Doc White Scores Third Victory for Season Over Washington.

SOX GAIN A LEAD IN FIRST SESSION

Pickering Strikes Out With Bases Full in Fifth—Joe Cantillon Honored.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 6.—Honors were evenly divided yesterday in the Nationals' curtain raiser with the Sox except in the one important detail of run-getting. Score—Chicago, 2; Washington, 1.

Harry White, for the third time this season, lowered the Washington colors. This trip, however, Washington was not outclassed, and both in fielding and batting the two teams were evenly matched.

Bill Burns held his opponents to five hits. He was not on the job when the time came for him to help out with a timely hit, and fanned three times. The visitors tallied the same number of safeties, but White was hit harder than the record indicates. His splendid backing put a crimp in several prospective bingles, and the only fault to be found with a number of clean drives was that they landed in the fielders' territory.

Anderson's Horrid Revenge.

John Anderson again took the opportunity to experience the delights of revenge. In the first inning Hahn took his base when he was hit by a pitched ball, a pass advanced him to second, and Jones helped the cause along by tapping a little fly to right just out of reach. Shipke fumbled a grounder to third. Enter John Anderson. He hit a slashing liner to left scoring Hahn and Jones. Davis made third on the play, but Anderson remained at first. Donohoe flew to Parson's fly doubled up on Davis, who tried to make the plate after the ball had been caught.

For the rest of the contest the Nationals played a splendid defensive game. But missed some excellent opportunities to gain a lead. The most obvious of these was in the fifth. The Nationals tallied their only run in this session, but had good grounds for expecting more.

Score in Fifth.

McBride flied out and Shipke reached first on Tannehill's error. Burns fanned and Milan beat out and infield hit which was followed by a real hit on Clymer's part. Jones threw to get Shipke, but was too late. Pickering overlooked a fine young chance to be a hero, when after Delehanty drew a pass and filled the bases, he fanned.

The first game of the Western series was almost as much of an event as the opening of the season. A brass band and similar accessories were furnished by the home club, and just before the game Joe Cantillon was presented with the rooting contingent. Friends of Cantillon, Hughes, Falkenberg, and Keeley made enough noise to furnish a Georgetown team with an inspiration.

Tannehill will in all probability pitch today.

TURNER WRESTLES F. LYNCH TONIGHT

Joe Turner, of Washington, and Frank Lynch, of Baltimore, will wrestle to a fall at the Gayety Theater tonight.

The match was made to determine the middleweight championship of this section, and the winner will get the star bouts in meeting traveling and other wrestlers who challenge all comers. The bout will be determined by one pinfall, unless it extends to midnight, when it will be called a draw. Both are fast, hard-working grapplers, and there is little prospect that somebody will not be thrown.

BURIED PICTURES.

The romantic story of the picture purchased at a London auction, which an expert examination proved to be painted over a Rembrandt worth $40,000, is curiously reminiscent of the discovery of a Correggio under similar circumstances. A good many years ago two picture restorers, Lovera and Hunter-Spergh, bought at an art sale in Rome a number of old pictures in order to provide themselves with canvases for re-painting. In the division of the spoils Hunter-Spergh received an indifferent picture of flowers, on which he painted a study of a head. This picture he offered to Lovera, who on close examination found that the new ground scaled off a figure painted in a style that denoted the hand of a master. Replacing the scale and concealing his discovery, he purchased the picture for little more than the value of the canvas. Removing the two grounds he disclosed an exceedingly clever painting by Correggio, which he sold to the Earl of Bristol for $7,500.

KETCHEL MASTER OF SINGLE PUNCH RECORDS SMASHED BY AUTO FLYERS

Papke Doomed After Receiving Blow in First Ten Seconds. Hotchkiss Lowers Mark for Mile on Straightway Road-Course.

By JAMES W. COFFROTH. CHICAGO, June 6.—Stanley Ketchel, who beat Billy Papke for the championship of the middleweights at Milwaukee, is far from a "one punch" man, but a single punch was more than enough for him than for any other fighter in the land. The Michiganian is remarkable in that in nearly every one of his battles he gets home the first wallop and shoots it in with such force that his man is either knocked out or is so hurt that he never fully recovers from the blow. A right cross that landed on Papke's jaw in the first ten seconds of the first round changed the whole complexion of one of the best ring battles ever seen in any country. It was just that fighting forcefulness that Ketchel has always shown since he started to climb the ladder of pugilistic supremacy.

Ketchel's First Battle. When Ketchel fought his first big battle in San Francisco he met Joe Thomas in a forty-five round bout September 2 last. In that contest he walked to the center of the ring, and in the very first pass he placed his left glove full in Thomas' mouth with such force that blood spouted and he fell in the first round. The second round of the fight was a mere formality.

When Ketchel again met Thomas in a return bout he knocked him down twice in the first round. His next fight was with Mike (Twin) Sullivan and he put the Boston boy to sleep in the first sixty seconds of the first round of the contest.

Papke Too Easy. Ketchel did not fight as well as he has in some other contests in which I have seen him. After the first blow he seemed to land so easily he appeared to hold Papke rather lightly at times, and while taking several chances of being hit he returned the blows in several instances. It must be admitted that he is the best middleweight in the world and that Papke is second best.

The fight itself was as clean a contest as anyone would want to see. It need not be surprising to see such a kind of head work on the part of either man to call for any severe criticism. The ambition of Ketchel's life is to get on a match with Tommy Burns for the world's championship. The ambition of Papke's life is to get a match made and the two men in the ring together before the end of this year.

TIMES TEAM BEATEN. The Times team lost again to Sunday school team at Balston yesterday by 9 to 5. The features were the pitching of Weaner for the winners. The Times team wants game with teams averaging seven and eighteen years. Address Manager Hartley, Times press room.

