing has many friends in Washington, where she has been a frequent visitor. Her engagement was announced last fall at the marriage reception of Miss Carolyn Huff to Murray
