

Fair tonight and Friday.

NUMBER 6147.

WASHINGTON, THURSDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 5, 1908.

PRICE ONE CENT.

G. O. P. HOUSE MARGIN CUT BY DEMOCRATS

Prominent Standpat Leaders Fall by the Wayside Before the Opposition.

ONE OF THE VICTIMS IS COL. HEPBURN

Retirement Means Loss to High Tariff Forces—Charles B. Landis, Too, Is Retired.

REVISED LIST OF NEXT HOUSE

Total members.....	391
Probable Republican.....	218
Probable Democratic.....	173
Republican majority.....	45
Present Republican majority..	57

By JOHN SNURE.

Many of the prominent members of the House fell victims to the onslaughts of the Democrats last Tuesday.

While the Republicans remain in safe control of the House, with 218 members to 173 for the Democrats, a Republican plurality of 45, this fact did not prevent some of the leading figures on the Republican side from going down to defeat. Prominent figures on the Democratic side also were beaten.

Most conspicuous in the list of those that have been retired to private life is Col. William Peters Hepburn, of the Eighth Iowa district. The defeat of "Uncle Pete" was one of the surprises of the election. It was known that he had a hard fight on his hands and that his opponent, W. D. Jamieson, was making an earnest and effective canvass.

Had Many Fights.

At the same time Colonel Hepburn had been bitterly fought so often, and had so many times pulled through a winner, that most of his friends to Washington believed he would do so this time. It is likely this means that after serving in the House for the rest of his present term, Colonel Hepburn will never again re-enter public life, as he is now seventy-five years of age. In fact, yesterday was his seventy-fifth birthday, and he was compelled to celebrate it with the reception of returns indicating his defeat.

The fact that Colonel Hepburn will retire from Congress is important in several directions. It points to the increasing strength of the Cummins forces in Iowa. It means that a new chairman will have to be selected in the next Congress for that highly important committee of the House, Interstate and Foreign Commerce. It means, also, that the Republican high tariff forces in the House will be deprived of one of their staunchest members, at a time when they will need his services.

Plenty of Company.

Colonel Hepburn is the only Republican candidate for Congress from Iowa to be retired. He is not, however, without conspicuous company. The strength of the Democratic forces in Indiana, especially in Marion county, spelled disaster to Representative Jesse Overstreet, one of the ablest members on the Republican side of the House and one of the strongest members of the Cannon regime.

Mr. Overstreet has been conspicuous as the chairman of the House Committee on Postoffices and Postroads, and he has given able service to his party while acting in this capacity. Mr. Overstreet was beaten by a young lawyer, Charles A. Korby. He was beaten, moreover, not through any fault of his own, but because of the fact that the county administration in Marion county, which includes the city of Indianapolis, has been corrupt, and in exacting its vengeance on the Republicans for the performances of some of the county officials, the voters defeated Overstreet, who had protested in vain against his name being put on the county ticket.

Landis Goes Out.

Another surprise in Indiana was the defeat of Representative Charles B. Landis. Mr. Landis was defeated by

(Continued on Second Page.)

WEATHER REPORT.

Temperature has fallen decidedly from the Mississippi valley to the Atlantic coast, and the line of freezing weather extends this morning to southern Tennessee and the interior of North Carolina.

Fair weather is indicated for the middle Eastern and Southeastern States during the next thirty-six hours, with frost tonight in the south Atlantic and east Gulf States. During Friday temperature will rise slowly over the eastern portion of the country.

The winds along the middle Atlantic coast will be light westerly, becoming variable Friday, on the south Atlantic coast light to fresh northerly, and on the east Gulf coast light northerly.

Sleamers departing today for European ports will have fresh northerly winds, diminishing, and fair weather to the Grand Banks.

FORECAST FOR DISTRICT. For the District of Columbia, Delaware, Maryland, and Virginia, fair tonight with minimum temperature about 25 degrees. Friday fair with rising temperatures; light variable winds.

