

MOORS ANNIHILATE ADVANCE COLUMN

Two Hundred Spanish Soldiers Wiped Out by Tribesmen.

MELILLA, Oct. 1.—Two hundred Spanish soldiers, headed by Gen. Diez Vicaris, today were wiped out by the Moors in a reconnaissance near Zelwan. The Spanish were caught in the trap set by the Moors when they abandoned Mt. Gurguru, and retired almost entirely from the peninsula of Melilla.

The Spanish forces occupied Mt. Gurguru without resistance. An attack on the ridges by the Moors, was made as soon as the Spaniards occupied the heights.

General Vicaris sent a reconnoitering column from the Gurguru ridge, southeast as far as Zelwan, without meeting a single tribesman. There, however, a strong force was stationed, and the Spaniards were fiercely attacked. Before the surprised troops could offer any effectual resistance, the Moors had wiped out the advance column of 200 men, among them General Vicaris.

The Spaniards retired to the shelter of the fortifications on the Melilla peninsula.

Your table linen has lost its lustre; do you know why?

Is it not because you have allowed your laundress to wash it with ordinary laundry soaps, which, being overstrong in alkali, "cut" the fabric and make linen look like cotton?

Use Ivory Soap and your linen troubles will cease.

No "free" alkali in it; no coloring matter; nothing but soap, soap that is 99 4/100 per cent pure.
