

of small proportions. England, the virtual ruler of Egypt, has promised that Turkey's nominal suzerainty of Egypt shall not be disturbed.

British Would Restore Berlin Treaty Intact

LONDON, Oct. 10.—Following a conference today with Secretary Grey and Charles Harting, permanent foreign secretary of state, the Russian Foreign Minister Iswolsky has been summoned to meet King Edward and the Prince of Wales at luncheon tomorrow.

Information given tonight indicates that the British plan is wholly along lines of restoring conditions in the near East temporarily to the status they held before the shattering of the Berlin treaty a week ago.

In a word, England proposes that Austria restore Bosnia and Herzegovina to their former political condition; that Bulgaria return to her former relations under Turkish rule, and that Serbia cease her warlike demonstration against Austria.

It is believed that Austria will object to even a nominal return to the former conditions, but it is thought that if Germany can be won over to the British point of view, the Kaiser can exert sufficient influence to force Austria into line.

It is believed here tonight that Iswolsky has a counter proposal calling for an informal conference of the plenipotentiaries of the powers at Constantinople to precede the formal conference.

A meeting of the British cabinet has been called for Monday when Foreign Secretary Grey will report on the result of his conference with Iswolsky.

Powers Will Not Let Austria's Action Stand

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 10.—It was learned here tonight that the English, French, and Russian ambassadors have all submitted notes to the Sultan, prearranged at a joint conference, assuring the Porte that they will not accept Austria's annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina unless the action is ratified by the signatories of the treaty of Berlin.

It is also reported, although the report is unconfirmed, that the Italian ambassador, whose government has so far failed to make its stand known, has joined in the assurances given the Porte by the other powers.

American Diplomats Are Not Officially Interested

Officials of the State Department are watching with intense but purely personal interest the development of events in the Balkans, through the medium of the press dispatches.

As a government, the United States has no official interest in the near eastern situation, and for that reason the dispatches from American diplomatic agents in the disturbed area have been quite meager.

It is not believed that the United States would consider an invitation to engage in a conference on the Balkan question, even if it should be invited to do so by the powers immediately interested.

Sixty-six Members Vote for War at Once

LONDON, Oct. 10.—A Central News dispatch from Belgrade says that at a midnight secret session of the Serbian parliament a vote was taken which showed sixty-six members in favor of a declaration of war against Austria, and ninety-three against the proposition.

A party of war entused students marched through the streets tonight and created a demonstration before the residence of the crown prince.

He was wildly cheered.

TO HOLD FUNERAL OF H. N. ROACH HERE

Body of Former Washington Man Will Be Buried in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

The funeral of Henry Neal Roach, at one time a resident of this city, and editor of Roach's Financial Facts, a Wall Street publication of New York city, will be held from the residence of his sister, Miss Emma R. Roach, 123 Euclid street northwest, at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The Rev. Father James F. Mackin, of St. Paul's Catholic Church, will officiate. Interment will be in Mt. Olivet Cemetery.

Mr. Roach was sixty-two years old, and died suddenly Thursday evening in New York city, where he resided. He was born in Washington, being the son of Edward N. Roach, formerly register of wills of the District of Columbia.

At the time of the civil war, Mr. Roach was captured after the battle of Bull Run, and imprisoned for months in the historic Libby prison. He obtained his freedom by an exchange of prisoners. When captured, he was assisting the wounded on the field of battle.

TIGHT COLLAR KILLS WHEN BUTTONED ON

Boston Man Dies After Struggling to Make Both Ends Meet.

BOSTON, Oct. 10.—Michael Tracey, a retired contractor, killed himself trying to button on a collar that was too tight.

Tracey lived at the Tremont Hotel. His wife bought him a box of new collars yesterday, and he started to put on one this morning. It was too small, and it took a hard struggle to get the two ends to meet over the button in front. Finally he succeeded, and turned to Mrs. Tracey, in another room, and said: "There, I've got it." Then he collapsed.

The medical examiner said struggling with the tight collar brought on heart failure.
