EXTENSIVE PLANS MADE FOR JUBILEE

Proposed to Hold Class Initiation Early in December.

The jubilee, or class initiation, being planned by the Knights of Pythias of the District of Columbia, under the leadership of Grand Chancellor C. H. Woodward, promises to be one of the most attractive and comprehensive degree presentations ever attempted by the order in this city.

Other Features. In conjunction with this presentation, will be given evolutions by guards and drills by the Uniform Rank, after the ritualistic work.

After the work of the ritual and drills are completed, a condensed form of Banish's celebrated drama, "Damon and Pythias," in three acts, will be given with appropriate scenery and costuming.

The cast of characters will be made up from the membership of the local subordinate lodges. Music will be rendered during the drills and in the presentation of the play.

Extensive plans and arrangements are being mapped out for this jubilee, which will be held at the Pythian Temple on Thursday evening, December 3. The grand chancellor has announced the following committees, which will have charge, with others added, of the details of the work:

Committees Named.

Committee on ritualistic work: Grand chancellor, C. H. Woodward; grand vice chancellor, Albert Kahler; grand orator, W. E. Bradley; grand master at arms, H. P. Wiley; grand keeper of records and seal, H. J. Gasson; grand master of exchequer, F. B. Crown; grand inner guard, S. H. Bassett; grand outer guard, R. Sebastian; grand lecturer, George W. Healey; past grand chancellor, G. F. Day.

Committee on dramatic work: Grand vice chancellor, Albert Kahler; chairman, grand master at arms, H. P. Wiley; grand keeper of records and seal, H. J. Gasson; grand inner guard, S. H. Bassett.

Committee on military features: Major Thomas A. Bynum, chairman; Capt. R. T. Whiting and Capt. Theodore Schouder.

Committee on hall and decorations: Charles McAllister, chairman; F. H. Melick, C. H. Spahr, H. M. Vanderweir, and M. L. Bradley.

Committee on music: Albert Kahler, chairman.

Committee on electrical effects: John S. Prescott, chairman.

Committee on invitations and reception: Past Grand Chancellors George W. Baumann, chairman; A. J. Gunning, John M. Kline, Sr., John T. Moiling, D. Elmer Wilber, Jefferson M. Sibley, J. G. McQueen, H. G. Wagner, J. B. Connor, E. P. Evans, W. T. Mochbee, A. Ross T. Medford, J. W. Carter, Thomas A. Bynum, John C. Yost and G. Frand Day.

The official visitations of Grand Chancellor C. H. Woodward and his associate grand lodge officers to the several subordinate lodges, Knights of Pythias of this domain, will be inaugurated on October 2, when they will visit Syracuse Lodge, No. 10, at Pythian Temple.

The other lodges will be visited in the following order: Myrtle, No. 23, 316 Pennsylvania avenue southeast, October 2; Bathbone-Superior, No. 29, Pythian Temple, October 3; Germania, No. 15, Pythian Temple, October 13; Harmony, No. 21, Pythian Temple, October 15; Amaranth, No. 25, Twelfth and H streets northeast, October 19; Union, No. 23, Pythian Temple, October 21; Decatur, No. 9, 43 G street northwest, October 27; Century, No. 30, Pythian Temple, November 2; Hermon, No. 12, Odd Fellows Hall, Thirty-first street northwest, November 4; Equal, No. 17, Pythian Temple, November 9; Columbia, No. 26; Pythian Temple, November 11; Calantne, No. 11, Pythian Temple, November 16; Mt. Vernon, No. 5, Pythian Temple, November 18; Capital, No. 24, Pythian Temple, November 24; Excelsior, No. 14, Pythian Temple, December 1; Webster, No. 7, Pythian Temple, December 8; Franklin, No. 2, Pythian Temple, December 10.

At each of these visitations Grand Chancellor Woodward has arranged for prominent members of the order to make short addresses, and from the experience gained by this course of procedure during the unofficial visitations in the spring, it was seen that the attendance at the several visitations was greatly enlarged from former occasions of the kind.

Capital Lodge, No. 91, Knights of Pythias, will confer the rank of equire at its convention on the 8th inst.

Washington Company, No. 1, Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, held a very well attended drill at the armory at Pythian Temple on last Wednesday evening.

On Thursday evening J. T. Caldwell Company, No. 7, Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, held their semi-regular drill at the armory in Pythian Temple, and after the conclusion of the drill a meeting of the Milwaukee Club of the company resulted in the addition of quite a few names to the roster of the club.

