TO THE PUBLIC:

We desire to inform the public and our patrons that our place was damaged by fire today, which occurred in the upper part of the building, and caused considerable damage. It did not injure anything left with us for storage, framing, or other purposes, as far as we are able to discern at the present time.

Immediately after the adjustment by the underwriters we will be prepared to execute all orders and continue the business as usual.

Very truly yours,

Italian Embassy Scene Yesterday Of Informal Tea

Baroness Mayor des Planches, wife of the Italian ambassador, the dean of the diplomatic colony in Washington, entertained at an informal tea yesterday afternoon in the embassy on New Hampshire avenue, to present to the ladies of the Diplomatic Corps Mme. Mehmed Ali Bey, wife of the Turkish minister.

This, the first appearance in public of the young Oriental matron since her arrival in Washington, was made under the most auspicious circumstances, with the charming and hospitable wife of the dean of the Corps as her hostess.

Mme. Carlo Pfister, wife of the naval attache of the embassy, presided over the daintily appointed tea table, and owing to the conspicuous absence of men, Mme. Mehmed removed her thick veillings, and became personally acquainted with her colleagues.

The Ambassador and Baroness des Planches, who are famous for their cordial hospitality, have cards out for a dinner party Monday evening, February 3.