HERCULES' LABOR. To slay the Nemean lion; to kill the Lernean hydra; to catch and hold the Arcadian stag; to destroy the Erymanthian boar; to cleanse the stables of King Augeas; to destroy the cannibal birds of Lake Stymphalia; to capture the Cretan bull; to catch the horses of Diomedes; to get possession of the girdle of Hippolyte; Queen of the Amazons; to capture the oxen of the monster Geryon; to get possession of the apples of the Hesperides; and to bring up from the infernal regions the three-headed dog Cerberus.

PRIEST 100 YEARS OLD. The Rev. J. C. Moynihan, a Catholic priest of Chicago, celebrated the 100th anniversary of his birth recently. To reporters who sought his views and advice on how to go the scriptural span of life thirty years better, the venerable clergyman gave these three simple rules: "Eat and sleep regularly; don't drink; don't smoke or indulge in liquors." This centennial priest is still hale and hearty, with the exception of his hearing, which has been affected for a number of years. His eyesight is excellent, and he spends most of his time reading newspapers and magazines.

DEPARTMENT DATES FOR THE CONTESTS

Plan for Playing Off Postponed Games Meets With Success.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Departmental Baseball League was held yesterday afternoon in the office of the president of the league. Secretary Anderson reported that the plan inaugurated by the committee when the schedule was adopted of leaving open dates at the end of each month during which to play postponed and the games had been a success, all of the games, with the exception of two, having been played. The secretary also reported that dissatisfaction was expressed by some of the teams with the schedule of open-date games, especially when one team was obliged to play on consecutive days. The committee, however, decided that all games must be played as scheduled, the umpire to be sole judge regarding the condition of the grounds.

The committee took up for decision the protest of the Fostoffice-Interior game, which was forfeited to the former on May 13. Manager Duganne of Interior, refusing to continue playing until the field was cleared. Secretary Anderson submitted statements from spectators regarding the merits of the controversy, and the committee decided that the protest should be sustained, and ordered the game replayed on Saturday, June 13.

The following schedule to play off the games was approved by the committee: June 13—Postoffice vs. Interior, forfeited game of May 13; Agriculture vs. Interstate Commerce, the game of May 27. June 20—Commerce and Labor vs. War, the game of May 23; Interstate Commerce vs. Treasury, tie game of June 5.

MOTOR BOATS START FOR BERMUDA TODAY

Ailsa Craig and Irene II Will Compete for Cup in 670-Mile Race.

NEW YORK, June 6.—The motor boats Ailsa Craig and Irene II start today from Norton's Point, Coney Island, on a 670-mile race to Bermuda for the Bermuda challenge cup, valued at $1,000, presented by a member of the New York Yacht Club, and $1,000 in cash, the gift of the same yachtman. To the second craft they will also be given a handsome commemorative shield.

The Ailsa Craig is owned by James Craig, Jr., and the Irene II by S. W. Granbery, of Newark, N. J. The Ailsa Craig won the race last year, making the run from Norton's Point to St. David's Head, Bermuda, in sixty-four hours fifty-seven seconds.

The Irene II took part in the race last summer from New Rochelle through the sound and around Cape Cod to Marblehead, Mass. Over all she is only forty feet long. She is thirty-six feet on the waterline. Her engine will drive her about eight miles an hour. She will receive a handicap to make the race against time a close one.

The Craig is fifty-one feet over all. Reports of the sailing racers' progress now indicate that they will reach the harbor of Hamilton, Bermuda, some time tomorrow.

WESTERN TRY-OUTS AT CHICAGO TODAY

CHICAGO, June 6.—The greatest conference intercollegiate track meet ever held in the West is expected to draw thousands to Marshall Field this afternoon. Stanford, Chicago, Illinois, and Wisconsin are said to be the strongest competitors for honors.

That the holds in the various events will be comparatively small was disclosed at the preliminaries yesterday. The track is in the best shape ever and fine weather prevails.

FRENCH LANDS CAPTAINCY.

ITHACA, N. Y., June 6.—Charles M. French, who finished second in the half-mile at the intercollegiate track meet last Saturday, and did the same thing last year, has been unanimously elected captain of the Cornell track team for 1908. French is from Worcester, Mass., and was a member of Cornell's exemption two-mile relay team last winter.

ATHLETES PRIMED FOR TRIALS TODAY

Interest Centers in Match Race Between Hillman and Taylor.

PHILADELPHIA, June 6.—A splendid athletic meeting is taking place in Philadelphia today. It is the try-outs for Eastern athletes who are anxious to make the American team that will compete in the Olympic games in London. The best club athletes in the East in active training have been entered, and pitted against them will be the men who have won championships at the recent intercollegiate games. Many Olympic records are certain to be broken. In fact, some of the marks are easy for the men at Philadelphia today to excel.

The struggle between the champions in the various events is a heart-breaking one. The prospective trip to London has made the cracks train as they never trained before, and the meet is one to be long remembered.

Rector Will Compete. The biggest interest is centered in the meeting of Hillman and Taylor, the negro runner, in the 400-meter contest. These athletes have carefully avoided each other for nearly a year. They have never met at the distance, and the record is likely to go if they both line up for the start. In the 100-meter event will be seen Rector, the Virginia sprinter, and only man in the world credited with having covered 100 yards in 9 3/5 seconds. While experts are not yet ready to concede this time as genuine, all think Rector one of the fastest runners the world has ever seen.

John Flanagan, and probably McGrath are entered in the hammer-throw, but never met at the distance, and the record is likely to go if they both line up for the start.