OAK CAMP REPORTS DEBTS ARE ALL PAID

Oak Camp, No. 4, Woodmen of the World, met Wednesday night and received several candidates. Plans were completed for the open meeting-entertainment September 13 at Northeast Temple.

The report of the board of managers, composed of Sovereigns Burch, Beuregard, and Rineheart, showed the camp to be free from debt. Casual Commander B. F. Williams and others spoke.

GERMAN SOCIETIES ARE NUMEROUS HERE

About Twenty-five Different German-American Organizations Flourish.

In Washington there are about twenty-five German-American societies. By far the greater number are beneficial, rendering aid in case of sickness and death, and nearly all of them have recreative features. Some of these societies represent the various German states and districts, as the "Verenig Bunden," the Hesse-Darmstadt, the Prussian Society, the Bavarian Society, the Swabian Sick Relief, the United Northern Germans of the Lowlands.

Others are secret societies which are affiliated with national orders, as the Arminius Lodge of the Masonic Order, the Occasia and Wilhelm Tell lodges of the Knights of Pythias, the Teutonic Lodge of the Sons of Hermann, the Druids, the Knights in Black.

Three societies represent trades—the Washington Butchers', the Washington Bakers' Benevolent Associations, and the Columbia Brewers' Sick Relief Society. Two are members of the German Beneficial Union, with headquarters in Pittsburgh, Pa.; two others, with the insurance features, are the German-American Benevolence Society, and the Concordia Circle.

The Columbia Turn Verein has for its principal and final aim the systematic physical and mental development of its members.

Singing Societies. There are four singing societies, the Washington Saenger-Bund, the Germania Maenner-Chor, the Arion, and the Columbia Maenner-Chor.

The Society of German Veterans of the Eighth Battalion, District Volunteers of 1861, is a society of veterans of the civil war.

The German Historical Society has for its purpose the collecting, preserving, and publishing of material relating to the history of the German element in the territory of the District of Columbia in its original extent. There are several German clubs with literary, poetical, and technological features.

The societies which have celebrated their golden jubilee and have an existence of over fifty years, are the Washington Saengerbund, founded on April 1, 1851; the Columbia Turn Verein, on July 1, 1852; and the Butchers' Association, on October 1, 1855.

German's Recreation. In his recreations, the German is neither extravagant nor fantastic; his taste is modest. Most numerous of his diversions are "Abendunterhaltungen" with a program made up of vocal and instrumental numbers, recitations, sometimes a short play, and such other features as tend to make a pleasant evening's entertainment. The grand concerts of the singing societies, especially those of the Washington Saengerbund, with their trained chorus, soloists and large orchestra, are artistic treats. A mask ball generally concludes the pre-lenten season. In the summer, there are outings, to which on a Sunday morning, with baskets well filled, the entire family goes to spend a day, returning tired but happy, and ready to begin the week's work with renewed vigor.

This matter of Sunday recreation has its logical reason. John Clark, president of the Independent Citizens' Union of Baltimore, a few years ago, has voiced the ethical standpoint of the German element on the so-called Sabbath question:

"The German takes his enjoyment not alone, but in company with his family. During the week, the good wife is never idle; and when the husband comes home from his labors, after supper is over and things cleared away, it is too late to get the children dressed and all ready to go out—nor are the children always permitted to stay up late; hence it follows that the only time left for recreation is on Sundays and other holidays; of these the German avails himself.

In standing for a freer observance of Sunday he is not a Sabbath breaker, but a Sabbath maker."

No Room for Wickedness. Our temperance and Sunday questions along with many others of a similar nature will sink into insignificance the moment we learn to provide for ourselves the proper forms of enjoyment, because a heart overflowing with genuine joy has no room for wickedness.

The German societies of the District of Columbia have a central representative organization the "Deutscher Central Verein," founded on December 3, 1859, and incorporated on January 10, 1862, under the name of the "United German Societies of the District of Columbia."

One of the purposes of the central body is the annual celebration of "German Day" in commemoration of the founding of the first permanent German settlement in America, in October, 1633, at Germantown, Pa. This 25th anniversary will be celebrated on Monday, September 14, at the Benning race track by speeches, singing, games, races, athletic performances, concert and dance.