TEMPERATURE.
8 a. m.	29
9 a. m.	30
10 a. m.	31
11 a. m.	32
Noon	33
1 p. m.	34
2 p. m.	35
3 p. m.	36
4 p. m.	37
5 p. m.	38
6 p. m.	39
7 p. m.	40
8 p. m.	41
9 p. m.	42
10 p. m.	43
11 p. m.	44
12 a. m.	45
SUN TABLE.
Sun rises.....	6:30
Sun sets.....	4:32
TODAY'S TIDE TABLE.
High tides—5:12 a. m. and 5:36 p. m.
Low tides—11:44 a. m.

MEN WHO WILL PROBABLY BE IN TAFT'S CABINET

FRANK H. HITCHCOCK, To Be Postmaster General.

FRANK B. KELLOGG, To Be Attorney General.

WILLIAM LOEB, JR., To Be Secretary of the Navy.

C. P. TAFT ANXIOUS TO GO TO SENATE

Brother of President-Elect a Candidate for Foraker's Seat—So Is Keifer.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—That Charles P. Taft, half-brother of the President-elect, will be the next Senator from Ohio and that Theodore E. Burton will have to wait for the expiration of Charles Dick's term before he can get in, are facts strongly indicated here today.

For the place which will be made vacant by the exit of Joseph Benson Foraker there are many aspirants. Even Gen. J. Warren Keifer, now a member of the House, showed up here today to find out what treatment would be accorded his candidacy. His attitude was that of a man who knows his own worth, but doubts if the masses of the people have been so highly educated on the subject. A rumor also is in circulation today that Foraker himself is preparing a statement announcing that he is a candidate for re-election. No confirmation or denial of it could be gotten from him, but it hardly seems probable, as the State organization is in the hands of his enemies, and he would have no chance at all.

Were the Republican margin in the Legislature smaller than it is, he might be able to make trouble by holding the same seat. General Keifer's eye, however, is so large that his opportunity to make trouble in this way is nullified.

And Still Another. Still another who wants the place is Harry M. Daugherty, of Columbus, who has a large circle of friends throughout the State.

Arthur I. Vorys is prominently mentioned, but the general idea is now that Taft will want him in the Cabinet.

However, if Charles P. Taft decides he does not want the senatorship, Vorys could make a good run for it. But Charles P. Taft has a different eye that he will not deny its attractions. He dismisses the subject by saying:

Will Decide Later. "Well, that will have to be decided later. We can't tell what will happen in the next few weeks."

Representative Burton, backed by the legislative representation of Cuyahoga county, will be before the Legislature, but his labor is under the disadvantage of coming from the wrong section of the State, and it is natural to suppose that the Legislature will want him to wait until Dick's term expires, two years hence. He and Dick are from the same section. General Keifer's idea is that he can go before the Legislature with all the old Foraker following behind him, but the real fact is that the Foraker following, if it goes to anybody, will go to Daugherty.

Charles P. Taft is recognized as the strongest candidate in the field. He would have the solid support of the city of Cincinnati and would make a strong showing on the first ballot than anybody else in the field.

EVEN POOR LO HATES HIS MOTHER-IN-LAW

STANDING ROCK, S. D., Nov. 5.—Even the red man has trouble with his mother-in-law, as was shown by the suicide of Mike Ice, a full-blooded Sioux, one account of despondency caused by the interference of his wife's mother in his affairs. After a war of words during meal time, Ice went to another part of the room and blew his brains out with a rifle. He left a note telling of his troubles.

RULES COLOR LINE MUST NOT BE DRAWN

Must Be No Discrimination in District, Thomas' Opinion.

Hotels, restaurants, cafes, ice cream parlors, places where soda water is sold, and barber shops in the District will be compelled to serve colored persons in the same room and at the same price as white persons, according to an opinion of Corporation Counsel E. H. Thomas, submitted to the Commissioners today.

The opinion was called for as the result of a protest filed with the President and forwarded by him to the Commissioners by Dr. Robert W. Brown, of 2137 Eleventh street northwest, in which he alleges discrimination on account of color in the lunchroom of the new Union Station.

