

WILL SPARE NONE IN COTTON INQUIRY

Attorney General Wickersham Indifferent as to Whom It Hurts.

BEGUN IN INTEREST OF CHEAPER FOOD

New York Brokers Attempt to Shield Employees Concerning Transactions on Exchange.

With the flat statement at the Department of Justice that the Attorney General instituted action against the New York cotton "pool" with indifference as to whom it might hurt, and with the broad intimation from the same source that further action may be taken to restrain similar gambling in other commodities, the Administration goes today a step further than it has yet done in its decision to do everything possible to reduce the cost of the necessities of life.

According to those who are close to the Administration, Mr. Wickersham is in possession of information which will lead to other suits similar to the one started against the great bull movement in cotton on the New York Cotton Exchange.

When James Patten, of Chicago, reported to be the generalissimo of the movement to boost the price of cotton, intimating that the action of the Department of Justice was a trick on the part of the "beards" to push down the price of cotton, he said nothing to hurt the feelings of Mr. Wickersham, and it was in reply to Patten's charge that the statement was made at the department today that Mr. Wickersham was determined to carry out the law, no matter from whom he got his information or whom it might hurt.

Corner Held Illegal. Never before in the history of the country has a similar action been taken by the Department of Justice, it is brought on the ground that it is unlawful for a group of men—such as Frank B. Hayne, William P. Brown, James Patten, and others, as mentioned in the present bull movement in cotton—to corner or attempt to corner by agreement all of a commodity in the country with a view to controlling its supply and its price.

It is well known in Washington that Mr. Taft is not only doing all he can to have legislation passed prohibiting gambling in grain and cotton futures, but that he is in favor of regulating as far as possible the present excesses of all sorts of gambling in stocks.

The action instituted by Wickersham yesterday indicates that he and the President are agreed upon a program which includes the decision to employ every opportunity afforded by the law in order to check the practices to which objection has been made, and especially to prevent such manipulation of the values of the necessities of life as inflict burdens upon the people.

Just what the action in the future will be could not be ascertained today. By the Department of Justice, it is in possession of much information which will probably be used in actions in the near future, nothing could be learned. Mr. Wickersham handles all such matters on the theory that they should be given no publicity until they are ready to be sprung for final action.

Disclosures Anticipated. The following is the statement given out by the Department of Justice explaining its action in regard to the bull movement in cotton.

"In connection with the discussion over the prevalent high prices of food and other commodities, the attention of the Attorney General has been directed to the alleged existence of certain pools and combinations operating corners in various commodities and their effect on interstate commerce.

"Information was laid before him indicating the fact that a combination had been formed between a number of operators to buy up all of the remaining unused raw cotton produced in the cotton States during the crop year 1909-1910.

"That as the result of the operations of this pool, the price of this cotton already has been advanced so largely in excess of the normal price that the cotton manufacturers and greatly reduced their output, rather than buy at this exorbitant price, throwing out of employment upward of 25 per cent of the cotton mill operators of the United States, thus resulting in the monopolization of an entire visible supply of raw cotton in the market and the diminution in the commerce in cotton goods.

"It is anticipated that interesting disclosures will be made of the composition and management of this combination."

closure, will be made of the composition and management of this combination."

Brokers Appear.
NEW YORK, April 18.—The members of the cotton exchange who were subpoenaed to appear before the Federal grand jury to testify in the suit of the Government against W. P. Brown and F. B. Hayne, of New Orleans; J. A. Patten, of Chicago, of Chicago, and E. P. Scales, of Texas, charged with conspiracy to advance the price of cotton futures in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, appeared on time today in the Federal building.

The witnesses were W. R. Craig, J. Temple Gwathmey, D. H. Miller, S. M. Weid, N. Carpenter, S. R. A. Springs, Morris Sellers, and E. A. Moyses. Most of these witnesses had with them books and accounts showing an agreement entered into in February 28 in the matter of cotton futures as required by the subpoena, especially as to May future. All of the witnesses were segregated in the grand jury room while the investigation was in progress. None of the witnesses consented to talk to the newspaper men.

The investigation here is under the direction of District Attorney Wise, upon directions from Attorney General Wickersham.

ROOSEVELT MADE POLITICAL CAPITAL

Hungarian Radicals Get Campaign Material From Presence of American.

BUDAPEST, April 18.—Theodore Roosevelt today is one of the most powerful factors in the political world in Hungary.

Although the "former President has spoken no word that might be construed as directly apply to Hungary's politics, the radicals have seized on his presence as campaign material in the general election which is keeping the entire country at fever heat.

Besides the radicals, who look upon the United States as a republic with love, many other classes and factions in Hungary hold that country in great esteem, the great army of Hungarians who have emigrated there forming an especially powerful tie, almost an idol.

Almost an Idol. The former President of that land, therefore, is little short of an idol in Hungary. The enthusiasm with which he has been received is one of the most remarkable demonstrations Europe has seen in years. And the radicals, even before his departure, are turning that to their own account in the struggle for supremacy.

Before Mr. Roosevelt's hotel this morning crowds close-packed blocked the street in each direction, the lines thragging out irregularly for squares.

The program today was one of comparative rest. It had been planned to give the former President, after yesterday's strenuous round, a glimpse of the country, taking him by special train to Baboia, where the state maintains an Arab breeding stud. The host was the minister of agriculture, with whom Mr. Roosevelt spent much time discussing the problems of America in developing the land and conserving resources, compared with the same problems in Europe, particularly Hungary.

Exchanges Anecdotes. The distinguished guest was greatly pleased with the prospect of inspecting the stud farm, and on the trip many anecdotes of horsemanship were recounted. Mr. Roosevelt matched tales of cowboy prowess against stories of the Hungarian riders.

At the farm the colonel met Count and Countess Szechenyi, nee Gladys Vanderbilt. Two hundred other prominent guests were present, all of whom took luncheon at the big country palace. Roosevelt spent an hour in driving over the estate, Superior riding finish. Regular price, 15c a yard. Total value, 52c. Sale price, 34 yds. for.

Little was planned for the day after the return from Baboia, beyond the dinner given by the premier, Count Khuen Von Hédervary, the closing function of Mr. Roosevelt's stay here. The most distinguished men of the nation were invited.

The start for Paris will be made at midnight.

CALL ON ROOSEVELT
COST ABBOT DEARLY

ROME, April 18.—Abbot Jansens, of the Benedictines, today sent to the Pope his resignation as secretary of the Sacred Congregation, accompanying it with a letter apologizing for his call on Theodore Roosevelt while the latter was here, after his break with the Vatican.

The resignation and the letter created a tremendous sensation here immediately on its announcement.

The arrival of a band of 100 American pilgrims today is given unusual interest by this renewal of the Roosevelt controversy.