WOODMEN INITIATE TWO CANDIDATES

Thursday evening Washington Camp, Modern Woodmen of America, initiated two candidates and voted on seven applications. A visitor was present from Pittsburgh and gave an interesting talk under the social entertainment feature. It was decided to have refreshments on next meeting night, at which time several candidates are expected to be put through by the full degree team. Advisor Crooks acted as presiding officer during the session and received many compliments on the way he conducted the business of the evening.

A sad feature of the evening was the report of the death of Neighbor Sheldon, one of Washington Camp's most valued members.

SENT TO AN ASYLUM.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—Albert Harrison, who created a wild panic on the Stock Exchange last Wednesday, when he rushed upon the floor and fired three shots from a revolver, was committed to an insane asylum today.

GERMAN TEMPLARS ON BALTIMORE

Five Lodges Send Delegations to Pay Fraternal Visit to Eureka Lodge.

The five Good Templar lodges of the District—Minnehaha, No. 1; Perseverance, No. 2; Silver Star, No. 3; Excelsior, No. 21; and Silver Star, No. 20—sent delegations to Baltimore last Tuesday evening to pay a fraternal visit to Eureka lodge of that city.

The party, consisting of about fifty Good Templars, went on the Electric Line, reaching Baltimore shortly before 8 o'clock.

The visitors were met by a reception committee from Eureka Lodge. The delegations were received in ritual form, and after a short business meeting, refreshments were served. During the evening, addresses were made by A. B. Scribner, past chief Templar; Chief Templar McBerth, of Perseverance Lodge; Chief Templar Thomas Fitzgerald, of Star of Hope Lodge; Dietrick Horman, past chief Templar of Excelsior Lodge.

Much important business was transacted at the last meeting of Perseverance Lodge, followed by a musical and literary program. The attendance was considerable larger than at the previous meeting, a large number of members who had been on their vacations having returned to the city.

The attendance at the Star of Hope Lodge has been gradually increasing, and at the last meeting there were nearly sixty members and visitors present.

Minnehaha Lodge, under its new officers, is doing fine work. There has been an initiation at each meeting recently, as well as drills in ritual work. Miss Laura Church, the new chief Templar, is devoting a large share of her time to the interest of the lodge. Chief Templar Grimley, of Excelsior Lodge, reports that much good work has been done during the summer. He expects that Excelsior will come rapidly to the front during the next quarter.

Chief Templar Collins, of Silver Star Lodge, reports that his lodge is in a flourishing condition. He is greatly encouraged by the co-operation of the other members of the lodge.

Methodist Pastor Put Out of Church by Civil Courts.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., Sept. 5.—Denouncing his expulsion from the ministry of the M. E. Church by the Erie conference, now in session here, as unjust, the Rev. R. T. Copper, of Hillville, Pa., will fight the decision in the civil courts.

Today he was found guilty of charges of gross immorality and conduct unbecoming a clergyman. He declared he had served notice of appeal on the judicial conference and has retained counsel in Youngstown, Ohio, where his action for rehabilitation will be fought.

A PRAYER FOR ITALY IS PREMIER'S WILL

Antonio Rudini Writes Hope for United Kingdom and Depreciates Oratory.

ROME, Sept. 5.—Rudini, the late premier and statesman, left the following interesting last will and testament:

"To my wife and children, greetings. "Dry your tears, and do not bury placed in a simple coffin without other clothing than a linen sheet. I ask my good wife to place in my left hand a cross, and in my right one of the flowers I loved so well; the cross to indicate my belief in universal brotherhood, the flower to remind me of the love I have felt for you all, and the love experienced at your hands.

"Pray tell the President of the Chambers not to include in any oration at my grave. There is to be no pomp and circumstance at my funeral. When I was young I knew Italy poor and enslaved. Today she sits splendidly enthroned, in the midst of light and glory. May the Italians never permit her to descend from her proud position. Live live United Italy. Good-by."

ODDITIES IN THE NEWS.

Dogs in Clayton, N. J., under the restraint of muzzles, are said to be committing suicide by hanging.

A veterinarian found a tooth growing in the ear of a colt, the property of Cloud Fye, of Mortonville, Pa.

An artery in the arm of H. Z. Russell, of Honesdale, Pa., was opened, blood removed and the artery tied up.

A calf recently born on the farm of William Cockburn, in Cherokee county, Iowa, has a skin of shell instead of hair and a tail like that of a turtle.

A big rattlesnake was found twisted around the axle of a motor car belonging to Frank W. L. Burchell, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. McDade, C. A. Rossier and wife.
