Magruder at Home. Dr. and Mrs. Alexander F. Magruder were at home yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock tea, as is their custom each Christmas Day. Assisting Mrs. Magruder were Mrs. Richard Weightman, Mrs. John Rodgers, Mrs. Horace Westcott, Miss Esther Denny, Miss Treco, and Miss Magruder.

Senator and Mrs. Chauncey M. Depew who left Washington Saturday to spend Christmas in New York will return to Washington for New Year Day, when Mrs. Depew will hold her usual afternoon reception.

Mrs. Lenihan, wife of Capt. Michael J. Lenihan, entertained at tea yesterday afternoon in her home in Nineteenth street. The house was prettily decorated with holly, mistletoe, and Christmas green. Lenihan received her guests, wearing a becoming gown of black net lace. Mrs. Washington Chambers presided over the tea table. Mrs. Hapwood served leeks, and Miss O'Toole assisted punch. The Misses Hickey also served Mrs. Lenihan in doing the honors of the occasion.

The Minister from the Netherlands and Mrs. van Swinderen will sail for an extended leave of absence in Holland, January 20.

Mrs. H. T. B. Harris, wife of Paymaster General Harris, U. S. N., will be at home on New Year Day, in her home, 178 Rhode Island avenue, and Saturdays throughout January.

Mrs. James R. McKee will arrive in Washington tomorrow with her daughter and son, Miss Mary Lodge McKee and Benjamin Harrison McKee. Mrs. McKee has taken an apartment in the Grafton for the remainder of the season. Benjamin Harrison McKee will return to Yale after the holidays, and James R. McKee will spend the week-end with his family.

Mrs. John A. Logan and Mrs. Tucker will not be at home until Thursday, January 2, on account of Mrs. Logan's illness.

Representative and Mrs. Richard Wayne Parker and Miss Eleanor Wayne Parker returned to Washington Tuesday from Savannah, Ga., where they went to attend the golden wedding anniversary December 21 of Mrs. Parker's parents, General and Mrs. W. W. Gordon.

Miss Alice Gordon Parker, who has been spending some time in Boston, has arrived in Washington for the holidays.

Miss Elizabeth Walcott Parker, who accompanied her family to Savannah, has sailed for England with her aunt, Mrs. William Low, with whom she will spend the winter abroad.

CITIZENS GROW WHISKERS; FARMERS LEAVE VILLAGE

WINSTED, Conn., Dec. 25.—Pails Village and Ashley Falls, villages on either side of North Canaan, are without a barber, the shops in both places having closed a few weeks ago for lack of patronage. As a result nearly all the men are growing whiskers. The village stores have ordered a new consignment of plaster for the young fellows who have grown up and who are learning to shave themselves.