Represents 90,000. Dr. Brown declares that he represents 90,000 colored people in the District as well as the sentiment of all the colored people in the country in characterizing as an outrage this injustice, perpetrated on a helpless people, and in the shadow of the Capitol of this great and glorious nation.

Corporation Counsel Thomas says that there appears to be applicable to the situation section 3 of the act of the Legislative Assembly of June 20, 1872, which provides that the proprietors of the establishments above named in case of refusal to "sell or wait upon any respectable well-behaved person, without regard to race, color, or previous condition of servitude shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined $100 and shall forfeit his or her license."

(Continued on Eleventh Page.)

BRYAN LEADS TAFT IN MARYLAND VOTE

Count Is So Close That It Really Is Impossible to Tell Who Has State.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 5.—Unofficial returns from every county in the State, and from Baltimore city indicate that Maryland has gone for Bryan by a very small plurality.

The vote is so extremely close that it is possible the complexion of the State, so far as the lead of the electoral ticket is concerned, may be altogether changed by the discovery of an ordinarily slight inaccuracy in the given figures of a ward or district.

The most careful revision of the unofficial figures has been undertaken today with the aid of reports from each county of the State, and the wards of Baltimore city, and the net result is to show that Bryan leads in the vote by about 200 votes.

At noon today the official canvass of the county and city vote was begun. The returns of each precinct are to be carefully scanned by the officials, and they will make corrections of any clerical errors that creep into the transmission of the first reports from the polling places to the county and city authorities.

Slight differences from the unofficial figures always occur. A report today, however, was to the effect that one precinct in the thirteenth ward had been reported with something like 100 votes less than Taft polled. With the vote as close as it is, a matter of 100 ballots is of extraordinary consequence.

According to United States Attorney Victor G. Bloede, company, of Baltimore, ink manufacturer, was indicted with Van Dyck, January 1, 1908, and pleaded guilty some time ago, paying a fine of $5,000.

A letter from former Secretary of the Treasury Lyman J. Gage, was produced in court, showing that he had appointed a committee to inquire into the high price paid for black ink, of which a large quantity was used by the bureau.

Mr. Vanderlip, a member of the committee, went to Mr. Gage, in company with Van Dyck, who announced that he had discovered a new ink that met the requirements, and was cheap. But he declined to turn over the formula to the Government without compensation. Secretary Gage then gave it as his opinion that Mr. Van Dyck had a right to dispose of his patented formula for his own profit. This, Van Dyck then did.

According to United States Attorney Baker, Van Dyck accepted part cash payment, and part royalty from Bloede. Ten cents a pound was paid to Van Dyck until $24,000 had been paid. Then the royalty was reduced to 6 cents a pound.

Van Dyck was a member of the committee which passed upon his own ink, and which recommended that it be bought by the Government. Although Mr. Baker said Van Dyck apparently thought he acted within his rights in the matter, yet he was guilty of a technical violation of the law. In return for a plea of guilty he offered Van Dyck his recommendation to the court that only fine be imposed, and this was accepted.

Van Dyck is said to have received an immense fortune in royalties on his ink process and has retired from the Government service. His appearance in court today was unexpected except by the principals and the payment of the $20,000 fine closed the case.

SLATEMAKERS BUSY ON CABINET OF TAFT

President-Elect Will Make No Official Announcement at This Time.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 5.—When William Howard Taft goes into the White House on March 4 next, he will have following Cabinet:

SECRETARY OF STATE, ELIHU ROOT, OF NEW YORK.
SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY, GEORGE VON L MEYER, OF MASSACHUSETTS.
SECRETARY OF WAR, LUKE E. WRIGHT, OF TENNESSEE.
SECRETARY OF THE NAVY, WILLIAM LOEB, JR., OF NEW YORK.
SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR, JAMES R. GARFIELD, OF OHIO.
ATTORNEY GENERAL, FRANK B. KELLOGG, OF MINNESOTA.
POSTMASTER GENERAL, F. H. HITCHCOCK, OF MASSACHUSETTS.

SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE, JAMES WILSON, OF IOWA.
SECRETARY OF COMMERCE AND LABOR, OSCAR S. STRAUSS, OF NEW YORK.
Fred W. Carpenter, of California, will be the private secretary to the President. Mr. Carpenter has discharged with singular ability the duties of private secretary to Mr. Taft for eight years, and has a wide acquaintance among public men. He is popular and peculiarly well-fitted for the work.

It must be understood that Judge Taft has made no official announcement of the names of the men who will comprise his Cabinet. He refuses to do so today, and turned off the subject by laughingly saying:

I have three months to select a Cabinet. For the next two weeks I will keep away from the work. I am going to Hot Springs, Va., to play golf and rest. After that I will begin the work of Cabinet making."

Whig's Stay Short. From unofficial sources, however, it is learned that the new Cabinet will be as described at the beginning of this article. It is more than probable that General Wright will not remain more than a year as head of the War Department, if that long. He was selected by Roosevelt for that portfolio because of his knowledge of affairs in the Philippines, but he is a Democrat, and the fact that he is for Taft in politics does not lessen the poor political judgment that would be shown by retaining him in office indefinitely.

There is good reason to believe that Brig. Gen. Clarence Edwards will be the successor of General Wright. Edwards and Taft have long been close personal friends, and Taft thinks much of Edwards' ability as a business man and in military affairs.

Whom to serve for more than six or eight months as Secretary of Agriculture. He has declared his intention of going out of office as soon as he accomplishes his ambition of having a longer continuous Cabinet service than any man in the history of the country. He will do this in July, when he will pass the eleven-year mark that was reached by a Cabinet officer back in the days of Van Buren. Who will succeed him is not known, but the man most prominently mentioned for the place is Chester L. Long, of Kansas, who was beaten for the Senatorial nomination by Bristow, the man who won fame in the handling of the Postoffice Department scandal.

Vorys May Enter. Secretary Straus is the third man who will probably not serve for many months after Taft is inaugurated. He

(Continued on Second Page.)

ELECTIONS MEAN NATION IS BOUND TO MORE REFORM

Rooseveltism Will Be Administered to United States for Four Years by Man of the President's Choice.

FEW CHANGES IN THE OFFICIAL FAMILY

Big Stick Will Get a Rest for Four Years, However, and Statesmanship Will Be Wholly of a Constructive Nature—The Cause of Bryan's Defeat.

By J. C. WELLS.

Rooseveltism, administered by a man of Roosevelt's choice, will be the national policy for four years more.

In no department of the Government will there be any change of policy or of dominating influences. Everything will go forward as in the past. It is possible pretty accurately to calculate what may be expected, and what is perhaps quite as important—to be assured what does not need to be feared.

There will probably be less change of personnel than ever before in crossing over the line from one administration to another.

The Roosevelt policy with reference to appointments to the Supreme Court will continue.

The Cannon control of the lower house will be maintained, though the rules of that body may be somewhat revised.

The Aldrich-Hale domination of the Senate will not be shaken, though the death of Senator Allison has removed a most valued member of the ruling group, and the new Senators include a number of the decidedly radical persuasion.

The Cabinet makers are assuming that a strong part of the personnel of the Roosevelt household will gather about the Cabinet mahogany once more, and that the Cabinet will be practically a continuing body.

Stability is the established and recognized virtue of Republicanism. The results of this election peculiarly suggest the capacity of the party in this regard. Business will have all the advantage of certainty about what may be expected. There will be no occasion for misgivings, and reports from the bourses of the whole world, brought prompt testimony to the fact that this assurance is recognized and appreciated. Not only would it be possible for such a change to be accomplished with less suggestion of avulsion about it.

It is curious and interesting to note how this great party of administration maintains the balance of its own elements. For seven years, we have had a successful President, a successful Secretary of State, a successful Secretary of War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and Postroads, a successful Secretary of the War, a successful Secretary of the Navy, a successful Secretary of the Interior, a successful Secretary of Agriculture, a successful Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a successful Secretary of the Treasury, a successful Secretary of the Postoffice and