On Sale! The Bankrupt Stock of Women's Wear of the N. Y. Clothing House of This City at 40c on the Dollar

We bought the entire stock of Women's Wear at the bankrupt sale of the New York Clothing House, 307, 309, 311 Seventh Street, at 40c on the dollar, and are selling the goods on the same extraordinary basis. Yesterday's crowds amply demonstrated the importance of this distribution of high-grade merchandise at fractional prices. Such savings have never been offered in our history, and are not likely to be offered again. Values like these never occur in the regular course of business. Most of the lots are priced below usual wholesale cost. The departments which did not share in the purchase provide bargains equally rare; every corner of the store abounds with economies.
Many of the lots of goods from the New York Clothing House were opened for the first time yesterday, having been purchased just before the failure of the firm. The reputation of this house for best quality merchandise is sufficient guarantee of the values offered in this sale. The lots are still unbroken for Monday's selling.
